English Translation of Above

MOST HOLY FATHER: Francis Spellman, Archbishop of New York, prostrate at the feet of Your Holiness, humbly requests permission for the printing, in his Archdiocese, of an English translation of the authentic Collection of prayers published in 1938 under the title: Preces et pia Opera in favorem omnium christifidelium vel quorundam cœtuum personarum Indulgentiis ditata et opportune recognita.

June 14, 1941: The Sacred Penitentiary Apostolic, by virtue of the faculties given it by His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, hereby graciously grants the petition as set forth, provided that His Excellency, the petitioner, is sure of the fidelity of the translation. All to the contrary notwithstanding: By order of his Eminence.

FESTO IMMACULATAE CONCEPTIONIS B. M. V. 1943

In response to a petition of His Excellency, The Most Reverend Francis J. Spellman, D.D., Archbishop of New York, the Holy See, by a Rescript of the Sacred Penitentiary dated June 14, 1941, has authorized Benziger Brothers, Inc., to publish an English version of the work known as "PRECES ET PIA OPERA," issued by the Vatican Press in the year 1938.

THE SACRED PENITENTIARY APOSTOLIC

OFFICE OF INDULGENCES

DECREE

WHEREAS, on the one hand, the Collection published by the Sacred Congregation of Indulgences and Sacred Relics in the year 1898 has long been out of print; and on the other hand, numerous additional grants of indulgences have been added in recent years, particularly during the year of the Jubilee of our Redemption, to the similar Collection which appeared in the year 1928, many of the faithful, as well as priests and Bishops, have petitioned the Apostolic See to publish a new and authentic volume, which should gather together the various Papal grants of indulgences in such a form as to be a safe guide for the devotion of the universal Church.

When this matter was brought to the attention of the Supreme Pontiff, he instructed the undersigned Cardinal, the Major Penitentiary, to undertake the task, at the same time indicating the general rules and methods of procedure. The Holy Father's advice touched upon the following points: not only were the prayers and devotions enriched with indulgences to be collected into one volume, but the collection was to be published in a more convenient form and was to contain all the more recent grants of the Supreme Pontiffs; it was likewise to correspond to the new practice and the new prescriptions of this Office that have been introduced by the highest authority to serve as a norm for the doctrine of indulgences and its development in the present age.

Accordingly the Sacred Penitentiary Apostolic, in keeping with the instructions of the Holy Father, after long study and diligent labor, has collected and published in one volume the prayers and devotions indulgenced by the Supreme Pontiffs up to the present day. It includes those indulgences that have been granted in favor of all the faithful as well as those granted to certain classes of persons. The work has been done in exact accordance with the changes and principles laid down by the supreme authority.

In an audience granted to the undersigned Cardinal, the Major Penitentiary, on December 11 of this present year, our most holy Lord, Pius XI, by divine Providence, Pope, approved and confirmed this Collection as printed at the Vatican Press; he also abrogated all general grants of indulgences that are not set forth in this Collection and ordered that it should be received as the only authentic edition.

Anything to the contrary notwithstanding, even though deserving of special mention.

Given at Rome, from the Sacred Penitentiary Apostolic, on December 31, 1937.

PREFACE

1. This Collection includes general indulgences that have been granted by the Supreme Pontiffs for the whole world down to the end of the year 1937, either in favor of all the faithful or of certain groups of the faithful, for the gaining of which there is not required a blessing imparted by a priest, religious or secular (having the proper faculties), to religious articles, or a visit to some definite pious place, or enrollment in some pious sodality.

However, an appendix has been added containing indulgences granted for visiting certain pious places in Rome.

2. The prayers and pious practices with indulgences granted by the Supreme Pontiffs at the time and in the manner above mentioned, and which are now published with certain alterations, possess their indulgences, not in the old form, but in the new one; moreover, those which are not found in this Collection lose their indulgences.

3. The prayers have been published in the same language in which they were indulgenced; as to translations, canon 934, § 2 of the Code of Canon Law is to be observed.

4. The conditions ordinarily prescribed for gaining the plenary indulgences contained in this Collection and designated by the familiar phrase "under the usual conditions" are the following: confession, Communion, a visit to a church or public oratory, or even a semi-public oratory (in the case of those who may lawfully use the latter according to canon 929), and prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff. In cases, however, where all the aforesaid conditions are not required, those which are necessary are separately mentioned in the proper places.

5. As to the manner of observing the conditions required for gaining plenary indulgences, and as to the rules for gaining indulgences in general, canons 925-936 of the Code of Canon Law should be carefully studied.

6. The indulgences attached to religious exercises which consist of several acts to be performed on the same day, or on successive days, or at different times, such as triduums, novenas, etc., are gained only when all the acts have been performed and all the conditions fulfilled, unless otherwise stated, e. g., when it is stated that "on any one of the nine days, etc.", this or a similar expression is to be understood in the sense that the indulgences can be obtained on one or several of those days independently of the others.

7. Religious exercises are said to be performed publicly, only when they are held in common in churches or in public or semi-public oratories (in the case of those who may lawfully use the latter). In other cases they are understood to be performed privately.

8. This Collection contains only those grants of indulgences, of which authentic documents are preserved in the archives of the Sacred Penitentiary.

9. If any doubt arises, especially concerning the meaning of the grants or the conditions for gaining the indulgences, it is to be settled from this Collection, in addition to the general rules that govern this subject.

THE CANONS ON INDULGENCES*
TAKEN FROM THE CODE OF CANON LAW

Art. I. Of the Granting of Indulgences

Can. 911. All men are to value indulgences highly: that is to say, the remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sin even after its guilt has been forgiven, which ecclesiastical authority grants from the treasury of the Church in behalf of the living after the manner of an absolution, and in behalf of the dead after the manner of an intercession.

Can. 917. § 1. On the day of the Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed, all Masses enjoy the same privilege as if they were celebrated at a privileged altar.¹

§ 2. All the altars of a church are privileged during the Forty Hours' devotion.

Can. 919. § 1. . . .

§ 2. In publishing books, pamphlets, etc., in which grants of indulgences for various prayers or pious practices are set forth, the prescription of canon 1388 is to be observed.²

Can. 920. Those who have obtained from the Supreme Pontiff grants of indulgences for all the faithful are obliged, under pain of nullity of the favor obtained, to present authentic copies of these same grants to the Sacred Penitentiary.

Can. 921. § 1. A plenary indulgence granted for feasts of Our Lord Jesus Christ or for feasts of the Blessed Virgin Mary, is understood to be granted only for feasts which are found in the universal calendar.

§ 2. A plenary or partial indulgence granted for feasts of the Apostles, is understood to be granted only for the feasts of their nativity.

§ 3. A plenary indulgence granted as daily, either perpetually or for a certain period of time, to those who visit a certain church or public oratory, is to be understood in the sense that it can be gained on any day, but only once a year, by any one of the faithful, unless it is expressly stated otherwise in the decree.

Can. 922. Indulgences attached to feasts or solemn prayers, or the prayers of a novena, a seven days' devotion or a triduum, which are performed before or after a Feast or even during its Octave, are understood to be transferred to the day to which these feasts are lawfully transferred, if the transferred feast has an Office and a Mass without solemnity or external celebration and if the transference is made perpetually, or if the solemnity and external celebration of the feast are transferred either for a time or perpetually.

Can. 923. To gain an indulgence appointed for a particular day, if a visit to a church or oratory is required,³ this can be done from noon of the previous day up to midnight of the appointed day.

Can. 924. § 1. ...

§ 2. Indulgences attached to rosaries or other sacred objects cease only when the rosaries or other objects completely cease to exist or are sold.

Art. II. Of Acquiring Indulgences

Can. 925. § 1. In order that a person may be capable of gaining indulgences for himself, he must be baptized, not excommunicated, in the state of grace at least at the end of the prescribed works, and the subject of the grantor.

§ 2. Moreover, in order that one who is capable may actually gain the indulgences, he must have at least a general intention of acquiring them and must fulfil the prescribed works at the appointed time and in an appropriate manner according to the general sense of the grant.

Can. 926. A plenary indulgence is understood to be so granted that if one should be unable to gain it fully, he will nevertheless gain it partially, in keeping with the disposition that he has.

Can. 928. § 1. A plenary indulgence, unless it be otherwise expressly stated, can be gained only once a day, even though the prescribed work be performed several times.

§ 2. A partial indulgence, unless the contrary be expressly stated, can be gained frequently throughout the day, whenever the prescribed work is repeated.

Can. 929. The faithful of either sex who, in the pursuit of perfection, or for the purpose of training or education, or even for the sake of health, lead a community life in houses lacking a church or public chapel but established with the consent of the Ordinary, and likewise all persons who live there to wait upon them, whenever to gain an indulgence a visit is prescribed to some unspecified church or public oratory, can visit the chapel of their own house in which they lawfully fulfil their obligation of hearing Mass, provided that they duly perform the other works enjoined.

Can. 930. No one gaining an indulgence can apply it to others who are still living; but all indulgences granted by the Roman Pontiff, unless the contrary is evident, are applicable to the souls in purgatory.

Can. 931. § 1. The confession which may be required for gaining any particular indulgences can be made within the eight days which immediately precede the day to which the indulgences are appointed; and the Communion may take place on the previous day; or again both conditions may be satisfied within the following eight days.

§ 2. Likewise, to gain indulgences for pious exercises conducted for three days or for a week, etc., the confession and Communion may be made within the eight days immediately following the close of the exercises.

§ 3. The faithful who are accustomed, unless lawfully hindered, to approach the sacrament of penance at least twice a month, or to receive Holy Communion in the state of grace and with a right and devout intention daily, although they may abstain from it once or twice during the week, can gain all indulgences, even without the actual confession which would otherwise be necessary for gaining them, except the indulgences of an ordinary or extraordinary jubilee, or those granted in the form of a jubilee.

Can. 932. An indulgence cannot be gained by a work to which one is already bound by law or precept, unless it is expressly stated otherwise in the grant of the same; one, however, who performs a work imposed upon him as a sacramental penance and enriched with indulgences, may at one and the same time fulfil his penance and gain the indulgences.

Can. 933. To one and the same thing or place several indulgences can be attached for various reasons; but by one and the same work, to which by different titles various indulgences are attached, one cannot gain these several indulgences, unless the required work be confession or Communion, or unless the contrary be explicitly stated.

Can. 934. § 1. If, in order to gain certain indulgences, prayer in general according to the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff⁴ be prescribed, merely mental prayer does not suffice; the vocal prayer, however, may be selected at the choice of the faithful, unless a particular prayer is assigned.

§ 2. If a particular prayer should be assigned, the indulgences can be gained in whatever language it may be recited, provided that the translation be officially correct, either by virtue of a declaration of the Sacred Penitentiary, or of one of the local Ordinaries of the place where the language into which the prayer has been translated is commonly used; but the indulgences cease entirely if there has been any addition, omission or interpolation.⁵

§ 3. To gain the indulgences it is sufficient to recite the prayer alternately with a companion, or to follow it in one's mind while it is being recited by another.⁶

Can. 935. The pious exercises enjoined for gaining indulgences can be commuted into others by any confessor, in behalf of those who are prevented from performing them by some lawful impediment.

Can. 936. Deaf-mutes can gain indulgences attached to public prayers, if, in company with others of the faithful who are praying in the same place, they raise their hearts and minds to God; and, if there is question of private prayers, it is enough for them to repeat them in their minds, or to express them by signs, or even merely to run over them with their eyes.

² Can. 1388. 1. No books of indulgences, summaries, pamphlets, leaflets, etc., in which grants of indulgences are contained, are to be published without the leave of the local Ordinary.

2. Moreover, the express permission of the Apostolic See is required to make it lawful to publish in any language, not only the authentic Collection of prayers and devotions to which the Apostolic See has attached indulgences, but even a list of the apostolic indulgences, or a summary of indulgences, either previously made but never approved, or now for the first time assembled from various grants.

³ The condition of "visiting a church, or public or semi-public oratory (in the case of those who may lawfully use the latter)" is fulfilled by entering the church or oratory with at least a general or implicit intention of honoring God Himself or His Saints, and making use of some form of prayer, or indeed the prescribed form, if any has been imposed by the grantor of the indulgence, or any other form, vocal or even mental, in accordance with the piety and devotion of the individual (S. P. Ap., Sept. 20, 1933; Acta Ap. Sedis, vol. xxv, p. 446).

The requisites for a visit to a church or oratory are to be observed likewise in visiting a sacred image or an altar.

⁴ a) The phrase "praying according to the intentions of the Sovereign Pontiff" is readily fulfilled by adding to the other prescribed works the recitation of one Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be to the Father, the faithful being left entirely free, according to the rule of can. 934, § 1, to recite any other prayer in keeping with each one's affection and devotion towards the Roman Pontiff (S. P. Ap., Sept. 20, 1933; Acta Ap. Sed., vol. xxv, p. 446).

b) In order to gain plenary indulgences which are to be obtained as often as the prescribed work is performed, and for which a visit to some church is enjoined, it is necessary and sufficient to say at least six times at each visit Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be to the Father (S. P. Ap., July 5, 1930; Acta Ap. Sed., vol. xxii, p. 363).

⁶ Indulgences wholly cease because of any addition, omission or interpolation which alter the prayers substantially (S. P. Ap., Nov. 26, 1934; Acta Ap. Sed., vol. xxvi, p. 643).

⁶ a) Indulgences attached to invocations and so-called ejaculations, can be gained even by reciting them merely mentally (S. P. Ap., Dec. 7, 1933; Acta Ap. Sed., vol. xxvi, p. 35).

b) Whenever, either on account of manual labor or some other reasonable cause, there arises an impediment to holding in one's hand a rosary or crucifix, which has been blessed to enable the faithful thereby to gain the indulgences either of the Holy Rosary or of the Way of the Cross, these same indulgences may be gained, provided that, during the aforesaid recitation, the faithful have upon their person, in some manner or other, a blessed rosary or crucifix (S. P. Ap., Nov. 9, 1933; Acta Ap. Sed., vol. xxv, p. 502).

To the King of ages, immortal and invisible, the only God, be honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen (Roman Breviary).

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this ejaculation is recited devoutly every day for a month (S. P. Ap., June 7, 1921 and Dec. 9, 1932).

Regi sæculórum immortáli et invisíbili, soli Deo honor et glória in sæcula sæculórum. Amen (ex Breviario Romano).

2

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts: the heavens and the earth are full of Thy glory (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., June 6, 1769 and June 26, 1770; S. P. Ap., March 23, 1936).

3

With all our heart and voice, we acknowledge, we praise and we bless Thee, God the Father unbegotten, Thee, the only-begotten Son, Thee, the Holy Ghost the Paraclete, O holy and undivided Trinity (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, when this prayer is devoutly repeated every day for a month (S. C. Ind., July 2, 1816; S. P. Ap., Sept. 28, 1936).

Te Deum Patrem ingénitum, te Fílium unigénitum, te Spíritum Sanctum Paráclitum, sanctam et indivíduam Trinitátem, toto corde et ore confitémur, laudámus atque benedicimus (ex Missali Romano).

4

May the most just, the most high and the most lovable will of God be in all things done, praised and evermore exalted.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if the daily devout recitation of this ejaculation is continued for a month.

A plenary indulgence at the hour of death, to be gained by those who have often recited it during life and who, after confession and Communion or at least an act of contrition, shall invoke the Name of Jesus, orally if possible, or at least in their heart, and accept death from the hand of the Lord with resignation as being the wages of sin (S. C. Ind., May 19, 1818; S. P. Ap., Dec. 9, 1932).

Fiat, laudétur atque in ætérnum superexaltétur iustíssima, altíssima et amabilíssima volúntas Dei in ómnibus.

My God and my all.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., May 4, 1888; S. P. Ap., June 15, 1935).

Deus meus et ómnia.

My God, grant that I may love Thee, and let the only reward of my love be to love Thee more and more.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., March 15, 1890; S. P. Ap., March 23, 1936).

7

My God, my only Good, Thou art all mine; may I be always Thine.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this invocation is said daily for a month with pious dispositions (Brief, March 13, 1902, exhib. March 17, 1902).

8

Blessed be the Name of the Lord!

An indulgence of 500 days, as often as this ejaculation is devoutly recited upon hearing blasphemies against God (S. C. Ind., Nov. 28, 1903; S. P. Ap., Dec. 9, 1932).

9

My God, I give Thee thanks for what Thou givest, and for what Thou takest away; Thy will be done.

An indulgence of 300 days (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, May 29, 1906, exhib. June 28, 1922; S. P. Ap., May 22, 1934).

My God, make us to be of one mind in the truth and of one heart in charity.

An indulgence of 300 days (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, May 16, 1908, exhib. May 30, 1908).

11

Teach me, O Lord, to do Thy will, for Thou art my God (Psalm 142, 10).

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, when the daily recitation of this invocation is continued for a month (S. P. Ap., Jan. 20, 1921 and Oct. 4, 1933).

Doce me, Dómine, fácere voluntátem tuam, quia Deus meus es Tu (Ps. CXLII, 10).

a) O Most Holy Trinity, I adore Thee who art dwelling by Thy grace within my soul.

b) O Most Holy Trinity, who art dwelling by Thy grace within my soul, make me love Thee more and more.

c) O Most Holy Trinity, who art dwelling by Thy grace within my soul, sanctify me more and more.

d) Abide with me, O Lord, be Thou my true joy.

An indulgence of 300 days for each of the above prayers even when recited separately (S. P. Ap., April 26, 1921 and Oct. 23, 1928).

a) O sanctíssima Trínitas, adóro te habitátem per grátiam tuam in ánima mea.

b) O sanctíssima Trínitas, hábitans per grátiam tuam in ánima mea, fac ut magis ac magis amem te.

c) O sanctíssima Trínitas, hábitans per grátiam tuam in ánima mea, magis magisque sanctífica me.

d) Mane mecum, Dómine, sis verum meum gáudium.

13

My God, pour forth Thy blessings and Thy mercies upon all persons and upon all souls in purgatory for whom, by reason of charity, gratitude or friendship, I am bound or desire to pray. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (Brief, Dec. 13, 1922).

O God, be merciful to me, the sinner (Luke 18, 13).

An indulgence of 500 days (S. P. Ap., Jan. 25, 1923 and March 23, 1936).

15

O God, Thou art all-powerful, make me a saint (St. Alphonsus M. de' Liguori).

An indulgence of 500 days (Brief, Jan. 26, 1924; S. P. Ap., Feb. 12, 1934).

a) Holy God, Holy Strong One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us.
 b) To Thee be praise, to Thee be glory, to Thee be thanksgiving through endless ages, O Blessed Trinity (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 500 days for each invocation even when recited separately.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if either ejaculation is recited daily with devotion for an entire month (Brief, Feb. 13, 1924; S. P. Ap., Dec. 9, 1932).

a) Sanctus Deus, Sanctus fortis, Sanctus immortalis, miserere nobis.
 b) Tibi laus, tibi glória, tibi gratiarum áctio in sæcula sempitérna, o beáta Trínitas (ex Missali Romano).

17

Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving, honor, might and power be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen (Apocalypse 7, 12).

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, for the devout repetition of this ejaculation daily for a month (S. P. Ap., March 20, 1931).

Benedíctio, et cláritas, et sapiéntia et gratiárum
 B áctio, honor, virtus et fortitúdo Deo nostro in sæcula sæculórum. Amen (Apoc., VII, 12).

Keepest me, O Lord, as the apple of Thine eye; beneath the shadow of Thy wings protect me (Psalm 16, 8).

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, when this invocation is repeated with devotion every day for a month (S. P. Ap., Nov. 22, 1931).

Custódi me, Dómine, ut pupíllam óculi; sub umbra alárum tuárum prótege me (Ps. XVI, 8).

Into Thy hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit (Psalm 30, 6).

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, when the invocation has been devoutly recited every day for a month (S. P. Ap., Jan. 20, 1932).

In manus tuas, Dómine, comméndo spíritum meum (Ps. XXX, 6).

20

O God, come unto my assistance: O Lord, make haste to help me (Psalm 69, 2).

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, provided that this devout invocation is recited daily for a month (S. P. Ap., April 28, 1933).

Deus, in adiutórium meum inténde: Dómine, ad adiuvándum me festína (Ps. LXIX, 2).

21

Vouchsafe, O Lord, this day (or this night) to keep us without sin (Ambrosian Hymn).

The faithful, who devoutly recite the above invocation morning or evening, are granted:

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if they devoutly repeat this invocation every day for a month (S. P. Ap., June 15, 1934).

Dignáre, Dómine, die isto (vel nocte ista) sine peccáto nos custodíre (ex Hymno Ambrosiano).

Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies (Psalm 58, 2).

An indulgence of 500 days (S. P. Ap., Nov. 22, 1934).

Eripe me, Dómine, de inimícis meis (Ps. LVIII, 2).

23

O Lord, reward us not according to our sins which we have done, neither according to our iniquities (Psalm 102, 10).

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this invocation is said devoutly every day for an entire month (S. P. Ap., Feb. 10, 1935).

Dómine, non secúndum peccáta nostra quæ féci-mus nos, neque secúndum iniquitátes nostras retríbuas nobis (Ps. CII, 10).

O Lord, remember not our former iniquities, and be merciful to our sins for Thy Name's sake (Psalm 78, 8-9).

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this invocation is said daily for a month with devotion (S. P. Ap., Oct. 4, 1936).

Dómine, ne memíneris iniquitátum nostrárum antiquárum et propítius esto peccátiis nostris propter nomen tuum (Ps. LXXVIII, 8-9).

O praise the Lord, all ye nations: praise Him, all ye peoples.

For His mercy is confirmed upon us: and the truth of the Lord remaineth for ever (Psalm 116).

An indulgence of 300 days.

An indulgence of three years, if this prayer is said publicly.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, when it has been repeated with devotion daily for the entire month (S. P. Ap., Dec. 22, 1936).

Laudáte Dóminum, omnes gentes; laudáte eum, omnes pópuli: quóniam confirmáta est super nos misericórdia eius et véritas Dómini manet in ætérnum (Ps. CXVI).

II

ACTS OF THE THEOLOGICAL VIRTUES AND OF CONTRITION

26

The faithful who make acts of the theological virtues as well as the act of contrition, using any formula set forth in catechisms approved by lawful ecclesiastical authority, may obtain:

An indulgence of three years for each of the aforesaid acts;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if they recite any of the aforesaid acts daily for an entire month;

A plenary indulgence at the hour of death, if they have been accustomed to make these acts frequently during life and moreover, after confession and Communion or at least being contrite, they shall pronounce the Name of Jesus with their lips if possible, or at least in their heart, and accept death patiently from the hand of God as the wages of sin (S. C. Ind., Jan. 28, 1756; S. P. Ap., Feb. 17, 1932).

My God, I believe in Thee, I hope in Thee, I love Thee above all things with all my soul, with all my heart and with all my strength; I love Thee because Thou art infinitely good and worthy of being loved; and because I love Thee, I repent with all my heart of having offended Thee; have mercy on me, a sinner. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., Nov. 21, 1885; S. P. Ap., March 23, 1936).

Deus meus, credo in te, spero in te, amo te super ómnia ex tota ánima mea, ex toto corde meo, ex totis víribus meis: amo te quia es infiníte bonus et dignus qui améris; et quia amo te, me páenitet ex toto corde te offendísse: miserére mihi peccatóri. Amen.

Lord, increase our faith (Luke 17, 5)

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if the invocation is devoutly recited every day for a month (S. C. Ind., March 20, 1908; S. P. Ap., April 15, 1935).

Dómine, adáuge nobis fidem (Luc. XVII, 5)

29

My God, I love Thee.

An indulgence of 300 days (Brief, Dec. 30, 1919).

30

I believe in Thee, I hope in Thee, I love Thee, I adore Thee, O Blessed Trinity, one God; have mercy on me now and at the hour of my death and save me.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., June 2, 1921).

In te credo, in te spero, te amo, te adóro, beáta Trínitas unus Deus, miserére mei nunc et in hora mortis meæ et salva me.

31

Almighty and everlasting God, give unto us an increase of faith, hope and charity; and, that we may deserve to obtain that which Thou dost promise, make us to love that which Thou dost command. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of five years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, when the daily recitation of this prayer is continued for a month (S. P. Ap., Nov. 22, 1934).

Omnípotens sempitérne Deus, da nobis fidei, spei et caritátis augméntum; et, ut mereámur ássequi quod promíttis, fac nos amáre quod præcipis. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

III

ACTS OF ADORATION AND THANKSGIVING FOR THE BENEFITS WHICH ACCRUE TO MANKIND FROM THE INCARNATION OF THE SON OF GOD

32

Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, behold us prostrate in Thy divine presence. We humble ourselves profoundly and beg of Thee the forgiveness of our sins.

I. We adore Thee, Almighty Father, and with hearts overflowing we thank Thee that Thou hast given us Thy divine Son Jesus to be our Redeemer, and that He hath bequeathed Himself to us in the most august Eucharist even to the end of the world, revealing unto us the wondrous love of His Heart in this mystery of faith and love.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

II. O Word of God, dear Jesus our Redeemer, we adore Thee and with hearts overflowing we thank Thee for having taken human flesh upon Thee and become for our redemption both Priest and Victim in the sacrifice of the Cross, a sacrifice which, through the exceeding love of Thy Sacred Heart, Thou dost renew upon our altars at every moment. O High Priest, O divine Victim, give us the grace to honor Thy holy sacrifice in the most adorable Eucharist with the homage of Mary most holy and of all Thy holy Church, triumphant, suffering and militant. We offer ourselves wholly to Thee; of Thine infinite goodness and mercy do Thou accept our offering, unite it to Thine own and grant us Thy blessing.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

III. O divine Spirit the Paraclete, we adore Thee and with hearts overflowing we give Thee thanks that Thou hast, with such great love for us, wrought the ineffable blessing of the Incarnation of the Word of God, a blessing which is being continually extended and enlarged in the most august Sacrament of the Eucharist. Ah, by this adorable mystery of the love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, do Thou grant unto us and all poor sinners Thy holy grace. Pour forth Thy holy gifts upon us and upon all redeemed souls, and in an especial manner upon the visible Head of the Church, the supreme Roman Pontiff, upon all Cardinals, Bishops and Pastors of souls, upon priests and all other ministers of Thy sanctuary. Amen.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

An indulgence of 3 years (S. C. Ind., Mar. 22, 1905; S. P. Ap., Dec. 9, 1932).

I adore Thee O God, I count myself as nothing before Thy divine Majesty. Thou alone art Being, Life, Truth, Beauty and Goodness. I glorify Thee, I praise Thee, I give Thee thanks and I love Thee, all helpless and unworthy as I am, in union with Thy dear Son, Jesus Christ, our Saviour and our Brother, in the merciful kindness of His Heart and through His infinite merits. I desire to serve Thee, to please Thee, to obey Thee and to love Thee always, in union with Mary Immaculate, Mother of God and our Mother, loving also and serving my neighbor for the love of Thee.

Wherefore give me Thy Holy Spirit, to enlighten me, to correct me and to guide me in the way of Thy commandments and in all perfection, the while I look for the happiness of heaven, where we shall glorify Thee for ever and ever. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days once a day (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, Feb. 28, 1906, exhib. April 18, 1906; S. P. Ap., April 18, 1933).

IV

PIOUS PRACTICES

34

The faithful who recite devoutly three times the doxology "Glory be to the Father" etc., first in the morning, and at noon and in the evening, with the intention of giving thanks to the Most Holy Trinity for the excellent gifts and privileges granted to the B. V. Mary, may gain:

An indulgence of 500 days for each recitation corresponding to each of the aforesaid parts of the day.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if they perform the threefold recitation daily for a month with a devout heart (S. C. Ind., July 11, 1815; S. P. Ap., March 23, 1936).

35

The faithful who devoutly offer any prayers in honor of the Most Holy Trinity with the intention of continuing them for nine successive days, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years once each day;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions at the end of the novena (S. C. Ind., Aug. 8, 1847; S. P. Ap., Mar. 18, 1932).

V

36

Almighty and everlasting God, who hast given unto us Thy servants grace by the confession of the true faith to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of Thy divine Majesty to worship the Unity; we beseech Thee, that by our steadfastness in this same faith, we may evermore be defended from all adversities. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this collect is said devoutly every day for a month (S. C. Ind., July 2, 1816; S. P. Ap., March 23, 1936).

Omnípotens sempitérne Deus, qui dedísti fámulis tuis in confessióne veræ fidei, ætérnæ Trinitátis glóriam agnóscere, et in poténtia maiestátis adoráre Unitátem: quæsumus, ut eiúsdem fidei firmitáte ab ómnibus semper muniámur advérsis. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

Of Thy tender mercy, we beseech Thee, O Lord, loose the bonds of our sins, and through the intercession of Mary, the blessed and ever-Virgin Mother of God, together with that of Saint Joseph and Thy blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, and of all Thy Saints, keep us Thy servants and our dwelling places in all holiness; cleanse from sin and endue with virtue all those who are joined to us by kindred, affinity and friendship; grant unto us peace and safety; remove far from us our enemies, both visible and invisible; repress all our carnal desires; grant us wholesome air; bestow Thy charity upon our friends and enemies; guard Thy city; preserve our Pontiff N.; defend all prelates and princes and Thine entire Christian people from every adversity. Let Thy blessing be evermore upon us, and do Thou grant unto all the faithful departed rest everlasting. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, provided that the devout recitation of this prayer be continued daily for a month (Leo XII, Rescript in his own hand, July 9, 1828; S. P. Ap., Dec. 9, 1932).

Pietáte tua, quæsumus Dómine, nostrórum solve víncula peccatórum, et intercedénte beáta sempérque Vírgine Dei Genitríce María cum beáto Ioseph ac beáteis Apóstolis tuis Petro et Paulo et ómnibus Sanctis, nos fámulos tuos et loca nostra in omni sanctitáte custódi; omnes consanguinitáte, afinitáte ac familiaritáte nobis coniúctos a vítiis purga, virtútibus illústra; pacem et salútem nobis tríbue; hostes visíbiles et invisíbiles rémove; carnália desidéria repélle: áërem salúbrem indúlge; amícis et inimícis nostris caritátem largíre; Urbem tuam custódi: Pontíficem nostrum N. consérva; omnes Prælátos, Príncipes cunctúmque pópulum christiánum ab omni adversitáte defénde. Benedíctio tua sit super nos semper, et ómnibus fidélibus defúntis réquiem ætérnam concéde. Amen.

O Lord Omnipotent, who permittest evil that Thou mayest draw good therefrom, give ear to our humble petitions, whereby we beg of Thee the grace of being faithful unto death, evermore conforming ourselves to Thy most holy will.

Receive, O Lord, all my liberty. Take my memory, my understanding, and my entire will. Whatsoever I have or hold, Thou hast given it; I give it all back to Thee and commit it wholly to be governed by Thy will. Thy love and Thy grace give unto me, and I am rich enough and ask for nothing more (St. Ignatius Loyola).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this act of oblation is made daily with a devout spirit for an entire month (S. C. Ind., May 26, 1883; S. P. Ap., Dec. 4, 1932).

Súscipe, Dómine, univérsam meam libertátem. Accipe memóriam, intelléctum atque voluntátem omnem. Quidquid hábeo vel possídeo mihi largítus es: id tibi totum restítuo ac tuæ prorsus voluntáti trado gubernándum. Amórem tui solum cum grátia tua mihi dones, et dives sum satis, nec aliud quidquam ultra posco (S. Ignatius de Loyola).

40

Omnipotence of the Father, help my frailty and save me from the depths of misery. Wisdom of the Son, direct all my thoughts, words and deeds.

Love of the Holy Ghost, be Thou the source of all the operations of my mind, that they may ever be conformed to God's good pleasure.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., March 15, 1890; S. P. Ap., Sept. 12, 1936).

Omnipoténtia Patris, ádiuva fragilitátem meam et e profúndo misériæ éripe me.

Sapiéntia Fílii, dírige cogitatiónes, verba et actiões meas omnes.

Amor Spíritus Sancti, esto cunctárum ánimæ meæ operatiónum princípium, quo iúgiter sint divíno benelácito confórmes.

41

O Lord our God, we offer Thee our hearts united in the strongest and most sincere love of brotherhood; we pray that Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament may be the daily food of our souls and bodies; that Jesus may be established as the center of our affections, even as He was for Mary and Joseph. Finally, O Lord, may sin never disturb our union on earth; and may we be eternally united in heaven with Thee and Mary and Joseph and with all Thy Saints. Amen.

Into Thy hands, O Lord, and into the hands of Thy holy Angels, I commit and entrust this day my soul, my relations, my benefactors, my friends and enemies, and all Thy Catholic people. Keep us, O Lord, through the day, by the merits and intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary and of all Thy Saints, from all vicious and unruly desires, from all sins and temptations of the devil, and from sudden and unprovided death and the pains of hell. Illuminate my heart with the grace of Thy Holy Spirit; grant that I may ever be obedient to Thy commandments; suffer me not to be separated from Thee, O God, who livest and reignest with God the Father and the same Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen (St. Edmund).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, for the daily devout repetition of this prayer for a month (S. P. Ap., May 27, 1921 and Mar. 28, 1934).

Ivow and consecrate to God all that is in me: my memory and my actions to God the Father; my understanding and my words to God the Son; my will and my thoughts to God the Holy Ghost; my heart, my body, my tongue, my senses and all my sorrows to the sacred Humanity of Jesus Christ, "who was contented to be betrayed into the hands of wicked men and to suffer the torment of the Cross" (St. Francis de Sales).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this act of oblation is devoutly repeated every day for a month (S. P. Ap., Sept. 22, 1922 and May 12, 1934).

In order that I may be a living act of perfect love, I offer myself as a whole burnt offering to Thy tender love, beseeching Thee to consume me continually, letting my soul overflow with the floods of infinite tenderness that are found in Thee, that so I may become a martyr of Thy love, O my God! Let this martyrdom make me ready to appear before Thee and at last cause me to expire; let my soul cast itself without delay into the everlasting arms of Thy merciful love. With every beat of my heart I desire, O my dearly Beloved, to renew this offering an infinite number of times, until that day when the shadows shall vanish and I shall be able to retell my love in an eternal face-to-face with Thee! (St. Theresa of the Child Jesus).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this act of oblation is repeated devoutly every day for a month (S. P. Ap., July 31, 1923 and Dec. 23, 1935).

45

Most Holy Trinity, Godhead indivisible, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, our first beginning and our last end, since Thou hast made us after Thine own image and likeness, grant that all the thoughts of our minds, all the words of our tongues, all the affections of our hearts and all our actions may be always conformed to Thy most holy will, to the end that after having seen Thee here below in appearances and in a dark manner by the means of faith, we may come at last to contemplate Thee face-to-face in the perfect possession of Thee for ever in paradise. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years (S. P. Ap., June 8, 1934 and June 1, 1936).

Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we may so please Thy Holy Spirit by our earnest entreaties, that we may by His grace both be freed from all temptations and merit to receive the forgiveness of our sins. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of this prayer throughout a month (S. P. Ap., Nov. 22, 1934).

Concède, quæsumus, omnipotens Deus, sanctum nos Spíritum votis promereri sèdulis, quatenus eius grátia et ab ómnibus liberémur tentationibus, et peccatórum nostrórum indulgéntiam percípere mereámur. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

Lord God Almighty, who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day, defend us in the same by Thy mighty power, that this day we may fall into no sin, but that all our words may so proceed, and all our thoughts and actions may be so directed as to do always that which is just in Thy sight. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Breviary).

The faithful who recite this prayer devoutly in the morning may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if they persevere in its devout recitation for a month (S. P. Ap., Oct. 15, 1935).

Domine Deus omnipotens, qui ad principium huius diæi nos pervenire fecisti: tua nos hodie salva virtute; ut in hac die ad nullum declinemus peccatum, sed semper ad tuam iustitiam faciendam nostra procedant eloquia, dirigantur cogitationes et opera. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen (ex Breviario Romano).

48

Visit, we beseech Thee, O Lord, this habitation, and drive far from it all snares of the enemy; let Thy holy Angels dwell herein, to preserve us in peace; and let Thy blessing be always upon us. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Breviary).

The faithful who recite this prayer in the evening with a spirit of devotion may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if they continue to recite the same for a month (S. P. Ap., July 16, 1936).

Visita, quæsumus Domine, habitationem istam, et omnes insidias inimici ab ea longe repelle: Angeli tui sancti habitent in ea, qui nos in pace custodiant; et benedictio tua sit super nos semper. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen (ex Breviario Romano).

CHAPTER II

GOD THE FATHER

I

INVOCATION

49

Eternal Father, by the Most Precious Blood of Jesus Christ, glorify His most holy Name, according to the desires of His adorable Heart.

An indulgence of 300 days, if this invocation is recited to make reparation for blasphemies uttered against the most holy Name of Jesus.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions when said devoutly every day for an entire month (S. C. Ind. Jan. 27, 1908; S. P. Ap., July 30, 1936).

II

PRAYERS

50

O Father of mercies, from whom cometh all that is good, I offer my humble petitions unto Thee through the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, Thy dearly beloved Son, our Lord and Redeemer, in whom Thou art always well-pleased and who loves Thee so much; vouchsafe to grant me the grace of a lively faith, a firm hope and an ardent charity toward Thee and toward my neighbor. Grant me also the grace to be truly penitent for all my sins together with a firm purpose of never offending Thee again; that so I may be enabled to live always according to Thy divine good-pleasure, to do Thy most holy will in all things with a generous and willing heart, and to persevere in Thy love even to the end of my life. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years (S. C. Ind., April 21, 1818; S. P. Ap., March 23, 1936).

O Pater misericordiárum, fons omnis boni, te supplex exóro per sacratíssimum tuíque amantíssimum Cor Iesu dilectíssimi Fílii tui, Dómini et Redemptóris nostri, in quo tibi semper bene compláces, dignáre concédere mihi grátiam vivæ fídei, firmæ spei et ardéntis caritátis erga te et próximum meum: ínsuper grátiam vere doléndi de ómnibus peccátis meis una cum firmíssimo propósito te in pósterum numquam offendéndi, ut secúndum divínium beneplácitum tuum semper vívere, voluntátem tuam sanctíssimam corde magno et ánimo volénti in ómnibus adimplére, et in amóre tuo usque ad finem vitæ meæ perseveráre váleam. Amen.

O holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God, for the sake of Thy bounty and that of Thy Son, who for me endured suffering and death; for the sake of the most excellent holiness of His Mother and the merits of all the Saints, grant unto me a sinner, unworthy of all Thy blessings, that I may love Thee only, may ever thirst for Thy love, may have continually in my heart the benefits of Thy passion, may acknowledge my own wretchedness and may desire to be trampled upon and be despised by all men; let nothing grieve me save guilt. Amen (St. Bonaventure).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, when this prayer is said devoutly every day for a month (Pius IX, Rescript in his own hand, April 11, 1874; S. P. Ap., Dec. 13, 1932).

Dómine sancte, Pater omnípotens, ætérne Deus, propter tuam largitátem et Fílii tui, qui pro me sustínuit passiónem et mortem, et Matris eius excellentíssimam sanctitátem, atque ómnium Sanctórum mérita, concéde mihi peccatóri, et omni tuo beneficio indígno, ut te solum díligam, tuum amórem semper sítiam, beneficio passiónis contínuo in corde hábeam, meam misériam recognóscam, et ab ómnibus conculcári et contémni cúpiam; nihil me contrístet nisi culpa. Amen (S. Bonaventura).

52

O God, who in the glorious Transfiguration of Thine only-begotten Son didst confirm the mysteries of faith by the witness of the Fathers, and in wondrous wise didst foretoken the perfect adoption of sons by the voice descending from the shining cloud: mercifully grant unto us to be made co-heirs with the very King of glory and bestow upon us a partaking of His glory. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, when this collect has been devoutly repeated every day for a month (S. C. Ind., Dec. 14, 1889; S. P. Ap., March 26, 1936).

Deus, qui fidei sacraménta, in Unigéniti tui gloriósa Transfiguratióne, patrum testimonio roborásti, et adoptiónem filiórum perféctam, voce delápsa in nube lúcida, mirabíliter præsignásti; concéde propítius, ut ipsíus Regis glóriæ nos coherédes effíciat et eíusdem glóriæ tríbuas esse consórtes. Per eúndem Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the sacrifice wherein Thy dear Son Jesus offered Himself upon the Cross and which He now renews upon this altar, to adore Thee and to render to Thee that honor which is Thy due, acknowledging Thy supreme dominion over all things and their absolute dependence on Thee, for Thou art our first beginning and our last end; to give Thee thanks for countless benefits received; to appease Thy justice provoked to anger by so many sins, and to offer Thee worthy satisfaction for the same; and finally to implore Thy grace and mercy for myself, for all those who are in tribulation and distress, for all poor sinners, for the whole world and for the blessed souls in purgatory.

An indulgence of 3 years for devoutly making this act of oblation at the beginning of Mass.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this devout act has been recited on all days of precept throughout a month even at a Mass of obligation (Pius X, Audience July 5, 1904, exhib. July 8, 1904; S. P. Ap., Nov. 24, 1936).

Eternal Father, I offer unto Thee the infinite satisfaction which Jesus rendered to Thy justice in behalf of sinners upon the tree of the Cross; and I pray that Thou wouldst make the merits of His Precious Blood available to all guilty souls to whom sin has brought death; may they rise again to the life of grace and glorify Thee for ever.

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the fervent devotion of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in satisfaction for the lukewarmness and cowardice of Thy chosen people, imploring Thee by the burning love which made Him suffer death, that it may please Thee to rekindle their hearts now so lukewarm in Thy service, and to set them on fire with Thy love, that they may love Thee forever.

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the submission of Jesus to Thy will, and I ask of Thee, through His merits, the fulness of all grace and the accomplishment of all Thy holy will. Blessed be God! (St. Margaret M. Alacoque).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this act of oblation has been made daily with devotion throughout an entire month (S. P. Ap., April 8, 1920 and Dec. 13, 1932)

A plenary indulgence once a month when this devout homage is offered daily, on condition of confession, Communion and prayer for the intention of the Supreme Pontiff (Brief, June 9, 1920; S. P. Ap., Jan. 12, 1934).

Tu es Christus, Fílius Dei vivi (Matt. XVI, 16).

Blessed be Jesus Christ and His most pure Mother!

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Nov. 8, 1921).

66

Jesus, for love of Thee, with Thee and for Thee.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Feb. 9, 1922 and July 3, 1936).

Iesu, amóre tui, tecum et pro te.

67

O Jesus, Son of the living God, have mercy on us!

O Jesus, Son of the Virgin Mary, have mercy on us!

O Jesus, King and center of all hearts, grant that peace may be in Thy kingdom.

An indulgence of 300 days when said conjointly (S. P. Ap., March 14, 1923).

O Iesu, Fili Dei vivi, miserere nobis!

O Iesu, Fili Mariæ Virgînis, miserere nobis!

O Iesu, rex et centrum ómnium córdium, fac ut fiat pax in regno tuo.

68

O Jesus, with all my heart I cling to Thee.

An indulgence of 300 days (Brief, June 10, 1923).

O Iesu, toto corde tibi adhære.

69

O Jesus, be to me Jesus, and save me.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, for the daily and devout recitation of this invocation through one month (S. P. Ap., Nov. 22, 1934).

O Iesu, esto mihi Iesus et salva me.

70

Christ Jesus, my helper and my Redeemer (St. Augustine).

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, when this invocation is said with devotion daily for a month (S. P. Ap., Feb. 9, 1935).

Christe Iesu, adiutor meus et redemptor meus (S. Augustinus).

71

Lord Jesus Christ, Thou only art holy, Thou only art the Lord, Thou only art the Most High.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, provided that the daily recitation of this ejaculation be continued for a month (S. P. Ap. Oct. 19, 1936).

Dómine Iesu Christe, Tu solus Sanctus, Tu solus Dóminus, Tu solus Altíssimus.

72

O Jesus, grant that I may be Thine, wholly Thine, forever Thine.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Dec. 9, 1936).

73

Lord Jesus, let me know myself and know Thee,

And desire nothing save only Thee.

Let me hate myself and love Thee.

Let me do everything for the sake of Thee.

Let me humble myself and exalt Thee.

Let me think nothing except Thee.

Let me die to myself and live in Thee.

Let me accept whatever happens as from Thee.

Let me banish self and follow Thee,

And ever desire to follow Thee.

Let me fly from myself and take refuge in Thee,

That I may deserve to be defended by Thee.

Let me fear for myself, let me fear Thee,

And let me be among those who are chosen by Thee.

Let me distrust myself and put my trust in Thee.

Let me be willing to obey for the sake of Thee.

Let me cling to nothing save only to Thee,
And let me be poor because of Thee.

Look upon me, that I may love Thee.

Call me that I may see Thee,

And for ever enjoy Thee. Amen.

(St. Augustine).

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if these invocations are devoutly repeated daily for a month (Brief, Sept. 25, 1883; S. P. Ap., Dec. 17, 1932).

Dómine Iesu, nóverim me, nóverim te,
Nec áliquíd cúpiam nisi te.

Oderim me et amem te.

Omnia agam propter te.

Humíliem me, exáltem te.

Nihil cógitem nisi te.

Mortíficem me et vivam in te.

Quæcúmque evéniant accípiam a te.

Pérsequar me, sequar te,

Sempérque optem sequi te.

Fúgiam me, confúgiam ad te,

Ut mérear deféndi a te.

Tímeam mihi, tímeam te,

Et sim inter eléctos a te.

Diffídám mihi, fidám in te.

Obedíre velim propter te.

Ad nihil afficiar nisi ad te,

Et pauper sim propter te.

Aspice me, ut díligam te.

Voca me, ut vídeam te,

Et in ætérnum fruar te. Amen.

(S. Augustinus).

NOTE.—Another invocation to be said when making or mending liturgical vestments is found under n. 660.

AN ACT OF ADORATION AND THANKSGIVING

We adore Thee, most holy Lord Jesus Christ, here and in all Thy churches that are in the whole world, and we bless Thee; because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world (Testament of St. Francis of Assisi, Conf.).

An indulgence of 7 years, if the aforesaid act of adoration is recited on bended knees, when entering or leaving a church, a public oratory or semipublic oratory (in the case of those who may lawfully use the latter).

A plenary indulgence once a month, if the aforesaid act is recited at least once a day, on condition of confession, Communion and prayer for the intention of the Supreme Pontiff (S. P. Ap., Aug. 3, 1917 and March 18, 1932).

Adorámus te, sanctíssime Dómine Iesu Christe, hic et ad omnes Eccléas tuas, quæ sunt in toto mundo, et benedícimus tibi; quia per sanctam Crucem tuam redemísti mundum (ex testamento S. Francisci Assisii Conf.).

III

AN ACT OF CONSECRATION

75

The Consecration of oneself to Jesus Christ, Incarnate Wisdom, by the hands of Mary

O Eternal and Incarnate Wisdom, most sweet and adorable Jesus, true God and true Man, only Son of the Eternal Father and of Mary ever Virgin, I adore Thee profoundly in the bosom and the splendor of Thy Father through eternity, and in the virginal womb of Mary, Thy most worthy Mother, at the time of Thine Incarnation.

I return Thee thanks for that Thou didst empty Thyself, taking upon Thee the form of a slave, to deliver me from the cruel slavery of the devil. I praise Thee and glorify Thee for that Thou didst willingly become subject in all things to Mary, Thy holy Mother, in order to make me through her Thy faithful slave. But alas, ungrateful and faithless that I am, I have not kept the promises I made Thee so solemnly in my baptism. Nay, I have utterly failed to do my bounden duty; I am no more worthy to be called Thy son nor Thy slave, and since there is nothing in me that does not provoke Thy rebukes and Thine indignation, I dare no longer approach alone unto Thy sacred and august Majesty. Wherefore I have recourse to the intercession of Thy most holy Mother, whom Thou hast given me to be my intercessor with Thee; and it is by this means that I hope to obtain from Thee the grace of contrition, the pardon of my sins, and the gift of abiding wisdom.

For which reason I salute thee, O Mary Immaculate, living tabernacle of the Divinity, wherein the eternal Wisdom lies hidden to be adored by Angels and men. I salute Thee, O Queen of heaven and earth, to whose dominion is subject all that is less than God. I salute Thee, O sure refuge of sinners, whose mercy faileth none; graciously hear my prayers for divine wisdom, and to this end receive the vows and oblations which my lowliness offers unto Thee.

I. N . . ., a faithless sinner, renew and ratify this day at thy hands my baptismal vows. I renounce Satan for ever and all his works and pomps, and I give myself wholly to Jesus Christ, the Incarnate Wisdom, to bear my cross after Him all the days of my life. And in order that I may be more faithful to Him than I have hitherto been, I choose thee this day, O Mary, in the presence of the whole court of heaven for my Mother and my Mistress.

I deliver and consecrate to Thee, after the manner of a bond-slave, my body and my soul, my interior and exterior goods, and even the value of my good works, past, present and future, leaving thee the full and entire right to dispose of me and of all that belongs to me, without exception, according to thy good pleasure and the greater glory of God both in time and in eternity.

Accept, O gracious Virgin, this little offering of my bondage, in honor of and in union with that submission which the Eternal Wisdom willed to show toward thy Motherhood; as a mark of homage to that dominion which thou and thy divine Son have over me, a wretched worm and a miserable sinner; in thanksgiving for the privileges with which the Most Holy Trinity has favored thee. I protest that henceforth I wish, as thy true slave, to seek thine honor and to obey thee in all things.

O Mother most admirable, present me to thy Son, as His slave for ever, in order that, having purchased me through thee, He may receive me through thee. O Mother of mercy, get me the grace of obtaining true wisdom from God and of being set thereby in the number of those whom thou lovest, whom thou teachest, whom thou guidest, whom thou dost sustain and protect as thy children and thy slaves.

O faithful Virgin, render me in all things so perfect a disciple, imitator and slave of the Incarnate Wisdom, Jesus Christ thy Son, that through thine intercession and example I may come to the fulness of His stature on earth and the plenitude of His glory in heaven. Amen
(Bl. Grignon de Montfort).

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception and on the 28th day of April (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, Dec. 24, 1907, exhib. Jan. 22, 1908; S. C. of the Holy Office, Dec. 7, 1927).

IV

PRAYERS

76

Lord Jesus Christ, in union with that divine intention wherewith on earth Thou didst offer to God Thy praises through Thy Most Sacred Heart, and dost now offer them in the Sacrament of the Eucharist everywhere on earth even to the end of time, I most gladly offer Thee throughout this entire day, all my thoughts and intentions, all my affections and desires, all my words and deeds, in imitation of the most sacred Heart of the blessed and ever Virgin Mary Immaculate.

An indulgence of 3 years once a day.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, when this act of offering has been devoutly recited each day for a month (S. C. Ind., Dec. 19, 1885; S. P. Ap., March 10, 1933).

Dómine Iesu Christe, in unióne illíus divínæ intentiónis, qua in terris per sanctíssimum Cor tuum laudes Deo persolvísti et nunc in Eucharístiæ Sacraménto ubíque terrárum persólvis usque ad consummationem sæculi, ego per hanc diem íntegram, ad imitacionem sacratíssimi Cordis beatæ Mariæ semper Vírginis immaculatæ, tibi libentíssime offero omnes meas intentiones et cogitaciones, omnes meos afféctus et desidéria, ómnia mea ópera et verba.

Grant me Thy grace, most merciful Jesus, that it may be with me and work with me and persevere with me even to the end.

Grant that I may always desire and will that which is to Thee most acceptable and most dear.

Let Thy will be mine, and let my will ever follow Thine and agree perfectly with it.

Let my willing and not-willing be all one with Thine, and let me not be able to will or not will anything else but what Thou willest or willest not (Imitation of Christ, bk. 3, ch. 15, v. 3).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, once a month, for the daily and devout recitation of this prayer (S. C. Ind., Feb. 27, 1886; S. P. Ap., Dec. 17, 1932).

Concède mihi, benigníssime Iesu, grátiam tuam, ut mecum sit et mecum labóret mecúmque in finem usque perséveret.

Da mihi hoc semper desideráre et velle, quod tibi magis accéptum est et cárius placet.

Tua volúntas mea sit, et mea volúntas tuam semper sequátur, et óptime ei concórdet.

Sit mihi unum velle et nolle tecum, nec áliud posse velle aut nolle, nisi quod Tu vis et nolis. Amen (De Imit. Chr. lib. III, c. XV, v. 3).

78

Jesus Christ my God, I adore Thee and thank Thee for all the graces Thou hast given me this day. I offer Thee my sleep and all the moments of this night, and I beseech Thee to keep me without sin. Wherefore I put myself within Thy sacred Side and under the mantle of our Lady, my Mother. Let Thy holy Angels stand about me and keep me in peace; and let Thy blessing be upon me (St. Alphonsus M. de' Liguori).

The faithful who recite this prayer in the evening before falling asleep may gain:

An indulgence of 3 years once a day;

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for the daily devout repetition of the same (S. C. Ind., June 30, 1893; S. P. Ap., Dec. 18, 1935).

O Jesus, my Saviour and Redeemer, Son of the living God, behold we kneel before Thee and offer Thee our reparation; we would make amends for all the blasphemies uttered against Thy holy Name, for all the injuries done to Thee in the Blessed Sacrament, for all the irreverence shown toward Thine immaculate Virgin Mother, for all the calumnies and slanders spoken against Thy spouse, the holy Catholic and Roman Church. O Jesus, who hast said: "If you ask the Father anything in My name, He will give it you", we pray and beseech Thee for all our brethren who are in danger of sin; shield them from every temptation to fall away from the true faith; save those who are even now standing on the brink of the abyss; to all of them give light and knowledge of the truth, courage and strength for the conflict with evil, perseverance in faith and active charity! For this do we pray, most merciful Jesus, in Thy Name, unto God the Father, with whom Thou livest and reignest in the unity of the Holy Ghost world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days once a day.

A plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, when this prayer has been said devoutly every day (S. C. Ind., May 13, 1903; S. P. Ap., March 5, 1936).

80

Our sins, O Lord, darken our understanding and hide from us the blessing of loving Thee as Thou dost merit. Enlighten our minds with a ray of Thy divine light. Thou art the Friend, the Redeemer and the Father of him who turns penitent to Thy Sacred Heart; we, too, turn penitent to Thee. Jesus, we hope in Thee, for we know that our salvation cost Thee Thy death upon the Cross and moved Thee to remain continually in the Blessed Sacrament, in order to unite Thyself with us as often as we desire. We, O Lord, to give Thee thanks for the great love Thou bearest toward us, promise Thee, by the help of Thy grace, to receive Thee in Thy Sacrament as often as we can, and to sing Thy praises in church and in every place, without human respect. Lord, we beseech Thee, trusting in Thy Most Sacred Heart, that Thou wouldst call all men to receive Thee daily at the altar, according to Thy burning desire.

An indulgence of 500 days (Pius X, Audience June 26, 1906; exhib. July 6, 1906; S. P. Ap., Nov. 25, 1934).

O Jesus, Son of the glorious Virgin Mary, and only Son of the living God, I adore Thee and acknowledge Thee as my God, the only true God, unique and infinitely perfect, who hast made out of nothing all things that are outside of Thee, and who dost preserve and govern them with infinite wisdom, sovereign goodness and supreme power; I beg of Thee, by the mysteries that were fulfilled in Thy sacred Humanity, to cleanse me in Thy Blood from all my past sins; pour forth abundantly upon me Thy Holy Spirit, together with His grace, His virtues and His gifts; make me believe in Thee, hope in Thee, love Thee and labor to merit Thee in each of my actions; give Thyself to me one day, in the brightness of Thy glory, in the midst of the assembly of all Thy Saints. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days once a day (S. C. of the Holy Office, Jan. 22, 1914; S. P. Ap., Sept. 8, 1933).

Our Lord Jesus Christ, we have recourse to Thee, Holy God, Mighty God, Immortal God, have mercy on us and on all mankind. Cleanse us in Thy Precious Blood from all our sins and infirmities. My Jesus, I believe in Thee, I hope in Thee, I love Thee, I give myself to Thee.

An indulgence of 300 days (Benedict XV, Rescript in his own hand, Dec. 21, 1916, exhib. Apr. 20, 1917; S. P. Ap., Oct. 20, 1935).

Lord Jesus, I unite myself to Thy perpetual, unceasing, universal sacrifice. I offer myself to Thee every day of my life and every moment of every day, according to Thy most holy and adorable will. Thou hast been the victim of my salvation, I wish to be the victim of Thy love. Accept my desire, take my offering, graciously hear my prayer. Let me live for love of Thee, let me die for love of Thee; let my last heartbeat be an act of perfect love!

An indulgence of 500 days once a day (S. P. Ap., June 5, 1919 and Dec. 17, 1932).

O Jesus! I come to Thee! Thou art the Way that I would follow in obedience to Thy commandments, Thy counsels and Thine example; let me walk after Thee in the way of obedience, of self-denial and of sacrifice, which leads to heaven and Thee! O Jesus, Thou art the Truth; Thou art "the true Light which enlighteneth every man coming into this world". I believe in Thee! I believe in Thy Gospel; I would know Thee in order to love Thee; I would make Thee known in order to make Thee loved. O Jesus! Thou art the Life, through Thy sanctifying grace which is the life of our souls; through Thy words which are "the words of everlasting life"; through Thy Eucharist which is "the living bread come down from heaven"; through Thy Heart which is the fountain of life for individual souls and for society. I cling to Thy Word with all my heart; I hunger for the living Bread of Thy Eucharist; I open my heart without reserve to the life-giving streams from Thy Sacred Heart; I unite myself inwardly to all Its intentions. Ah, may this divine Heart reign universally over the children of the Church and over all humanity. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, for the daily devout recitation of this prayer (S. P. Ap., Dec. 1, 1920 and Dec. 28, 1932).

85

My Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, I humbly beseech Thee to scatter the darkness of my mind, and to give me lively faith, firm hope and burning love. Grant, O my God, that I may know Thee well and may do all things in Thy light and in conformity to Thy holy will. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of this prayer in a spirit of devotion (S. P. Ap., May 30, 1921 and July 23, 1936).

86

O Jesus our Saviour, give us Thy blessing, deliver us from everlasting death, assist Thy holy Church, give peace to all nations, deliver the holy souls suffering in purgatory.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. P. Ap., Nov. 29, 1923 and Feb. 15, 1933).

O Lord God, King of heaven and earth, may it please Thee this day to order and to hallow, to rule and to govern our hearts and our bodies, our thoughts, our words and our works, according to Thy law and in the doing of Thy commandments, that we, being helped by Thee, may here and hereafter worthily be saved and delivered by Thee, O Saviour of the world, who livest and reignest for ever and ever. Amen (Roman Breviary).

The faithful who devoutly recite this prayer in the morning may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years;

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for the daily devout recitation thereof (S. P. Ap., Apr. 8, 1934).

Dirigere et sanctificáre, régere et gubernáre dignáre, Dómine Deus, Rex cæli et terræ, hódie corda et córpora nostra, sensus, sermónes et actus nostros in lege tua et in opéribus mandatórum tuórum; ut hic et in ætérnum, te auxiliánte, salvi et líberi esse mereámur, Salvátor mundi: Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculórum. Amen (ex Breviario Romano).

B) IN HONOR OF
THE MOST HOLY NAME OF JESUS

I

AN INVOCATION

88

The faithful who devoutly invoke the holy Name of Jesus may gain:

An indulgence of 300 days;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, when they repeat this invocation daily for a month;

A plenary indulgence at the hour of death, if they have been accustomed to invoke the holy Name frequently during life, provided that, after confession and Communion, or at least an act of contrition, they devoutly invoke the holy Name of Jesus with their lips if possible, otherwise in their hearts, and accept death with resignation from the hand of God as the wages of sin (S. C. Ind., Sept. 5, 1759 and Oct. 10, 1940; S. P. Ap., Dec. 9, 1933).

HYMNS AND PSALMS

90

Iesu, dulcis memoria

Jesus, the very thought of Thee
 With sweetness fills the breast!
 Yet sweeter far Thy face to see
 And in Thy presence rest.

No voice can sing, no heart can frame,
 Nor can the memory find,
 A sweeter sound than Jesus' name,
 The Saviour of mankind.

O hope of every contrite heart!
 O joy of all the meek!
 To those who fall, how kind Thou art!
 How good to those who seek!

But what to those who find? Ah! this Nor tongue nor pen can show—
 The love of Jesus, what it is,
 None but His loved ones know.

Jesus! our only hope be Thou,
 As Thou our prize shalt be;
 In Thee be all our glory now,
 And through eternity. Amen.

(Roman Breviary, tr. E. Caswall).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, for the daily and devout recitation of this hymn (S. C. Ind., June 13, 1815; S. P. Ap., May 21, 1935).

Iesu, dulcis memória,
 Dans vera cordis gáudia;
 Sed super mel et ómnia
 Eius dulcis præsentia.

Nil cánitur suávius,
 Nil áuditor iucúndius,
 Nil cogitáatur dúlcius,
 Quam Iesus Dei Fílius.

Iesu, spes pæniténtibus,
 Quam pius es peténtibus,
 Quam bonus te quæréntibus,
 Sed quid inveniéntibus?

Nec lingua valet dícere,
 Nec líttera exprímere,
 Expértus potest crédere
 Quid sit Iesum díligere.

Sis, Iesu, nostrum gáudium,
 Qui es futúrum præmium:
 Sit nostra in te glória
 Per cuncta semper sácula. Amen.

(ex Breviario Romano).

Iesu decus angelicum

O Jesus, Thou the beauty art
 Of Angel worlds above!
 Thy name is music to the heart,
 Enchanting it with love!
 Celestial sweetness unalloyed!
 Who eat Thee hunger still,
 Who drink of Thee still feel a void
 Which naught but Thou can fill!
 O my sweet Jesus! hear the sighs
 Which unto Thee I send!
 To Thee my inmost spirit cries,
 My being's hope and end!
 Stay with us, Lord, and with Thy light
 Illume the soul's abyss;
 Scatter the darkness of our night
 And fill the world with bliss.

O Jesu! spotless Virgin flower!
 Our life and joy! to Thee
 Be praise, beatitude and power,
 Through all eternity! Amen.

(Roman Breviary, tr. E. Caswall).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, when this hymn is said daily (S. P. Ap., Nov. 22, 1934).

Iesu, decus angélicum,
 In aure dulce cánticum,
 In ore mel miríficum,
 In corde nectar cáelicum.

Qui te gustant, esúriunt,
 Qui bibunt, adhuc sítiunt;
 Desideráre nésciunt,
 Nisi Iesum, quem díligunt.

O Iesu mi dulcíssime,
 Spes suspírántis ánimæ!
 Te quærunt piæ lácrimæ,
 Te clamor mentis íntimæ,

Mane nobíscum, Dómine,
 Et nos illústra lúmíne;
 Pulsa mentis calígine,
 Mundum reple dulcédine.

Iesu, flos Matris Vírginis,
 Amor nostræ dulcédinis,
 Tibi laus, honor nóminis,
 Regnum beatitúdinis. Amen.

(ex Breviario Romano).

Iesu Rex admirabilis

O Jesus, King most wonderful!
 Thou Conqueror renowned!
 Thou Sweetness most ineffable!
 In whom all joys are found!

When once Thou visitest the heart,
 Then truth begins to shine;
 Then earthly vanities depart;
 Then kindles love divine.

O Jesu! Light of all below!
 Thou Fount of life and fire!
 Surpassing all the joys we know,
 And all we can desire.

May every heart confess Thy name,
 And ever Thee adore;
 And seeking Thee, itself inflame
 To seek Thee more and more.

Thee may our tongues for ever bless;
 Thee may we love alone;
 And ever in our lives express
 The image of Thine own. Amen.

(Roman Breviary, tr. E. Caswall).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, when this hymn has been said daily (S. C. Ind., June 13, 1815; S. P. Ap., July 16, 1936).

Iesu, Rex admirabilis
 Et triumphátor nóbilis, Dulcédo ineffábilis,
 Totus desiderábilis.

Quando cor nostrum vísitas,
 Tunc lucet ei véritas,
 Mundi viléscit vánitas,
 Et intus fervet cáritas.

Iesu, dulcédo córdium,
 Fons vivus, lumen méntium,
 Excédens omne gáudium
 Et omne desidérium.

Iesum omnes agnóscite,
 Amórem eius póscite;
 Iesum ardénter quærite,
 Quæréndo inardéscite.

Te nostra, Iesu, vox sonet,
 Nostri te mores éxprimant;
 Te corda nostra díligant
 Et nunc, et in perpétuum. Amen.
(ex Breviario Romano).

93

The faithful who recite the following Psalms in honor of the most holy Name of Jesus, viz., Ps. 99, Jubilate Deo omnis terra; Ps. 19, Exaudiat te Dominus; Ps. 11, Salvum me fac, Domine; Ps. 12, Usquequo, Domine; and Ps. 128, Sæpe expugnaverunt me, may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if they perform this devout exercise every day for a month (S. C. Ind., June 13, 1815; S. P. Ap. Oct. 24, 1934).

IV

DEVOUT PRACTICES

94

The faithful who, during the month of January, perform some special act of devotion in honor of the holy Name of Jesus are granted:

An indulgence of 7 years once on any day of the month;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this act of devotion is repeated daily for the entire month (Brief, Dec. 21, 1901; S. P. Ap., Jan. 2, 1933).

The faithful who recite five times the doxology Glory be to the Father together with the ejaculation:

Blessed be the most holy Name of Jesus without end!

may gain:

An indulgence of 300 days (Pius X, Audience Nov. 19, 1906, exhib. Nov. 26, 1906).

The faithful who, after confession and Communion, visit some church or oratory, public or even semi-public (in the case of those who may lawfully use the latter), on the Feast of the most holy Name of Jesus and pray for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff may gain:

A plenary indulgence (Pius X, Audience Nov. 19, 1906, exhib. Nov. 26, 1906; S. P. Ap., May 17, 1927).

V

PRAYERS

O good Jesu, according to Thy great mercy, have mercy on me. O most merciful Jesu, by that Precious Blood which Thou didst will to shed for sinners, I beseech Thee to wash away all mine iniquities and to look graciously upon me, a poor and unworthy sinner, as I call upon Thy holy Name. Therefore, O Jesus, do Thou save me for Thy holy Name's sake.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., Nov. 26, 1876; S. P. Ap., Dec. 17, 1932)

O bone Iesu, secúndum magnam misericórdiam tuam miserére mei. O clementíssime Iesu, te déprecor per illum Sánguinem pretiósum, quem pro peccatóribus effúndere voluísti, ut ábluas omnes iniquitátes meas et in me respícias míserum et indígnum invocántem tuum sanctum Nomen. Ergo, Iesu, propter Nomen sanctum tuum salva me.

O God, who didst appoint Thine only-begotten Son to be the Saviour of mankind and didst command His name to be called Jesus; mercifully grant that we may enjoy the vision of Him in heaven, whose holy Name we venerate on earth. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, if this collect is said devoutly every day (S. P. Ap., Nov. 22, 1934).

Deus, qui unigénitum Fílium tuum constituísti humáni géneris Salvatórem et Iesum vocári iusísti: concéde propítius, ut, cuius sanctum Nomen venerámur in terris, eius quoque adspéctu perfruámur in cælis. Per eúmdem Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

C) THE INFANT JESUS

I

PIOUS EXERCISES

99

a) The faithful who, in order to return thanks to God the Father for the benefits conferred upon mankind by the Incarnation of the Word, devoutly assist at midnight Mass on the Feast of the Nativity of our Lord, may gain:

An indulgence of 10 years;

A plenary indulgence, if they have gone to confession and Communion and prayed for the intentions of the Holy Father.

b) Those who assist at Matins or Lauds and follow the singing of the psalms and lessons, either by devoutly reading them or with pious meditations on the Incarnation of the Word of God, or prayers, may gain:

An indulgence of ten years (Brief, Oct. 22, 1586; S. P. Ap., Apr. 2, 1936).

A NOVENA BEFORE THE FEAST OF THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD

The faithful who devoutly take part in a public novena before the Feast of the Nativity of our Lord in honor of the divine Infant Jesus, may gain:

An indulgence of 10 years on any day;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if they assist at five, at least, of the exercises.

To those who, at the aforesaid season, offer their prayers or other acts of devotion to the divine Infant, with the intention of continuing them for nine successive days, is granted:

An indulgence of 7 years once on any day;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, at the end of the novena; but where a public novena is held, this indulgence can be gained only by those who are legitimately hindered from attending the public exercises (Secr. Mem., Aug. 12, 1815; S. C. Ind., July 9, 1830; S. P. Ap., Feb. 21, 1933).

PRAYERS FOR A NOVENA BEFORE THE 25TH DAY OF ANY MONTH

I. Eternal Father, I offer to Thine honor and glory, for my eternal salvation and for the salvation of the whole world, the mystery of the birth of our divine Redeemer. Glory be to the Father, etc.

II. Eternal Father, I offer to Thine honor and glory, for my eternal salvation and for the salvation of the whole world, the sufferings of the most holy Virgin and Saint Joseph on that long and weary journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem, and the anguish of their hearts at not finding a place of shelter when the Saviour of the world was about to be born.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

III. Eternal Father, I offer to Thine honor and glory, for my eternal salvation and for the salvation of the whole world, the sufferings of Jesus in the manger where He was born, the cold He suffered, the tears He shed and His tender infant cries.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

IV. Eternal Father, I offer to Thine honor and glory, for my eternal salvation and for the salvation of the whole world, the pain which the divine Child Jesus felt in His tender Body, when He submitted to the rite of circumcision: I offer Thee that Precious Blood which He then first shed for the salvation of all mankind.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

V. Eternal Father, I offer to Thine honor and glory, for my eternal salvation and for the salvation of the whole world, the humility, mortification, patience, charity and all the virtues of the Child Jesus; I thank Thee, I love Thee, and I bless Thee infinitely for this ineffable mystery of the Incarnation of the Word of God.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

V. The Word was made flesh;

R. And dwelt amongst us.

Let us pray.

O God, whose only-begotten Son hath appeared in the substance of our flesh; grant, we beseech Thee, that through Him, whom we acknowledge to be like to us in His outward seeming, we may deserve to be renewed in our inward selves. Who liveth and reigneth with Thee for ever and ever. Amen.

An indulgence of 7 years once on any day.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions at the close of the novena (S. C. Ind., Sept. 23, 1846; S. P. Ap., Oct. 14, 1934).

II

PRAYERS

102

V. Incline unto my aid, O God!

R. O Lord, make haste to help me!

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Our Father.

I. Jesu, sweetest Child, who didst come down from the bosom of the Father for our salvation, who wast conceived by the Holy Ghost, who didst not abhor the Virgin's womb, and who, being the Word made flesh, didst take upon Thee the form of a servant, have mercy on us.

R. Have mercy on us, Child Jesus, have mercy on us.

Hail Mary.

II. Jesu, sweetest Child, who by means of Thy Virgin Mother didst visit Saint Elisabeth, who didst fill Thy forerunner, John the Baptist, with Thy Holy Spirit and didst sanctify him in his mother's womb, have mercy on us.

R̄. Have mercy on us, Child Jesus, have mercy on us.

Hail Mary.

III. Jesu, sweetest Child, who, enclosed for nine months in Thy Mother's womb, wast looked for with eager expectation by the Virgin Mary and Saint Joseph, and wast offered by God the Father for the salvation of the world, have mercy on us.

R̄. Have mercy on us, Child Jesus, have mercy on us.

Hail Mary.

IV. Jesu, sweetest Child, born in Bethlehem of the Virgin Mary, wrapped in swaddling clothes and laid in a manger, announced by Angels and visited by shepherds, have mercy on us.

R̄. Have mercy on us, Child Jesus, have mercy on us.

Hail Mary.

All honor, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to Thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

V̄. Christ is near to us;

R̄. Come, let us adore Him.

Our Father.

V. Jesu, sweetest Child, wounded after eight days in Thy circumcision, called by the glorious Name of Jesus, and at once by Thy Name and by Thy Blood foreshown as the Saviour of the world, have mercy on us.

R̄. Have mercy on us, Child Jesus, have mercy on us.

Hail Mary.

VI. Jesu, sweetest Child, manifested by the leading of a star to the three Wise Men, worshiped in the arms of Thy Mother, presented with the mystic gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh, have mercy on us.

R̄. Have mercy on us, Child Jesus, have mercy on us.

Hail Mary.

VII. Jesu, sweetest Child, presented in the temple of Thy Virgin Mother, taken up in Simeon's arms, and spoken of to Israel by Anna, a prophetess, have mercy on us.

R̄. Have mercy on us, Child Jesus, have mercy on us.

Hail Mary.

VIII. Jesu, sweetest Child, sought by wicked Herod to be slain, carried with Thy Mother into Egypt by Saint Joseph, rescued from the cruel slaughter, and glorified by the praises of the martyred Innocents, have mercy on us.

R̄. Have mercy on us, Child Jesus, have mercy on us.

Hail Mary.

All honor, laud and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to Thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

V. Christ is near to us.

R. O come and let us worship.
Our Father.

IX. Jesu, sweetest Child, who didst dwell in Egypt with most holy Mary and the Patriarch, Saint Joseph until the death of Herod, have mercy on us.

R. Have mercy on us, Child Jesus, have mercy on us.

Hail Mary.

X. Jesu, sweetest Child, who didst return from Egypt to the land of Israel with Thy parents, suffering many hardships in the way, and didst enter into the city of Nazareth, have mercy on us.

R. Have mercy on us, Child Jesus, have mercy on us.

Hail Mary.

XI. Jesu, sweetest Child, who didst dwell most holily in the holy house at Nazareth, in subjection to Thy parents, wearied by poverty and toil, and didst increase in wisdom, age and grace, have mercy on us.

R. Have mercy on us, Child Jesus, have mercy on us.

Hail Mary.

XII. Jesu, sweetest Child, brought to Jerusalem at twelve years of age, sought by Thy parents sorrowing and found with joy after three days in the midst of the Doctors, have mercy on us.

R̄. Have mercy on us, Child Jesus, have mercy on us.

Hail Mary.

All honor, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born to Thee;
All Glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

(For Christmas Day and its Octave):

V̄. The Word was made flesh, alleluia.

R̄. And dwelt amongst us, alleluia.

(For the Epiphany and its Octave):

V̄. Christ hath manifested Himself to us, alleluia.

R̄. O come and let us worship, alleluia.

(Throughout the year):

V̄. The Word was made flesh,

R̄. And dwelt amongst us.

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, Lord of heaven and earth, who dost reveal Thyself to little ones; grant, we beseech Thee, that we, venerating with due honor the sacred mysteries of Thy Son, the Child Jesus, and copying them with due imitation, may be enabled to enter the kingdom of heaven which Thou hast promised to little children. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 5 years once a day.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions when these prayers are said devoutly on the 25th day of any month (S. C. Ind., Nov. 23, 1819; S. P. Ap., June 8, 1935).

Most dear Lord Jesus Christ, who, being made a Child for us, didst will to be born in a cave to free us from the darkness of sin, to draw us unto Thee, and to set us on fire with Thy holy love; we adore Thee as our Creator and Redeemer, we acknowledge Thee and choose Thee for our King and Lord, and for tribute we offer Thee all the affection of our poor hearts. Dear Jesus, our Lord and God, graciously accept this offering, and that it may be worthy of Thine acceptance, forgive us our sins, enlighten us, and inflame us with that sacred fire which Thou camest to bring upon the earth and to enkindle in our hearts. May our souls thus become an altar, on which we may offer Thee the sacrifice of our mortifications; grant that we may ever seek Thy greater glory here on earth, so that one day we may come to enjoy Thine infinite loveliness in heaven. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years.

O divine Infant, who, after the wonders of Thy birth in Bethlehem, wishing to extend to the whole world Thine infinite mercy, didst call the Wise Men by heavenly inspiration to Thy crib, which was thus converted into a throne of royal grandeur, and didst graciously receive those holy men, who were obedient to the divine call and hastened to Thy feet, acknowledging Thee and worshiping Thee as the Prince of Peace, the Redeemer of mankind, and the very Son of God; ah, renew in us the proofs of Thy goodness and almighty power; enlighten our minds, strengthen our wills, and inflame our hearts to know Thee, to serve Thee, and to love Thee in this life, meriting thus to enjoy Thee eternally in the life to come.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. P. Ap., July 14, 1924 and Jan. 15, 1935).

EJACULATORY PRAYERS AND INVOCATIONS

105

Soul of Christ, be my sanctification.
Body of Christ, be my salvation.
 Blood of Christ, fill all my veins.
 Water from Christ's side, wash out my stains.
 Passion of Christ, my comfort be.
 O good Jesu, listen to me.
 In Thy wounds I fain would hide,
 Ne'er to be parted from Thy side.
 Guard me should the foe assail me.
 Call me when my life shall fail me.
 Bid me come to Thee above,
 With all Thy Saints to sing Thy love,
 World without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

An indulgence of 7 years, if recited after Holy Communion.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, when this prayer has been said devoutly every day. (S. C. Ind., Jan. 9, 1854).

I adore Thee every moment,
O living Bread from heaven,
Great Sacrament!

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for its daily and devout repetition (S. P. Ap., June 4, 1934).

112

O saving Victim! opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below!

Our foes press on from every side:

Thine aid supply, Thy strength bestow.

To Thy great Name be endless praise,

Immortal Godhead, One in Three!

Oh, grant us endless length of days,

In our true native land with Thee. Amen.

(Roman Breviary, tr. E. Caswall).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for its daily recitation (S. P. Ap., June 4, 1934).

O salutáris Hóstia,
Quæ cæli pandis óstium,

114

Very Bread, good Shepherd, tend us,
Jesu, of Thy love befriend us,
Thou refresh us, Thou defend us,

Thine eternal goodness send us
In the land of life to see.

Thou Who all things canst and knowest,
Who on earth such food bestowest,
Grant us with Thy Saints, though lowest,
Where the heavenly feast Thou shewest,
Fellow-heirs and guests to be. Amen.

(Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for its daily recitation (S. P. Ap., June 15, 1935).

Bone pastor, panis vere,
Iesu, nostri miserére:
Tu nos pasce, nos tuére:
Tu nos bona fac vidére
In terra vivéntium.

Tu, qui cuncta scis et vales;
Qui nos pascis hic mortáles;
Tuos ibi commensáles,
Coherédes et sodáles
Fac sanctórum cívium. Amen.

(ex Missali Romano).

II

ACTS OF ADORATION

115

The faithful who recite some prayer at the sound of the bell for the elevation at Mass, wherever they may be, are granted:

An indulgence of 300 days (Gregory XIII, Constitution "Ad excitandum," Apr. 10, 1586; S. P. Ap., Feb. 25, 1933).

116

The faithful who devoutly accompany the Blessed Sacrament when It is carried to the sick as Viaticum are granted:

An indulgence of 7 years, if they accompany It with lights;

An indulgence of 5 years, if without lights;

An indulgence of 3 years, if, being lawfully hindered, they send another to carry a light for them;

An indulgence of 100 days, if they recite at least one Our Father and one Hail Mary while the Blessed Sacrament is being carried although they are unable to accompany It (Paul V, Nov. 3, 1606; Innocent XI, Oct. 1, 1678; Innocent XII, Constit. "Debitum Pastoralis Officii," Jan. 5, 1695; S. P. Ap., Mar. 18, 1932).

The faithful who accompany the Blessed Sacrament, with or without lights, when It is being carried solemnly to the sick, are granted:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (S. P. Ap., Sept. 25, 1933).

118

The faithful who devoutly visit the Blessed Sacrament in the repository on Holy Thursday or Good Friday, and recite Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be, five times in order to return due thanks for the institution of the Holy Eucharist, and one Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff, are granted:

An indulgence of 15 years;

A plenary indulgence once on each day under the usual conditions (S. C. Ind., Mar. 7, 1815; S. P. Ap., May 20, 1935).

NOTE: The same indulgence may be gained in places where, with the approval of the Apostolic See, the custom obtains of exposing the Blessed Sacrament for the adoration of the faithful in Holy Week for a longer period than the two days above-mentioned (S. P. Ap., Mar. 20, 1936).

a) The faithful who pay the homage of a due genuflection before the Blessed Sacrament reserved in the tabernacle, at the same time reciting the following or similar ejaculation:

Jesus, my God, I adore Thee here present in the Sacrament of Thy love!

may gain:

An indulgence of 300 days;

b) If they duly genuflect on both knees before the Blessed Sacrament solemnly exposed to the adoration of the faithful, reciting the above-mentioned prayer, or one like it:

An indulgence of 500 days;

c) If they make some outward sign of reverence when passing a church or oratory where the Blessed Sacrament is reserved:

An indulgence of 300 days (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, June 28, 1908, exhib., July 3, 1908; S. C. of the Holy Off., Mar. 22, 1917; S. P. Ap., Feb. 25, 1933).

The faithful who, upon entering a church, proceed at once to the Altar of the Blessed Sacrament and make even a brief adoration there, may gain:

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., June 15, 1923).

121

The faithful who devoutly visit the Blessed Sacrament and recite five times Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be, and add one Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be for the intentions of His Holiness the Pope, are granted:

An indulgence of 10 years;

A plenary indulgence once a week under the usual conditions if they make a visit very day during the week (Brief, Sept. 15, 1876 and June 3, 1932).

122

The faithful who are hindered by sickness or some other just cause from visiting the Blessed Sacrament in church, and who make such a visit in the spirit of faith in the real Presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament at home or wherever they are detained, reciting five times Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be, with the addition of one Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be for the intentions of the Holy Father, are granted:

An indulgence of 5 years;

A plenary indulgence once a week under the usual conditions, if they make such a devout visit daily throughout the week provided that they are still under the same lawful impediment (S. P. Ap., Apr. 12, 1935).

123

The faithful who take part in solemn Eucharistic processions, whether held within a church or in the public streets, are granted:

An indulgence of 5 years;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (S. P. Ap., Sept. 25, 1933 and July 10, 1936).

III

FIRST COMMUNION

124

The faithful who receive Holy Communion for the first time or who are present at the first Communion of others, are granted:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (S. C. Ind., July 12, 1905; S. P. Ap., May 17, 1927).

a) The faithful who instruct children for their first Holy Communion for at least half an hour, are granted:

An indulgence of 500 days.

b) Those, moreover, who recite the following prayer:

O Jesus, who hast loved us with such exceeding great love as to give us the ineffable gift of the Holy Eucharist, inflame us with a burning zeal to promote Thy glory by preparing worthily the little children who are to approach Thy holy table for the first time. Protect, O Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, these young souls from the assaults of evil, strengthen their faith, increase their love and endow them with all the virtues that will make them worthy to receive Thee. Amen.

Saint John the Baptist, forerunner of the Messias, prepare the way for Jesus in the hearts of these children.

Saint Tarcisius, keep safe the children who are making their first Communion; may gain:

An indulgence of 500 days (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, Oct. 21, 1908, exhib., Nov. 14, 1908; S. P. Ap., Apr. 16, 1936).

IV

PRAYERS BEFORE COMMUNION

126

As the hart panteth after the water-springs, so panteth my soul after Thee, O God
(Psalm 41, 2).

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month for the daily recitation of this invocation, on condition of confession, a visit to some church or public oratory and prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff (S. P. Ap., Apr. 23, 1932).

Quemádmódum desíderat cervus ad fontes aquárum, ita desíderat ánima mea ad te, Deus (Ps. XLI, 2).

127

Come, O Lord, and tarry not (Roman Breviary).

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month for the daily recitation of this act of desire on condition of sacramental confession, a visit to a church or public oratory and prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff (S. P. Ap., May 12, 1934).

Veni, Dómine, et noli tardáre (ex Breviario Romano).

Let the receiving of Thy Body, O Lord Jesus Christ, which I, though unworthy, do presume to receive, turn not to me for judgment and condemnation, but, according to Thy mercy, let it be profitable to me for the receiving of protection and healing, both of soul and body: Who livest and reignest for ever and ever. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for the devout daily recitation of this prayer. (S. P. Ap., Mar. 15, 1935).

Percéptio Córporis tui, Dómine Iesu Christe, quod ego indígnus súmeré præsumo, non mihi provéniat in iudícium et condemnatióem; sed pro tua pietáte prosit mihi ad tutaméntum mentis et córporis et ad medélam percipiéndam: Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculórum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

129

Lord, I am not worthy that Thou shouldst enter under my roof; but only say the word and my soul shall be healed (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 500 days, if thrice repeated.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for its recitation thrice each day (S. P. Ap., Nov. 22, 1936).

Dómine, non sum dignus ut intres sub tectum meum, sed tantum dic verbo et sanábitur ánima mea (ex Missali Romano).

130

Almighty and everlasting God, behold I come to the Sacrament of Thine only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ: I come as one infirm to the physician of life, as one unclean to the fountain of mercy, as one blind to the light of everlasting brightness, as one poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth. Therefore I implore the abundance of Thy measureless bounty that Thou wouldst vouchsafe to heal my infirmity, wash my uncleanness, enlighten my blindness, enrich my poverty and clothe my nakedness, that I may receive the Bread of Angels, the King of kings, the Lord of lords, with such reverence and humility, with such sorrow and devotion, with such purity and faith, with such purpose and intention as may be profitable to my soul's salvation. Grant unto me, I pray, the grace of receiving not only the Sacrament of our Lord's Body and Blood, but also the grace and power of the Sacrament. O most gracious God, grant me so to receive the Body of Thine only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, which He took from the Virgin Mary, as to merit to be incorporated into His mystical Body, and to be numbered amongst His members. O most loving Father, give me grace to behold forever Thy beloved Son with unveiled face, whom now I purpose to receive veiled in the way. Amen (St. Thomas Aquinas).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month for the daily recitation of this prayer on condition of confession, a visit to some church or public oratory and prayers for the intentions of the Sovereign Pontiff (S. P. Ap., Dec. 10, 1936).

Omnípotens sempitérne Deus, ecce accédo ad Sacraméntum unigéniti Fílii tui Dómini nostri Iesu Christi; accédo tamquam infírminus ad médicum vitæ, immúndus ad fontem misericórdiæ, cæcus ad lumen claritátis ætérnæ, pauper et egénus ad Dóminum cæli et terræ. Rogo ergo imménsæ largitátis tuæ abundántiam, quátenus meam curáre dignéris infirmitátem, laváre foeditátem, illumináre cæcitatē, ditare paupertatē, vestire nuditatē; ut panem Angelorum, Regem regum et Dōminum dominantium tanta suscipiam reverentia et humilitate, tanta contritione et devotione, tanta puritate et fide, tali proposito et intentione, sicut expedit salutis animæ meæ. Da mihi, quæso, Domīnici Cōrporis et Sanguinis non solum suscipere Sacramentum, sed etiam rem et virtutem Sacramenti. O mitissime Deus, da mihi Corpus unigēniti Fīlii tui Dōmini nostri Iesu Christi, quod traxit de Virgine Mariā, sic suscipere, ut cōpori suo mýstico merear incorporari, et inter eius membra connumerari. O amantissime Pater, concède mihi dilēctum Fīlium tuum, quem nunc velatum in via suscipere propōno, revelata tandem facie perpétuo contemplari. Amen

(S. Thomas Aq.).

THANKSGIVING AFTER COMMUNION

131

How delectable is the sweetness of Thy heavenly Bread! How admirable is the tranquillity and how perfect the peace of him who receives Thee, after the contrite and sincere confession of his sins! Be Thou blessed a thousand times, my Jesus! When I was in sin, I was unhappy; but now not only is my soul at peace, but I seem to have a foretaste of the peace of paradise! Ah, how true it is, that our hearts were made for Thee, my beloved Lord, and that they rest only when they rest in Thee! Therefore do I give Thee thanks and firmly purpose evermore to avoid sin and its occasions and to fix my abode in Thy Sacred Heart, whence I look for help to love Thee even unto death. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month for the daily repetition of this prayer on condition of sacramental confession, a visit to a church or public oratory and prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff (S. C. Ind., June 3, 1896; S. P. Ap., Feb. 25, 1933).

132

I give Thee thanks, holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God, who hast vouchsafed to feed me, a sinner, Thine unworthy servant, for no merits of my own, but only out of the goodness of Thy great mercy, with the precious Body and Blood of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ; and I pray Thee, that this holy Communion may be to me, not guilt for punishment, but a saving intercession for pardon. Let it be to me an armor of faith and a shield of good-will. Let it be to me a casting out of vices; a driving away of all evil desires and fleshly lusts; an increase of charity, patience, humility, obedience, and all virtues; a firm defense against the plots of all my enemies, both seen and unseen; a perfect quieting of all motions of sin, both in my flesh and in my spirit; a firm cleaving unto Thee, the only and true God, and a happy ending of my life. And I pray Thee to deign to bring me, a sinner, to that ineffable Feast, where Thou with Thy Son and the Holy Ghost, art to Thy holy ones true light, full satisfaction, everlasting joy, consummate pleasure and perfect happiness. Amen (St. Thomas Aquinas).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month for the daily recitation of this prayer on condition of sacramental confession, a visit to some church or public oratory and prayers for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff (S. P. Ap., Nov. 22, 1934).

Grátias tibi ago, Dómine sancte, Pater omnípotens, ætérne Deus, qui me peccatórem indígnum fámulum tuum, nullis meis méritis, sed sola dignatíone misericórdiæ tuæ satiáre dignátus es pretiósó Córpoze et Sánguine Fílii tui Dómini nostri Iesu Christi. Et precor, ut hæc sancta commúnio non sit mihi reátus ad pœnam, sed intercéssio salutáris ad véniam. Sit mihi armatúra fídei et scutum bonæ voluntátis. Sit vitiórum meórum evacuátio, concupiscéntiæ et libídinis exterminátio, caritátis et patiéntiæ, humilitátis et obediéntiæ, omniúmque virtútum augmentátio; contra insídias inimicórum ómnium tam visibílium quam invisibílium firma defénsio; mótuum meórum tam carnálium quam spirituálium perfécta quietátio, in te uno ac vero Deo firma adhésio, atque finis mei felix consummátio. Et precor te, ut ad illud ineffábile convívium me peccatórem perdúcere dignéris, ubi tu cum Fílio tuo et Spírítu Sancto Sanctis tuis es lux vera, satíetas plena, gáudium sempitérnum, iucúnditas consummáta et felicitas perfécta. Amen (S. Thomas Aquin.).

My Lord Jesus Christ, most sweet and most kind, who even now, of Thy great goodness, hast entered into this poor and humble abode, adorn it and enrich it with Thy treasures, that it may be made worthy of Thine indwelling. Take up Thy rest therein, that my heart may find its rest in Thee alone. Let it not suffice Thee, O Lord, to have given me Thy sacred Body; give me also the treasures of grace which Thou bringest with Thee; for it will profit me little to eat the Bread of life, if I remain unfed by Thy grace. Give me, O Lord, a heart completely transformed into Thee by love; give me a life that shall be all Thine, a quiet death that shall be the beginning of eternal life. That is what I look for, pray and hope for from Thee, my eternal God, by virtue of this Blessed Sacrament. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. P. Ap., July 8, 1935).

NOTE: Invocations to be said after Communion are found under n. 105.

VI

PRAYER FOR FOSTERING THE PRACTICE OF DAILY COMMUNION

134

O sweetest Jesu, Thou who camest into the world to give all souls the life of Thy grace, and who, to preserve and nourish it in them, hast willed to be at once the daily cure of their daily infirmities and their daily sustenance; we humbly besecch Thee, by Thy Heart all on fire with love for us, to pour forth upon them all Thy divine Spirit, so that those who are unhappily in mortal sin, may turn to Thee and regain the life of grace which they have lost, and those who, through Thy gift, are already living this divine life, may draw near daily, when they can, to Thy sacred table, whence, by means of daily Communion, they may receive daily the antidote of their daily venial sins, and may every day foster within themselves the life of grace; and being thus ever more and more purified, may come at last to the possession of that eternal life which is happiness with Thee. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days once a day.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, when this prayer is said every day (Pius X, Audience of May 30, 1905, exhibited June 3, 1905; S. P. Ap., May 17, 1935).

NOTE: Another prayer addressed to our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament is found under n. 383.

VII

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

135

To the faithful who make an act of spiritual Communion, using any formula they may choose, there is granted:

An indulgence of 3 years;

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions when the act is performed every day of the month (S. P. Ap., Mar. 7, 1927 and Feb. 25, 1933).

VIII

HYMN, RHYTHM AND SEQUENCE

136

HymnPange, lingua, gloriosi

Sing, my tongue, the Saviour's glory,
 Of His Flesh the mystery sing;
 Of the Blood, all price exceeding,
 Shed by our immortal King,
 Destined, for the world's redemption,
 From a noble womb to spring.
 Of a pure and spotless Virgin
 Born for us on earth below,
 He, as Man with man conversing,
 Stay'd, the seeds of truth to sow;
 Then He closed in solemn order
 Wondrously His life of woe.

On the night of that Last Supper,
Seated with His chosen band,
He the Paschal victim eating,
First fulfils the Law's command;
Then, as Food to His Apostles
Gives Himself with His own hand.
Word made Flesh, the bread of nature
By His word to Flesh He turns;
Wine into His Blood He changes:—
What though sense no change discerns?
Only be the heart in earnest,
Faith her lesson quickly learns.
Therefore, we, before It bending,
This great Sacrament adore;
Types and shadows have their ending
In the new rite evermore:
Faith, our outward sense amending,
Maketh good defects before.
Honor, laud, and praise addressing
To the Father and the Son,
Might ascribe we, virtue, blessing,
And eternal benison:
Holy Ghost, from both progressing,
Equal laud to Thee be done. Amen.

(tr. E. Caswall.)

℣. Thou didst send them bread from heaven,

℞. Having in itself every delight.

Let us pray.

O God, who under this wonderful Sacrament hast left us a memorial of Thy passion:
grant us, we beseech Thee, so to reverence the sacred mysteries of Thy Body and Thy Blood, that we may ever feel within ourselves the fruit of Thy redeeming work: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen (Roman Breviary).

An indulgence of 7 years.

An indulgence of 5 years, when only the last two stanzas are said with the versicles and collect.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if the entire hymn, or at least, the last two stanzas with the versicles and collect. are said every day for a month (S. C. Ind., Aug. 24, 1818; S. P. Ap., Sept. 15, 1935).

Hymnus

Pange, língua, gloriósi
 Córporis mystérium, Sanguínisque pretiósi,
 Quem in mundi prétium,
 Fructus ventris generósi,
 Rex effúdit géntium.

Nobis datus, nobis natus
 Ex intácta Vírgine,
 Et in mundo conversátus
 Sparso verbi sémine,
 Sui moras incolátus
 Miro clausit órđine.

In suprémæ nocte cœnæ
 Récumbens cum frátribus,
 Observáta lege plene
 Cibis in legálibus,
 Cibum turbæ duodénæ
 Se dat suis mánibus.

Verbum caro, panem verum
 Verbo carnem éfficit,
 Fitque sanguis Christi merum;
 Et si sensus déficit,
 Ad firmándum cor sincérum
 Sola fides súfficit.

Tantum ergo Sacraméntum
 Venerémur cernui:
 Et antiquum documéntum
 Novo cedat rítui:
 Præstet fides suppleméntum
 Sénsuum deféctui.

Genitóri Genitóque
 Laus et iubilátio,
 Salus, honor, virtus quoque
 Sit et benedíctio:
 Procedénti ab utróque
 Compar sit laudátio. Amen.

V. Panem de cælo præstitísti eis,

R. Omne delectaméntum in se habéntem.

Orémus.

Deus, qui nobis sub Sacraménto mirábili Passiόνis tuæ memóriam reliquisti: tríbue, quæsumus, ita nos Córporis et Sánguinis tui sacra mystéria venerári, ut redemptionís tuæ fructum in nobis iúgiter sentiámus: Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculórum. Amen (ex Breviario Romano).

Rhythm

Adoro te devote

O Godhead hid, devoutly I adore Thee, Who truly art within the forms before me;

To Thee my heart I bow with bended knee,
 As failing quite in contemplating Thee.

Sight, touch, and taste in Thee are each deceived;

The ear alone most safely is believed:
 I believe all the Son of God has spoken,
 Than Truth's own word there is no truer token.

God only on the Cross lay hid from view;
 But here lies hid at once the Manhood too:
 And I, in both professing my belief,
 Make the same prayer as the repentant thief.

Thy wounds, as Thomas saw, I do not see;
 Yet Thee confess my Lord and God to be:
 Make me believe Thee ever more and more;
 In Thee my hope, in Thee my love to store.

O thou Memorial of our Lord's own dying!
 O Bread that living art and vivifying!
 Make ever Thou my soul on Thee to live;
 Ever a taste of Heavenly sweetness give.

O loving Pelican! O Jesu, Lord!
 Unclean I am, but cleanse me in Thy Blood;
 Of which a single drop, for sinners spilt,
 Is ransom for a world's entire guilt.

Jesu! Whom for the present veil'd I see,
 What I so thirst for, O vouchsafe to me:
 That I may see Thy countenance unfolding,
 And may be blest Thy glory in beholding.

Amen.

(St. Thomas Aquinas, tr. E. Caswall.)

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, when this hymn is said daily for a month (S. C. Ind., June 15, 1895; S. P. Ap., March 12, 1936).

Rhythmus

Adóro te devóte, latens Déitas,
 Quæ sub his figúris vere látitas;
 Tibi se cor meum totum súbiicit,
 Quia te contémplans, totum déficit.

Visus, tactus, gustus in te fállitur,
 Sed audítu solo tuto créditur;
 Credo quidquid dixit Dei Fílius,
 Nil hoc verbo veritátis vérius.

In Cruce latébat sola Déitas,
At hic latet simul et humánitas:
Ambo tamen credens, atque cónfitens,
Peto quod petívit latro páenitens.

Plagas, sicut Thomas, non intúeor,
Deum tamen meum te confíteor:
Fac me tibi semper magis crédere,
In te spem habére, te dilígere.

O memoriále mortis Dómini,
Panis vivus vitam præstans hómini:
Præsta meæ menti de te vívere,
Et te illi semper dulce sápere.

Pie pellicáne Iesu Dómine,
Me immúndum munda tuo Sángvine:
Cuius una stilla salvum fácere
Totum mundum quit ab omni scélere.

Iesu, quem velátum nunc aspício,
Oro, fiat illud, quod tam sítio,
Ut te reveláta cernens fácie,
Visu sim beátus tuæ glóriæ. Amen.

(S. Thomas Aquin.).

Sequence

Lauda Sion Salvatorem

Laud, O Sion, thy salvation,
Laud with hymns of exultation
Christ, thy King and Shepherd true.

Spend thyself, His honor raising,
Who surpasseth all thy praising;
Never canst thou reach His due.

Sing today, the mystery showing
Of the living, life-bestowing
Bread before thee set.

E'en the same of old provided,
Where the twelve, divinely guided,
At the holy Table met.

Full and clear ring out thy chanting,
Joy nor sweetest grace be wanting
To thy heart and soul today;

When we gather up the measure
Of that Supper and its treasure,
Keeping feast in glad array.

Lo, the new King's Table gracing,
This new Passover of blessing
Hath fulfilled the elder rite:

Now the new the old effaceth,
Truth revealed the shadow chaseth,
Day is breaking on the night.

His own act, at supper seated,
Christ ordained to be repeated,
In His memory divine.

Wherefore, now, with adoration,
We the Host of our salvation
Consecrate from bread and wine.

This the truth to Christians given—
Bread becomes His Flesh from heaven,
Wine becomes His holy Blood.

Doth it pass thy comprehending?
Faith, the law of sight transcending,
Leaps to things not understood.

Yea, beneath these signs are hidden
Glorious things to sight forbidden:
Look not on the outward sign.

Wine is poured and Bread is broken,
But in either sacred token
Christ is here by power divine.

Whoso of this Food partaketh,
Rendeth not the Lord nor breaketh:
Christ is whole to all that taste.

Thousands are, as one, receivers,
One, as thousands of believers,
Takes the food that cannot waste.

Good and evil men are sharing
One repast, a doom preparing Varied as the heart of man.

Doom of life or death awarded,
As their days shall be recorded
Which from one beginning ran.

When the Sacrament is broken,
Doubt not in each severed token,
Hallowed by the word once spoken,
Resteth all the true content:

Naught the precious Gift divideth,
Breaking but the sign betideth,
He Himself the same abideth,
Nothing of His fulness spent.

Lo! the Angels' Food is given
To the pilgrim who hath striven;
See the children's Bread from heaven,
Which on dogs may not be spent.

Truth, the ancient types fulfilling,
Isaac bound, a victim willing,
Paschal lamb, its life-blood spilling,
Manna to the fathers sent.

Very Bread, good Shepherd, tend us,
 Jesu, of Thy love befriend us,
 Thou refresh us, Thou defend us,
 Thine eternal goodness send us
 In the land of life to see:

Thou Who all things canst and knowest,
 Who on earth such Food bestowest,
 Grant us with Thy Saints, though lowest,
 Where the heavenly Feast Thou showest,
 Fellow-heirs and guests to be. Amen.

(Roman Missal; tr. cento) .

An indulgence of 7 years, on the Feast of Corpus Christi and during its Octave.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if the sequence is duly recited on the aforesaid Feast and on each day of the Octave (S. P. Ap., Nov. 28, 1936) .

In figúris præsignátur,
 Cum Isaac immolátur:
 Agnus paschæ deputátur:
 Datur manna pátribus.

Bone pastor, panis vere,
 Iesu, nostri miserére:
 Tu nos pasce, nos tuére:
 Tu nos bona fac vidére
 In terra vivéntium.

Tu, qui cuncta scis et vales:
 Qui nos pascis hic mortáles:
 Tuos ibi commensáles,
 Coherédes et sodáles
 Fac sanctórum cívium. Amen.

PIOUS PRACTICES

139

The Holy Hour

The faithful, who take part for an entire hour in the public exercise known as the "Holy Hour," in any church, public or semi-public oratory (if they may lawfully make use of the latter), in order to venerate the Passion and Death of Jesus Christ, and to worship and meditate upon the burning love whereby He was led to institute the Holy Eucharist, may gain:

A plenary indulgence, under the usual conditions.

Those, who being at least contrite, perform this pious exercise, whether publicly or privately, may gain:

An indulgence of 10 years (Secr. Mem., Feb. 14, 1815 and Apr. 6, 1816; S. C. Ind., June 18, 1876; S. P. Ap., Mar. 21, 1933).

Solemn Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

a) The solemn exposition of the Blessed Sacrament in the form which is known as the "Forty Hours' Prayer" is, properly speaking, that which is carried out according to the "Instruction" of Pope Clement VIII, "Graves et diuturnæ," which is therefore called the Clementine Instruction; this form of exposition was first introduced in Rome on the 25th day of November in the year 1592, and afterwards came into use in many other places as well.

In keeping with the rules laid down in this Instruction, which is still strictly observed in Rome, the Blessed Sacrament is exposed to the public adoration of the faithful in the ostensorium about noon on one day, which is counted as the first, and remains so exposed, without any interruption even at night, until noon of the third day following.

During the course of this exposition, if a visit is made to the Blessed Sacrament, as is prescribed in n. 121 above, there is granted:

An indulgence of 15 years;

A plenary indulgence on each of the days of the exposition, provided that the faithful make their confession and receive Holy Communion;

The altars of the church are "privileged" during the exposition.

b) Where, however, the solemn exposition according to the Clementine Instruction cannot, in the judgment of the local Ordinary, be carried out, it is held in a manner which may be called "ad instar," as follows: The Blessed Sacrament is exposed in the ostensorium to the adoration of the faithful during the course of the morning or about midday and remains so exposed until midday or evening on the third day, except that the exposition is interrupted each evening.

The same indulgences, including the privileged altars, are granted for this form of the Forty Hours' Prayer as for the strict Clementine form.

c) Where the Blessed Sacrament is exposed continuously in the ostensorium, for at least a month, even though the exposition be interrupted at night, the following indulgences are granted for visits to the Blessed Sacrament, according to the prescriptions of n. 121 above:

An indulgence of 15 years;

A plenary indulgence once each week, on condition of confession and Communion.

The altars are "privileged" each day of the exposition.

d) Whenever no other provision is made for gaining some indulgence, a visit to the Blessed Sacrament publicly exposed will suffice to gain:

An indulgence of 10 years (S. C. Ind., Dec. 8, 1897; S. C. of the Holy Office., Jan. 22, 1914; canon 917, No. 2 of the Code of Canon Law; S. P. Ap., July 24, 1933).

A Novena before the Feast of Corpus Christi

The faithful, who devoutly take part in a public novena before the Feast of Corpus Christi, may gain:

An indulgence of 10 years each day of the novena;

A plenary indulgence, if they assist at five of the novena exercises, make their confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff.

Those who, at the aforesaid season, privately offer their prayers and devout homage in honor of the most holy Body of Christ with the intention of so continuing for nine successive days, may obtain:

An indulgence of 7 years once each day;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions at the end of the novena; however, where a public novena is held, these indulgences are available only to those who are legitimately hindered from assisting at the public exercises (S. C. Ind., May 8, 1907; S. P. Ap., Feb. 25, 1933).

142

The Feast and the Octave of Corpus Christi

a) The faithful, who devoutly visit the Blessed Sacrament, as explained above in n. 121, on the Feast of Corpus Christi and during the Octave, may obtain:

A plenary indulgence once a day under the usual conditions;

b) Those, moreover, who assist at Matins or Lauds on the aforesaid Feast, and follow the singing of the Psalms and Lessons, either with devout readings or with pious meditations on the Blessed Sacrament and with prayers, may gain:

An indulgence of 10 years (Urban IV, Const. "Transiturus," Aug. 11, 1264; Martin V, Const. "Ineffabile," May 26, 1429; Eugene IV, Const. "Excellentissimum," May 26, 1433; S. P. Ap., June 16, 1933).

NOTE: With respect to the solemn Eucharistic procession which is usually held on the Feast of Corpus Christi, or during the Octave, consult n. 123.

A Triduum during the Octave of Corpus Christi

The faithful who assist at the solemn services which are to be held in all Cathedrals and parish churches, according to the Letter of the Sacred Congregation of Indulgences (Apr. 10, 1907), on the Friday, Saturday and Sunday within the Octave of Corpus Christi, or at some other season of the year, even with a change of the days of the week (S. C. Ind., Apr. 8, 1908) to be chosen at the discretion of the Ordinary, may obtain:

An indulgence of 10 years on any day of the triduum;

A plenary indulgence on the third day, if they have been present every day and have gone to confession and Communion.

Furthermore, those who take part in a corporate Communion in some church on any one of the three days, may gain:

A plenary indulgence, if they have duly confessed their sins and prayed for the intention of His Holiness the Pope (S. C. Ind., Apr. 10, 1907; S. P. Ap., Mar. 18, 1932).

The Offering of Holy Mass in Reparation

The faithful, who make an offering and have the sacrifice of the Mass said in reparation for the insults offered by mankind to the most holy Sacrament of the Eucharist, may gain:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, Nov. 15, 1907, exhib., Nov. 19, 1907).

A Pious Exercise of Reparation

The faithful who spend some time in meditation or devout prayers on any one of the nine days that they have chosen, to make reparation for the injuries offered by men to the Blessed Sacrament, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years.

Moreover, those who assist at Mass during this devout exercise may, on each occasion, obtain:

An indulgence of 10 years.

At the end of the novena they may gain:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, Nov. 15, 1907, exhib., Nov. 19, 1907; Benedict XV, Rescript in his own hand, Nov. 25, 1916, exhib., Dec. 30, 1916; S. P. Ap., May 21, 1933).

The Eucharistic Month

The faithful who, during one month of the year, devoutly offer their prayers and homage in honor of the Blessed Sacrament may obtain:

An indulgence of 7 years once on each day of the month;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if they perform this devout exercise every day of the month (S. P. Ap., July 3, 1928 and Mar. 18, 1932).

The Eucharistic Day

The faithful who, on the so-called "Eucharistic Day," during which the Blessed Sacrament is exposed for public adoration, make a visit according to the prescriptions of n. 121 above, may obtain:

An indulgence of 15 years;

A plenary indulgence once under the usual conditions (S. P. Ap., April 10, 1934).

X

ACTS OF ADORATION, REPARATION AND THANKSGIVING

An Act of Adoration and Thanksgiving

I adore Thee, Eternal Father, and I give Thee thanks for the infinite love, with which for my redemption Thou didst deign to send Thine only-begotten Son to be the food of my soul. I offer Thee all the acts of adoration and thanksgiving that are offered to Thee by the Angels and Saints in heaven and by the just on earth. I praise Thee, I love Thee, and I thank Thee, with all the praises, love and thanksgiving wherewith Thine own Son praises Thee, loves Thee and thanks Thee. And I pray Thee to grant that He may be known, loved, honored, thanked and worthily received by all men in this Most Blessed Sacrament.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

I adore Thee, Eternal Son, and I thank Thee for the infinite love which caused Thee to become incarnate for me, to be born in a stable, to be brought up in the carpenter's shop, and to be willing to endure hunger, thirst, cold, fatigue, hardships, contempt, persecution, scourges, thorns, nails and death on the hard wood of the Cross. I thank Thee, in company with Thy whole Church, militant and triumphant, for the infinite love with which Thou didst institute the Blessed Sacrament to be the food of my soul. I adore Thee in all the consecrated Hosts throughout the whole world. I give Thee thanks also on behalf of those who know Thee not and who fail to thank Thee. Would that I could lay down my life to cause Thee to be known, loved and honored by all men in this Sacrament of love, and to put an end to all the irreverences and sacrileges that are committed against Thee! I love Thee, my Jesus, and I desire to love Thee and receive Thee with all the love, purity and affection of Thy most holy Mother, and with the perfect love of Thine own Sacred Heart. Ah, most loving Spouse of my soul, come to me in Thy Sacrament and bring forth in me all those fruits for the sake of which Thou comest to us, and grant that I may die rather than ever receive Thee unworthily.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

I adore Thee, Eternal Spirit, and I give Thee thanks for the infinite love with which Thou hast wrought the ineffable mystery of the Incarnation, and for the infinite charity wherewith Thou didst form out of the most pure blood of the Blessed Virgin Mary the sacred Body of Jesus, which in this Sacrament is the food of my soul. I pray Thee to enlighten my mind and purify my heart and the hearts of all men, that they may come to know this great gift of Thy love, and may receive this Blessed Sacrament in all worthiness.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

The faithful who recite these prayers devoutly before the Blessed Sacrament, may obtain:

An indulgence of 3 years;

A plenary indulgence on the first Thursday of each month under the usual conditions (Secret. Mem., Oct. 17, 1796; S. P. Ap., March 31, 1931).

An Act of Adoration and Reparation

I adore Thee profoundly, O my Jesus, in Thy sacramental form; I acknowledge Thee to be true God and true Man, and by this act of adoration I intend to atone for the coldness of so many Christians who pass before Thy churches and sometimes before the very Tabernacle in which Thou art pleased to remain at all hours with loving impatience to give Thyself to Thy faithful people, and do not so much as bend the knee before Thee, and who, by their indifference proclaim that they grow weary of this heavenly manna, like the people of Israel in the wilderness. I offer Thee in reparation for this grievous negligence, the Precious Blood which Thou didst shed from Thy five wounds, and especially from Thy sacred Side, and entering therein, I repeat a thousand times with true recollection of spirit:

O Sacrament most holy! O Sacrament divine!

All praise and all thanksgiving be every moment Thine.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

II. Profoundly I adore Thee, my Jesus; I acknowledge Thy presence in the Blessed Sacrament, and by this act of adoration I intend to atone for the carelessness of so many Christians who see Thee carried to poor sick people to strengthen them for the great journey to eternity, and leave Thee unescorted, nay, who scarcely give Thee any outward marks of reverence. I offer Thee in reparation for such coldness, the Precious Blood which Thou didst shed from Thy five wounds and especially from Thy sacred Side, and entering therein I say again and again with my heart full of devotion:

O Sacrament most holy, etc.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

III. Profoundly I adore Thee, my Jesus, true Bread of life eternal, and by my adoration I intend to compensate Thee for the many wounds which Thy Heart suffers daily in the profaning of churches where Thou art pleased to dwell beneath the sacramental veils to be adored and loved by all Thy faithful people; and in reparation for so many acts of irreverence, I offer Thee the Precious Blood which Thou didst shed from Thy five wounds and especially from Thy sacred Side, and entering therein with recollected spirit I repeat every instant:

O Sacrament most holy, etc.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

IV. Profoundly I adore Thee, my Jesus, the living Bread which cometh down from heaven, and by this act of adoration, I intend to atone for all the many acts of irreverence which are committed all the day long by Thy faithful when they assist at Holy Mass, wherein through Thine exceeding love Thou dost renew in an unbloody manner the selfsame sacrifice which Thou didst once offer on Calvary for our salvation. I offer Thee in atonement for such base ingratitude the Precious Blood which Thou didst shed from Thy five wounds and especially from Thy sacred Side, and entering therein with sincere devotion, I unite my voice to that of the Angels who stand around Thee in adoration, saying with them:

O Sacrament most holy, etc.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

V. Profoundly I adore Thee, my Jesus, true Victim of expiation for our sins, and I offer Thee this act of adoration to atone for the sacrilegious outrages Thou dost suffer from so many ungrateful Christians who dare to draw near to receive Thee with mortal sin upon their souls. In reparation for such hateful sacrileges I offer Thee the last drops of Thy Precious Blood, which Thou didst shed from Thy sacred wounds and especially from the wound in Thy sacred Side, and entering therein with a devout heart, I adore Thee, I bless and I love Thee, and I repeat with all the hearts who are devoted to the Blessed Sacrament:

O Sacrament most holy, etc.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

An indulgence of 7 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for its daily recitation (S. C. of Rites, Aug. 26, 1814; S. P. Ap., Feb. 25, 1933).

An Act of Reparation

With that profound reverence which the Faith itself inspires in me, O my God and Saviour Jesus Christ, true God and true man, I love Thee with all my heart, and I adore Thee who art hidden here, in reparation for all the irreverences, profanations and sacrileges which Thou receivest in the most adorable Sacrament of the Altar.

I adore Thee, O my God, if not so much as Thou art worthy to be adored nor so much as I am bound to do, yet as much as I am able; would that I could adore Thee with that perfect worship which the Angels in heaven are enabled to offer Thee. Mayest Thou, O my Jesus, be known, adored, loved and thanked by all men at every moment in this most holy and divine Sacrament. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for the daily repetition of this prayer (S. C. Ind., Jan. 21, 1915; S. P. Ap., Oct. 4, 1935).

XI

ANTIPHON, VERSICLE AND COLLECT

151

O sacred banquet, in which Christ is received, the memory of His passion is renewed, the mind is filled with grace, and a pledge of future glory is given to us.

V. Thou didst give them bread from heaven:

R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

Let us pray.

O God, who under a wonderful Sacrament hast left us a memorial of Thy passion; grant us, we beseech Thee, so to venerate the sacred mysteries of Thy Body and Blood, as ever to feel within ourselves the fruit of Thy redemption: Who livest and reignest for ever and ever. Amen.

An indulgence of 7 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for the daily recitation of the above prayer (S. P. Ap., June 4, 1934).

O sacrum convívium, in quo Christus súmitur: recólitur memória passiónis eius; mens implétur grátia et futúræ glóriæ nobis pignus datur.

V. Panem de cælo præstitísti eis;

R. Omnem delectaméntum in se habéntem.

Orémus.

Deus, qui nobis sub Sacraménto mirábili Passiónis tuæ memóriam reliquísti; tríbue, quæsumus, ita nos Córporis et Sánguini tui sacra mystéria venerári, ut redemptionis tuæ fructum in nobis iúgiter sentiámus: Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculórum. Amen.

XII

PRAYERS

152

Behold, O my most loving Jesus, how far Thine exceeding love hath reached! Of Thine own Flesh and Most Precious Blood Thou hast prepared for me a divine table in order to give Thyself wholly to me. What hath impelled Thee to such transports of love? Nothing else surely save Thy most loving Heart. O adorable Heart of my Jesus, burning furnace of divine charity, receive my heart within Thy most sacred wound; to the end that in this school of love, I may learn to make a return of love to the God who hath given me such wondrous proofs of His love. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

153

O my Lord Jesus Christ, who for the love Thou bearest mankind, dost remain night and day in this Sacrament, all full of tenderness and love, expecting, inviting and receiving all those who come to visit Thee; I believe that Thou art present in the Sacrament of the altar; I adore Thee from the depths of my own nothingness and thank Thee for all the favors Thou hast bestowed upon me; and especially for having given me Thyself in this Sacrament, and Thy holy Mother Mary as my advocate; and for having called me to visit Thee in this church. I pay my homage this day to Thy most loving Heart and this I intend to do for three intentions: first, in thanksgiving for this great gift; secondly, in reparation for all the insults Thou hast received from Thine enemies in this Sacrament; thirdly, by this visit I intend to adore Thee in all places upon the earth, where Thou art least adored and most neglected in Thy Sacrament. My Jesus, I love Thee with my whole heart. I repent of having in the past so many times displeased Thine infinite goodness. I purpose with the help of Thy grace never more to offend Thee in the future; and at this present, wretched as I am, I consecrate myself wholly to Thee. I give to Thee and utterly renounce my entire will, all my affections, all my desires, and all that I possess. From this day forth do with me and with all that is mine whatever is pleasing in Thy sight. I ask and desire only Thy holy love, final perseverance and the perfect fulfilment of Thy will. I commend to Thee the souls in purgatory, especially those who were most devoted to this Blessed Sacrament and to Blessed Mary; I commend to Thee in like manner all poor sinners. Finally, my dear Saviour, I unite all my affections with those of Thy most loving Heart, and thus united I offer them to Thine eternal Father, and I pray Him in Thy name graciously to accept and answer them for love of Thee (St. Alphonsus M. de' Liguori).

The faithful who devoutly recite the prayer here set forth in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, are granted:

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, if its daily recitation is persevered in for the entire month (Pius IX, Rescript in his own hand, Sept. 7, 1854; S. P. Ap., Feb. 25, 1933).

I adore Thee, O Jesus, true God and true Man, here present in the Holy Eucharist, humbly kneeling before Thee and united in spirit with all the faithful on earth and all the blessed in heaven. In deepest gratitude for so great a blessing, I love Thee, my Jesus, with my whole heart, for Thou art all perfect and all worthy of love.

Give me grace nevermore in any way to offend Thee, and grant that I, being refreshed by Thy Eucharistic presence here on earth, may be found worthy to come to the enjoyment with Mary of Thine eternal and ever-blessed presence in heaven. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years once a day (S. C. of the Holy Off., March 18, 1909; S. P. Ap., Oct. 30, 1934).

Te, Iesu, verum Deum et Hóminem hic in sancta Eucharístia præsentem, in gènuâ humíllime provolútus, cum fidélibus terræ et Sanctis cæli mente coniúctus, adóro; ac pro tanto beneficio íntime gratus, te, Iesu, infínite perféctum atque infínite amábilem ex toto corde díligo.

Da mihi grátiam ne ullo modo te unquam of-féndam, atque ut, tua hac in terra eucharística præ-séntia recreátus, ad tua ætérna ac beáta in cælis præ-séntia una cum María perfruéndum mérear per-veníre. Amen.

O my God, I firmly believe that Thou art really and corporally present in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar. I adore Thee here present from the very depths of my heart, and I worship Thy sacred presence with all possible humility. O my soul, what joy to have Jesus Christ always with us, and to be able to speak to Him, heart to heart, with all confidence. Grant, O Lord, that I, having adored Thy divine Majesty here on earth in this wonderful Sacrament, may be able to adore It eternally in heaven. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (Brief, May 7, 1921; S. P. Ap., Jan. 22, 1935).

E) JESUS CRUCIFIED

157

Hail, O Cross, our only hope.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for the daily repetition of this ejaculation (S. P. Ap., March 20, 1934).

O Crux, ave, spes única.

158

By the sign of the holy Cross, deliver us from our enemies, O our God! (Roman Breviary)

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if the daily recitation of this invocation is prolonged for an entire month (S. P. Ap., Aug. 1, 1934).

Note: Another invocation is found under n. 106, a.

Per signum Crucis de inimicis nostris libera nos, Deus noster (ex Breviario Romano).

II

OFFICES OF THE PASSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

159

The Office of Tenebræ

The faithful who are present at the Office of Tenebræ on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of Holy Week, and follow the singing of the Psalms and Lessons, either by reading them devoutly or with pious meditations on the Passion of our Lord, or other prayers according to each one's capacity, may gain:

An indulgence of 10 years on each of these days;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if they are present at this devout exercise on all three days (S. P. Ap., March 16, 1935).

160

The Little Office of the Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ

The faithful who recite the little Office of the Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ, in keeping with the prescriptions of canon 932 of the Code of Canon Law, may gain:

An Indulgence of 300 days for each hour of this Office;

An indulgence of 7 years for the entire Office;

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for the daily recitation of the same (S. P. Ap., April 6, 1934).

III

ACTS OF ADORATION AND THANKSGIVING

161

We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee; because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

An indulgence of 3 years (S. P. Ap., Feb. 2, 1934).

The faithful who recite the Apostles' Creed in conjunction with the above short prayer in a spirit of devotion to the Passion and Death of our Lord Jesus Christ, are granted:

An indulgence of 10 years;

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for the daily recitation of the same (S. P. Ap., Feb. 20, 1934).

Adorámus te, Christe, et benedícimus tibi; quia per sanctam Crucem tuam redemísti mundum.

162

Lord, I give Thee thanks for that Thou didst die upon the Cross for my sins (St. Paul of the Cross).

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this invocation is repeated daily for a month (S. P. Ap., Jan. 18, 1918 and March 10, 1933).

IV

HYMN

163

Vexilla Regis prodeunt

The Royal Banners forward go;
The Cross shines forth in mystic glow,
Where Life for sinners death endured,
And life by death for man procured.

Where deep for us the spear was dyed,
Life's torrent rushing from His side,
To wash us in that precious flood
Where mingled, Water flowed, and Blood.

Fulfilled is all that David told
In true prophetic song of old;
"Amidst the nations, God," saith he,
"Hath reigned and triumphed from the Tree."

O Tree of beauty! Tree of light!
O Tree with royal purple dight!
Elect on whose triumphal breast
Those holy Limbs should find their rest.

On whose dear arms, so widely flung,
The weight of this world's ransom hung:
The price of human kind to pay
And spoil the spoiler of his prey.

O Cross, our one reliance, hail,
*Thou glory of the saved, avail
To give fresh merit to the Saint,
And pardon to the penitent.

* Instead of: "Thou glory of the saved," during Passiontide, say: "This holy Passiontide"; during the Paschal Season: "Thou joy of Eastertide"; on the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross: "On this triumphant day."

To Thee, Eternal Three in One,
 Let homage meet by all be done;
 Whom by the Cross Thou dost restore,
 Preserve and govern evermore. Amen.

(Roman Breviary, tr. J. M. Neale).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions for the Jaily recitation of this hymn throughout an entire month (S. C. Ind., Jan. 16, 1886; S. P. Ap., April 29, 1934).

V

THE WAY OF THE CROSS

164

The faithful who with at least a contrite heart, whether singly or in company, perform the pious exercise of the Way of the Cross, when the latter has been legitimately erected according to the prescriptions of the Holy See, may gain:

A plenary indulgence as often as they perform the same;

Another plenary indulgence, if they receive Holy Communion on the same day, or even within a month after having made the Stations ten times;

An indulgence of 10 years for each station, if for some reasonable cause they are unable to complete the entire Way of the Cross.

The same indulgences are valid for the following:

a) Those at sea, prisoners, sick persons and those who live in pagan countries, as well as those who are lawfully hindered from making the Stations in their ordinary form, provided that they hold in their hand a Crucifix, blessed for this purpose by a Priest with the proper faculties, and recite with a contrite heart and devout sentiments twenty times Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be, namely, one for each Station, five in honor of the five sacred Wounds of our Lord, and one for the intentions of the Sovereign Pontiff. If reasonably prevented from saying all, they are entitled to a partial indulgence of 10 years for each recitation of Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be.

b) The sick who on account of their condition cannot without serious inconvenience or difficulty perform the Way of the Cross in its ordinary form or in the shorter form described in paragraph a), may gain all the indulgences, provided that they devoutly and contritely kiss, or at least fix their eyes upon a Crucifix, duly blessed for this purpose, which is held before them by a priest or some other person, and recite, if possible, some short prayer or ejaculation in memory of the Passion and Death of our Lord Jesus Christ (Clement XIV, Audience, Jan. 26, 1773; S. C. Ind., Sept. 16, 1859; S. P. Ap., March 25, 1931, Oct. 20, 1931 and March 18, 1932).

VI

165

The faithful, who on Good Friday strive to meditate for three continuous hours, publicly or privately, on the sufferings of the dying Saviour and the sacred Words which He said on the Cross, or who recite Psalms, hymns and other vocal prayers, may gain:

A plenary indulgence, on condition of confession, Communion on Holy Thursday or during Easter Week, and prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father.

Those who pray in like manner, as described above, on other Fridays of the year for at least a quarter of an hour, in memory of the divine Agony, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years on each and every Friday;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions on the last Friday of any month, provided that they have performed this devout exercise on the preceding Fridays (S. C. Ind., Feb. 14, 1815; S. P. Ap., Sept. 8, 1932).

166

On any Friday of any week, if the Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be are devoutly recited seven times before an image of our Lord Jesus Christ Crucified, the faithful may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, provided that these devout prayers have been recited on all the Fridays of the month (S. C. Ind., Aug. 4, 1837; S. P. Ap., Mar. 10, 1933).

167

The faithful who on Friday at any hour according to the local custom, at the sound of the bell in memory of the Passing of our Lord Jesus Christ, recite five times Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be, on bended knees, if this can be conveniently done, and add moreover for the intention of the Holy Father, this prayer:

We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee;

Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world, or some similar prayer, may gain:

An indulgence of 10 years;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if they devoutly perform this devotion on each Friday for a month (S. P. Ap., Jan. 30, 1933).

The same indulgences can be gained in places where it is not the custom to sound a bell, if the prayers are said, either in the first hours after midday in which, according to the ancient reckoning, the ninth hour fell, at which time, as the holy Evangelists testify, Jesus Christ breathed forth His spirit on the Cross, or at another hour at which the aforesaid commemoration is wont to be made according to the custom of divers places. (S. P. Ap., Dec. 28, 1935).

168

The faithful, who in memory of the five Wounds of our Lord Jesus Christ say five times Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be, together with the following verse:

Holy Mother, pierce me through;
In my heart each wound renew
Of my Saviour crucified.

may obtain:

An indulgence of 3 years;

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for the daily recitation of the same (S. P. Ap., July 9, 1934).

VII

PRAYERS IN HONOR OF THE FIVE WOUNDS OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

169

O good Jesus, within Thy wounds hide me.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Dec. 21, 1936).

O bone Iesu, intra tua vùlnera absconde me.

V. O God, make speed to save me.

R. O Lord, make haste to help me.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost;

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

My dearest Lord Jesus Crucified, bending low before Thee, with Mary most holy and with all the Angels and Saints in paradise, I adore the most holy Wound in Thy right Hand. I give Thee thanks for the infinite love, wherewith Thou didst will to suffer so many bitter pains because of my sins which I detest with all my heart; I implore Thee to grant graciously to Thy holy Church victory over all her enemies, and to all her children grace to walk in holiness in the way of Thy commandments.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

My dearest Lord Jesus Crucified, bending low before Thee, together with Mary most holy and with all the Angels and Saints in paradise, I adore the sacred Wound in Thy left Hand, and I beseech Thee for grace for all poor sinners, for the dying, and especially for those who will not be reconciled to Thee.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

My dearest Lord Jesus Christ, bending low before Thee, with Mary most holy, and with all the Angels and Saints in paradise, I adore the sacred Wound in Thy right Foot, and I beg of Thee this grace, that countless flowers of holiness may blossom among the clergy and all those who are consecrated to Thee.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

My dearest Lord Jesus Crucified, bending low before Thee, with Mary most holy and with all the Angels and Saints in paradise, I adore the sacred Wound in Thy left Foot, and implore Thee to deliver the holy souls in purgatory, and especially those who in life were most devout toward Thy sacred Wounds.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

My dearest Lord Jesus Crucified, bending low before Thee, with Mary most holy and with all the Angels and Saints in paradise, I adore the sacred Wound in Thy most holy Side, and I pray Thee to bless and graciously hear all those who have recommended themselves to my prayers.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

V. O Virgin most sorrowful,

R. Pray for us (to be said thrice).

My Crucified Jesus, confirm these prayers by the merits of Thy passion; give me holiness of life, the grace to receive Thy holy Sacraments at the hour of my death, and glory everlasting. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. of the Holy Off., May 6, 1915).

Behold, O good and sweetest Jesu, I cast myself upon my knees in Thy sight, and with the most fervent desire of my soul I pray and beseech Thee to impress upon my heart lively sentiments of faith, hope and charity, with true repentance for my sins and a most firm desire of amendment: whilst with deep affection and grief of soul I consider within myself and mentally contemplate Thy five most precious Wounds, having before mine eyes that which David, the prophet, long ago spoke in Thine own person concerning Thee, my Jesus: They have pierced my hands and my feet; they have numbered all my bones (Psalm 21, 17 and 18).

The faithful, who recite this prayer devoutly before an image of Jesus Christ Crucified, may gain:

An indulgence of 10 years;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (S. C. Ind., July 31, 1858; S. P. Ap., Feb. 2, 1934).

En ego, o bone et dulcissime Iesu, ante conspéctum tuum génibus me provólvo ac máximo ánimi ardóre te oro atque obtéstor, ut meum in cor vívidos fídei, spei et caritátis sensus, atque veram peccatórum meórum pæniténtiam, éaque emendánda firmíssimam voluntátem velis imprimere: dum magno ánimi afféctu et dolóre tua quinque Vúlnera mecum ipse consídero, ac mente contéplor, illud præ óculis habens, quod iam in ore ponébat tuo David Prophéta de te, o bone Iesu: Foderunt manus meas et pedes meos; dinumeraverunt ómnia ossa mea (Ps. xxi v. 17 et 18).

172

O God, who by the passion of Thine only-begotten Son, and by the shedding of His Precious Blood through His five Wounds, didst restore human nature when it was lost by sin; grant us, we beseech Thee, that we who venerate on earth the Wounds suffered by Him, may be found worthy to obtain in heaven the fruits of that same Most Precious Blood. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for the daily recitation of this prayer (S. P. Ap., Dec. 12, 1936).

Deus, qui Unigéniti Fílii tui passióne, et per quinque Vúlnera eius Sánguini effusióne humánam natúram peccáto pérditam reparásti; tríbue nobis, quáesumus, ut qui ab eo suscépta Vúlnera venerámur in terris, eiúsdem pretiosíssimi Sánguini fructum cónsequi mereámur in cælis. Per eúndem Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

Grant, Lord Jesus Christ, that we who devoutly worship Thy five most precious Wounds, may keep them deeply impressed upon our hearts both in our life and in our deeds.

Glory be (five times).

An indulgence of 3 years (S. P. Ap., Dec. 12, 1936).

Fac, Dómine, Iesu Christe, ut qui Vúlnera tua devóte cólimus, hæc in nostris córdibus impréssa, móribus et vita teneámus.

Quinquies Glória Patri.

VIII

PRAYERS IN COMMEMORATION OF THE SEVEN WORDS SPOKEN BY JESUS ON THE CROSS

174

V. O God, make speed to save me.

R. O Lord, make haste to help me.

V. Glory be, etc.

R. As it was, etc.

FIRST WORD

Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.

Dear Jesu, who for love of me dost suffer upon the Cross in order to pay with Thy sufferings the debt of my sins and dost open Thy divine lips to obtain for me their remission from the eternal justice of God, have pity on all the faithful who are in their last agony and upon me; and when I shall come to that final hour, by the merits of Thy Most Precious Blood which was shed for our salvation, give me such a lively sorrow for my sins as shall cause my soul to expire in the bosom of Thine infinite mercy.

Glory be to the Father, etc. (three times).

Have mercy on us, O Lord, have mercy on us.

My God, I believe in Thee, I hope in Thee, I love Thee and I repent of having offended Thee by my sins.

SECOND WORD

This day shalt thou be with Me in paradise.

Dear Jesu, who for love of me dost hang in agony upon the Cross, and with such readiness and bounty dost respond to the faith of the good thief who in the midst of Thy humiliation acknowledges Thee to be the Son of God, and dost assure him of paradise, have pity on all the faithful who are in their agony and upon me; and when I shall come to my latter end, by the merits of Thy Most Precious Blood, inspire in my soul a faith so firm and constant that it shall not waver at any suggestions of the evil spirit; so may I obtain the reward of Thy holy paradise.

Glory be to the Father, etc. (three times).

Have mercy, etc. (as above).

My God, etc. (as above).

THIRD WORD

Behold thy mother; behold thy son.

Dear Jesu, who for love of me dost hang in agony upon the Cross, and who, forgetting Thine own sufferings, dost bequeath to me Thy most holy Mother as a pledge of Thy love, in order that, through her, I may be enabled to have recourse to Thee with all confidence in my greatest necessities, have pity on all the faithful who are in their agony and upon me; and when I shall come to my latter end, by the interior martyrdom of Thy dear Mother, inspire in my heart a firm trust in the infinite merits of Thy Most Precious Blood, whereby I may be able to escape the eternal damnation which I have merited by my sins.

Glory be to the Father, etc. (three times).

Have mercy, etc.

My God, etc. (as above).

FOURTH WORD

My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?

Dear Jesu, who for love of me dost hang in agony upon the Cross, and who, adding suffering to suffering, besides Thy bodily pains, dost endure with infinite patience the most painful affliction of spirit at being abandoned by Thine eternal Father, have pity on all the faithful who are in their agony and upon me; and when I shall come to the hour of death, by the merits of Thy Most Precious Blood, give me the grace of suffering with true patience all the pains and agony of my death-struggle, so that by uniting my sufferings to Thine, I may be able at the last to share Thy glory in Paradise.

Glory be to the Father, etc. (three times).

Have mercy, etc.

My God, etc.

FIFTH WORD

I thirst.

Dear Jesu, who for love of me dost hang in agony upon the Cross, and who, not yet satisfied with so many reproaches and sufferings, wouldst suffer even more, if thereby all men might be saved, showing thus that the whole torrent of Thy passion is not enough to slake the thirst of Thy loving Heart, have pity on all the faithful who are in their agony and upon me; and when I shall come to my final hour, by the merits of Thy Most Precious Blood, enkindle so great a fire of love within my heart as shall cause it to die for very desire of being united to Thee through all eternity.

Glory be to the Father, etc. (three times).

Have mercy, etc.

My God, etc.

SIXTH WORD

All is finished.

Dear Jesu, who for love of me dost hang in agony upon the Cross, and from that pulpit of truth dost proclaim that Thou hast finished the work of our redemption, whereby man, from being a child of wrath and perdition, has been made a son of God and an heir of heaven, have pity on all the faithful who are in their agony and upon me; and when I shall come to my last hour, by the merits of Thy Most Precious Blood, detach me wholly from the world and from myself, giving me the grace to offer Thee from my heart the sacrifice of my life in expiation of my sins.

Glory be to the Father, etc. (three times).
Have mercy, etc. My God, etc.

SEVENTH WORD

Father, into Thy hands I commend my spirit.

Dear Jesu, who for the love of me dost hang in agony upon the Cross, and who to complete this great sacrifice dost embrace the will of Thine eternal Father, resigning Thy spirit into His hands, and then dost bow Thy head and die, have pity on all the faithful who are in their agony and upon me; and when I shall come to my latter end, by the merits of Thy Most Precious Blood give me a perfect conformity to Thy divine will, so that I may be ready to live or die, as it shall please Thee;

nor do I desire anything else except the perfect fulfilment in me of Thine adorable will.

Glory be to the Father, etc. (three times).
Have mercy, etc. My God, etc.

Prayer to the Sorrowful Mother

Most holy Mother of sorrows, by that soul-piercing martyrdom thou didst undergo at the foot of the Cross during the three hours' agony of Jesus, deign to assist me also, who am the child of thy sorrows, in my agony, so that by thine intercession I may be found worthy to pass from my deathbed to thy blessed society in paradise.

V. From a sudden and unprovided death,

R. Deliver me, O Lord.

V. From the snares of the devil,

R. Deliver me, O Lord.

V. From everlasting death,

R. Deliver me, O Lord.

Let us pray.

O God, who for the salvation of mankind hast made for us in the most bitter death of Thy Son both an example and a refuge; grant, we beseech Thee, that we may be found worthy to obtain the fruit of His great love in our final peril at the hour of death, and to be made partakers of our Redeemer's glory. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 7 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this prayer is recited daily for a month (S. C. Ind., Dec. 8, 1897; S. P. Ap., May 27, 1935).

IX

PRAYERS

175

O God, who for the redemption of the world didst will to be born amongst men, to be circumcised, to be rejected by the Jews, to be betrayed by the traitor Judas with a kiss, to be bound with cords, to be led to slaughter as an innocent lamb, to be shamelessly exposed to the gaze of Annas, Caiphas, Pilate and Herod, to be accused by false witnesses, to be tormented by scourges and insults, defiled with spitting, crowned with thorns, smitten with blows, struck with a reed, blindfolded, stripped of Thy garments, fastened to the Cross with nails, lifted on the Cross, reckoned among thieves, given gall and vinegar to drink and wounded with a spear; do Thou, O Lord, by these Thy most holy sufferings, upon which I unworthily meditate, and by Thy holy Cross and death, deliver me from the pains of hell, and vouchsafe to bring me where Thou didst bring the penitent thief who was crucified with Thee, who with the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest, one God, world without end. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be (five times).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this prayer is said with devotion daily for an entire month (S. C. Ind., Aug. 25, 1820; S. P. Ap., Oct. 6, 1933).

Deus, qui pro redemptione mundi voluisti nasci, circumcidi, a Iudaeis reprobari, a Iuda traditore osculo tradi, vinculis alligari, sicut agnus innocens ad víctimam duci atque conspéctibus Annæ, Cáiphæ, Piláti et Heródis indecénter offérri, a falsis téstibus accusári, flagéllis et oppróbriis vexári, sputis cónspui, spinis coronári, cólaphis cædi, arúndine pércuti, fácie velári, véstibus éxui, cruci clavis affígi, in cruce levári, inter latrónes deputári, felle et acéto potári et láncea vulnerári, Tu, Dómine, per has sanctíssimas pœnas tuas, quas ego indígnus récolo, et per sanctam Crucem et Mortem tuam, líbera me a pœnis inférni et perdúcere dignéris, quo perduxísti latrónem tecum crucifíxum. Qui cum Patre et Spírítu Sancto vivis et regnas Deus per ómnia sæcula sæculórum. Amen.

Quinquies Pater, Ave et Glória.

My divine Saviour, what didst Thou become, when for love of souls Thou didst suffer Thyself to be bound to the pillar? Ah! how truly then was fulfilled the word of the Prophet, saying of Thee that from head to foot Thou shouldst be all one wound, so as to be no longer recognizable! What shame Thou didst endure when they stripped Thee of Thy garments! What torments Thou didst undergo in that tempest of countless blows! In what torrents did Thy Precious Blood gush forth from Thy bursting veins!

I know well it was not so much the injustice of the Roman governor and the cruelty of the soldiers that scourged Thee as my sins. O accursed sins, that have cost Thee so many pains! Alas, what hardness of heart, when notwithstanding Thy manifold sufferings for me I have continued to offend Thee! But from this day forth it shall be so no longer.

United to Thee by bonds of loyalty for ever, as long as I shall live, I shall seek to satisfy Thine offended justice. By the pains Thou didst suffer when bound to the pillar, by the scourges which tore Thine innocent Flesh, by the Blood which Thou didst shed in such abundance, have mercy on this unhappy soul of mine; deliver me today and always from the snares of the tempter; and when I have come to the end of my exile, bring me safely home to heaven with Thee.

An indulgence of 500 days (Leo XIII, Audience May 15, 1886; S. P. Ap., March 10, 1933).

Behold me at Thy feet, O Jesus of Nazareth, behold the most wretched of creatures, who comes into Thy presence humbled and penitent! Have mercy on me, O Lord, according to Thy great mercy! I have sinned and my sins are always before Thee. Yet my soul belongs to Thee, for Thou hast created it, and redeemed it with Thy Precious Blood. Ah, grant that Thy redeeming work be not in vain! Have pity on me; give me tears of true repentance; pardon me for I am Thy child; pardon me as Thou didst pardon the penitent thief; look upon me from Thy throne in heaven and give me Thy blessing.

I believe in God, etc.

An indulgence of 3 years (S. C. Ind., June 26, 1894; S. P. Ap., May 12, 1931).

O Jesus, who in Thy bitter passion didst become "the most abject of men, a man of sorrows," I venerate Thy sacred Face whereon there once did shine the beauty and sweetness of the Godhead; but now It has become as it were the face of a leper! Nevertheless under those disfigured features, I recognize Thine infinite Love, and I am consumed with desire to love Thee and make Thee loved by all men. The tears which well up so abundantly in Thy sacred eyes appear to me as so many precious pearls that I love to gather up, in order to purchase the souls of poor sinners by means of their infinite value. O Jesus, whose adorable Face ravishes my heart, I implore Thee to fix deep within me Thy divine image and to set me on fire with Thy love, that so I may be found worthy to come to the contemplation of Thy glorious Face in heaven. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. of the Holy Office, June 10, 1915; S. P. Ap., April 5, 1931).

O my crucified God, behold me at Thy feet; deign to cast me not out, now that I appear before Thee as a sinner. I have offended Thee exceedingly in the past, my Jesus, but it shall be so no longer. Before Thee, my God, I put all my sins; I have now considered them and behold, they do not deserve Thy pardon; but do Thou cast one glance upon Thy sufferings and see how great is the worth of that Precious Blood that flows from Thy veins. O my God, at this hour close Thine eyes to my want of merit and open them to Thine infinite merit, and since Thou hast been pleased to die for my sins, grant me forgiveness for them all, that I may no longer feel the burden of my sins, for this burden, dear Jesus, oppresses me beyond measure. Assist me, my Jesus, for I desire to become good whatsoever it may cost; take away, destroy, utterly root out all that Thou findest in me contrary to Thy holy will. At the same time I pray Thee, O Jesus, to enlighten me, that I may be able to walk in Thy holy light (Blessed Gemma Galgani).

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this prayer is recited with devotion every day for a month (S. P. Ap., Feb. 16, 1934 and Nov. 26, 1934).

180

Assist us, O Lord our God; and defend us evermore by the might of Thy holy Cross, in whose honor Thou makest us to rejoice. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, when it has been recited daily with devout dispositions (S. P. Ap., Sept. 14, 1934).

Adésto nobis, Dómine Deus noster; et quos sanctæ Crucis lætári facis honóre, eius quoque perpétuis defénde subsidiis. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

O God, who for our sake didst will Thy Son to undergo the torments of the Cross, that Thou mightest drive far from us the power of the enemy; grant unto us Thy servants that we may attain to the grace of His Resurrection. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 5 years.

Deus, qui pro nobis Fílium tuum Crucis patíbulum subíre voluísti, ut inimíci a nobis expélleres potestátem: concéde nobis fámulis tuis; ut resurrectionis grátiam consequámur. Per eúndem Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

O God, Who didst will to hallow the standard of the life-giving Cross by the Precious Blood of Thine only-begotten Son; grant, we beseech Thee, that they who rejoice in honoring the same holy Cross, may rejoice also in Thine ever-present protection. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions when this prayer has been devoutly said every day for a month (S. P. Ap., Feb. 7, 1935).

Deus, qui unigéniti Fílii tui pretiósó Súnguine, vivíficæ Crucis vexíllum sanctificáre voluísti: concéde, quæsumus, eos qui eiúsdem sanctæ Crucis gaudent honóre, tua quoque ubíque protectióne gaudére. Per eúndem Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who at the sixth hour didst mount the gibbet of the Cross for the redemption of the world and didst shed Thy Precious Blood for the remission of our sins, we humbly beseech Thee, that Thou wouldst grant us the grace after death to enter with joy the gates of paradise. Who livest and reignest for ever and ever. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this prayer is devoutly said every day for a month (S. P. Ap., July 18, 1936).

Dómine Iesu Christe, Fili Dei vivi, qui hora sexta pro redemptione mundi Crucis patibulum ascendisti et Sanguinem tuum pretiosum in remissionem peccatorum nostrorum fudisti; te humiliter deprecamur, ut post obitum nostrum paradisi ianuas nos gaudenter introire concedas: Qui vivis et regnas in secula seculorum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

F) IN HONOR OF THE MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD OF JESUS

I

INVOCATION

We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants: whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy Precious Blood (Ambrosian Hymn).

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., March 23, 1933).

Te ergo quæsumus, tuis famulis subveni, quos pretioso Sanguine redemisti (ex Hymno Ambrosiano).

NOTE: Another invocation is found under n. 106-b.

HYMN

Salvete, Christi vulnera

185

Hail, Holy Wounds of Jesus, hail!
Sweet pledges of the saving Rood!
Whence flow the streams that never fail—
The purple streams of His dear Blood.

Brighter than brightest stars ye show,
Than sweetest rose your scent more rare,
No Indian gem may match your glow,
No honey's taste with yours compare.

Portals are ye to that dear Home,
Wherein our wearied souls may hide,
Whereto no angry foe can come,
The heart of Jesus Crucified.

What countless stripes our Jesus bore,
All naked left in Pilate's hall,
What copious floods of purple gore
Through rents in His torn garments fall.

His comely brow, O shame and grief,
By the sharp, thorny crown is riven,
Through hands and feet, without relief
The cruel nails are deeply driven.

But when for our poor sakes He died,
A willing Priest, by love subdued,
The soldier's spear transfixed His side—
Forth flowed the water and the blood.

Beneath the winepress of God's wrath,
To save our souls from endless pains,
Still hour by hour His Blood pours forth
Till not a single drop remains.

Come, bathe you in that healing flood,
 All ye who mourn with sin opprest,
 Your only hope in Jesus' Blood,
 His Sacred Heart your only rest.

All praise to Him, the eternal Son,
 At God's right hand enthroned above,
 Whose Blood the world's redemption won,
 Whose Spirit seals the gifts of love. Amen.

(Roman Breviary, tr. by H. N. Oxenham).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for its daily recitation (S. P. Ap., Nov. 22, 1934).

Hymnus

Salvéte, Christi vúlnera,
 Imménsi amóris pígнора,
 Quibus perénnes rívuli
 Manant rubéntis sánguinis.

Nitóre stellas víncitis,
 Rosas odóre et bálsama,
 Prétio lapíllos Indicos,

III

A DEVOUT EXERCISE FOR THE MONTH OF JULY

186

The faithful, who during the month of July devoutly take part in the public exercise which is held in honor of the Most Precious Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, may gain:

An indulgence of 10 years on any day of the month;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if they are present at ten of the exercises at least.

Those who during this month perform privately certain pious practices in honor of the same Precious Blood, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years once on each day;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if they persevere in their prayers throughout the month; where, however, a public exercise is held, this indulgence is available only to those who are legitimately hindered from taking part in it (S. C. Ind., June 4, 1850; S. P. Ap., May 12, 1931).

IV

PRAYERS

187

O Precious Blood of Jesus, infinite price of sinful man's redemption, both drink and laver of our souls, Thou who dost plead continually the cause of man before the throne of infinite mercy; from the depths of my heart, I adore Thee, and so far as I am able, I would requite Thee for the insults and outrages which Thou dost continually receive from human beings, and especially from those who rashly dare to blaspheme Thee. Who would not bless this Blood of infinite value? Who doth not feel within himself the fire of the love of Jesus who shed it all for us? What would be my fate, had I not been redeemed by this divine Blood? Who hath drawn It from the veins of my Saviour, even to the last drop? Ah, this surely was the work of love. O infinite love, which has given us this saving balm! O balm beyond all price, welling up from the fountain of infinite love, grant that every heart and every tongue may be enabled to praise Thee, magnify Thee and give Thee thanks both now and for evermore. Amen.

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Jesus Christ in atonement for my sins, and in supplication for the holy souls in purgatory and for the needs of holy Church.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions for its daily recitation for an entire month (Pius VII, Sept. 22, 1817; S. P. Ap., March 10, 1933).

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the merits of the Precious Blood of Jesus, Thy beloved Son, my Saviour and my God, for the spread and exaltation of my dear Mother, Thy holy Church, for the preservation and welfare of her visible Head, the sovereign Roman Pontiff, for the Cardinals, Bishops and Pastors of souls, and for all the ministers of the sanctuary.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Blessed and praised for evermore be Jesus,
Who hath saved us with His Blood!

II. Eternal Father, I offer Thee the merits of the Precious Blood of Jesus, Thy beloved Son, my Saviour and my God, for peace and concord among Catholic kings and princes, for the humbling of the enemies of our holy faith and for the welfare of all Thy Christian people.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Blessed and praised, etc.

III. Eternal Father, I offer Thee the merits of the Precious Blood of Jesus, Thy beloved Son, my Saviour and my God, for the conversion of unbelievers, the rooting-up of all heresies and the conversion of sinners.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Blessed and praised, etc.

IV. Eternal Father, I offer Thee the merits of the Precious Blood of Jesus, Thy beloved Son, my Saviour and my God, for all my relations, friends and enemies, for those in need, in sickness and in tribulation, and for all those for whom Thou knowest that I am bound to pray, and willest that I should pray.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Blessed and praised for evermore, etc.

V. Eternal Father, I offer Thee the merits of the Precious Blood of Jesus, Thy beloved Son, my Saviour and my God, for all those who are to pass this day to the other life, that Thou wouldst deliver them from the pains of hell, and admit them with all speed to the possession of Thy glory.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Blessed and praised, etc.

VI. Eternal Father, I offer Thee the merits of the Precious Blood of Jesus, Thy beloved Son, my Saviour and my God, for all men who are lovers of this great treasure and who are united with me in adoring and glorifying It and who labor to spread this devotion.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Blessed and praised, etc.

VII. Eternal Father, I offer Thee the merits of the Precious Blood of Jesus, Thy beloved Son, my Saviour and my God, for all my needs, both temporal and spiritual, as an intercession for the holy souls in purgatory, and in an especial manner for those who were most devoted to this price of our redemption, and to the sorrows and sufferings of our dear Mother, Mary most holy.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

Blessed and praised, etc.

Glory to the Blood of Jesus both now and for evermore and through the everlasting ages. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions for the daily recitation of this act of oblation for a month (Pius VII, Sept. 22, 1817; S. P. Ap., May 12, 1931).

190

Lord Jesus Christ, who camest down from heaven to earth from the bosom of the Father, and didst shed Thy Precious Blood for the remission of our sins: we humbly beseech Thee, that in the day of judgment we may deserve to hear, standing at Thy right hand: "Come, ye blessed." Who livest and reignest for ever and ever. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for the daily repetition of this collect (S. P. Ap., Nov. 22, 1934).

Dómine Iesu Christe, qui de cælis ad terram de sinu Patris descendisti et Sanguinem tuum pretiosum in remissionem peccatorum nostrorum fudisti: te humiliter deprecámur, ut in die iudicii ad dexteram tuam audire mereámur: Veníte benedicti. Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculórum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

191

Almighty, and everlasting God, who hast appointed Thine only-begotten Son to be the Redeemer of the world, and hast been pleased to be reconciled unto us by His Blood, grant us, we beseech Thee, so to venerate with solemn worship the price of our salvation, that the power thereof may here on earth keep us from all things hurtful, and the fruit of the same may gladden us for ever hereafter in heaven. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions once a month for the daily recitation of this prayer (S. P. Ap., July 15, 1935).

Omnípotens sempitérne Deus, qui unigénitum Fílium tuum mundi Redemptórem constituísti, ac eius Sángvine placári voluísti: concéde quæsumus, salútis nostræ prétium solémni cultu ita venerári, atque a præsentis vitæ malis eius virtúte deféndi in terris, ut fructu perpétuo lætémur in cælis. Per eúndem Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

214

Cor, arca legem continens

O Heart! thou ark where lies the law,
Not of the servitude of old,
But that from which we pardon draw,
And grace and mercies manifold.
Heart, the pure and stainless shrine
Where that new covenant has lain:

Temple than Salem's more divine;
 Veil, better than its veil in twain.
 With such a wound as must appear
 Love willed that Thou shouldst wounded be,
 That we might all the wounds revere,
 Which love doth bear invisibly.
 'Neath this, love's symbol, suffering twice,
 Things mystical and bloody both
 Christ, as a priest, in sacrifice
 To Heaven uplifted, nothing loth.
 Who would not love for love repay?
 What man, redeemed, could love refuse
 To this Heart, or herein, for aye,
 His tabernacle fail to choose?
 Jesu, to Thee be glory given,
 Who from Thy Heart dost grace outpour;
 To Father and to Paraclete
 Be endless praise for ever more. Amen.

(Roman Breviary; tr. J. Fitzpatrick).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of this hymn throughout a month (S. P. Ap., June 23, 1935).

Cor, arca legem cóntinens
 Non servitútis véteris,
 Sed grátiaë, sed véniaë,
 Sed et misericórdiaë.

Cor, sanctuárium novi
 Intemerátum foéderis,
 Templum vetústo sánctius,
 Velúmque scisso útilius.

Te vulnerátum cáritas
 Ictu paténti vóluit,
 Amóris invisíbilis
 Ut venerémur vúlnera.

Hoc sub amóris sýmbolo
 Passus cruénta et mýstica,
 Utrúmque sacrificium
 Christus sacérdos óbtulit.

Quis non amántem rédamet?
 Quis non redéemptus díligat,
 Et Corde in isto séligat
 Aetérna tabernácula?

Iesu, tibi sit glória,
 Qui Corde fundis grátiam
 Cum Patre et almo Spíritu
 In sempitérna sæcula. Amen.

(ex Breviario Romano).

215

Auctor beate sæculi

Jesu! Creator of the world,
 Of all mankind Redeemer blest,
 True God of God, in Whom we see
 Thy Father's image clear expressed!
 Thee, Saviour, love alone constrained
 To make our mortal flesh Thine own,
 And, as a second Adam, come
 For the first Adam to atone.
 That selfsame love which made the sky,
 Which made the sea and stars, and earth,
 Took pity on our misery,
 And broke the bondage of our birth.
 O Jesus! in Thy Heart divine
 May that same love forever glow!
 Forever mercy to mankind
 From that exhaustless fountain flow!

For this the Sacred Heart was pierced,
 And both with blood and water ran—
 To cleanse us from the stains of guilt,
 And be the hope and strength of man.

Jesu, to Thee be glory given,
 Who from Thy Heart dost grace outpour,
 To Father and to Paraclete
 Be endless praise for evermore. Amen.

(Roman Breviary, tr. E. Caswall).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this hymn is devoutly recited every day for a month (S. P. Ap., March 12, 1936).

Auctor beáte sáeculi,
 Christe, Redémptor ómnium,
 Lumen Patris de lúmíne,
 Deúsque verus de Deo.

Amor coëgit te tuus
 Mortále corpus súmere,
 Ut, novus Adam, rédderes,
 Quod vetus ille abstúlerat.

Ille amor almus ártifex
 Terræ marisque et síderum,
 Erráta patrum míserans
 Et nostra rumpens víncula.

Non Corde discédát tuo
 Vis illa amóris ínclýti:
 Hoc fonte gentes háuriant
 Remissiónis grátiam.

Percússum ad hoc est láncea,

 In sempitérna sáecula. Amen.

(ex Breviario Romano).

V

PIOUS PRACTICES

216

The faithful who recite the Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be together with the invocation

Sweet Heart of my Jesus, grant that I may love Thee more and more:

before an image of the Sacred Heart of Jesus may gain:

An indulgence of 500 days;

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, if they perform this act of devotion daily (Pius VI, Audience, Jan. 2, 1799; S. P. Ap., March 10, 1933).

217

The faithful who devoutly visit a church or public oratory where the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus is being celebrated (even though it has been transferred with the consent of the Ordinary) may gain:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (Secret Mem., July 7, 1815; S. P. Ap., Nov. 4, 1934).

218

The faithful who devoutly assist at a public novena in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, immediately before the Feast or at some other time during the year, may gain:

An indulgence of 10 years on any day;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, provided that they assist at this devout exercise on at least five days.

Those who at the aforesaid times perform their devotions privately in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, with the intention of so continuing for nine successive days, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years once each day;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions at the end of the novena; but where this is performed publicly, this indulgence can be gained only by those who are lawfully prevented from taking part in the public exercises (S. C. Ind., Jan. 13, 1818; Pius IX, Audience, Jan. 3, 1849; S. C. of Bishops and Religious, Jan. 28, 1850; S. C. Ind., Nov. 26, 1876; S. P. Ap., Feb. 22, 1935).

219

THE BADGE OF THE SACRED HEART

The faithful who devoutly wear a badge of white wool, suspended from the neck after the manner of a small scapular, with a likeness of the Sacred Heart of Jesus embroidered thereon or otherwise attached, and with the following, or similar words, printed upon it: Cease, the Heart of Jesus is with us, or even without any inscription at all, if they say Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be, may gain:

An indulgence of 500 days, once a day (Pius IX, Rescript in his own hand, Oct. 28, 1872, exhib. Dec. 18, 1872; Brief, March 28 and June 20, 1873; S. P. Ap., April 8, 1936).

a) The faithful who receive Holy Communion on the First Friday of the month and devoutly assist at the public exercises in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus may gain:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions.

If they receive Holy Communion on the First Friday, and recite privately some prayers in reparation for the injuries offered to the Sacred Heart of Jesus they may gain:

A plenary indulgence provided that they make their confession, visit a church or public oratory and pray for the intentions of the Sovereign Pontiff. If, however, a public service is held, this latter indulgence can be gained only by those who are lawfully prevented from assisting at such service.

b) The faithful who recite devout prayers of reparation on other Fridays of the year may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years once on each Friday (S. C. Ind., Sept. 7, 1897; S. P. Ap., June 1, 1934).

A MONTH DEDICATED TO THE
MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

The faithful who devoutly take part in public services in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus during the month of June, or some other, according to the prudent judgment of the most Reverend Ordinary, may gain:

An indulgence of 10 years on any day of the month;

A plenary indulgence, if they are present at these services on at least ten days of the month and, in addition, make their confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the intentions of the Sovereign Pontif.

Those who perform their devotions privately during such a month may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years on any day of the month;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, provided that they perform these devotions daily throughout the month and are lawfully excused from taking part in public exercises where the latter are held (S. C. Ind., May 8, 1873 and May 30, 1902; S. P. Ap., March 1, 1933).

Moreover, if the month dedicated to the Sacred Heart is solemnly celebrated, namely, with a sermon either daily or in the form of a retreat (with at least two discourses each day) for a period of eight days, whether in a church, public oratory or semi-public oratory (for those who may lawfully make use of the latter), there is granted:

1° A plenary indulgence for each visit made on the day on which the month is closed, to be gained by those who have been present at ten at least of the sermons and prayers, or have assisted at all the exercises of the retreat (performing their devotions from time to time), if they make their confession, receive Holy Communion and say the Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be six times at each visit for the intentions of the Sovereign Pontiff;

2° a) An indulgence of 500 days, for those who perform some work of piety that this devout practice may be more widely spread or receive an increase;

b) A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions as often as they receive Holy Communion during the aforesaid month;

c) The indult of a personal "privileged" altar on the final day of the month, to the preachers and rectors of churches or oratories where the aforesaid service is solemnly held (S. C. Ind., Aug. 8, 1906; Pius X in a private audience, the document having been exhibited on Jan. 26, 1908; S. P. Ap., Nov. 15, 1927 and July 5, 1930).

222

The faithful, on any of the five Fridays immediately preceding the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, if they receive Holy Communion, may gain:

A plenary indulgence, if they make their confession, visit some church or public oratory and pray for the intentions of the Roman Pontiff (Brief, June 3, 1924; S. P. Ap., April 26, 1930).

VI

CHAPLET

223

V. O God, make speed to save me;

R. O Lord, make haste to help me.

V. Glory be to the Father, etc.

R. As it was in the beginning, etc.

I. My most loving Jesus, when I consider Thy tender Heart and behold It full of mercy and tenderness toward sinners, my own heart is filled with joy and confidence that I shall be kindly welcomed by Thee. Alas, how many times have I sinned! But now, with Peter and with Magdalen, I weep for my sins and detest them because they offend Thee, who art infinite Goodness. Ah, mercifully grant me pardon for them all; and let me die, I ask it through Thy Sacred Heart, let me die rather than offend Thee again; at least let me live only to love Thee in return.

Our Father once and Glory be five times.

Sweet Heart of my Jesus,

Make me love Thee ever more and more.

II. My Jesus, I bless Thy most humble Heart, and I give Thee thanks that, in giving It to me to be my example, not only dost Thou urge me with strong pleadings to imitate It, but even at the cost of Thine own great humiliations, Thou dost point out and make plain to me the way of salvation. Fool and ingrate that I am, how far have I gone astray! Pardon me; no longer shall pride rule in me, but with a humble heart will I follow Thee through the midst of tribulations and thus obtain my peace and salvation. Do Thou give me strength and I will bless Thy Sacred Heart for ever.

Our Father once and Glory be five times.
Sweet Heart, etc.

III. My Jesus, I am filled with admiration at the exceeding patience of Thy Sacred Heart, and I thank Thee for having given us so many wondrous examples of unwearied patience. It grieves me that these Thine examples vainly reproach me for my excessive delicacy, shrinking as I do from the slightest pain. O my dear Jesus, pour into my heart a fervent and abiding love of tribulations, of crosses, of mortification and penance, so that, by following Thy footsteps to Calvary, I may likewise come with Thee to the joys of paradise.

Our Father once and Glory be five times.
Sweet Heart, etc.

IV. At the sight of the great meekness of Thy Heart, dear Jesus, I shudder at my own, so unlike to Thine. Unhappily I am disquieted and complain even at a hint, a gesture, a word that thwarts me! Ah, pardon all my violence, and give me the grace henceforward to imitate in every contradiction Thine own unchanging meekness, thus to enjoy a perpetual and holy peace.

Our Father once and Glory be five times.
Sweet Heart, etc.

V. Let all men sing the praises, O Jesus, of Thy most generous Heart, the Conqueror of death and hell, for well It merits every praise. I am more than ever ashamed when I behold my own heart so cowardly that it trembles at every idle word out of human respect; but it shall be so no longer; from Thee I implore strength so courageous, that after fighting and conquering on earth, I may hereafter triumph joyfully with Thee in heaven.

Our Father once and Glory be five times.
Sweet Heart, etc.

Let us turn to Mary, dedicating ourselves yet more and more to her, and filled with confidence in her maternal heart let us say to her:

Through the high worth of thy most sweet Heart, obtain for me, O mighty Mother of God and my Mother, a true and lasting devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus thy Son; to the end that I may take up my abode, with all my thoughts and affections, in that Sacred Heart, and may faithfully fulfil my every duty, and serve Jesus with a ready heart every day of my life, and especially this present day.

∩. Heart of Jesus, burning with love of us,

℞. Make our hearts to burn with love of Thee.

Let us pray.

May Thy Holy Spirit, we beseech Thee, O Lord, enkindle in us that fire which our Lord Jesus Christ sent upon the earth from the innermost recesses of His Sacred Heart, and which He willed should burn with exceeding warmth: Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the same Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.

An indulgence of 7 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions for the daily recitation of this chaplet throughout one month (S. C. Ind., March 20, 1815; S. P. Ap., March 10, 1933).

ACTS OF REPARATION AND CONSECRATION

O sweetest Jesus, Thou dost pour forth Thy love abundantly on men, while they repay Thee most ungratefully with neglect, indifference and contempt. Behold us humbly kneeling before Thine altar (outside a church or oratory say: in Thy presence); we would fain repair this heartless ingratitude on the part of men, and the manifold injuries that are everywhere done to Thy most loving Heart, by a special act of homage.

Yet we are not unmindful that we, too, have had our part in this unworthy behavior; therefore are we moved to deep contrition, and, above all, we beg Thy mercy for ourselves; we are ready to atone, by this voluntary act of expiation, for the crimes which we ourselves have committed, as also for the sins of those who, straying far from the way of salvation, either refuse, in the blindness of their unbelief, to follow Thee, the Shepherd and Guide of their souls, or who trample upon the vows of their Baptism and shake off the sweet yoke of Thy law.

Not only are we anxious to expiate all these deplorable crimes, but in an especial manner do we purpose to make reparation for these following: immodesty and shameful excesses in life and dress; the many snares of corruption laid for the souls of the innocent; the neglect of holydays; the hateful blasphemies that are hurled against Thee and Thy Saints; the reproaches uttered against Thy Vicar on earth and all the priestly order; the neglect, also, of the very Sacrament of Thy love, as well as its profanation by horrifying sacrilege; and finally the public sins of the nations in rebellion against the just rights and the teaching authority of the Church established by Thee.

Would that we were able to atone for all these outrages even to the shedding of our blood! Meanwhile, in order to atone for the violations of the honor due to Thee, we offer unto Thee that selfsame satisfaction which of old Thou didst offer to the Father upon the holy Cross and which from day to day Thou dost continually renew upon the altars of Thy Church. To this we add the expiatory merits of Thy Virgin Mother, of all Thy Saints and of the devout faithful upon earth. With all our hearts we promise to atone, Thy grace assisting us, for our own past sins and those of all other men, as also for our coldness towards Thine exceeding great love, by a firm faith, spotless purity of life and the perfect fulfilment, so far as in us lies, of the law of the Gospel, and in particular of the precept of charity.

We likewise pledge ourselves in accordance with our strength to prevent such injuries from being done to Thee, and to invite as many as we can to follow Thee. Accept, we pray Thee, most gracious Jesus, through the intercession of Our Lady of Reparation, this our free-will offering of reparation, and be Thou pleased to keep us, by the great gift of final perseverance, faithful even unto death in our dutiful service of Thee, so that in the end we may all come to that our true native land, where Thou, with the Father and the Holy Spirit, livest and reignest for ever and ever. Amen.

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of this prayer, on condition of confession, Communion and a visit to some church or public oratory.

The faithful, moreover, who, on the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, assist at this same act of reparation, adding thereto the Litany of the Sacred Heart, in any church or oratory, even semi-public (for those who lawfully frequent it), in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament solemnly exposed, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years;

A plenary indulgence, provided that they atone for their sins in sacramental confession and partake of the Eucharistic Table (S. P. Ap., June 1, 1928 and March 18, 1932).

NOTE: As to certain versions cfr. Acta Ap. Sedis, 1928, p. 179 and following.

An Act of Reparation and Consecration

O most merciful Heart of Jesus, divine mercy-seat, for whose sake the Eternal Father has promised that He would always hear our prayers!

I unite myself to Thee in offering to Thine Eternal Father this poor and needy heart of mine, contrite and humbled in His divine presence, and desirous of making a complete reparation for the offenses that are committed against Him, especially those which Thou dost continually suffer in the Holy Eucharist, and more particularly those which I myself have unhappily so often committed. Would that I could wash them away with my tears, O Sacred Heart of Jesus, and blot out with my own heart's blood the ingratitude wherewith we have repaid Thy tender love. I unite my sorrow, slight as it is, with the mortal agony which caused Thy sweat to become as drops of blood in the Garden of Olives at the very thought of our sins. Do Thou offer it, dear Lord, to Thine Eternal Father in union with Thy Sacred Heart. Render Him infinite thanks for the manifold blessings which He constantly showers upon us, and let Thy love supply for our want of thankfulness and remembrance. Grant me grace always to present myself in a spirit of deepest reverence before the face of Thy divine Majesty, in order thus to repair in some measure the irreverences and outrages which I have dared to commit before Thee; grant also, that from this day forth, I may devote myself with all my might to drawing, both by word and example, many souls to know Thee and to experience the riches of Thy Heart. From this moment I offer and dedicate myself wholly to propagating the honor due to Thy most sweet Sacred Heart. I choose It as the object of all my affections and desires, and from this hour forevermore I set up in It my perpetual abode, thanking, adoring and loving It with all my heart, inasmuch as It is the Heart of my Jesus, who is worthy to be loved, the Heart of my King and sovereign Lord, the Bridegroom of my soul, my Shepherd and Master, my truest Friend, my loving Father, my sure Guide, my unfailing protection and my everlasting blessedness. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions for the daily repetition of this prayer (S. P. Ap., April 19, 1923 and March 10, 1933).

226

An Act of Consecration

a) IN . . . N . . . give myself and consecrate to the Sacred Heart of our Lord Jesus Christ, my person and my life, my actions, pains and sufferings, so that I may be unwilling to make use of any part of my being save to honor, love and glorify the Sacred Heart,

This is my unchanging purpose, namely, to be all His, and to do all things for the love of Him, at the same time renouncing with all my heart whatever is displeasing to Him.

I therefore take Thee, O Sacred Heart, to be the only object of my love, the guardian of my life, my assurance of salvation, the remedy of my weakness and inconstancy, the atonement for all the faults of my life and my sure refuge at the hour of death.

Be then, O Heart of goodness, my justification before God Thy Father, and turn away from me the strokes of His righteous anger. O Heart of love, I put all my confidence in Thee, for I fear everything from my own wickedness and frailty, but I hope for all things from Thy goodness and bounty.

Do Thou consume in me all that can displease Thee or resist Thy holy will; let Thy pure love imprint Thee so deeply upon my heart, that I shall nevermore be able to forget Thee or to be separated from Thee; may I obtain from all Thy loving kindness the grace of having my name written in Thee, for in Thee I desire to place all my happiness and all my glory, living and dying in very bondage to Thee. (St. Margaret Mary Alacoque).

An indulgence of 3 years.

b) My most loving Jesus, I consecrate myself to-day anew and without reserve to Thy divine Heart. I consecrate to Thee my body with all its senses, my soul with all its faculties, and in short, my entire being. I consecrate to Thee all my thoughts, words and deeds; all my sufferings and labors; all my hopes, consolations and joys; and chiefly do I consecrate to Thee this poor heart of mine, to the end that it may love nothing save only Thee, and may be consumed as a victim in the fire of Thy love. Accept, O Jesus, Thou dearest Spouse of my soul, the desire which I have of consoling Thy divine Heart, and of belonging to Thee for ever. Take possession of me in such wise that from this day forth I may have no other freedom, save that of loving Thee, and no other life, save that of suffering and dying for Thee: I put my trust in Thee without reserve, and I hope for the remission of my sins through Thine infinite bounty. I place within Thy hands all my cares and anxieties, especially as touching my eternal salvation. I promise to love Thee and honor Thee to the last moment of my life, and to spread, as much as I can, the worship of Thy most Sacred Heart. Dispose of me, my Jesus, according to Thy good pleasure; I would have no other reward save Thy greater glory and Thy holy love. Grant me grace to find my home in Thy divine Heart; here would I pass every day of my life; here would I breathe forth my last breath; only do Thou establish in my heart Thy dwelling place, the seat of Thy rest, in order that we may thus remain inseparably united; and so may I one day be able to praise Thee, love Thee and possess Thee for ever in the kingdom of heaven, where I shall sing without end the infinite mercies of Thy Sacred Heart.

An indulgence of 500 days once a day (Leo XIII, Audience Dec. 11, 1902; S. C. Ind., Jan. 7, 1903; S. P. Ap., July 9, 1935).

c) My loving Jesus, out of the grateful love I bear Thee, and to make reparation for my unfaithfulness to grace, I give Thee my heart, and I consecrate myself wholly to Thee; and with Thy help I purpose to sin no more.

The faithful who devoutly recite this act of consecration before an image of the Sacred Heart of Jesus may obtain:

An indulgence of 300 days;

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for its daily recitation (Secret Mem., June 9, 1807; S. P. Ap., Mar. 15, 1936).

NOTE: A formula for the consecration of the family to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is found under n. 655.

VIII

229

O divine Heart of Jesus, grant, I pray Thee, eternal rest to the souls in purgatory, the final grace to those who are about to die this day, true repentance to sinners, the light of faith to pagans, and Thy blessing to me and to all who are dear to me. To Thee, therefore, O most loving Heart of Jesus, I commend all these souls, and in their behalf I offer unto Thee all Thy merits in union with the merits of Thy most blessed Mother and of all the Angels and Saints, together with all the Masses, Communions, prayers and good works which are this day being offered throughout Christendom.

An indulgence of 500 days (Brief, Mar. 13, 1901; S. P. Ap., Jan. 18, 1933).

O divinum Cor Iesu, præsta, quæso, animabus purgántibus réquiem ætérnam, hódie moritúris grátiam finálem, peccatóribus veram pæniténtiam, pagánis fídei lucem, mihi méisque ómnibus tuam benedictiónem. Tibi ergo, Cor Iesu piússimum, omnes has ánimas comméndo et pro ipsis tibi óffero ómnia tua mérita una cum méritis beatíssimæ Matris tuæ omniúmque Sanctórum et Angelórum atque ómnibus Missárum sacrificiis, sacris Communió nibus, oratió nibus et bonis opéribus, quæ hódie in toto christiánórum orbe peragúntur.

230

O Most Holy Heart of Jesus, shower Thy blessings in abundant measure upon Thy holy Church, upon the Supreme Pontiff and upon all the clergy; to the just grant perseverance; convert sinners; enlighten unbelievers; bless our relations, friends and benefactors; assist the dying; deliver the holy souls in purgatory; and extend over all hearts the sweet empire of Thy love. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

231

O most holy Heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, I adore Thee, I love Thee, and with a lively sorrow for my sins, I offer Thee this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure and wholly obedient to Thy will. Grant, good Jesu, that I may live in Thee and for Thee. Protect me in the midst of danger; comfort me in my afflictions; give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, Thy blessing on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death.

An indulgence of 500 days (Brief. Dec. 4, 1915; S. P. Ap., Nov. 8, 1934).

I hail Thee, O Sacred Heart of Jesus, living and life-giving fountain of eternal life, infinite treasure of divinity, glowing furnace of divine love; Thou art my place of rest and my most sure refuge. My dear Saviour, enkindle my heart with that burning love wherewith Thine own is on fire; pour into my heart the manifold graces, of which Thy Heart is the source; let Thy will be mine, and let mine be forever obedient to Thine; for I desire that in future Thy holy will may be the rule of all my desires and actions. Amen.

O God, Who dost deign mercifully to bestow upon us infinite treasures of love in the Heart of Thy Son, which was wounded for our sins; grant, we beseech Thee, that we who pay Him the devout homage of our piety, may in like manner show unto Thee our due of worthy satisfaction. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal) .

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions for the daily recitation of this prayer through an entire month (S. P. Ap., Apr. 18, 1936) .

Deus, qui nobis, in Corde Fílii tui, nostris vulneráto peccátis, infínitos dilectiónis thesáuros misericórditer largíri dignáris; concéde, quáesumus, ut illi devótum pietátis nostræ præstántes obséquium, dignæ quoque satisfactiónis exhibeamus officium. Per eundem Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano) .

234

Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we who glory in the Most Sacred Heart of Thy dear Son and call to mind the chief benefits of His love toward us, may find equal joy in their doing and in their saving effect. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, for the devout repetition of this prayer daily for a month (S. P. Ap., Oct. 20, 1936).

Concède, quæsumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui in sanctissimo dilécti Fílii tui Corde gloriántes, præcípua in nos caritátis eius benefícia recólimus, eórum páriter et actu delectémur et fructu. Per eúmdem Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen.

H) THE HEART OF JESUS IN THE EUCHARIST

The worship of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist is not to be understood as being substantially different from that which has long been paid by the Church to the Sacred Heart Itself, but only as a peculiar manifestation of veneration, love, gratitude and submission because of that act of highest love whereby the most loving Heart of Jesus instituted the adorable Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist, thus remaining with us even to the end of the world (S. C. Ind., Jan. 22, 1908).

An indulgence of 300 days (Pius IX, Rescript, in his own hand, Feb. 29, 1868; S. P. Ap., Oct. 23, 1928).

II

INVOCATIONS WITH AN ACT OF OBLATION

247

Hear of Jesus in the Eucharist, sweet
Companion of our exile, I adore Thee:

Eucharistic Heart of Jesus,
Heart solitary, Heart humiliated,
Heart abandoned, Heart forgotten,
Heart despised, Heart outraged,
Heart ignored by men,
Heart, lover of our hearts,
Heart pleading for love,
Heart patient in waiting for us,
Heart eager to hear our prayers,
Heart desirous that we should pray to Thee,
Heart, source of fresh graces,
Heart silent, desiring to speak to souls,
Heart, sweet refuge of the hidden life,
Heart, teacher of the secrets of union with God,
Heart of Him who sleeps, yet ever watches, Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us.

Jesus Victim, I wish to comfort Thee; I unite myself to Thee, I offer myself in union with Thee; I count myself as nothing before Thee; I desire to forget myself in order to think of Thee, to be forgotten and despised for love of Thee, not to be understood, not to be loved except by Thee. I will hold my peace that I may listen to Thee, I will forsake myself that I may lose myself in Thee.

Grant that thus I may slake Thy thirst for my salvation, Thy burning thirst for my sanctification, and that, being purified, I may bestow on Thee a pure and true love. I would no longer weary Thine expectation; take me, I give myself to Thee. I entrust to Thee all my actions, my mind that Thou mayest enlighten it, my heart that Thou mayest direct it, my will that Thou mayest establish it, my misery that Thou mayest relieve it, my soul and my body that Thou mayest feed them.

Eucharistic Heart of my Jesus, whose Blood is the life of my soul, may it be no longer I that live, but Thou alone who livest in me. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (Brief, Feb. 6, 1899; S. P. Ap., Nov. 8, 1934).

III

A CONSECRATION

248

Jesus, adorable Master, hidden in Thy Sacrament of love, Thou who abidest with me to comfort my exile, could I refuse to devote myself to comforting Thee in Thine? O Thou, who givest me Thy Heart, how can I refuse to give Thee mine?

To give myself to Thee is truly to my own advantage, since it is to find for myself the inestimable treasure of a Heart, so loving, unselfish and faithful, even as I would wish my own to be. Even so I can give nothing and yet I am always receiving! Lord, I could never vie with Thee in generosity, but I love Thee; deign to accept graciously my poor heart, and although it be worthless, yet since Thou dost love it, it may become something by Thy grace. Make it good and have it in Thy keeping.

Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, I consecrate to Thee all the faculties of my soul, all the powers of my body; I would strive to know Thee and love Thee ever more and more, in order to make Thee better known and loved; I would act only for Thy glory, I would do only the will of Thy Father. I consecrate to Thee every moment of my life in a spirit of adoration before Thy real presence, in a spirit of thanksgiving for this incomparable gift, in a spirit of reparation for all our cruel indifference, in a spirit of unceasing supplication that our prayers, being offered through Thee, with Thee and in Thee, may rise purified and enriched to the throne of God's mercy unto His eternal glory. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (Brief, Feb. 6, 1899; S. P. Ap., March 29, 1935).

IV

PRAYER FOR AMENDMENT OF LIFE

249

Eucharistic Heart of my God, breathing and throbbing under the veil of the sacred species, I adore Thee.

Moved to fresh love by the immense blessing of the divine Eucharist, and penetrated with sorrow for my ingratitude, I humble myself profoundly when I consider the depths of my misery, but I abandon it to the still greater depths of Thy mercies.

Thou hast chosen me from my youth, Thou hast not despised mine infirmity; entering into my poor heart, Thou comest to invite me to an exchange of love, and givest me happiness and peace. And I, for my part, have lost all because I have been unfaithful, O Lord Jesus.

I have suffered my mind to go astray, and my heart to grow cold; I have listened to my own voice and have forgotten Thee.

Thou wouldst have been my guide, my counselor, the protector of my life, whilst I, suffering my passions to deafen me to Thy loving call, have failed to hear it, and have forgotten Thee.

In the midst of the salutary trials of our probation, in the joys of consolation, in all my difficulties and necessities, instead of going to Thee, I have sought creatures and have forgotten Thee.

I have forgotten Thee in Thy forsaken tabernacles where Thy love languishes, in the churches of the city where men insult Thee, in indifferent and sacrilegious hearts and even in my own sinful heart, O Jesus, both at the very moment of going up to receive Thee and after having received Thee.

Eucharistic Heart of my Saviour, joy of my first Communion and of the days when I was faithful, I give myself to Thee; return once more, draw me to Thyself anew, forgive me even this time, and I will expiate all by loving Thee.

Blessed Archangel Saint Michael and thou, well-beloved Saint John, offer up to God my act of reparation and be propitious unto me. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (Brief, Feb. 6, 1899; S. P. Ap., Feb. 18, 1936).

PRAYER

O Eucharistic Heart, O sovereign love of the Lord Jesus, who didst institute this venerable Sacrament in order to remain here below in our midst and to give to our souls Thy Flesh as meat and Thy Blood as heavenly drink; we firmly believe, Lord Jesus, in Thy supreme love which instituted the Holy Eucharist; and here, before this sacred Host, it is most meet that we should adore this love of Thine, that we should praise and exalt it as the great source of life in Thy Church. This love of Thine is for us a pressing invitation; for Thou seemest to say to us: "See how much I have loved you! In giving you My Flesh to eat and My Blood to drink, I desire by this union to awaken your charity and unite you to Myself; I desire to transform your souls into Me, the Crucified One, into Me, the Bread of eternal life; so give Me your hearts, live in My life, and you shall live in God." We acknowledge, O Lord, that such is the appeal of Thy Eucharistic Heart and for it we give Thee hearty thanks. Our hearts are ready, yea, our hearts are ready to accept Thine invitation. Give us the grace of being penetrated through and through by that supreme love, wherewith Thou didst invite us, even before Thy sacred passion, to take and eat Thy holy Body. Engrave deeply within our hearts the firm purpose of being ever faithful to Thy loving invitation. Grant us such devotion and reverence as are needful to honor and receive worthily the precious gift of Thy Eucharistic Heart, the gift of Thy dying love. Would that we were able thus, by the help of Thy grace, to celebrate fruitfully the memorial of Thy passion, to make due reparation for our offenses and our lukewarmness, to nourish and increase our love for Thee, and to preserve ever-living within our hearts the seed of a blessed eternity. Amen.

An indulgence of 5 years, when said in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed to the adoration of the faithful in any church, public or semi-public oratory (in the case of those who may lawfully use the latter).

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, to those who recite this prayer daily in any place they may choose and who each week adore the Blessed Sacrament exposed, as above, for a certain space of time (Brief, June 2, 1902; S. P. Ap., Oct. 12, 1936).

I) JESUS CHRIST THE KING

I

INVOCATION

251

Jesus, King and center of all hearts, by the coming of Thy kingdom, grant us peace.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., June 23, 1923).

Iesu, rex et centrum ómnium córdium, per advéntum regni tui, dona nobis pacem.

II

A DEVOUT EXERCISE

252

The faithful, who take part in a public novena or triduum held immediately before the Feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King in honor of the same may gain:

An indulgence of 10 years each day;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, provided that they have been present at five of the exercises of the novena or at the entire triduum, and moreover go to confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the Holy Father's intention.

Those who make a private novena or triduum during the aforesaid time in honor of Jesus Christ the King may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years once on any day of the exercises;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions at the close of the novena or triduum; but where a public exercise is held, this indulgence is available only to those who are legitimately hindered from assisting at the same (S. P. Ap., Nov. 21, 1936).

III

AN ACT OF DEDICATION OF THE HUMAN RACE

253

Most sweet Jesus, Redeemer of the human race, look down upon us humbly prostrate before Thine Altar (outside a church or oratory say: in Thy presence). We are Thine, and Thine we wish to be; but to be more surely united to Thee, behold, each one of us this day freely dedicates himself to Thy Most Sacred Heart. Many, indeed, have never known Thee; many, too, despising Thy precepts have rejected Thee. Have mercy on them all, most merciful Jesus, and draw them to Thy Sacred Heart. Be Thou King, O Lord, not only of the faithful who have never forsaken Thee, but also of the prodigal sons who have abandoned Thee; grant that they may quickly return to their Father's house, lest they perish of wretchedness and hunger. Be Thou King of those whom heresy holds in error or discord keeps aloof; call them back to the harbor of truth and the unity of faith, so that soon there may be but one fold and one Shepherd. Be Thou King of all those who even now sit in the shadow of idolatry or Islam, and refuse not Thou to bring them into the light of Thy kingdom. Look, finally, with eyes of pity upon the children of that race, which was for so long a time Thy chosen people; and let Thy Blood, which was once invoked upon them in vengeance, now descend upon them also in a cleansing flood of redemption and eternal life. Grant, O Lord, to Thy Church assurance of freedom and immunity from harm; unto all nations give an ordered tranquility; bring it to pass that from pole to pole the earth may resound with one cry: Praise to the divine Heart that wrought our salvation; to It be honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month on condition of confession, Communion and a visit to a church or public oratory for the daily recitation of this prayer (S. P. Ap., July 16, 1926).

The faithful who on the Feast of our Lord Jesus Christ the King take part in an act of dedication of the human race to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, according to the above formula, in any church, public or semi-public oratory (if they may lawfully use the latter), and in addition recite the Litany of the Sacred Heart in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament solemnly exposed, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years;

A plenary indulgence on condition of confession and Holy Communion (S. P. Ap., Feb. 15, 1927 and March 18, 1932).

See also the Encyclical Letter of Pius XI, "Quas primas", Dec. 11, 1925.

O Christ Jesus, I acknowledge Thee to be the King of the universe; all that hath been made is created for Thee. Exercise over me all Thy sovereign rights. I hereby renew the promises of my Baptism, renouncing Satan and all his works and pomps, and I engage myself to lead henceforth a truly Christian life. And in an especial manner do I undertake to bring about the triumph of the rights of God and Thy Church, so far as in me lies. Divine Heart of Jesus, I offer Thee my poor actions to obtain the acknowledgment by every heart of Thy sacred kingly power. In such wise may the kingdom of Thy peace be firmly established throughout all the earth. Amen.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions once daily (S. P. Ap., Feb. 21, 1923).

INVOCATIONS

255

Jesu, Mary and Joseph most kind,
 Bless us now and in death's agony.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., June 9, 1906; S. P. Ap., March 25, 1933).

Nos, Iesu, María et Ioseph bone,
 Benedícite nunc et in mortis agóne.

256

The faithful who devoutly invoke the sacred names of Jesus, Mary and Joseph conjointly, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years;

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions for the daily repetition of the invocation (Pius X, Rescript, in his own hand, June 8, 1906, exhibited June 16, 1906; S. P. Ap., March 18, 1932).

NOTE: For invocations for a happy death, see n. 589.

II

RESPONSORY PRAYERS

257

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, bless us and grant us the grace of loving Holy Church, as we are bound to do, above every earthly thing, and of ever showing forth our love by the witness of our deeds.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, bless us and grant us the grace of openly professing, as we are bound to do, with courage and without human respect, the faith that we received of Thy gift in holy Baptism.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, bless us and grant us the grace of sharing, as we are bound to do, in the defense and propagation of the Faith, when duty calls, whether by word or by the sacrifice of our fortunes and our lives.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, bless us and grant us the grace of loving one another in mutual charity, as we are bound to do, and establish us in perfect harmony of thought, will and action, under the rule and guidance of our holy Pastors.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, bless us and grant us the grace of conforming our lives fully, as we are bound to do, to the commandments of God's law and that of His holy Church, so as to live always in that charity which they set forth.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

An indulgence of 3 years (S. C. Ind.. May 17, 1890; S. P. Ap., July 27, 1935)

III

COLLECT

258

Lord Jesus Christ, who, being made subject to Mary and Joseph, didst hallow domestic life by Thine ineffable virtues; grant that we, with the assistance of both, may be taught by the example of Thy holy Family and may attain to its everlasting fellowship: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions for the devout recitation of this collect every day for a month (S. P. Ap., Sept. 3, 1936).

Dómine Iesu Christe, qui Maríæ, et Ioseph súbditus, domésticam vitam ineffábilibus virtútibus consecrásti: fac nos, utriúsque auxílio, Famíliæ sanctæ tuæ exémpis ínstrui et consórtium cónsequi sempitérnum: Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculórum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

259

O Holy Spirit, Spirit of truth, come into our hearts; shed the brightness of Thy light upon the nations, that they may please Thee in unity of faith.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind. July 31, 1897; S. P. Ap., Dec. 22, 1932).

Spírítus Sancte, Spírítus veritátis, veni in corda nostra; da pópulis claritátem lucis tuæ, ut in fídei unitáte tibi compláceant.

260

O Holy Spirit, sweet Guest of my soul, abide in me and grant that I may ever abide in Thee.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., April 26, 1921).

O Sancte Spírítus, dulcis hospes ánimæ meæ, mane mecum et fac ut ego máneam semper tecum.

II

SEQUENCE FOR PENTECOST

261

Come, Thou holy Paraclete,
And from Thy celestial seat
Send Thy light and brilliancy.

Father of the poor, draw near,
Giver of all gifts, be here,
Come, the soul's true radiancy.

Come, of comforters the best,
Of the soul the sweetest guest,
Come in toil refreshingly.

Thou in labor rest most sweet,
Thou art shadow from the heat,
Comfort in adversity.

O Thou light, most pure and blest,
Shine within the inmost breast
Of Thy faithful company.

Where Thou art not, man hath naught;
Ev'ry holy deed and thought
Comes from Thy divinity.

What is soiled, make Thou pure;
What is wounded, work its cure;
What is parchéd, fructify.

What is rigid, gently bend;
What is frozen, warmly tend;
Strengthen what goes erringly.

Fill Thy faithful, who confide
In Thy power to guard and guide,
With Thy sevenfold mystery.

Here Thy grace and mercy send;
Grant salvation in the end,
And in Heaven felicity. Amen.

(Roman Missal, tr. J. M. Neale).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions for its daily recitation (Brief, May 26, 1796; S. P. Ap., April 15, 1933).

Veni, Sancte Spíritus, et emítte cælitus lucis tuæ rádium.

Veni, pater pauperum, veni, dator múnerum, veni, lumen córdium.

Consolátor óptime, dulcis hospes ánimæ, dulce refrigérium.

In labóre réquies, in æstu tempéries, in fletu solátium.

O lux beatíssima, reple cordis íntima tuórum fidélium.

Sine tuo númine nihil est in hómine, nihil est innóxium.

Lava quod est sórdidum, riga quod est áridum, sana quod est sáucium.

Flecte quod est rígídum, fove quod est frigidum, rege quod est dévium.

Da tuis fidélibus in te confidéntibus sacrum septenárium.

Da virtútis méritum, da salútis éxitum, da perénne gáudium. Amen.

HYMN FOR PENTECOST

262

Come, Holy Ghost, Creator blest,
And in our souls take up Thy rest,
Come with Thy grace and heavenly aid,
And fill the hearts which Thou hast made.

To Thee, the Comforter, we cry,
To Thee, the gift of God most high,
The fount of life, the fire of love,
The soul's anointing from above.

The sevenfold gifts of grace are Thine,
O Finger of the hand Divine;
True promise of the Father Thou,
Who dost the tongue with speech endow.

Thy light to every thought impart,
And shed Thy love in every heart;
Our body's poor infirmity
With strength perpetual fortify.

Our mortal foe afar repel,
Grant us henceforth in peace to dwell;
If Thou be our preventing guide,
No evil can our steps betide.

Make Thou to us the Father known;
Teach us th' Eternal Son to own,
And Thee, Whose name we ever bless,
Of Both the Spirit to confess.

All glory while the ages run
Be to the Father and the Son,
Who rose from death; the same to Thee,
O Holy Ghost, eternally. Amen. (Roman Breviary, tr. cento).

Ÿ. Send forth Thy Spirit and they shall be created;

R̄. And Thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray.

O God, who didst teach the hearts of Thy faithful people by sending them the light of Thy Holy Spirit, grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in His holy comfort.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of this hymn with its versicle and collect (Brief, May 26, 1796; S. Cong. of Rites, June 20, 1889; S. P. Ap., Feb. 9, 1934).

263

Prayers of the Novena before the Feast of Pentecost

The faithful who devoutly assist at the public novena in honor of the Holy Ghost immediately preceding the Feast of Pentecost, may gain:

An indulgence of 10 years on any day of the novena;

A plenary indulgence, if they take part in at least five of the exercises, and moreover go to confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the Holy Father's intention.

Those who make a private novena in honor of the Holy Ghost, either before Pentecost or at any other time in the year, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years once on any day of their novena;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions at the close of the novena; but if a public novena is held, this indulgence is available only to those who are lawfully hindered from taking part in the same (Pius IX, Audience, Jan. 3, 1849; S. C. of Bishops and Regulars, Jan. 28, 1850; S. C. Ind., Nov. 26, 1876; Brief, May 5, 1895; Encyclical Letter "Divinum illud munus", May 9, 1897; S. P. Ap., May 12, 1934).

V

A CHAPLET OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

264

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

An Act of Contrition: O my God, I am sorry that I have sinned against Thee, because Thou art so good; with the help of Thy grace, I will sin no more.

The hymn, "Come, Holy Ghost," etc., with the versicles and collect as above, n. 262.

I—FIRST MYSTERY

Jesus is conceived by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary Meditation.—The Holy Ghost shall come upon Thee, and the power of the Most High shall overshadow thee. Therefore also the Holy One which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God (Luke 1, 35).

Application.—Pray earnestly for the assistance of the Spirit of God and the intercession of Mary to imitate the virtues of Jesus Christ who is the pattern of every virtue, in order that you may be conformed to the image of the Son of God.

Our Father and Hail Mary once; Glory be seven times.

II—SECOND MYSTERY

The Spirit of the Lord rests upon Jesus

Meditation.—Now Jesus being baptized went up immediately from the water; and behold, the heavens were opened unto Him; and He saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming upon Him (Matt. 3, 16).

Application.—Hold in highest esteem the precious gift of sanctifying grace which was infused into your heart in Baptism by the Holy Spirit. Keep the promises to whose observance you then bound yourself. By continual exercise increase your faith, your hope and your charity. Ever live as becomes a child of God and a member of the true Church of God, so that after this life you may receive heaven as your inheritance.

Our Father and Hail Mary once, Glory be seven times.

III—THIRD MYSTERY

Jesus is led by the Spirit into the desert

Meditation.—And Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost returned from the Jordan: and was led by the Spirit into the desert for the space of forty days, and was tempted by the devil (Luke 4: 1, 2).

Application.—Be ever thankful for the sevenfold gifts of the Holy Spirit given to you in Confirmation, for the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, of counsel and fortitude, of knowledge and piety, and of the fear of the Lord. Faithfully obey your divine Guide, so that you may act manfully in all the perils of this life and in all temptations, as becomes a perfect Christian and a strong athlete of Jesus Christ.

Our Father and Hail Mary once, Glory be seven times.

IV—FOURTH MYSTERY

The Holy Spirit in the Church

Meditation.—And suddenly there came from Heaven a sound as of a mighty wind coming, where they were sitting; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, speaking the wonderful works of God (Acts 2: 2, 4, 11).

Application.—Give thanks to God that He has made you a child of His Church which is always quickened and governed by His divine Spirit, who was sent into the world on the day of Pentecost. Hear and follow the sovereign Pontiff who teaches infallibly through the Holy Spirit, and the Church which is the pillar and ground of truth. Hold fast her doctrines, maintain her cause, defend her rights.

Our Father and Hail Mary once, Glory be seven times.

V—FIFTH MYSTERY

The Holy Spirit in the souls of the righteous

Meditation.—Know ye not that your members are the temple of the Holy Ghost who is in you? (1 Cor. 6, 19).

Extinguish not the Spirit (1 Thess. 5, 19).

And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, in whom ye are sealed unto the day of redemption (Eph. 4; 30).

Application.—Be ever mindful of the Holy Spirit who is in you, and make every effort to be pure in mind and body. Faithfully obey His divine inspirations, that you may bring forth the fruits of the Spirit: which are charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, long-suffering, meekness, faith, moderation, continence and chastity.

Our Father and Hail Mary once, Glory be seven times.

At the end say the Apostles' Creed: I believe in God, etc.

An indulgence of 7 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for the daily repetition of this chaplet (Brief, March 24, 1902; S. P. Ap., March 18, 1932).

VI

RESPONSORY PRAYER

265

Come, Holy Ghost, fill the hearts of Thy faithful and kindle in them the fire of Thy love.

V. Send forth Thy Spirit, and they shall be created;

R. And Thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray.

O God, who didst teach the hearts of Thy faithful people by sending them the light of Thy Holy Spirit, grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in His holy comfort. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, when this prayer is recited daily for an entire month (S. C. Ind., May 8, 1907; S. P. Ap., Dec. 22, 1932).

Veni, Sancte Spíritus, reple tuórum corda fidélium et tui amóris in eis ignem accénde.

V. Emítte Spíritum tuum et creabúntur;

R. Et renovábis faciem terræ.

Orémus.

Deus, qui corda fidélium Sancti Spíritus illustratióne docuísti: da nobis in eódem Spíritu recta sápere; et de eius semper consolatióne gaudére. Per Chri-stum Dóminum nostrum. Amen.

(ex Missali Romano).

VII

PRAYERS

266

O Holy Spirit, Creator, mercifully assist Thy Catholic Church, and by Thy heavenly power strengthen and establish her against the assaults of all her enemies; and by Thy love and grace renew the spirit of Thy servants whom Thou hast anointed, that in Thee they may glorify the Father and His only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., Aug. 26, 1889; S. P. Ap., Oct. 14, 1935).

O Creátor Sancte Spíritus, adésto propítius Ecclé-siæ cathólicæ eámque contra inimicórum incúr-sus tua supérna virtúte róbor et confírma, tua cari-táte et grátia spíritum famulórum tuórum, quos unxísti, rénova, ut in te claríficent Patrem Filiúmque eius Unigénitum Iesum Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen.

O Holy Spirit, divine Spirit of light and love, I consecrate to Thee my understanding, my heart and my will, my whole being for time and for eternity. May my understanding be always submissive to Thy heavenly inspirations and to the teachings of the holy Catholic Church, of which Thou art the infallible Guide; may my heart be ever inflamed with love of God and of my neighbor; may my will be ever conformed to the divine will, and may my whole life be a faithful imitation of the life and virtues of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, to whom with the Father and Thee be honor and glory forever. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (Pius X. Rescript in his own hand, June 1, 1908, exhib. June 5, 1908; S. P. Ap., May 25, 1936).

NOTE: A prayer to the Holy Ghost to be said by those who are gathered together to transact any business in common is found under n. 635.

TITLE II

THE MOST BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

CHAPTER I

GENERAL DEVOTIONS TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

I

268

The faithful who devoutly invoke the most holy name of Mary may gain:

An indulgence of 300 days;

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions for the daily repetition of the invocation;

A plenary indulgence at the hour of death if they have been wont to recite the aforesaid invocation frequently during life, and have gone to confession and received Holy Communion, or at least have made an act of contrition, invoking the holy Name of Jesus vocally if possible, otherwise in their hearts, and accepting death with resignation from God's hand, as the just punishment of their sins (S. C. Ind., Sept. 5, 1759; S. P. Ap., Nov. 12, 1932).

269

Vouchsafe that I may praise thee, O sacred Virgin;

Give me strength against thine enemies.
(Roman Breviary).

CANTICLE, HYMNS AND PSALMS

291

My soul doth magnify the Lord:
And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For He hath regarded the lowliness of His handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

For He that is mighty hath done great things to me: and holy is His Name.

And His mercy is from generation unto generations, to them that fear Him.

He hath showed might with His arm: He hath scattered the proud in the conceit of their heart.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat, and hath exalted the lowly.

He hath filled the hungry with good things:
and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He hath given help to His servant Israel, being mindful of His mercy:

As He spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and to his seed for ever. (Luke 1, 46) .

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for the daily recitation of this canticle (S. C. Ind., Sept. 20, 1879 and Feb. 22, 1888; S. P. Ap., Feb. 18, 1936) .

Magnificat ánima mea Dóminum:

Et exultávit spíritus meus in Deo salutári meo.

Quia respéxit humilitátem ancíllæ suæ: ecce enim ex hoc beátam me dicent omnes generatiónes.

Quia fecit mihi magna qui potens est: et sanctum nomen eius.

Et misericórdia eius a progénie in progénies timéntibus eum.

Fecit poténtiam in bráchio suo: dispérsit supérbos mente cordis sui.

Depósuit poténtes de sede, et exaltávit húmiles.

Esuriéntes implévit bonis: et dívites dimísit inánes.

Suscépit Israël púerum suum, recordátus misericórdiæ suæ.

Sicut locútus est ad patres nostros, Abraham et sémini eius in sácula. (Luc. I, 46) .

292

Ave maris stella

Hail thou star of ocean,
God's own mother blest,
Ever sinless Virgin,
Gate of heavenly rest.

Oh! by Gabriel's Ave,
Uttered long ago,
Eva's name reversing
'Stablish peace below.

Break the captive's fetters,
Light on blindness pour;
All our ills expelling,
Every bliss implore.

Show thyself a Mother;
 May the Word divine,
 Born for us thine Infant,
 Hear our prayers through thine.

Virgin all excelling,
 Mildest of the mild;
 Freed from guilt preserve us
 Meek and undefiled.

Keep our life all spotless,
 Make our way secure,
 Till we find in Jesus,
 Joy forevermore.

Through the highest Heaven
 To the almighty Three,
 Father, Son and Spirit
 One same glory be. Amen.

(Roman Breviary, tr. cento).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month for the devout daily recitation of this hymn throughout a month (S. C. Ind., Jan. 27, 1888; S. P. Ap., March 27, 1935).

Ave maris stella,
 Dei Mater alma,
 Atque semper Virgo,
 Felix cæli porta.

Sumens illud Ave
 Gabriélis ore,
 Funda nos in pace
 Mutans Hevæ nomen.

Solve vincla reis,
 Profer lumen cæcis,
 Mala nostra pelle,
 Bona cuncta posce.

Monstra te esse matrem,
 Sumat per te preces
 Qui pro nobis natus
 Tulit esse tuus.

Virgo singuláris,
Inter omnes mitis,
Nos culpis solútos,
Mites fac et castos.

Vitam præsta puram,
Iter para tutum,
Ut vidéntes Iesum
Semper collætémur.

Sit laus Deo Patri,
Summo Christo decus,
Spirítui Sancto,
Tribus honor unus. Amen.

(ex Breviario Romano).

293

O gloriosa virginum

O glorious Virgin, ever blest,
All daughters of mankind above,
Who gavest nurture from thy breast
To God, with pure maternal love.

What man hath lost in hapless Eve,
The Blossom sprung from thee restores;
Thou to the sorrowing here beneath
Hast opened heaven's eternal doors.

O gate, through which hath passed the King,
O hall, whence light shone through the gloom!
The ransomed nations praise and sing
The Offspring of thy Virgin womb.

All honor, laud and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to Thee:
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete.

Amen (Roman Breviary, tr. cento).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions if this hymn is devoutly recited every day (S. P. Ap., Nov. 22, 1934).

O gloriósa Vírginum
 Sublímis inter sídera,
 Qui te creávit, párvulum
 Lacténte nutris úbere.
 Quod Heva tristis ábstulit,
 Tu reddis almo gérmine:
 Intrent ut astra flébiles,
 Cæli reclúdis cárdines.
 Tu regis alti iánua,
 Et aula lucis fúlgida:
 Vitam datam per Vírginem
 Gentes redémtæ pláudite.
 Iesu, tibi sit glória,
 Qui natus es de Vírgine,
 Cum Patre et almo Spíritu,
 In sempitérna sácula. Amen.

(ex Breviario Romano).

294

The faithful who devoutly recite in honor of the B. V. M., the Canticle: Magnificat; Ps. 119, Ad Dominum cum tribularer; Ps. 118, Retribue servo tuo; Ps. 125, In convertendo Dominus; and Ps. 122, Ad te levavi oculos meos, may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years;

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions, if these are recited every day (S. C. Ind., June 13, 1815; S. P. Ap., May 8, 1935).

V

DEVOUT EXERCISES

295

The faithful, who during the month of May take part in public exercises in honor of the B. V. M. may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years on any day of the month;

A plenary indulgence if they assist at the exercises on at least ten days, and moreover go to confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the Holy Father's intention.

Those who perform their devotions privately during the aforesaid month are granted:

An indulgence of 5 years on any day of the month;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if they perform these devotions every day during the month; but where public exercises are held, this indulgence is granted only to those who are lawfully hindered from taking part in the same (Secret Mem. March 21, 1815; S. C. Ind., June 18, 1822; S. P. Ap., March 28, 1933).

296

The faithful who devoutly offer some prayers in honor of the Nativity, Presentation, Annunciation, Visitation, Expectation, Purification or Assumption of the B. V. M. at any season of the year, with the intention of continuing these prayers for nine days without interruption, are granted:

An indulgence of 5 years once on each day; a plenary indulgence on the usual conditions at the close of the novena (Pius IX, Audience, Jan. 3, 1849; S. C. of Bishops and Regulars, Jan. 28, 1850; S. C. Ind., Nov. 26, 1876; S. P. Ap., Dec. 16, 1935).

NOTE: For other novenas in honor of the B. V. M. under various titles, see nn. 329, 346, 354, 361.

A devout exercise of thanksgiving to the Most Holy Trinity for the gifts and privileges conferred on the B. V. M. is found under n. 34.

297

The faithful who devoutly recite the Hail Mary three times with the invocation "Pray for me, O holy Mother of God," before an image of our Lady, are granted:

An indulgence of 300 days;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions if this pious practice is performed daily for a month (S. P. Ap., May 24, 1936).

VI

AN ACT OF REPARATION FOR BLASPHEMIES
AGAINST THE B. V. M.

Most glorious Virgin Mary, Mother of God and our Mother, turn thine eyes in pity upon us, miserable sinners; we are sore afflicted by the many evils that surround us in this life, but especially do we feel our hearts break within us upon hearing the dreadful insults and blasphemies uttered against thee, O Virgin Immaculate, to which we are so frequently constrained to listen. O how these impious sayings offend the infinite Majesty of God and of His only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ! How they provoke His indignation and give us cause to fear the terrible effects of His vengeance! Would that the sacrifice of our lives might avail to put an end to such outrages and blasphemies; were it so, how gladly we should make it, for we desire, O most holy Mother, to love thee and to honor thee with all our hearts, since this is the will of God. And just because we love thee, we will do all that is in our power to make thee honored and loved by all men. In the meantime do thou, our merciful Mother, the supreme comforter of the afflicted, accept this our act of reparation which we offer thee for ourselves and for all our families, as well as for all who impiously blaspheme thee, not knowing what they say. Do thou obtain for them from Almighty God the grace of conversion, and thus render more manifest and more glorious thy kindness, thy power and thy great mercy. May they join with us in proclaiming thee blessed among women, the Immaculate Virgin and most compassionate Mother of God.

Hail Mary three times.

An indulgence of 3 years (S. C. Ind., March 21, 1885; S. P. Ap., April 6, 1935).

VII

THE CROWN OF TWELVE STARS

299

Let us offer praise and thanksgiving to the Most Holy Trinity, who hath shown us the Virgin Mary, clothed with the sun, the moon beneath her feet, and on her head a mystic crown of twelve stars.

R. For ever and ever. Amen.

Let us praise and thank the divine Father, who elected her for His daughter.

R. Amen. Our Father.

Praised be the divine Father, who predestined her to be the Mother of His divine Son.

R. Amen. Hail Mary.

Praised be the divine Father, who preserved her from all stain in her conception.

R. Amen. Hail Mary.

Praised be the divine Father, who adorned her at her birth with His most excellent gifts.

R. Amen. Hail Mary.

Praised be the divine Father, who gave her Saint Joseph to be her companion and most pure spouse.

R. Amen. Hail Mary. Glory be to the Father.

Let us praise and thank the divine Son, who chose her for His Mother.

R. Amen. Our Father.

Praised be the divine Son, who became incarnate in her bosom and there abode for nine months.

R. Amen. Hail Mary.

Praised be the divine Son, who was born of her and was nourished at her breast.

R. Amen. Hail Mary.

Praised be the divine Son, who in His childhood willed to be taught by her.

R. Amen. Hail Mary.

Praised be the divine Son, who revealed to her the mystery of the redemption of the world.

R. Amen. Hail Mary. Glory be to the Father.

Let us praise and thank the Holy Spirit, who took her for His spouse.

R. Amen. Our Father.

Praised be the Holy Spirit, who revealed first to her His Name of Holy Spirit.

R. Amen. Hail Mary.

Praised be the Holy Spirit, by whose operation she was at once Virgin and Mother.

R. Amen. Hail Mary.

Praised be the Holy Spirit, by whose power she was the living temple of the ever-blessed Trinity.

R. Amen. Hail Mary.

Praised be the Holy Spirit, by whom she was exalted in heaven above every living creature.

R. Amen. Hail Mary. Glory be to the Father.

(St. Joseph Calasanctius.)

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this devotion is repeated daily for a month (S. C. Ind., Jan. 8, 1838 and Aug. 17, 1898; Pius IX, Audience March 17, 1856; S. P. Ap., March 28, 1934)

VIII

RESPONSORY PRAYERS

300

a)

V. The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary.

R. And she conceived of the Holy Ghost.

Hail Mary.

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord,

R. Be it done unto me according to Thy word.

Hail Mary.

V. And the Word was made flesh,

R. And dwelt amongst us.

Hail Mary.

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts; that, as we have known the Incarnation of Christ Thy Son by the message of an Angel, so by His Passion and Cross we may be brought to the glory of His Resurrection. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

b)

Queen of Heaven, rejoice, alleluia:

For He Whom thou didst merit to bear, alleluia,

Hath risen, as He said, alleluia.

Pray for us to God, alleluia.

V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia,

R. Because the Lord is truly risen, alleluia.

Let us pray.

O God, who by the Resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, hast vouchsafed to make glad the whole world: grant, we beseech Thee, that, through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may lay hold of the joys of eternal life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Breviary).

The faithful who at dawn, at noon and at eventide, or as soon thereafter as may be, devoutly recite the Angelus, or at Eastertide the Regina cæli, with the appropriate versicles and collects, or who merely say the Hail Mary five times, may gain:

An indulgence of 10 years each time;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions if they persevere in this devout practice for a month (S. P. Ap., Feb. 20, 1933).

V. Angelus Dómini nuntiávit Maríæ,

R. Et concépit de Spíritu Sancto.

Ave María.

V. Ecce ancílla Dómini,

R. Fiat mihi secúndum verbum tuum.

Ave María.

V. Et Verbum caro factum est,

R. Et habitávit in nobis.

Ave María.

V. Ora pro nobis, sancta Dei Génitrix.

R. Ut digni efficiámur promissionibus Christi.

Orémus.

Grátiam tuam, quæsumus Dómine, méntibus nostris infúnde: ut qui, Angelo nuntiánte, Christi Fílii tui incarnationem cognóvimus, per passiónem eius et crucem ad resurrectionis glóriam perducámur. Per eúndem Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen.

b)

Regína cæli lætáre, allelúia:

Quia quem meruísti portáre, allelúia,

Resurréxit, sicut dixit, allelúia.

Ora pro nobis Deum, allelúia.

V. Gaude et lætáre, Virgo María, allelúia.

R̄. Quia surréxit Dóminus vere, allelúia.

Orémus.

Deus, qui per resurrectionem Fílii tui Dómini nostri Iesu Christi mundum lætificáre dignátus es: præsta quæsumus, ut per eius Genitricem Vírginem Mariám perpétuæ capiámus gáudia vitæ. Per eúdem Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen. (ex Breviario Romano).

IX

PRAYERS

301

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy, hail, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve: to thee do we sigh, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Ah then, our Advocate, turn thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus, O merciful, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary!

(Roman Breviary).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for the daily recitation of this prayer.

A plenary indulgence at the hour of death to be gained by those who have often recited this prayer during life, and who, after confession and Communion, or at least an act of contrition, shall invoke the holy Name of Jesus with their lips, if possible, or at least in their hearts, and accept death with resignation from the hand of God as the just punishment of sin (S. C. Ind., April 5, 1786; S. P. Ap., July 2, 1934).

Salve, Regína, mater misericórdiæ, vita, dulcédo et spes nostra, salve. Ad te clamámus éxsules fílii Hevæ; ad te suspirámus geméntes et flentes in hac lacrymárum valle. Eia ergo, advocáta nostra, illos tuos misericórdes óculos ad nos convérte. Et Iesum, benedíctum fructum ventris tui, nobis post hoc exsílíum osténde, o clemens, o pia, o dulcis Virgo María (ex Breviario Romano).

We fly to thy patronage, O holy Mother of God; despise not thou our petitions in our necessities, but deliver us always from all dangers, O glorious and blessed Virgin (Roman Breviary).

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this prayer is said daily for a month.

A plenary indulgence to be gained at the hour of death by those who have been accustomed to recite this prayer frequently in life, provided that, having confessed their sins and received Holy Communion, or at least being duly contrite, they devoutly invoke the most holy Name of Jesus with their lips, if they can, but if not, in their heart and accept death at the hands of the Lord with resignation as the just punishment of their sins (S. C. Ind., April 5, 1786; S. P. Ap., Dec. 12, 1935).

Sub tuum præsidium confúgimus, sancta Dei Génitrix; nostras deprecatiões ne despicias in necessitatibus nostris, sed a periculis cunctis libera nos semper, Virgo gloriósa et benedícta (ex Breviario Romano).

PRAYERS FOR EVERY DAY OF THE WEEK

SUNDAY

Behold, O Mother of God, at thy feet a wretched sinner who has recourse to thee and trusts in thee. I do not deserve that thou shouldst even look upon me; but I know that thou, seeing thy Son dead to save sinners, hast a great desire to assist them. O Mother of mercy, behold my miseries and have pity on me. I hear all men call thee the refuge of sinners, the hope of the hopeless, the help of that which is lost. Thou art, then, my refuge, my hope and my help. Thou must save me by thine intercession; aid me for the love of Jesus Christ; give thy hand to a fallen wretch who commends himself to thee. I know that thou art consoled in helping a sinner, when thou canst; wherefore help me now, for thou canst help me. By my sins I have lost the grace of God and my soul; but I put myself in thy hands; tell me what I must do to return to the grace of God, for I wish to do so at once. He sends me to thee, that thou mayest assist me; He wills that I should have recourse to thy mercy, in order that I may be helped to salvation not only by the merits of thy Son, but also by thy prayers. To thee, therefore, do I have recourse. Do thou pray to Jesus for me. Make known the good which thou canst do for him who puts his trust in thee. This is my firm hope. Amen.

Hail Mary three times in reparation for blasphemies against the B. V. M.

MONDAY

O Queen of Heaven, most holy Mary, once I was the slave of Satan, but now I dedicate myself to be thy servant for ever; I offer myself to thy perpetual honor and service. Accept me, then, as thy servant; ah, do not cast me out as I deserve. In thee, my Mother, have I set all my hope. I praise and thank almighty God, who in His mercy gives me this confidence in thee. True it is, in the past I have fallen miserably into sin; but I hope that I have already obtained pardon therefor through the merits of Jesus Christ and through thine intercession. But this is not enough, dear Mother; one thought distresses me, and that is that I may turn back and lose the grace of God; the dangers are ever present, mine enemies sleep not, fresh temptations will assail me. Ah, protect me then, my Lady! Defend me against the assaults of hell and permit not that I should begin again to commit sin and offend Jesus, thy divine Son. No, may it never come to pass that I should begin again to suffer the loss of my soul, of paradise and of God. This is the grace that I ask of thee, O Mary, this is my one desire, this do thou obtain for me by thine intercession. This is my firm hope. Amen.

Hail Mary three times, as above.

TUESDAY

Most holy Mary, Mother of goodness and mercy, when I consider my sins and think of the moment of death, I am filled with trembling and confusion. O sweetest Mother, in the Blood of Jesus Christ and in thy intercession are all my hopes. O Comforter of the afflicted, do not abandon me at that hour; forget not to console me in that great affliction.

If at present I am so tormented with remorse at the sight of my sins, the uncertainty of forgiveness, the danger of falling again and the rigor of God's justice, what will become of me at that dread hour? Ah, my Lady, before death shall come, do thou obtain for me true sorrow for my sins, sincere amendment and fidelity to God for the rest of my life. And when at length I come to the hour of death, O Mary, my only hope, do thou assist me in the dire torments in which I shall then find myself; strengthen me so that I may not despair at the sight of my sins, which the devil himself will set before me. Get me the grace to call upon thee more frequently so that I may breathe forth my spirit with thy sweet Name on my lips and the Name of thy dear Son. Thou hast imparted this grace to so many of thy devoted children; it is the grace that I desire and hope for myself. Amen.

Hail Mary three times, as above.

WEDNESDAY

O Mother of God, Mary most holy, how often have I merited hell by my sins! Even now the sentence might have been executed, perhaps on the occasion of my first sin, hadst thou not, in thy loving pity, restrained the hand of God's justice; and then, overcoming my hardness of heart, thou didst gently draw me to put my trust in thee. Alas, into how many more sins I might have fallen, by reason of the dangers which encompass me, hadst thou not, O dearest Mother, preserved me from them by the graces thou didst obtain for me. Ah, my Queen, what will thy mercy and the many favors thou hast done for me avail me, if I become the cause of my own condemnation? If once upon a time I did not love thee, now at any rate I do love thee, after God, above all things. Ah, permit not that I should turn my back upon thee and upon Almighty God who has granted me so many merciful favors through thy intercession. Wilt thou suffer one of thy servants, who loves thee, to be damned? O Mary, what sayest thou? Am I to bring about my own damnation? I shall do so, indeed, if I ever forsake thee. But who, henceforth, will have the heart to forsake thee? Who can forget the love which you hast borne toward me? No, he is not lost who commends himself faithfully to thee and has recourse to thee. Ah, my dearest Mother, abandon me not to my own devices, for then I shall surely lose my soul; grant that I may always run to thy protection. Save me, for thou art my hope, save me from hell, but first from sin which alone can bring me down to the gates of hell. Amen.

Hail Mary three times, as above.

THURSDAY

O Queen of Heaven, thou who sittest enthroned above all the choirs of Angels, nearest to God Himself, from this vale of tears I, a wretched sinner, salute thee and implore thee to turn thine eyes of mercy toward me. See, O Mary, the great dangers which encompass me now and in the future, so long as I shall live upon the earth, the danger of losing my soul, Heaven and God. In thee, dear Lady, do I put all my trust. I love thee and I would fain come quickly to see thee and praise thee in paradise. O Mary, when will that day come when I shall find myself in safety at thy feet? When shall I kiss that hand of thine, which has poured so many graces upon me? It is true, dearest Mother, that I have been many times ungrateful to thee during my life; but when I shall come safe home to heaven, there will I love thee every moment throughout eternity; and I will atone for my lack of gratitude by praising and thanking thee for ever. I give thanks to Almighty God who gives me such confidence in the Blood of Jesus Christ and in thy mighty intercession. Thy truly devoted servants have ever placed such confidence in thee and none has ever been confounded. Let me never be confounded, no, not even me. O Mary, pray to Jesus thy Son, even as I also am praying, to strengthen and evermore confirm these hopes of mine through the merits of His passion. Amen.

Hail Mary three times, as above.

FRIDAY

O Mary, thou art the noblest, the most exalted, the purest, the fairest, the holiest of all things created! O that all men knew thee, dearest Lady, and loved thee as thou deservest! But I am consoled by the thought that so many holy souls in heaven and so many just men upon the earth live enthralled by thy goodness and beauty. Above all else I rejoice that God Himself loves thee alone more than all men and Angels. O my Queen, most worthy of love, I too love thee, miserable sinner that I am, but I love thee far too little; I desire a greater and more tender love of thee, and this thou must obtain for me; for love of thee is a great sign of predestination, and a grace granted by God to those who shall be saved. Therefore, dear Mother, I see that I am under exceeding obligation to thy divine Son; I see that He is deserving of infinite love. Thou hast no other desire but to see Him loved by men; do thou obtain for me the grace of an ardent love of Jesus Christ, Ah, get this grace for me, thou who dost obtain from God whatsoever thou desirest. I do not seek the things of earth, not honors, not riches; I seek only that which thy heart seeks most of all, to love God and Him alone. Can it be that thou art unwilling to assist me in this my desire which is so dear to Thee? Nay, thou art already giving me thy help; even now thou art praying for me. Pray, O Mary, pray and never cease to pray until thou shalt see me safe in paradise, where I shall be sure of possessing and loving my God together with thee, my dearest Mother, for ever and ever. Amen.

Hail Mary three times, as above.

SATURDAY

O my most holy Mother, I behold the graces which thou hast obtained for me, and the ingratitude which I have shown toward thee. The thankless soul is no longer worthy of blessings; but not even on this account will I lose confidence in thy mercy. O my mighty Advocate, have pity on me. Thou art the dispenser of all the graces that God grants to the miserable children of men, and to this end has He made thee so mighty, so rich and so kind, that thou mightest succor us in our need. I wish to be saved; in thy hands, therefore, I place my eternal salvation; to thee I commend my spirit. I wish to be inscribed among thy most special servants; drive me not away. Thou goest about seeking the wretched to comfort them: do not abandon a poor sinner who flies to thy protection. Speak thou for me; thy Son will do whatsoever thou shalt ask Him. Take me under thy protection, and this is enough for me; for if thou shield me, I shall fear nothing: not my sins, for I hope that thou wilt obtain their remission from Almighty God; not the evil spirits, for thou art mightier than the powers of hell; not even Jesus as my Judge, for one prayer of thine will turn away His anger. Do thou, therefore, protect me, dear Mother, and obtain for me the remission of all my sins, the love of Jesus, final perseverance, a happy death, and paradise at last. True it is, I do not deserve these graces, but if thou dost ask them for me from our Lord,

I shall receive them. O Mary, my Queen, pray to Jesus for me; in thee do I put my trust; in this hope will I live and take my rest; and with this hope I wish to die. Amen (St. Alphonsus Maria de' Liguori).

Hail Mary three times, as above.

An indulgence of 3 years, for each prayer.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if these prayers are recited throughout an entire month (S. C. Ind., June 21, 1808 and June 18, 1876; S. P. Ap., Nov. 24, 1935).

O Mother of God, Mary most holy, how many times by my sins have I merited the pains of hell! Even now the sentence might have been passed, perhaps on the occasion of my very first sin, hadst thou not in thy tender pity restrained the hand of divine Justice: and then overcoming my hardness of heart, thou drewest me gently to place my confidence in thee. And oh, how very often should I have fallen in the dangers which beset my steps hadst not thou, loving Mother that thou art, preserved me by the graces thou didst obtain for me. But oh, my Queen, what will thy pity and thy favors avail me, if after all, I become the cause of my own condemnation. If there was once a time when I loved thee not, yet now, next to God, I love thee above all things. Ah, permit not that I should turn my back on thee and on my God who, by means of thee, has granted me so many mercies. Wilt thou endure seeing one of thy servants who loves thee go down into hell? O Mary, what sayest thou? Shall I bring about my own condemnation? I shall most surely do so, if I forsake thee. But who would henceforth have the heart to forsake thee? Who could ever forget the love thou hast borne toward me? No, he assuredly is not lost who faithfully commends himself to thee and has recourse to thee. Ah, my dear Mother, leave me not to my own devices for then I shall surely die. Grant that I may always seek thy protection.

Save me, for thou art my hope, save me from the pains of hell, but especially from sin, which alone has power to condemn me to the flames of perdition (St. Alphonsus Maria de' Liguori).

Hail Mary three times.

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, if this prayer be recited daily (S. C. Ind., May 15, 1821; S. P. Ap., April 5, 1936).

305

I. I venerate thee with all my heart, O Virgin most holy, above all Angels and Saints in paradise, as the daughter of the Eternal Father, and to thee I consecrate my soul with all its powers.

Hail Mary.

II. I venerate thee with all my heart, O Virgin most holy, above all Angels and Saints in paradise, as the Mother of the only-begotten Son, and to thee I consecrate my body with all its senses.

Hail Mary.

III. I venerate thee with all my heart, O Virgin most holy, above all Angels and Saints in paradise, as the beloved Spouse of the Spirit of God, and to thee I consecrate my heart and all its affections, imploring thee to obtain for me from the Most Holy Trinity all the means of salvation.

Hail Mary.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions, if this act of consecration is devoutly repeated every day (Leo XII, Rescript in his own hand, Oct. 21, 1823; S. C. Ind., June 18, 1876; S. P. Ap., Jan. 14, 1934).

306

Virgin most holy, Mother of the Word Incarnate, Treasurer of graces, and Refuge of us poor sinners; we fly to thy motherly affection with lively faith, and we beg of thee the grace ever to do the will of God. Into thy most holy hands we commit the keeping of our hearts, asking thee for health of soul and body, in the certain hope that thou, our most loving Mother, wilt hear our prayer. Wherefore with lively faith we say:

Hail Mary three times.

An indulgence of 500 days. (S. C. Ind., Aug. 11, 1824; S. P. Ap., Sept. 21, 1935).

O most excellent, most glorious, most holy and ever inviolate Virgin Mary, Mother of our Lord Jesus Christ, Queen of the whole world and Mistress of every creature; thou forsakest no one, thou despisest no one, thou sendest away disconsolate no one who comes to thee with a pure and lowly heart; despise me not for my countless grievous sins, neither forsake me for my exceeding iniquities, nor for the hardness and uncleanness of my heart; cast me not away, who am thy servant, from thy grace and love. Graciously hear me, a miserable sinner, trusting in thy tender mercy; come to my assistance, O most loving Virgin Mary, in all my tribulations, trials and necessities; obtain for me of thy dear Son, almighty God and our Lord Jesus Christ, the forgiveness and remission of all my sins, and the grace of fear and the love of thee; health likewise and chastity of body, and deliverance from all evils and dangers which beset both soul and body.

In my last moments do thou graciously assist me, and deliver my soul and the souls of my parents, brothers, sisters and friends, kinsmen and benefactors, and of all faithful Christians, both living and departed, from eternal darkness and from all evil, by the grace of Him whom thou didst bear in thy sacred womb for nine long months, and didst lay in the manger with thine own pure hands, even our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son who is blessed for ever. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions, if this prayer is devoutly recited every day (S. C. Ind., Jan. 30, 1828; S. P. Ap., March 10, 1936).

O excellentissima, gloriosissima atque sanctissima semper intemerata Virgo Maria, Mater Domini nostri Iesu Christi, Regina mundi et totius creaturae Domina, quae nullum, qui ad te puro et humili corde recurrit, desolatum dimittis, noli me despiciere prop-ter innumerabilia et gravissima peccata mea, noli me derelinquere propter nimias iniquitates meas, nec etiam propter duritiam et immunditiam cordis mei: ne abiicias me famulum tuum a gratia tua et amore tuo. Exaudi me miserum peccatorem in tua misericordia et pietate confidentem; succurre mihi, piissima Virgo Maria, in omnibus tribulationibus, angustiis et necessitatibus meis; et impetra mihi a dilecto Filio tuo omnipotente Deo et Domino nostro Iesu Christo indulgentiam et remissionem omnium peccatorum meorum et gratiam timoris et amoris tui, sanitatem quoque et castitatem corporis, et liberationem ab omnibus malis et periculis animæ et corporis. In extremis meis esto mihi pia auxiliatrix, et animam meam ac animas omnium parentum meorum, fratrum, sororum et amicorum consanguineorum et benefactorum meorum omniumque fidelium vivorum et defunctorum ab æterna caligine et ab omni malo libera, Illo auxiliante, quem in tuo sacratissimo útero novem menses portasti et in præsepe tuis sanctis manibus reclinasti, Dominum nostrum Iesum Christum Filium tuum, qui est benedictus in sæcula sæculorum. Amen.

Most holy Virgin, Mary Mother of God, sure refuge of sinners, to thee who art, after God, our consolation and our hope in this place of exile, to thee do I turn with entire confidence, although utterly unworthy of thy patronage. I know, on the one hand, my extreme need of being converted from my very heart; on the other, the very enormity of my sins overwhelms me with confusion. To thee, therefore, I have recourse, who art our sovereign mediatrix with thy dear Son Jesus even as He is our Mediator with God, His Eternal Father. To thee, after Jesus, must I look for my conversion. Deign, therefore, O Mother of mercy, to obtain for me the grace of a true and lasting repentance. I would utterly change my manner of life. My will in this is sincere; but I stand in need of thy special assistance, for my evil habits, the ill use I have hitherto made of so many saving inspirations and graces, the multitude and heinousness of my transgressions and my deep attachment to the world render my conversion most difficult. In spite of my unworthiness, I still hope for thy assistance; refuse not thou to give it. I am only too deserving of the flames of hell; yet I cast myself at thy feet, sorrowful and repentant. I confess that by my sins I have rightly lost the grace of God, the divine adoption of sons, and all claim to everlasting happiness; instead I have called down upon myself the anger of heaven. Pray thou to Jesus for me, that for the sake of His Most Precious Blood, His bitter passion and His cruel death upon the Cross He may vouchsafe to forgive my transgressions, and it shall be done. Say to Him that thou desirest my salvation, and He will surely save me. But since I can again fall back into sin and lose the life of grace, surrounded as I am by so many dangerous occasions, do thou protect me always and I am certain that I shall triumph over mine enemies who are ever seeking my ruin. By thine intercession obtain for me the grace of a lively faith, a firm hope and an ardent charity, together with all the other virtues which are proper to my state of life: in particular, constancy in well-doing and final perseverance. Be thou, finally, my kindly Mother during this present life and my special Advocate at the hour of death, so that I may be numbered amongst those to whom thy Son will say: "Come, ye blessed of my Father, take possession of my kingdom." Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this prayer is recited with devotion every day for a month (S. C. Ind., Jan. 30, 1828; S. P. Ap., Dec. 16, 1934).

309

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that any one who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful; O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions for the daily recitation of this prayer (S. C. Ind., Dec. 11, 1846; S. P. Ap., Sept. 8, 1935).

Memoráre, o piíssima Virgo María, non esse audí-tum a sæculo, quemquam ad tua curréntem præsídia, tua implorántem auxília, tua peténtem suf-frágia esse derelíctum. Ego tali animátus confidéntia ad te, Virgo Vírginum, Mater, curro; ad te vénio; coram te gemens peccátor assísto. Noli, Mater Verbi, verba mea despícere, sed audi propítia et exáudi. Amen.

Hail Mary, etc.

My Queen! my Mother! I give thee all myself, and, to show my devotion to thee, I consecrate to thee my eyes, my ears, my mouth, my heart, my entire self. Wherefore, O loving Mother, as I am thine own, keep me, defend me, as thy property and possession.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this act of oblation is repeated every day for a month (S. C. Ind., Aug. 5, 1851; S. P. Ap., Nov. 21, 1936).

Ave María, etc.

O Dómina mea! O Mater mea! Tibi me totum offero, atque, ut me tibi probem devótum, consacro tibi óculos meos, aures meas, os meum, cor meum, plane me totum. Quóniam ítaque tuus sum, o bona Mater, serva me, defénde me ut rem ac possessionem tuam.

311

O blessed Virgin Mary, who can worthily repay thee thy just dues of praise and thanksgiving, thou who by the wondrous assent of thy will didst rescue a fallen world? What songs of praise can our weak human nature recite in thy honor, since it is by thy intervention alone that it has found the way to restoration? Accept, then, such poor thanks as we have here to offer, though they be unequal to thy merits; and, receiving our vows, obtain by thy prayers the remission of our offenses. Carry thou our prayers within the sanctuary of the heavenly audience, and bring forth from it the antidote of our reconciliation. May the sins we bring before Almighty God through thee, become pardonable through thee; may what we ask for with sure confidence, through thee be granted. Take our offering, grant us our requests, obtain pardon for what we fear, for thou art the sole hope of sinners. Through thee we hope for the remission of our sins, and in thee, O blessed Lady, is our hope of reward. Holy Mary, succour the miserable, help the faint-hearted, comfort the sorrowful, pray for thy people, plead for the clergy, intercede for all women consecrated to God; may all who keep thy holy commemoration feel now thy help and protection. Be thou ever ready to assist us when we pray, and bring back to us the answers to our prayers. Make it thy continual care to pray for the people of God, thou who, blessed by God, didst merit to bear the Redeemer of the world, who liveth and reigneth, world without end. Amen (St. Augustine).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions for the daily recitation of this prayer (Secret Mem., May 19, 1854; S. P. Ap., Feb. 5, 1932).

O beáta Virgo María, quis tibi digne váleat iura gratiárum ac laudum præcónia repéndere, quæ singulári tuo assénsu, mundo succurrísti pérdito? Quas tibi laudes fragílitas humáni géneris persólvat, quæ solo tuo commércio recuperánda áditum invénit? Accipe ítaque quascúmquus éxiles, quascúmque méritis tuis ímpares gratiárum actiónes, et cum suscéperis vota, culpas nostras orándo excúsa. Admítte nostras preces intra sacrárium exauditiónis et repórta nobis antídoto reconciliatiónis. Sit per te excusábile quod per te ingérimus; fiat impetrábile quod fida mente póscimus. Accipe quod offérimus, redóna quod rogámus, excúsa quod timémus, quia Tu es spes única peccatórum. Per te sperámus véniam delictórum et in te, beatíssima, nostrórum est expectátio præmiórum. Sancta María, succurre míseris; iuva pusillánimes; réfove flébiles; ora pro pópulo; intérvени pro clero; intercéde pro devóto femíneo sexu: séntiant omnes tuum iuvámen, quicumque célebrant tuam sanctam commemoratiónem. Assíste paráta votis poscéntium et repórta nobis optátum efféctum. Sint tibi stúdia assídua oráre pro pópulo Dei, quæ meruísti, benedícta, Redemptórem ferre mundi, qui vivit et regnat in sæcula sæculórum. Amen (S. Augustinus).

Most holy Virgin Immaculate, my Mother Mary, to thee who art the Mother of my Lord, the Queen of the universe, the advocate, the hope, the refuge of sinners, I who am the most miserable of all sinners, have recourse this day. I venerate thee, great Queen, and I thank thee for the many graces thou hast bestowed upon me even unto this day; in particular for having delivered me from the hell which I have so often deserved by my sins. I love thee, most dear Lady; and for the love I bear thee, I promise to serve thee willingly forever and to do what I can to make thee loved by others also. I place in thee all my hopes for salvation; accept me as thy servant and shelter me under thy mantle, thou who art the Mother of mercy. And since thou art so powerful with God, deliver me from all temptations, or at least get me the strength to overcome them until death. From thee I implore a true love for Jesus Christ. Through thee I hope to die a holy death. My dear Mother, by the love thou bearest to Almighty God, I pray thee to assist me always, but most of all at the last moment of my life. Forsake me not then, until thou shalt see me safe in heaven, there to bless thee and sing of thy mercies through all eternity. Such is my hope. Amen (St. Alphonsus M. de' Liguori).

The faithful who recite this prayer before an image of the B. V. Mary, may gain:

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, if they recite it every day (Pius IX, Rescript in his own hand, Sept. 7, 1854; S. P. Ap., May 18, 1934).

313

O holy Mary, my Mistress, into thy blessed trust and special keeping, into the bosom of thy tender mercy, this day, every day of my life and at the hour of my death, I commend my soul and body; to thee I entrust all my hopes and consolations, all my trials and miseries, my life and the end of my life, that through thy most holy intercession and thy merits, all my actions may be ordered and disposed according to thy will and that of thy divine Son. Amen (St. Aloysius Gonzaga).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, if this prayer is recited daily (S. C. Ind., Mar. 15, 1890; S. P. Ap., Mar. 28, 1933).

O Dómina mea, sancta María, me in tuam benedictam fidem ac singulárem custódiam et in sinum misericórdiæ tuæ, hódie et quotidie et in hora éxitus mei ánimam meam et corpus meum tibi comméndo: omnem spem et consolatiónem meam, omnes angústias et misérias meas, vitam et finem vitæ meæ tibi commítto, ut per tuam sanctíssimam intercessiÓnem et per tua mérita, ómnia mea dirigántur et disponántur ópera secúndum tuam tuíque Fílii voluntátem. Amen (S. Aloisius Gonzaga).

314

O Mary, crowned with stars, who hast the moon for thy footstool and who sittest enthroned above all the choirs of Angels, incline thine eyes toward this vale of tears, and hear the voice of one who puts all his hope and trust in thee.

Now thou dost rejoice in the endless bliss of paradise; but once thou didst endure the miseries of this our exile and thou knowest how bitter are the days of him who eats the bread of sorrow.

On Calvary thou didst hear a voice, well-known to thee, which said: "Woman, behold thy son"; that is to say, "a son in my stead". By these words thou wast appointed the Mother of all believers.

And without thee what life should we have, who are the unhappy children of Adam? Each of us has a sorrow that tries him, a grief that oppresses, a wound that rankles. All men run to thy protection, as to the haven of safety and the fountain of healing. When the waves rise high in the tempest, it is to thee the mariner turns and prays for calm. The orphan flies to thee, for he sees himself as a plant in a thirsty land, defenseless before all the whirlwinds of life. To thee the poor offer their supplications when they are in want of daily bread. And not even one is left without thy help and consolation.

O Mary, dear Mother, enlighten our minds, and warm our hearts; let that pure love which streams forth from thine eyes, spread itself abroad and bring forth those wondrous fruits which thy Son hath purchased for us by the shedding of His Blood, the while thou didst suffer most bitter torments at the foot of His Cross.

An indulgence of 500 days (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, March 24, 1905, exhib. June 2, 1905; S. P. Ap., Sept. 23, 1936).

Majestic Queen of Heaven and Mistress of the Angels, thou didst receive from God the power and commission to crush the head of Satan; wherefore we humbly beseech thee, send forth the legions of heaven, that, under thy command, they may seek out all evil spirits, engage them everywhere in battle, curb their insolence, and hurl them back into the pit of hell. "Who is like unto God?"

O good and tender Mother, thou shalt ever be our hope and the object of our love.

O Mother of God, send forth the holy Angels to defend me and drive far from me the cruel foe.

Holy Angels and Archangels, defend us and keep us.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., July 8, 1908; S. P. Ap., March 28, 1935).

IN REPARATION FOR INSULTS OFFERED TO THE B. V. M.

316

O blessed Virgin, Mother of God, look down in mercy from Heaven, where thou art enthroned as Queen, upon me, a miserable sinner, thine unworthy servant. Although I know full well my own unworthiness, yet in order to atone for the offenses that are done to thee by impious and blasphemous tongues, from the depths of my heart I praise and extol thee as the purest, the fairest, the holiest creature of all God's handiwork. I bless thy holy Name, I praise thine exalted privilege of being truly Mother of God, ever Virgin, conceived without stain of sin, Co-Redemptrix of the human race. I bless the Eternal Father who chose thee in an especial way for His daughter; I bless the Word Incarnate who took upon Him our nature in thy bosom and so made thee His Mother; I bless the Holy Spirit who took thee as His bride. All honor, praise and thanksgiving to the ever-blessed Trinity who predestined thee and loved thee so exceedingly from all eternity as to exalt thee above all creatures to the most sublime heights. O Virgin, holy and merciful, obtain for all who offend thee the grace of repentance, and graciously accept this poor act of homage from me thy servant, obtaining likewise for me from thy divine Son the pardon and remission of all my sins. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (Holy Office, Jan. 22, 1914; S. P. Ap., Dec. 4, 1934).

O Mary, my dear Mother and mighty Queen, take and receive my poor heart with all its freedom and desires, all its love and affection, and all the virtues and graces with which it can be adorned. All that I am, all that I might be, my Lady and Queen, all that I have and hold in the order of nature as well as of grace, I have received from God through thy loving intercession; into thy sovereign hands I commit it all, that it may be returned to its noble original; wherefore we confess that thou art the channel whereby the graces of heaven descend upon us; thou art likewise the aqueduct which carries them back to their source; thou art, as it were, an electric wire, whereby we are put in direct communication with our heavenly Father; thou art the immaculate way which leads us safe to the Heart of God. Take, then, and accept all that I am, O Mary, Queen of every heart, and bind me to thee with the bonds of love, that I may be thine for ever, and may be able to say in truth: "I belong to Jesus through Mary." Thee only will I love, my Mother most pure; lend me thy heart; give me love for thee and for Jesus, and it is enough to make me happy and blessed in life, in death and in eternity. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions for the daily recitation of this prayer (S. P. Ap., July 29, 1924 and July 12, 1933).

318

May we be assisted, we beseech Thee, O Lord, by the worshipful intercession of Thy glorious Mother, the ever-Virgin Mary; that we, who have been enriched by her perpetual blessings, may be delivered from all dangers, and through her loving kindness made to be of one heart and mind: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions if this prayer is recited every day for a month (S. P. Ap., Feb. 6, 1934).

Adjuvet nos, quæsumus Dómine, gloriósæ tuæ Genitricis sempérque Vírginis Maríæ intercèssio veneránda: ut quos perpétuis cumulávit beneficiis, a cunctis perículis absolútos, sua fáciat pietáte concórdes: Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculórum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

319

Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord God, that we Thy servants may rejoice in continual health of mind and body; and, by the glorious intercession of blessed Mary ever-Virgin, deliver us from present heaviness and grant us the joy of eternal happiness; through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for the daily repetition of this prayer (S. P. Ap., March 18, 1935).

Concède nos fámulos tuos, quæsumus, Dómine Deus, perpétua mentis et córporis sanitate gaudére; et, gloriósæ beátæ Maríæ semper Vírginis intercèssióne, a præsénti liberári tristítia et æténa pérfrui lætítia. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

Holy Mary, be thou a help to the helpless, strength to the fearful, comfort to the sorrowful, pray for the people, plead for the clergy, intercede for all holy women consecrated to God; may all who keep thy sacred commemoration feel the might of thine assistance (Roman Breviary).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions for the devout recitation of this prayer every day (S. P. Ap., May 29, 1936).

Sancta María, succurre miseris, iuva pusillánimes, réfove flébiles, ora pro pópulo, intérvieni pro clero, intercède pro devóto femíneo sexu: séntiant omnes tuum iuvámen, quicúmque célebrant tuam sanctam commemoratióem (ex Breviario Romano).

CHAPTER II

THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF THE B. V. M.

I

321

In thy Conception, O Virgin Mary, thou wast immaculate; pray for us to the Father whose Son Jesus, after He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, thou didst bring forth into the world.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., Nov. 21, 1793; S. P. Ap., April 24, 1933).

In Conceptione tua, Virgo María, immaculáta fuísti; ora pro nobis Patrem, cuius Fílium Iesum de Spíritu Sancto concéptum peperísti.

322

To thee, O Virgin Mother, who wast never touched by any spot of original or actual sin, I commend and entrust the purity of my heart.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. of the Prop. of the Faith, Nov. 26, 1854; S. P. Ap., May 9, 1932).

323

O Mary, thou didst enter the world without stain; do thou obtain for me from God, that I may leave it without sin.

An indulgence of 300 days (Pius IX, Audience, March 27, 1863; S. P. Ap., Oct. 16, 1936).

324

Blessed be the holy and Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions, if this ejaculation be said devoutly every day (Brief, Sept. 10, 1878; S. P. Ap., Nov. 8, 1934).

325

O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions if this invocation be devoutly repeated daily (S. C. Ind., March 15, 1884; S. P. Ap., April 15, 1932).

326

Hail Mary, etc.

By thine Immaculate Conception, O Mary, make my body pure and my spirit holy (St. Alphonsus M. de' Liguori).

An indulgence of 300 days (Brief, Dec. 5, 1904; S. P. Ap., March 27, 1935).

Ave, María, etc.

Per tuam immaculátam Conceptionem, o María, redde purum corpus meum et sanctam ánimam meam (S. Alphonsus M. de Ligorio).

327

Thou art all fair, O Mary,
The original stain is not in thee.
Thou art the glory of Jerusalem,
Thou, the joy of Israël,
Thou, the great honor of our people,
Thou, the advocate of sinners.
O Mary,
O Mary,
Virgin most prudent,
Mother most merciful,
Pray for us,
Intercede for us with our Lord Jesus Christ.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., Mar. 23, 1904; S. P. Ap., Dec. 19, 1936).

Tota pulchra es, María,
Et mácula originális non est in te.
Tu glória Ierúsalem,
Tu lætítia Israël,
Tu honorificéntia pópuli nostri,
Tu advocáta peccatórum.
O María,
O María,
Virgo prudentíssima,
Mater clementíssima,
Ora pro nobis,
Intercéde pro nobis ad Dóminum Iesum Christum.

II

THE LITTLE OFFICE

328

The faithful, who recite with devotion the little Office of the Immaculate Conception of the B. V. M., may obtain:

An indulgence of 7 years;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions if they recite the same daily for a month (Brief, March 31, 1876; S. P. Ap., Oct. 23, 1928 and March 18, 1932).

III

329

The faithful who devoutly assist at a public novena in honor of the Immaculate Conception of the B. V. M., immediately preceding the 8th of December, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years on each day;

A plenary indulgence, if they are present on at least five days and in addition go to confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the intentions of the Holy Father.

Those who make a private novena at the aforesaid season may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years, once each day;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions at the close of the novena; but this indulgence is available only to those who are lawfully prevented from assisting at the public novena where one is held (Pius IX, Audience Jan. 3, 1849; S. C. of Bishops and Regulars, Jan. 28, 1850; S. C. Ind., Nov. 26, 1876; S. P. Ap., May 18, 1935).

330

The faithful who recite with devotion the prayers entitled: "A devout seven days' supplication to the most holy Virgin Mother of God, immaculately conceived, for obtaining the grace of a godly life in Christ, and a happy death in the peace of the Lord, taken from the writings of the Seraphic Doctor, St. Bonaventure," may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years once a day.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception of the B. V. M. and on one day during the Octave, on the Feast of St. Joseph, Spouse of the Virgin Mother of God, on the Feast of St. Bonaventure, and once during the month of May, if this devout service is performed daily throughout an entire month immediately preceding the above-mentioned feasts and days (Brief, Dec. 9, 1856; S. P. Ap., March 18, 1932).

331

The faithful on any one of seven successive Sundays that they choose, if they recite some devout prayers in honor of the Immaculate Conception of the B. V. M., may gain:

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions (S. C. of the Prop. of the Faith, Sept. 21, 1865; S. C. Ind., July 23, 1898; S. P. Ap., May 4, 1936).

332

The faithful who perform some act of devotion in honor of the Immaculate Conception of the B. V. M. during the month of December may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years once, on any day;

A plenary indulgence, on the usual conditions, if they perform it daily throughout the month (S. C. Ind., Nov. 13, 1907; S. P. Ap., April 24, 1933).

333

The faithful who spend some time in devout prayers or meditations in honor of the B. V. M. Immaculate, on the first Saturday or Sunday of each month with the intention of persevering in the same practice for the space of twelve months, may gain:

A plenary indulgence, under the usual conditions, on each first Saturday or Sunday (S. C. Ind., July 1, 1905; S. P. Ap., Nov. 15, 1927).

334

The faithful may gain on each of the twelve Saturdays immediately preceding the feast of the Immaculate Conception of the B. V. M., if they devote some time to prayer or meditation in honor of that mystery:

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions (Holy Office, Nov. 26, 1908).

a) The faithful who on the first Saturday of each month perform some special exercises of devotion in honor of the B. V. M. Immaculate, in order to make atonement for the blasphemies whereby the name and prerogatives of the same Blessed Virgin are reviled, may gain:

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions (S. C. Holy Off., June 13, 1912).

b) Those who once in their lifetime perform such a devout exercise on the first Saturdays of eight successive months may gain, without prejudice to the above plenary indulgence:

A plenary indulgence at the hour of death, if, after confession and Communion, or at least being duly contrite, they invoke with their lips, if possible, otherwise in their hearts, the most holy Name of Jesus, and accept death with resignation from the Hand of God as the due punishment of their sins (Benedict XV, Rescript in his own hand, Nov. 9, 1920, exhib. Nov. 17, 1920).

IV

PRAYERS

336

O Virgin Immaculate, who wast pleasing in the Lord's sight and didst become His Mother, look graciously upon the wretched who implore thy mighty patronage. The wicked serpent, against whom the primal curse was hurled, continues none the less to wage war and to lay snares for the unhappy children of Eve. Ah, do thou, our blessed Mother, our Queen and Advocate, who from the first instant of thy conception didst crush the head of our enemy, receive the prayers that we unite single-heartedly to thine and conjure thee to offer at the throne of God, that we may never fall into the snares that are laid for us, in such wise that we may all come to the haven of salvation; and in the midst of so many dangers may holy Church and the fellowship of Christians everywhere sing once more the hymn of deliverance, victory and peace. Amen.

O Virgin Immaculate, Mother of God and my Mother, from thy sublime height turn upon me thine eyes of pity. Filled with confidence in thy goodness and knowing full well thy power, I beseech thee to extend to me thine assistance in the journey of life, which is so full of dangers for my soul. And in order that I may never be the slave of the devil through sin, but may ever live with my heart humble and pure, I entrust myself wholly to thee. I consecrate my heart to thee for ever, my only desire being to love thy divine Son Jesus. Mary, none of thy devout servants has ever perished; may I too be saved. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. P. Ap., May 17, 1919 and April 29, 1935).

Immaculate Mother of God, Queen of heaven, Mother of mercy, Advocate and Refuge of sinners, behold, I, enlightened and inspired by the graces obtained for me abundantly from the divine treasury through thy maternal affection, resolve this day and always to place my heart in thy hands to be consecrated to Jesus.

To thee, therefore, Most Blessed Virgin, in the presence of the nine choirs of Angels and all the Saints, I now give it. Do thou, in my name, consecrate it to Jesus; and out of the filial confidence which I hereby make profession of, I am certain that now and always thou wilt do all thou canst to bring it to pass that my heart may ever wholly belong to Jesus, and may imitate perfectly the example of the Saints, and in particular that of Saint Joseph, thy most pure Spouse. Amen (Ven. Vincent Pallotti).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this prayer is recited every day for a month (S. P. Ap., July 27, 1920 and Sept. 12, 1936).

Immaculáta Mater Dei, Regína cælórum, Mater misericórdiæ, advocáta et refúgium peccatórum, ecce ego illuminátus et incitátus grátiis, a te matérna benevoléntia large mihi impetrátis ex thesáuro divíno, státuo nunc et semper dare in manus tuas cor meum Iesu consecrándum.

Tibi ígitur, beatíssima Virgo, coram novem choris Angelórum cunctisque Sanctis illud trado, Tu autem, meo nómine, Iesu id cónsecre; et ex fidúcia filiáli, quam profíteor, certum mihi est te nunc et semper quantum póteris esse factúram, ut cor meum iúgiter totum sit Iesu, ímitans perfectíssime Sanctos, præsértim sanctum Ioseph, Sponsum tuum puríssimum. Amen (Ven. Vincentius Pallotti).

O pure and immaculate and likewise blessed Virgin, who art the sinless Mother of thy Son, the mighty Lord of the universe, thou who art inviolate and altogether holy, the hope of the hopeless and sinful, we sing thy praises. We bless thee, as full of every grace, thou who didst bear the God-Man: we all bow low before thee; we invoke thee and implore thine aid. Rescue us, O holy and inviolate Virgin, from every necessity that presses upon us and from all the temptations of the devil. Be our intercessor and advocate at the hour of death and judgment; deliver us from the fire that is not extinguished and from the outer darkness; make us worthy of the glory of thy Son, O dearest and most clement Virgin Mother. Thou indeed art our only hope most sure and sacred in God's sight, to whom be honor and glory, majesty and dominion for ever and ever world without end. Amen (St. Ephrem the Syrian).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if the daily recitation of this prayer be continued for a month (S. P. Ap., Dec. 21, 1920 and Jan. 9, 1933).

O pura et immaculáta, eadémque benedícta Virgo, magni Fílii tui universórum Dómini Mater inculpáta, íntegra et sacrosanctíssima, desperántium atque reórum spes, te collaudámus. Tibi ut grátia pleníssimæ benedícimus, quæ Christum genuísti Deum et Hóminem: omnes coram te prostérnimur: omnes te invocámus et auxiliúm tuum implorámus. Eripe nos, o Virgo sancta atque intemeráta, a quacúmque ingruénte necessitáte et a cunctis tentatiónibus diabóli. Nostra conciliátrix et advocáta in hora mortis atque iudícii esto: nosque a futúro inexstinguíbili igne et a ténebris exterióribus líbera: et Fílii tui nos glória dignáre, o Virgo et Mater dulcíssima ac clementíssima. Tu síquidem única spes nostra es securíssima et sanctíssima apud Deum, cui glória et honor, decus atque impérium in sempitérna sæcula sæculórum. Amen (S. Ephræm. C. D.).

O God, who by the Immaculate Conception of the Virgin didst make ready a fitting habitation for Thy Son, we beseech Thee that Thou who didst keep her clean from all stain by the precious death of the same Thy Son, foreseen by Thee, mayest grant unto us in like manner to be made clean through her intercession and so attain unto Thee. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this prayer is recited daily for a month (S. C. Ind., March 23, 1904; S. P. Ap., May 4, 1936).

Deus, qui per immaculátam Vírginis Conceptioném dignum Fílio tuo habitáculum præparasti, quæsumus, ut qui ex morte eiúsdem Fílii tui prævísa eam ab omni labe præservásti, nos quoque mundos, eius intercessióne, ad te perveníre concédas. Per eúndem Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

NOTE: A prayer to the Blessed Virgin Mary, conceived without sin, for the conversion of non-Catholics is found under n. 580; one for a happy death under n. 595.

CHAPTER III

THE BLESSED VIRGIN SORROWING

I

INVOCATIONS

341

Holy Mother, pierce me through,
In my heart each wound renew,
Of my Saviour crucified (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this invocation is devoutly repeated every day for a month (S. P. Ap., Aug. 1, 1934).

Sancta Mater, istud agas,
Crucifíxi fige plagas
Cordi meo válide.

(ex Missali Romano).

NOTE: For the indulgences attached to the recitation five times of the Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be with the above stanza, see n. 168.

342

Mary most sorrowful, Mother of Christians, pray for us.

An indulgence of 300 days (Pius X, Audience June 4, 1906, exhib. June 27, 1906; S. P. Ap., Sept. 23, 1935).

343

Virgin most sorrowful, pray for us.

An indulgence of 300 days.

An indulgence of 5 years, if, in honor of the B. V. M. Sorrowing, the Hail Mary is recited 7 times followed by the above invocation once (S. P. Ap., Nov. 22, 1934).

Virgo dolorosissima, ora pro nobis.

II

SEQUENCE

Stabat Mater

344

At the Cross her station keeping,
Stood the mournful Mother weeping,
Close to Jesus to the last.

Through her heart, His sorrow sharing,
All His bitter anguish bearing,
Lo! the piercing sword had passed.

O how sad and sore distressed
Was that Mother, highly blessed,
Of the sole-begotten One.

Woe-begone, with heart's prostration,
Mother meek, the bitter passion
Saw she of her glorious Son.

Who on Christ's dear Mother gazing,
In her trouble so amazing,
Born of woman, would not weep?

Who on Christ's dear Mother thinking,
Such a cup of sorrow drinking,
 Would not share her sorrow deep?

For His people's sins rejected,
Saw her Jesus unprotected,
 Saw with thorns, with scourges rent:

Saw her Son from judgment taken,
Her Beloved in death forsaken,
 Till His spirit forth He sent.

Fount of love and holy sorrow,
Mother! may my spirit borrow
 Somewhat of thy woe profound;

Unto Christ, with pure emotion,
Raise my contrite heart's devotion,
 Love to read in every wound.

Those five wounds on Jesus smitten,
Mother! in my heart be written,
 Deep as in thine own they be;

Thou, thy Saviour's Cross who bearest,
Thou, thy Son's rebuke who sharest,
 Let me share them both with thee.

In the passion of my Maker,
Be my sinful soul partaker,
 Weep till death and weep with thee;

Mine with thee be that sad station,
There to watch the great salvation,
 Wrought upon the atoning tree.

Virgin, thou of virgins fairest,
May the bitter woe thou bearest,
 Make on me impression deep.

Thus Christ's dying may I carry,
 With Him in His passion tarry,
 And His wounds in memory keep.

May His wound both wound and heal me,
 He enkindle, cleanse, anneal me,
 Be His Cross my hope and stay.

May He, when the mountains quiver,
 From that flame which burns for ever,
 Shield me on the judgment day.

Jesus, may Thy Cross defend me,
 And Thy Mother's prayer befriend me,
 Let me die in Thy embrace;

When to dust my dust returneth,
 Grant a soul that to Thee yearneth.
 In Thy Paradise a place. Amen (tr. cento).

An indulgence of 7 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this sequence is recited daily for a month (S. C. Ind., June 18, 1876; S. P. Ap., Aug. 1, 1934).

Stabat Mater dolorosa
 Iuxta Crucem lacrimosa,
 Dum pendebat Filius.

Cuius animam gementem,
 Contristatam et dolentem
 Pertransiuit gladius.

O quam tristis et afflicta
 Fuit illa benedicta
 Mater Unigeniti!

Quæ mærebat et dolébat,
 Pia Mater, dum vidébat
 Nati pœnas ínclýti.

Quis est homo, qui non fleret
 Matrem Christi si vidéret
 In tanto supplicio?

Quis non posset contristári
Christi Matrem contemplári
Doléntem cum Fílio?

Pro peccátis suæ gentis
Vidit Iesum in torméntis,
Et flagéllis súbditum.

Vidit suum dulcem Natum
Moriéndo desolátum,
Dum emísit spíritum.

Eja Mater, fons amóris,
Me sentíre vim dolóris
Fac, ut tecum lúgeam.

Fac, ut árdeat cor meum
In amándo Christum Deum,
Ut sibi compláceam.

Sáncta Mater, istud agas,
Crucifíxi fige plagas
Cordi meo válide.

Tui Nati vulneráti,
Tam dignáti pro me pati,
Pœnas mecum dívide.

Fac me tecum pie flere,
Crucifíxo condolére,
Donec ego víxero.

Iuxta Crucem tecum stare,
Et me tibi sociáre
In planctu desídero.

Virgo vírginum præclára,
Mihi iam non sis amára,
Fac me tecum plángere.

Fac, ut portem Christi mortem,
Passiónis fac consórtem,
Et plagas recólere.

Fac me plagis vulnerári,
Fac me Cruce inebriári,
Et cruóre Fílii.

Flammis ne urar succénsus,
Per te, Virgo, sim defénsus
In die iudícii.

Christe, cum sit hinc exíre,
Da per Matrem me veníre
Ad palmam victóriæ.

Quando corpus moriétur,
Fac, ut ánimæ donétur
Paradísi glória. Amen.

NOTE: The hymn entitled, "Ave Mater dolorosa", for a happy death is found under n. 593.

III

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions.

Those who at other seasons of the year perform the same devout exercises between three o'clock on Friday afternoon and noon of the following Sunday, may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if they perform this devout exercise each week for a month (S. C. Ind., June 18, 1822; June 16, 1931).

346

The faithful who make a novena in honor of the B. V. M. Sorrowing, at any time during the year, may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years once, on any day;

347

The faithful who, during the month of September, perform their devotions in honor of the B. V. M. Sorrowing, may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years once, on any day of the month;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if they persevere daily in this devout practice throughout the entire month (Brief, April 3, 1857; S. C. Ind., Nov. 26, 1876 and Jan. 27, 1888; S. P. Ap., Nov. 12, 1936).

348

The faithful who, on any of the seven Fridays which immediately precede either Feast of the Sorrows of the B. V. M. recite seven times the Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (Brief, March 22, 1918; S. P. Ap., March 18, 1932).

IV

PRAYERS AND RESPONSES

349

V. God, make speed to save me;

R. O Lord, make haste to help me.

V. Glory be, etc.

R. As it was, etc.

I. I grieve for thee, O Mary most sorrowful, in the affliction of thy tender heart at the prophecy of the holy and aged Simeon. Dear Mother, by thy heart so afflicted, obtain for me the virtue of humility and the gift of the holy fear of God.

Hail Mary.

II. I grieve for thee, O Mary most sorrowful, in the anguish of thy most affectionate heart during the flight into Egypt and thy sojourn there. Dear Mother, by thy heart so troubled, obtain for me the virtue of generosity, especially towards the poor, and the gift of piety.

Hail Mary.

III. I grieve for thee, O Mary most sorrowful, in those anxieties which tried thy troubled heart at the loss of thy dear Jesus. Dear Mother, by thy heart so full of anguish, obtain for me the virtue of chastity and the gift of knowledge.

Hail Mary.

IV. I grieve for thee, O Mary most sorrowful, in the consternation of thy heart at meeting Jesus as He carried His Cross. Dear Mother, by thy heart so troubled, obtain for me the virtue of patience and the gift of fortitude.

Hail Mary.

V. I grieve for thee, O Mary most sorrowful, in the martyrdom which thy generous heart endured in standing near Jesus in His agony. Dear Mother, by thy heart afflicted in such wise, obtain for me the virtue of temperance and the gift of counsel.

Hail Mary.

VI. I grieve for thee, O Mary most sorrowful, in the wounding of thy compassionate heart, when the side of Jesus was struck by the lance and His Heart was pierced. Dear Mother, by thy heart thus transfixed, obtain for me the virtue of fraternal charity and the gift of understanding.

Hail Mary.

VII. I grieve for thee, O Mary most sorrowful, for the pangs that wrenched thy most loving heart at the burial of Jesus. Dear Mother, by thy heart sunk in the bitterness of desolation, obtain for me the virtue of diligence and the gift of wisdom.

Hail Mary.

V. Pray for us, O Virgin most sorrowful,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

Let intercession be made for us, we beseech Thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, now and at the hour of our death, before the throne of Thy mercy, by the blessed Virgin Mary, Thy Mother, whose most holy soul was pierced by a sword of sorrow in the hour of Thy bitter passion. Through Thee, Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, who with the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions, if these prayers are recited daily (Pius VII, Audience Jan. 14, 1815; Oct. 6, 1935).

V

350

Mary, most holy Virgin and Queen of martyrs, would that I could be in heaven to contemplate the honors showered upon thee by the ever-blessed Trinity and by all the host of heaven. But, seeing that I am still a pilgrim in this vale of tears, do thou accept from me, thine unworthy servant and a miserable sinner, the most sincere homage and the most perfect act of submission that any human creature can make to thee. In thine adorable heart pierced by so many swords of sorrow, today and for ever I lay mine own poor soul: accept me as a sharer in thy sorrows and permit not that I should ever abandon the Cross, whereon thine only-begotten Son breathed forth His blessed spirit for my sake. With thee, O Mary, I will suffer all the troubles, contradictions and weaknesses, with which it shall please thy divine Son to visit me in this life. I offer all to thee in memory of those pains which thou didst suffer during thy life on earth; so may every thought of my mind and every beat of my heart be from this day forth an act of compassion with thy sorrows and an act of joy for the glories which are thine in paradise. Yes, dear Mother, as I now suffer with thee, and rejoice with thee at seeing thee so glorified, so do thou have compassion on me and reconcile me with Jesus, thy Son, that I may be enabled to become thy true and faithful child. On my last day do thou come to assist me in my agony, as thou once didst assist thy divine Son in His agony, that so I may pass from this bitter exile to a share in thy glory in heaven. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., March 26, 1887; S. P. Ap., May 19, 1934).

Most holy Virgin and Mother, whose soul was pierced by a sword of sorrow in the passion of thy divine Son, and who in His glorious Resurrection wast filled with never-ending joy at His triumph; obtain for us who call upon thee, so to be partakers in the adversities of Holy Church and the sorrows of the Sovereign Pontiff, as to be found worthy to rejoice with them in the consolations for which we pray, in the charity and peace of the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, Jan. 25, 1906; exhib. Feb. 3, 1906; S. P. Ap., Feb. 27, 1936).

O Virgo et Mater sanctíssima, cuius ánimam in divíni Fílii tui passióne dolóris gládus pertransívit, et quæ in gloriósa eius resurreccióné perénnem triumphántis lætítiam percepísti; ímpetra nobis supplicibus tuis, ita sanctæ Ecclésiæ adversitatibus Summíque Pontíficis dolóribus consociári, ut optátis étiam consolatióibus lætificári cum ipsis mereámur, in caritaté et pace eiúsdem Christi Dómini nostri. Amen.

CHAPTER IV

THE MOST PURE HEART OF MARY

I

INVOCATIONS

352

Sweet Heart of Mary, be my salvation.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, if repeated daily (S. C. Ind., Sept. 30, 1852).

353

O Heart most pure of the Blessed Virgin Mary, obtain for me from Jesus a pure and humble heart.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions for the daily repetition of this invocation (S. P. Ap., Jan. 13, 1922).

II

354

The faithful who devoutly recite prayers in honor of the most pure Heart of Mary, at any season of the year, with the intention of persevering in the same for nine consecutive days may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years, once a day;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions at the end of the novena (Pius IX, Audience Jan. 3, 1849; S. C. of Bishops and Religious, Jan. 28, 1850; S. C. Ind., Nov. 26, 1876; S. P. Ap., April 29, 1933).

355

The faithful who offer prayers or other acts of piety in honor of the immaculate Heart of Mary, on any day during the month of August, may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years, once.

Those who persevere in such a devout exercise daily throughout the month of August, may gain:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (S. C. Holy Off., March 13, 1913; S. P. Ap., June 2, 1935).

III

AN ACT OF CONSECRATION

356

O Mary, Virgin most powerful and Mother of mercy, Queen of Heaven and Refuge of sinners, we consecrate ourselves to thine immaculate heart.

We consecrate to thee our very being and our whole life; all that we have, all that we love, all that we are. To thee we give our bodies, our hearts and our souls; to thee we give our homes, our families, our country. We desire that all that is in us and around us may belong to thee, and may share in the benefits of thy motherly benediction. And that this act of consecration may be truly efficacious and lasting, we renew this day at thy feet the promises of our Baptism and our first Holy Communion. We pledge ourselves to profess courageously and at all times the truths of our holy Faith, and to live as befits Catholics who are duly submissive to all the directions of the Pope and the Bishops in communion with him. We pledge ourselves to keep the commandments of God and His Church, in particular to keep holy the Lord's Day. We likewise pledge ourselves to make the consoling practices of the Christian religion, and above all, Holy Communion, an integral part of our lives, in so far as we shall be able so to do. Finally, we promise thee, O glorious Mother of God and loving Mother of men, to devote ourselves whole-heartedly to the service of thy blessed cult, in order to hasten and assure, through the sovereignty of thine immaculate heart, the coming of the kingdom of the Sacred Heart of thine adorable Son, in our own hearts and in those of all men, in our country and in all the world, as in heaven, so on earth. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence, on the usual conditions, if this act of consecration is repeated daily for a month (S. C. Ind., Feb. 21, 1907; S. P. Ap., April 29, 1933).

IV

V. Glory be to the Father, etc.

R. As it was, etc.

I. Immaculate Virgin, who being conceived without sin, didst direct every movement of thy most pure heart toward God, and wast always submissive to His divine will; obtain for me the grace to hate sin with all my heart and to learn from thee to live in perfect resignation to the will of God.

Our Father once and Hail Mary seven times.

II. O Mary, I wonder at that profound humility, which troubled thy blessed heart at the message of the Angel Gabriel, that thou hadst been chosen to be the Mother of the Son of the most high God, the while thou didst profess thyself His lowly handmaiden; ashamed at the sight of my own pride, I beg of thee the grace of a contrite and humble heart, so that, acknowledging my misery, I may come to attain the glory promised to those who are truly humble of heart.

Our Father once and Hail Mary seven times.

III. Blessed Virgin, who didst keep in thy heart the precious treasure of the words of Jesus thy Son and, pondering over the sublime mysteries therein contained, couldst live only for God, how am I confounded by the coldness of my heart! Ah, dear Mother, obtain for me the grace of meditating always on the holy law of God, and of seeking to follow thine example in the fervent practice of all the Christian virtues.

Our Father once and Hail Mary seven times.

IV. O glorious Queen of Martyrs, whose sacred heart, in the passion of thy Son, was cruelly pierced by the sword foretold by the holy and aged Simeon; obtain for my heart true courage and holy patience to bear well the tribulations and trials of this wretched life; may I show myself to be thy true child by crucifying my flesh and all its desires in following the mortification of the Cross.

Our Father once and Hail Mary seven times.

V. O Mary, mystic rose, whose lovable heart, burning with the living fire of love, adopted us as thy children at the foot of the Cross, becoming thus our most tender Mother, make me experience the sweetness of thy motherly heart and the power of thine intercession with Jesus, in all the dangers that beset me during life, and especially at the dread hour of my death; in such wise may my heart be ever united to thine, and love Jesus both now and through endless ages. Amen.

Our Father once and Hail Mary seven times.

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of these prayers over the period of one month (S. C. Ind., Dec. 11, 1854; S. P. Ap., July 2, 1931).

A PRAYER

358

O Heart of Mary, Mother of God and our Mother; Heart most worthy of love, in which the adorable Trinity is ever well-pleased, worthy of the veneration and love of all the Angels and of all men; Heart most like to the Heart of Jesus, of which thou art the perfect image; Heart, full of goodness, ever compassionate toward our miseries; deign to melt our icy hearts and grant that they may be wholly changed into the likeness of the Heart of Jesus, our divine Saviour. Pour into them the love of thy virtues, enkindle in them that divine fire with which thou thyself dost ever burn. In thee let holy Church find a safe shelter; protect her and be her dearest refuge, her tower of strength, impregnable against every assault of her enemies. Be thou the way which leads to Jesus, and the channel, through which we receive all the graces needful for our salvation. Be our refuge in time of trouble, our solace in the midst of trial, our strength against temptation, our haven in persecution, our present help in every danger, and especially at the hour of death, when all hell shall let loose against us its legions to snatch away our souls, at that dread moment, that hour so full of fear, whereon our eternity depends. Ah, then, most tender Virgin, make us to feel the sweetness of thy motherly heart, and the might of thine intercession with Jesus, and open to us a safe refuge in that very fountain of mercy, whence we may come to praise Him with thee in paradise, world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual terms, provided that this prayer be devoutly recited every day for a month (S. C. Ind., Aug. 18, 1807 and Feb. 1, 1816; S. P. Ap., Sept. 15, 1934).

CHAPTER V

THE HOLY ROSARY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

A) AS PRACTISED IN THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH

I

AN INVOCATION

359

Queen of the most holy Rosary, pray for us.

An indulgence of 300 days (Holy Office, Oct. 1, 1915; S. P. Ap., Nov. 24, 1933).

Regina sacratissimi Rosárii, ora pro nobis.

II

THE RECITATION OF THE ROSARY

360

a) The faithful, whenever they recite a third part of the Rosary with devotion, may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years (Bull "Ea quae ex fidelium", Sixtus IV, May 12, 1479; S. C. Ind., Aug. 29, 1899; S. P. Ap., March 18, 1932).

b) If they recite a third part of the Rosary in company with others, whether in public or in private, they may gain:

An indulgence of 10 years, once a day;

A plenary indulgence on the last Sunday of each month, with the addition of confession, Communion and a visit to a church or public oratory, if they perform such a recitation at least three times in any of the preceding weeks (S. C. Ind., May 12, 1851 and Aug. 29, 1899; S. P. Ap., March 18, 1932).

c) Those who piously recite a third part of the Rosary in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament publicly exposed or even reserved in the tabernacle, may gain:

A plenary indulgence, on condition of confession and Communion (Brief, Sept. 4, 1927).

NOTE: 1. The decades may be separated, if the entire chaplet is completed on the same day (S. C. Ind., July 8, 1908).

2. If, during the recitation of the Rosary, the faithful are accustomed to make use of a chaplet blessed by a religious of the Order of Preachers or some other priest having special faculties, they may gain other indulgences in addition to those enumerated above (S. C. Ind., April 13, 1726, Jan. 22, 1858 and Aug. 29, 1899).

III

361

The faithful who at any time of the year devoutly offer their prayers in honor of our Lady of the Rosary, with the intention of continuing the same for nine consecutive days, may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years once on any day of the novena;

362

The faithful who resolve to perform a devout exercise in honor of Our Lady of the Rosary for fifteen uninterrupted Saturdays (or these being impeded, for as many respective Sundays immediately following), if they devoutly recite at least a third part of the Rosary or meditate on its mysteries in some other manner may gain:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, on any of these fifteen Saturdays, or corresponding Sundays (S. C. Ind., Sept. 21, 1889 and Sept. 17, 1892; S. P. Ap., Aug. 3, 1936).

363

The faithful who during the month of October recite at least a third part of the Rosary, either publicly or privately, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years each day;

A plenary indulgence, if they perform this devout exercise on the Feast of the Rosary and throughout the Octave, and moreover, go to confession, receive Holy Communion and visit a church or public oratory;

A plenary indulgence, with the addition of confession, Communion and a visit to a church or public oratory, if they perform this same recitation of the holy Rosary for at least ten days after the Octave of the aforesaid Feast (S. C. Ind., July 23, 1898 and Aug. 29, 1899; S. P. Ap., March 18, 1932).

IV

A PRAYER

364

Queen of the most Holy Rosary, in these times of such brazen impiety, manifest thy power with the signs of thine ancient victories, and from thy throne, whence thou dost dispense pardon and graces, mercifully regard the Church of thy Son, His Vicar on earth, and every order of clergy and laity, who are sore oppressed in the mighty conflict. Do thou, who art the powerful vanquisher of all heresies, hasten the hour of mercy, even though the hour of God's justice is every day provoked by the countless sins of men. For me who am the least of men, kneeling before thee in supplication, do thou obtain the grace

I need to live righteously upon earth and to reign among the just in heaven, the while in company with all faithful Christians throughout the world, I salute thee and acclaim thee as Queen of the most Holy Rosary:

Queen of the most holy Rosary, pray for us.

An indulgence of 500 days (Leo XIII, Audience July 3, 1886; S. P. Ap., April 29, 1933).

B) AS PRACTISED IN THE VALLEY OF POMPEII

I

A VISIT

365

The faithful who devoutly visit the Pompeian image of Our Lady of the holy Rosary, exposed for veneration in some church, public or semi-public oratory (this last for those who may lawfully use it), may gain:

An indulgence of 300 days;

A plenary indulgence on the 8th day of May and on the Feast of the Holy Rosary, if, in addition, they make their confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the intentions of His Holiness (Brief, July 20, 1925).

II

A PRAYER TO BE SAID AT MIDDAY ON THE 8TH DAY OF MAY AND THE FIRST SUNDAY OF OCTOBER

366

I. O august Queen of victories, O Virgin-ruler of paradise, at whose powerful name the heavens rejoice and hell trembles for fear, O glorious Queen of the most Holy Rosary, all of us, thy highly favored children whom thy goodness hath chosen to raise a temple to thee at Pompeii in this our day, here humbly kneeling at thy feet, on this most solemn day of the Feast of thy fresh triumphs on earth over false gods and devils, pour forth with tears the deepest affection of our hearts, and with the confidence of sons we show our miseries to thee.

Ah, from that throne of mercy where thou art seated in queenly state, turn thy pitying gaze upon us, O Mary, and upon our families, upon Italy, upon Europe and upon the universal Church; do thou have compassion upon us by reason of the miseries whereby we are encompassed, and the tribulations that make life bitter for us. See, dear Mother, how many perils to body and soul surround us, what calamities and afflictions oppress us! O Mother, stay the arm of thine unheeded Son's justice and win the hearts of sinners by thy mercy; for they are our brethren and thy children, for whom the Precious Blood of Jesus was shed and thine own most gentle heart was pierced by the sword of sorrow. Show unto all men this day that thou art indeed the Queen of peace and forgiveness.

Hail holy Queen, etc.

2. Too true it is, alas, that we, although we are thy children, have been among the first to begin to crucify Jesus afresh in our hearts by sin and to renew the piercing of thy tender heart. Yes, we confess it, we deserve the sharpest scourges of God's anger. None the less do thou remember how, on Calvary's heights, thou didst gather up the last drops of the Precious Blood and didst receive the final testament of the dying Saviour. And that testament of a God, sealed by the Precious Blood of the God-Man, proclaimed thee our Mother, the Mother of sinners. Wherefore, just as thou art our Mother, so thou art likewise our advocate and our hope; to thee do we sigh, and stretch forth our hands in supplication, crying out for mercy.

Let compassion move thee, good Mother, compassion for us, for our souls, for our families, our relations and our friends, for our departed brethren, and above all, for our enemies and for the many souls who call themselves Christians and who, nevertheless, continue to wound the loving Heart of thy dear Son. We ask this day with tears for mercy, mercy upon the nations that have gone astray, upon the whole of Europe, upon the entire world, that all may return in penitence to thy heart. Have mercy upon them all, O Mother of mercy!

Hail holy Queen, etc.

3. What will it cost thee, O Mary, to hear our prayer? What will it cost thee to save us? Hath not Jesus placed in thy hands all the treasures of His grace and mercy? Thou sittest, crowned as a queen, at the right hand of thy Son, shining with undying glory, above all the choirs of Angels. Thy dominion reaches as far as the heavens, and to thee the earth and all creatures dwelling thereon are subject. Thy dominion reaches even down to the abyss of hell, and thou alone, O Mary, dost save us from the hands of Satan. Thou art omnipotent through grace; thou, therefore, canst save us. But if thou sayest that thou art unwilling to help us because we are ungrateful children and undeserving of Thy protection, at least do tell us to whom we must go to be delivered from so many evils. Ah! no, thy motherly heart will not suffer thy children to be lost. The divine Child whom we see upon thy knees and the mystic chaplet in thy hand inspire us with confidence that we shall be heard. We put all our trust in thee; we cast ourselves at thy feet; we surrender ourselves, like helpless children, to the embrace of the tenderest of mothers. Today, yes, this very day, we look to receive from thee the graces for which we sigh.

Hail, holy Queen, etc.

Let us ask a blessing from Mary.

One last grace do we beg of thee, our Queen, and thou canst not deny it on this most solemn day. Grant unto all of us thy abiding love and, in a special manner, thy maternal blessing. No, we will not rise from before thy feet this day until thou bless us. At this very moment, O Mary, bless the Supreme Pontiff. To the former laurels of thy chaplet, to the ancient triumphs of thy Rosary, whence thou art called the Queen of Victories, add this favor also: dear Mother, give victory to the cause of religion and peace to human society. Bless our Bishop and priests, especially those who are zealous for the honor of thy sanctuary. Finally bless all who are associated with thy new shrine at Pompeii, and all who cultivate and spread the devotion to thy most holy Rosary.

O blessed Rosary of Mary, sweet chain that binds us to God, bond of love that makes us one with the Angels, tower of salvation amid the attacks of hell, safe harbor in the universal shipwreck, we shall never forget thee. Thou shalt be our consolation in the hour of death's agony, thine shall be the last kiss of our ebbing life. The last whisper of our dying lips shall be thy sweet name, O Queen of the Rosary in the Vale of Pompeii, our dearest Mother, only refuge of sinners, sovereign comforter of the sorrowful. Be thou everywhere blessed, now and forever, on earth and in heaven. Amen.

Hail, holy Queen, etc.

An indulgence of 7 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (Brief, July 20, 1925; S. P. Ap., March 18, 1932).

III

IMPETRATORY PRAYERS FOR A NOVENA OR A TRIDUUM

367

A Preparatory Prayer to St. Catherine

O Saint Catherine of Siena, my guardian and mistress, thou who from heaven dost assist thy clients when they recite Mary's Rosary, assist me at this hour and vouchsafe to join with me in this Novena to the Queen of the Rosary who hath set the throne of her graces in the Vale of Pompeii, so that through thine intercession, I may obtain the grace that I desire. Amen.

℣. O God, make speed to save me.

℞. O Lord, make haste to help me.

℣. Glory be, etc.

℞. As it was, etc.

1. O Virgin immaculate and Queen of the Rosary, in these days of dead faith and triumphant impiety, thou hast been pleased to set up thy throne as Queen and Mother, upon the ancient site of Pompeii, the dwelling place of pagans long since dead. And from the place where once men worshiped false gods and demons, thou, as Mother of divine grace, dost in these our times scatter everywhere the treasures of heavenly mercies. Ah, from that throne where thou reignest as Queen of mercy, turn, dear Mother upon me also thine eyes of mercy, and have pity on me who have such great need of thy assistance. Show thyself to me, as to so many others, a true Mother of mercy: "Show thyself a Mother"; while with all my heart I salute thee and call upon thee as my Sovereign and Queen of the most holy Rosary.

Hail, holy Queen, etc.

2. Humbly bending at the foot of thy throne, O great and glorious Lady, my soul venerates thee in the midst of the groans and anguish that oppress me beyond measure. In spite of the trials and tribulations wherewith I am encompassed, I raise my eyes with confidence to thee who hast deigned to choose for thy earthly habitation the fields of poor and forsaken country folk. And there, facing the city and amphitheatre devoted to heathen pleasures, where now reign silence and ruin, thou, as the Queen of Victories, hast lifted up thy mighty voice to summon from Italy and from every quarter of the Catholic world, thy devoted children to build thee a shrine in thine honor. Ah, be thou moved to pity for this soul of mine which lies trampled in the mire. Have mercy on me, dear Lady, have mercy on me, for I am filled beyond measure with misery and humiliation. Thou who art the Help of Christians, draw me from the tribulations wherein I am miserably entangled. Thou who art our life, triumph over the death which threatens my soul in these dangers to which I find myself exposed; give me peace again, tranquility, love and salvation.

Hail, holy Queen, etc.

3. Ah, the very thought that so many have been blessed only because they had recourse to thee with confidence, inspires me with fresh hope and courage to call upon thee to come to my assistance. Thou didst once promise Saint Dominic that whosoever desired the grace of God should obtain it by means of thy Rosary: now I, with rosary in hand, call upon thee, my Mother, to keep thy maternal promises.

Nay, thou thyself in these our times dost work never-ceasing wonders to call thy children to honor thee in thy shrine of Pompeii. Be thou pleased, therefore, to wipe away our tears and assuage our sorrows! With my heart upon my lips and with lively faith, I call upon thee and invoke thee: my Mother, dearest Mother, Mother fairest, Mother gentlest, help me! Mother and Queen of the holy Rosary of Pompeii, delay not to stretch forth thy mighty hand to save me, for delay, as thou seest, will bring me down to ruin.

Hail, holy Queen, etc.

4. To whom else can I have recourse, if not to thee, who art the solace of the wretched, the comfort of the desolate, the consolation of the afflicted? I confess it to thee, my soul is exceeding sorrowful, weighed down as it is by countless sins, it deserves the fire of hell, it is unworthy to receive thy favors. But art not thou the hope of the hopeless, the great mediatrix between man and God, our powerful advocate at the throne of the most High, and the refuge of sinners? Ah, do thou only say the word in my behalf to thy divine Son, and He will hear and answer thee. Ask Him, then, O Mother, for this favor, of which I stand so much in need Thou alone canst obtain it for me; thou art my only hope, my consolation, my sweetness, my whole life. Such is my hope. Amen.

Hail, holy Queen, etc.

5. O Virgin and Queen of the Holy Rosary, thou art the Daughter of our heavenly Father, the Mother of God the Son, and the Bride of the Spirit with His sevenfold gifts. Thou canst obtain all things from the ever-blessed Trinity, thou must therefore obtain for me this favor which is so necessary for me, provided that it be no obstacle to my eternal salvation...; I ask it of thee through thy Immaculate Conception, thy divine Motherhood, thy joys, thy sorrows and thy triumphs; I ask it of thee through the Heart of thy dear Jesus, and the nine months wherein thou didst carry Him in thy bosom, the hardships of His life, His bitter passion, His death on the Cross, His most holy Name, the shedding of His Precious Blood; finally I ask it of thee through thine own most sweet heart and thy glorious name, O Mary, thou who art the star of the sea, our mighty mistress, the sea of sorrow, the gate of heaven, and the Mother of every grace. In thee I put my trust; from thee I hope for all things. It is thy task to save me. Amen.

Hail, holy Queen, etc.

∇. Make me worthy to praise thee, O sacred Virgin;

℞. Give me strength against thine enemies.

∇. Pray for us, O Queen of the most Holy Rosary,

℞. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O God, whose only begotten Son, by His life, death, and resurrection, hath purchased for us the rewards of everlasting life; grant, we beseech Thee, that we, who meditate upon these mysteries of the most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, may both imitate what they contain, and attain to what they promise. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hail Mary, etc.

Prayer to St. Dominic and St. Catherine

O holy Priest of God and glorious Patriarch, Saint Dominic, thou who wast the friend, the well-beloved son and the confidant of the Queen of Heaven, and didst work so many miracles by the power of the Holy Rosary; and thou, Saint Catherine of Siena, first daughter of this Order of the Rosary, and powerful mediator at Mary's throne with the Heart of Jesus, with whom thou didst exchange thy heart; do you, my beloved Saints, have regard to my necessities and pity the sad condition in which I now find myself. On earth you opened your hearts to the miseries of your fellow-men and your hands were strong to help them; now in heaven your charity hath not grown less nor hath your power waned. Pray, ah, pray for me to the Mother of the Rosary and to her divine Son, for I have great confidence that through your assistance I shall obtain the favor I so much desire. Amen.

Glory be, etc., three times.

In honor of St. Vincent Ferrer, Glory be, etc.

In honor of St. Thomas Aquinas, Glory be, etc.

An indulgence of 7 years on each of the days of the Novena or Triduum, if the devotions are held publicly in a church or public oratory.

An indulgence of 3 years on each day of the Novena or Triduum, if performed privately by the faithful.

A plenary indulgence, under the usual conditions, at the close of the exercise (Brief, July 20, 1925; S. P. Ap., Nov. 15, 1927 and March 18, 1932).

IV

PRAYERS FOR A NOVENA OR TRIDUUM OF THANKSGIVING

368

℣. O God, make speed to save me;

℞. O Lord, make haste to help me.

℣. Glory be to the Father, etc.

℞. As it was in the beginning, etc.

1. Behold me at thy knees, immaculate Mother of Jesus, who dost rejoice at being invoked as Queen of the Rosary in the Vale of Pompeii. With joy in my heart, and my mind filled with the most lively gratitude, I return to thee who art my most generous benefactor, my dearest Lady, the Queen of my heart, to thee who hast shown thyself my true Mother, the Mother who loves me exceedingly. I was filled with groanings and thou didst hear my cry; I was in affliction and thou didst comfort me; I was in the valley of the shadow of death and thou didst bring me peace. The sorrows and pains of death laid siege to my soul, and thou, dear Mother, from thy throne in Pompeii with one look of pity didst make me serene. Who hath ever turned to thee with confidence and hath not been heard? If only the whole world knew thy great goodness, thy tender compassion for those who suffer, how all creation would have recourse to thee! Mayest thou be ever blessed, O Virgin and Queen of Pompeii, by me and by all others, both men and Angels, on earth and in heaven.

Glory be to the Father; Hail, holy Queen.

2. I return thanks to God and to thee, O Mother of God, for the fresh blessings that have been showered upon me through thy pity and loving kindness. What a fate would mine have been, hadst thou rejected my sighs and tears! Let the Angels in paradise, the glorious choir of the Apostles, the noble army of the Martyrs, the holy bands of Virgins and Confessors give thee thanks in my behalf. Let the many souls of sinners, saved by thine intercession, who now enjoy in heaven the vision of thine unfading loveliness, give thanks to thee in my behalf. I would that all creatures might love thee in union with me, and that the whole world might repeat the refrain of my hymns of thanksgiving. What can I render to thee, O Queen, rich in mercy and magnificence? What remains of life I dedicate to thee and to the spreading of thy devotion, O Virgin of the Rosary of Pompeii, through whose invocation the grace of the Lord hath visited me. I will spread abroad devotion to thy Rosary, I will tell all men of the mercies thou hast obtained for me; I will evermore proclaim thy great goodness toward me, so that other sinners, as unworthy as I, may turn to thee in all confidence.

Glory be to the Father; Hail, holy Queen.

3. By what name shall I invoke thee, thou white dove of peace? Under what title shall I call upon thee whom the holy Doctors have named the Mistress of creation, the gate of life, the temple of God, the palace of light, the glory of the heavens, the Saint of saints, the wonder of wonders, the paradise of the most High God? Thou art the treasurer of divine graces, the omnipotent answer to prayer, nay, the very mercy of God, which is shown toward the unfortunate. But I know, too, that it is pleasing to thy heart to be invoked as Queen of the Rosary in the Vale of Pompeii. And as I hail thee by this title, I perceive the sweetness of thy mystic name, O rose of paradise, transplanted into this valley of tears, to sweeten our miseries who are banished children of Eve; red rose of charity, more fragrant than all the spices of Libanus, who by the perfume of thy heavenly sweetness dost draw the hearts of sinners to the Heart of God in this thy valley of Pompeii. Thou art the rose of eternal freshness, watered by the streams of water from heaven; thou hast set thy roots in a land parched by a rain of fire; thou art a rose of spotless beauty, who in a place of desolation hast planted a garden of the delights of the Lord. May God be praised, who hath made thy name so wonderful! Bless, O ye peoples, bless the name of the Virgin of Pompeii, for all the earth is full of her loving kindness.

Glory be to the Father; Hail, holy Queen.

4. In the midst of the tempests which have overwhelmed me, I have lifted up mine eyes to thee, thou new star of hope that hath risen in these latter days above the valley of ruin. From the depths of my bitterness I have lifted up my voice to thee, O Queen of the Rosary of Pompeii, and I have felt the power of that title so dear to thee. Hail, I shall ever cry, hail to thee, thou Mother of pity, fathomless ocean of grace, sea of goodness and compassion! Who shall be worthy to sing the new glories of thy Rosary, the fresh victories of thy chaplet? In this valley, where Satan devoured souls in olden times, thou hast prepared salvation for a world, that is tearing itself from the loving arms of Jesus in order to cast itself into the deadly embrace of Satan. Triumphantly dost thou trample underfoot the fragments of pagan temples, and upon the ruins of ancient idolatry thou hast established the throne of thine imperial sway. Thou hast changed the valley of death into a valley of resurrection and life; and in a land once dominated by thine enemy, thou hast built a city of refuge, where thou dost receive thy people in safety. Behold, thy children, scattered throughout the world, have erected thy throne there, as a witness to thy miracles, as a memorial of thy mercies. From that throne thou hast called me to be among the sons of thy predilection; upon poor me thy merciful glance hath rested. May thy works be praised forever, O Blessed Lady, and praised be the marvels wrought by thee in this valley of desolation and death.

Glory be to the Father; Hail, holy Queen.

5. Let every tongue speak of thy glory, dear Lady, and let the harmonious accord of our praises sound from evening even to the morning. May all generations call thee blessed and may all the coasts of earth and all the mansions of heaven re-echo the hymn of praise. Nay, I will call thee thrice blessed, in union with the Angels and Principalities; thrice blessed, with the angelical Powers, with the Virtues of heaven, with the supernal Dominations; most blessed will I proclaim thee with the Thrones, with the Cherubim and Seraphim. O Queen of salvation, cease not to turn thine eyes in pity upon this thy family, upon this nation, upon the Church universal. Above all, deny me not the greatest of graces; that is, let not my frailty ever separate me from thee. Grant that I may persevere even to the end in the love and faith wherewith my soul is on fire at this moment. Grant, also, that all of us, who come together in the beauty of thy sanctuary in Pompeii, may be of the number of the elect. O chaplet of the Rosary of my Mother, I press thee to my breast and I kiss thee in a spirit of profound reverence. Thou art the way that leads to the attainment of every virtue, the treasure of merits for paradise, the pledge of my predestination, the mighty chain that binds fast the enemy of our salvation, a source of peace to all who give thee due honor in this life, and a foretaste of victory to those who kiss thee at the hour of death. In that last hour, I shall look to thee, O Mother; thy coming will be the sign of my salvation, thy Rosary will open to me the gates of paradise. Amen.

Glory be to the Father; Hail, holy Queen.

V. Pray for us, O Queen of the most holy Rosary;

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hast taught us to come to Thee with confidence and to call Thee: Our Father, who art in heaven, ah! good Lord, to whom it belongeth to have mercy and to pardon, graciously hear us through the intercession of the immaculate Virgin Mary, for we glory in the title of children of the Rosary; accept our humble thanks for the gifts we have received from Thee; and do Thou make the shrine which Thou hast set up in the sanctuary of Pompeii, every day more glorious and more lasting, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 7 years on each day of the Novena or Triduum, if the prayers are said publicly in a church or public oratory.

An indulgence of 3 years on each day of a Novena or Triduum made privately.

A plenary indulgence, under the usual conditions, at the end of the exercise (Brief, July 20, 1925; S. P. Ap., Nov. 15, 1927 and March 18, 1932).

A PRAYER

369

O Virgin immaculate and Queen of the Rosary, in these days of dead faith and triumphant impiety, thou hast been pleased to establish thy throne as Queen and Mother in the ancient land of Pompeii, once the home of paganism. From that place, where men of old worshiped idols and evil spirits, do thou this day, as the Mother of divine graces, scatter far and wide the treasures of heaven's mercy. Ah, from that throne where thou reignest in mercy, turn, dear Mother, thine eyes of pity even upon me and be gracious unto me who have so great need of thine assistance. Show thyself to me, even as thou hast shown thyself to so many others, a true Mother of mercy: "Monstra te esse Matrem" (Show Thyself a Mother); while with all my heart I salute thee and invoke thee as my sovereign Lady and Queen of the most holy Rosary.

Hail, holy Queen.

An indulgence of 300 days (Brief, July 20, 1925).

NOTE: Another prayer for the conversion of non-Catholics is found under number 581.

CHAPTER VI

OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

I

AN INVOCATION

370

O Queen, who art the beauty of Carmel, pray for us.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Nov. 8, 1921).

Regína decor Carméli, ora pro nobis.

II

A PRAYER

371

O blessed Virgin, full of grace, Queen of all Saints, how sweet it is for me to venerate thee under the title of our Lady of Mount Carmel. It takes me back to the days of the prophet Elias, when thou wast prefigured on Mount Carmel under the form of the little cloud, from which, as it increased, there fell a kindly rain, symbolic of the sanctifying graces that come to us from thee. Even from the days of the Apostles, thou hast been honored under this mystic title; and today I am filled with joy at the thought that we are united with those first clients of thine, and in union with them we salute thee, saying: O beauty of Carmel, glory of Libanus, thou purest of lilies, mystic rose in the flowering garden of the Church. Meanwhile, O Virgin of virgins, be mindful of me in my misery, and show thyself my Mother. Shed upon me ever more and more the living light of that faith which made thee blessed; inflame me with that heavenly love wherewith thou didst love thy dear Son, Jesus Christ. I am filled with miseries both spiritual and temporal. I am straitened by many sorrows in body and soul, and I take refuge, like a child, in the shadow of thy motherly protection. Do thou, Mother of God, who hast such power and might, obtain for me from blessed Jesus, the heavenly gifts of humility, chastity, and meekness, which were the fairest ornaments of thine immaculate soul. Do thou grant me to be strong in the midst of the temptations and bitterness, which so often overwhelm my spirit. And when the days of my earthly pilgrimage are accomplished according to God's holy will, grant that my soul may obtain the glory of paradise, through the merits of Christ and thine intercession. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. P. Ap., March 26, 1927 and April 29, 1935).

CHAPTER VII

THE BLESSED VIRGIN UNDER DIVERS TITLES

I

OUR LADY OF PITY

372

An Oration

Kneeling at thy most sacred feet, I venerate thee, great Queen of Heaven, with the deepest reverence, and I confess that thou art the Daughter of God, the Father, the Mother of the divine Word, and the Bride of the Holy Ghost. Thou art full of grace, virtue and the heavenly gifts; thou art the most pure temple of the Holy Trinity. Thou art the treasurer and dispenser of God's mercies. Thy pure heart is full to overflowing with charity, sweetness and tenderness for us, poor sinners; wherefore we name thee our Lady of divine Pity. Hence it is with sure confidence that I present myself before thee, our most loving Mother, afflicted and straitened on every side, and I beseech thee to make me feel the love thou hast for me, by granting me, if it is in conformity with the will of God and profitable to my salvation. Ah, I beseech thee, turn thy pure eyes upon me and upon all who are dear to me. Consider the cruel warfare waged by the world, the flesh and the devil against our souls, and see how many are perishing in the strife. Remember, most tender Mother, that we are thy children, purchased by the Precious Blood of thine only-begotten Son. Deign to pray for us without ceasing to the Blessed Trinity, that we may have the grace to be ever victorious over the devil, the world and all our perverse passions; that grace whereby the just may sanctify themselves ever more and more, sinners may be converted, heresies destroyed, unbelievers enlightened and the Jews brought to the light of faith. Ask this grace for us, dearest Mother, through the infinite goodness of God most high, the merits of thy most holy Son, the nurture which thou gavest Him, the anxious care wherewith thou didst wait upon Him, the love with which thou didst cherish Him, the tears thou didst shed and the sorrows thou didst undergo during His passion. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., March 26, 1860; S. P. Ap., April 8, 1931).

II

OUR LADY OF DIVINE PROVIDENCE

373

A Prayer

Mary, immaculate Virgin and Mother of divine Providence, keep my soul with the fulness of thy grace: do thou govern my life and direct it in the way of virtue to the fulfilment of the divine will. Obtain for me the pardon and remission of all my sins; be thou my refuge, my protection, my defense and my guide in my pilgrimage through the world; comfort me in the midst of tribulation; bring me safe through every danger; in the storms of adversity afford me thy sure protection. Obtain for me, O Mary, the renewal of my heart within me, that it may become a holy dwelling place for thy divine Son Jesus; keep far from me, who am so weak and miserable, every kind of sin, negligence, lukewarmness, cowardice and human respect; free me wholly from pride, vainglory, self-love and all earthly affections that hinder the saving effects of thy patronage. Dear Mother of divine Providence, turn thy motherly gaze upon me, and, if through weakness or malice, I have provoked the threats of the eternal

Judge and saddened the Sacred Heart of my dear Jesus, do thou cover me with the mantle of thy protection and I shall be safe. Thou art the Mother of Providence; thou art the Virgin of pardon; thou art my hope on earth. Grant that I may have thee as my Mother in the glory of heaven. Amen.

Hail Mary, three times.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., Feb. 27, 1886; S. P. Ap., Feb. 12, 1933).

374

A Prayer

O Mother of mercy, help of Christians, most faithful minister of divine Providence, treasurer of all graces, remember that never in the world has it been heard that thou hast left him without comfort who has come to thee with true devotion. Wherefore I, trusting in thy tender pity and in thy most generous providence, bend low before thee, praying that thou wouldst hear my prayer.

Obtain for me a holy provision for the future, namely, graces for all my spiritual and temporal needs.

I fervently recommend to thy loving motherly heart our holy Church, the Sovereign Pontiff, the conversion of souls, the spread of the Catholic faith, and those chosen spouses of God, the holy souls suffering the dire torments of purgatory, that they may soon be comforted with eternal refreshment. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, exhib. Dec. 19, 1906; S. P. Ap., April 20, 1932).

III

OUR LADY OF THE CENACLE

375

A Prayer

Most holy Virgin of the Cenacle, our Mother, Mary immaculate, obtain for us, we humbly pray, the gifts of the Holy Spirit, that we may live in charity and persevere with one accord in prayer, under thy guidance and teaching, to the greater glory of God, and that we may labor both by word and work for the salvation of souls and may deserve to enter into everlasting life.

Graciously be near us, O our Lady of the Cenacle, in our present needs, and succor us by thy power, that Almighty God may be pleased to grant us, through thy pleading, the favor for which we earnestly pray. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., Dec. 14, 1889; S. P. Ap., March 15, 1934).

Sanctíssima Virgo de Cœnáculo, Mater nostra, immaculata María, ímpetra nobis, humilíter deprecámur, Spíritus Sancti dona, ut in caritate vivéntes et in oratióne unánimíter perseverántes, duce te et magístra, ad maiórem Dei glóriam, exémplo et opére animárum salúti adlabórare et ad vitam íngredi mereámur ætérnam.

Adsis propítia, nostra Dómina de Cœnáculo, in præsentí necessitaté et tua nos virtúte succúrre, ut eam, quam eníxe rogámus, grátiam omnípotens et miséricors Deus tuis precíbus indulgere dignétur. Amen.

IV

OUR LADY, HELP OF CHRISTIANS

376

A Prayer

Immaculate Virgin, Mother of God and our Mother, Mary, thou seest the attacks that are everywhere made by the devil and the world upon the Catholic faith, in which, by God's grace, we intend to live and die, in order that we may attain to eternal glory. Do thou, the Help of Christians, renew thine ancient victories and save thy children. They entrust to thee their firm purpose never to enroll themselves in societies hostile to our holy religion; do thou, who art all holy, present to thy divine Son our good resolutions and obtain for us the grace we need to be unshaken in their observance even to the end of life. Console the visible Head of the Church, sustain the Catholic episcopate, protect the clergy and people who proclaim thee Queen; by the power of thine intercession hasten the day when all nations shall be gathered at the feet of the chief Shepherd. Amen.

Mary, Help of Christians, pray for us!

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., Dec. 20, 1890; S. P. Ap., July 2, 1931).

377

A Prayer

Virgin most powerful, loving helper of the Christian people, how great thanks do we not owe thee for the assistance thou didst give our fathers, who, when they were threatened by the Turkish infidels, invoked thy maternal help by the devout recitation of thy Rosary! From heaven thou didst see their deadly peril; thou didst hear their voices imploring thy compassion; and their humble prayers, enjoined by the great Pope, Saint Pius the Fifth, were acceptable unto thee, and thou camest quickly to deliver them. Grant, dear Mother, that in like manner the prolonged sighs of the holy Bride of Christ in these our days may come to thy throne and engage thy pity; do thou, moved anew to compassion for her, rise once again to deliver her from the many foes who encompass her on every side.

Even now from the four quarters of the earth there arises to thy throne that loved prayer, to win thy mercy in these troublous times even as of old. Unhappily our sins hinder, or at least, retard its effect. Wherefore, dear Mother, obtain for us true sorrow for our sins and a firm resolution to face death itself rather than return to our former iniquities; we are sore distressed that, through our fault, thy help, of which we stand in such extreme need, should be denied or come too late.

Rise, then, O Mary, incline thyself to hear the prayers of the whole Catholic world, and beat flat to the ground the pride of those wretched men, who in their insolence blaspheme Almighty God and would destroy His Church, against which, according to the infallible words of Christ, the gates of hell shall never prevail. Let it be seen once more that when thou dost arise to protect the Church, her victory is sure. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., June 20, 1891; S. P. Ap., Nov. 16, 1935).

378

A Prayer

Most holy and immaculate Virgin Mary, our tender Mother and mighty Help of Christians, we dedicate ourselves wholly to thy dear love and holy service. We dedicate to thee our minds and all our thoughts, our hearts and all our affections, our bodies and all our senses and all our strength; we promise to be ever willing to labor for the greater glory of God and the salvation of souls.

Meanwhile, do thou, O incomparable Virgin, who hast ever been the helper of the Christian people, continue to show thyself to be so in these our days. Bring low the enemies of our holy religion and frustrate their wicked designs. Enlighten and strengthen our Bishops and our priests; keep them always in close union and obedience to the Pope, their infallible Teacher; preserve thoughtless youth from sin and irreligion; increase holy vocations and multiply the number of the sacred ministers, that by means of them the kingdom of Jesus Christ may be preserved amongst us and be extended even to the uttermost parts of the earth.

We pray thee, moreover, dear Mother, to keep thine eyes of mercy ever turned upon young men and maidens, who are exposed to so many dangers, as well as upon poor sinners and those who are dying; be thou, O Mary, to them all a source of sweet hope, thou who art the Mother of mercy and the Gate of heaven.

But also for ourselves do we pour forth our supplications, O mighty Mother of God. Teach us to show forth in our lives thy virtues, especially angelic purity, deep humility and burning love; so by our demeanor, our words and our example may we, according as it is given to us, be living images of thy blessed Son Jesus in the midst of the world, and make thee known and loved, in the sure hope that thus we may succeed in bringing many souls to salvation.

Grant unto us, O Mary, thou Help of Christians, to be gathered under thy maternal protection. May the thought of the love thou bearest toward thy devoted clients be unto us so great a source of strength as to make us victors over the enemies of our salvation, both in life and in death, that so we may come to stand about thee in the beauty of paradise. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (Brief, March 10, 1900; S. P. Ap., Jan. 9, 1934).

379

A Prayer

O Mary, powerful Virgin, thou art the mighty and glorious protector of holy Church; thou art the marvelous help of Christians; thou art terrible as an army in battle array; thou alone hast destroyed every heresy in the whole world. In the midst of our anguish, our struggles and our distress defend us from the power of the enemy and at the hour of our death receive our souls in paradise. Amen (St. John Bosco).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, when this prayer has been devoutly recited every day for a month (S. P. Ap., Feb. 20, 1923 and July 29, 1933).

V

OUR LADY, QUEEN OF THE PROPHETS

380

A Prayer

To thee, O Queen of Prophets, O Vision of the Prophets, Mother of God and of His people, we have recourse in our necessities, confident that as thou art thyself the fulfilment of prophecy, thou wilt fulfil thine own, and amongst all generations wilt bring N. to call thee blessed. Say to the wanderers for whom we plead, and specially to N., "Thy light is come." One word from thee to thy Son, and the glory of the Lord will arise upon them and the eyes of the blind be opened, so that they, beholding the star, will follow it to the House of Bread; where finding thy Son with thee, they shall eat of the True Bread, and live forever, obtaining joy and gladness while sorrow and mourning shall flee away. O thou who art "prayerfully omnipotent," at whose petition thy Son worked His first miracle, beseech Him to say "I, the Lord, will suddenly do this thing in its time," and grant those for whom we pray, to draw water with joy out of the Saviour's fountains. May we all unite with thee, our Mother, in singing thy "Magnificat" to Him thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ, who with the Father and the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth one God, world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (Brief, Jan. 24, 1901; S. P. Ap., Oct. 13, 1933).

VI

OUR LADY OF GOOD HOPE

381

A Prayer

O Mary immaculate, the precious name of Mother of Good Hope, with which we honor thee, fills our hearts to overflowing with the sweetest consolation and moves us to hope for every blessing from thee. If such a title has been given to thee, it is a sure sign that no one has recourse to thee in vain. Accept, therefore, with a mother's love our devout homage, as we earnestly beseech thee to be gracious unto us in our every need. Above all do we pray thee to make us live in constant union with thee and thy divine Son Jesus. With thee as our guide, we are certain that we shall ever walk in the right way; in such wise that it will be our happy lot to hear thee say on the last day of our life those words of comfort: "Come then, my good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., Jan. 26, 1901; S. P. Ap., Aug. 8, 1936).

NOTE: The same indulgences are gained by those who, having been called to the religious life, insert the following words after: "thy divine Son Jesus":

"He has graciously chosen us to labor in His mystic vineyard. Ah, do thou who art ever watchful that its fruits may be plentiful, extend thy loving care to us, miserable sinners, that we may be enabled to succeed abundantly in our high undertaking. With thee as our guide," as above.

OUR LADY OF REPARATION

382

A Prayer

Immaculate Virgin, refuge of sinners, thou who, in order to atone for the injuries done to Almighty God and the evils inflicted on men by sin, didst accept with resignation the death of thy divine Son, be ever propitious toward us, and in heaven, where thou dost reign gloriously, continue in our behalf thy work of zeal and love. We would be thy children: do thou still show thyself a Mother. Obtain from Jesus, our divine Redeemer, that He may be pleased to apply to our souls the fruits of His passion and death, and deliver us from the bonds of our iniquities. May He be our light in the midst of darkness, our strength in weakness, our refuge in the midst of peril; may He strengthen us by His grace and love in this world, and grant us to love Him, see Him and possess Him in the world to come. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., Aug. 24, 1904; S. P. Ap., April 28, 1934).

VIII

OUR LADY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

383

A Prayer

O Virgin Mary, our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament, thou glory of the Christian people, joy of the universal Church, salvation of the whole world, pray for us, and awaken in all believers a lively devotion toward the Most Holy Eucharist, that so they may be made worthy to partake of the same daily.

An indulgence of 500 days (Pius X, Audience, Dec. 9, 1906; S. C. Ind., Jan. 23, 1907; S. P. Ap., Dec. 12, 1933)

IX

OUR LADY, COMFORTER OF THE AFFLICTED

384

A Prayer

Immaculate Virgin Mary, Mother of God and our most compassionate Mother, we present ourselves in thy sight in all humility, and with full confidence we implore thee for thy maternal patronage.

Thou hast been proclaimed by holy Church the Comforter of the afflicted; and to thee constant recourse is had by the sorrowful in their afflictions, the sick in their maladies, the dying in their agony, the poor in their straitened circumstances, those who stand in all manner of need in both public and private calamities; and from thee they all receive consolation and strength.

Our dearest Mother, turn upon us also, wretched sinners that we are, thy merciful eyes, and graciously accept our humble and confident prayers. Aid us in all our spiritual and temporal necessities, deliver us from all evil and especially from sin, which is the greatest evil, and from all danger of falling into it; obtain for us from thy Son Jesus every blessing of which thou seest we stand in need both in soul and body, and especially the greatest blessing of all, which is divine grace. Comfort our spirits, troubled and afflicted in the midst of the many dangers that threaten us, and the countless miseries and misfortunes that beset us on every side. This we ask through that immense joy which filled thy pure soul in the glorious Resurrection of thy divine Son.

Obtain tranquillity for holy Church, help and comfort for her visible Head, the Roman Pontiff, peace for Christian princes, refreshment in their pains for the holy souls in purgatory, for sinners the forgiveness of their sins and for the just perseverance in well-doing. Receive us all, our most tender Mother, under thy loving and mighty protection, that we may be enabled to live virtuously, die holily and attain to everlasting happiness in heaven. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month for the daily recitation of this prayer, on condition of confession, Communion and a visit to a church or public oratory (S. C. Ind., Apr. 10, 1907; S. P. Ap., June 7, 1935).

A Prayer

O Mary Immaculate, our Mother and Consolation, I take refuge in thy loving heart with all the confidence of which I am capable; thou shalt be the dearest object of my love and veneration. To thee, who art the dispenser of the treasures of heaven, I shall always have recourse in my sorrows to have peace, in my doubts to have light, in my dangers to be defended, in all my needs to obtain thy assistance. Be therefore my refuge, my strength, my consolation, O Mary the Consoler! At the hour of my death, graciously receive the last sighs of my heart and obtain for me a place in thy heavenly home, where all hearts shall praise with one accord the adorable Heart of Jesus for evermore as well as thy most lovable heart, O Mary. Our tender Mother, Comforter of the afflicted, pray for us who have recourse to thee.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions if this prayer is devoutly repeated every day for a month (S. P. Ap., Jan. 15, 1921 and May 16, 1932).

X

IN HONOR OF OUR LADY OF RANSOM

386

A Devout Exercise

The faithful who devoutly take part in the public exercises of the seven Saturdays in honor of Our Lady of Ransom, and who, on one of the aforesaid Saturdays, visit a church of the Religious or of the Third Order of Our Lady of Ransom, or of a Confraternity of the same Order and title, or failing these, their own parish church, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years on each of the Saturdays;

A plenary indulgence at the end of the exercises, on condition of confession, Communion and prayers for the intentions of His Holiness the Pope (Brief, May 25, 1908; S. P. Ap., Apr. 29, 1931).

XI

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE

387

A Visit to the Image

The faithful who devoutly visit an image of Our Lady of Guadalupe exposed in some church may gain:

An indulgence of 300 days once a day;

An indulgence of 7 years on the twelfth day of any month;

A plenary indulgence on the Feast of the Maternity of the B. V. M., on the last Sunday after Pentecost and on the 12th day of December, with the addition of confession, Communion and prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff (S. C. Ind., July 8, 1908; S. P. Ap., May 12, 1931, Jan. 26, and March 18, 1932).

388

A Devout Exercise

The faithful who devoutly visit an image of the Virgin Mother of God of "Guadalupe," exposed in some church or public oratory, on any of the five Sundays immediately preceding the Feast of the Apparition of Our Lady of Guadalupe may gain:

A plenary indulgence, if they make their confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the intentions of the Holy Father (S. P. Ap., May 12, 1931).

389

Prayer

Our Lady of Guadalupe, mystical rose, make intercession for holy Church, protect the Sovereign Pontiff, help all those who invoke thee in their necessities, and since thou art the ever Virgin Mary and Mother of the true God, obtain for us from thy most holy Son the grace of keeping our faith, sweet hope in the midst of the bitterness of life, burning charity and the precious gift of final perseverance. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (Pius X, Audience, Aug. 18, 1908, exhib. Aug. 19, 1908; S. P. Ap., April 29, 1935).

XII

OUR LADY OF DELIVERANCE

390

An Invocation

Holy Mary, our Lady of Deliverance, pray for us and for the holy souls in purgatory.

An indulgence of 300 days (Holy Office, Jan. 22, 1914; S. P. Ap., April 23, 1936).

XIII

OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP

391

An Invocation

Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for us.

An indulgence of 300 days (Holy Office Jan. 29, 1914; S. P. Ap., Oct. 4, 1933).

Mater de Perpétuo Succúrsu, ora pro nobis.

392.

Prayers

I. Behold, O Mother of Perpetual Help, at thy feet a wretched sinner, who has recourse to thee and trusts in thee. O Mother of mercy, have pity on me; I hear all men call thee the refuge and hope of sinners: be therefore my refuge and my hope. Help me for the love of Jesus Christ: hold out thy hand to a fallen wretch, who commends himself to thee and dedicates himself to be thy servant for ever. I praise and thank God, who of His great mercy hath given me this confidence in thee, a sure pledge of my eternal salvation. Alas, it is only too true that in the past I have fallen miserably, because I did not come to thee. I know that with thy help I shall conquer; I know that thou wilt help me, if I commend myself to thee; but I am fearful lest in the occasions of sin I shall forget to call upon thee and so I shall be lost. This grace, then, do I ask of thee; for this I implore thee, as much as I can and know how to do; namely, that in the assaults of hell I may ever run to thy protection and may say to thee: Mary, help me; Mother of Perpetual Help, permit me not to lose my God.

Hail Mary, three times.

2. O Mother of Perpetual Help, grant me ever to be able to call upon thy powerful name, since thy name is the help of the living and the salvation of the dying. Ah, Mary most pure, Mary most sweet, grant that thy name from this day forth may be to me the very breath of life. Dear Lady, delay not to come to my assistance whenever I call upon thee; for in all the temptations that assail me, in all the necessities that befall me, I will never leave off calling upon thee, ever repeating: Mary, Mary. What comfort, what sweetness, what confidence, what tenderness fills my soul at the sound of thy name, at the very thought of thee! I give thanks to our Lord, who for my sake hath given thee a name so sweet, so lovable, so mighty. But I am not content merely to speak thy name; I would utter it for very love of thee; it is my desire that love should ever remind me to name thee, Mother of Perpetual Help.

Hail Mary, three times.

3. O Mother of Perpetual Help, thou art the dispenser of every grace that God grants us in our misery; it is for this cause that He hath made thee so powerful, so rich, so kind, that thou mightest assist us in our miseries. Thou art the advocate of the most wretched and abandoned sinners, if they but come unto thee; come once more to my assistance, for I commend myself to thee. In thy hands I place my eternal salvation; to thee I entrust my soul. Enroll me among thy most faithful servants; take me under thy protection and it is enough for me: yes, for if thou protect me, I shall fear nothing; not my sins, for thou wilt obtain for me their pardon and remission; not the evil spirits, for thou art mightier than all the powers of hell; not even Jesus, my Judge, for He is appeased by a single prayer from thee. I fear only that through my own negligence I may forget to recommend myself to thee and so I shall be lost. My dear Lady, obtain for me the forgiveness of my sins, love for Jesus, final perseverance and the grace to have recourse to thee at all times, O Mother of Perpetual Help.

Hail Mary, three times.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Rites, May 17, 1866; S. P. Ap., March 2, 1934).

XIV

OUR LADY OF GOOD COUNSEL

393

A Devout Exercise

a) The faithful who piously assist at devotions in honor of our Lady of Good Counsel, held publicly in a church or public oratory, on twelve successive Sundays, or if that be impossible on the respective Saturdays immediately preceding, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years;

A plenary indulgence upon the completion of the exercise, if they go to confession and Communion and pray for the intentions of His Holiness.

b) Those who piously assist at public devotions in honor of Our Lady of Good Counsel, held in a church or public oratory on the first Sunday of any month, or, if that should be impossible, on the Saturday immediately preceding, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions of confession, Communion and prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father (Brief, Dec. 12, 1919; S. P. Ap., March 18, 1932).

394

A Prayer

Most glorious Virgin, chosen by the eternal Counsel to be the Mother of the eternal Word made flesh, thou who art the treasurer of divine graces and the advocate of sinners, I who am thy most unworthy servant have recourse to thee; be thou pleased to be my guide and counselor in this vale of tears. Obtain for me through the Most Precious Blood of thy divine Son, the forgiveness of my sins, the salvation of my soul and the means necessary to obtain it. In like manner obtain for holy Church victory over her enemies and the spread of the kingdom of Jesus Christ upon the whole earth. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. for Extraord. Eccl. Affairs, Nov. 23, 1880; S. P. Ap., May 29, 1933).

XV

OUR LADY QUEEN OF PEACE

395

An Invocation

Immaculate Queen of Peace, pray for us.

An indulgence of 300 days (Brief, Feb. 9, 1924).

Immaculáta Regína Pacis, ora pro nobis.

396

A Prayer

Most holy Virgin, Mother of God and our most loving Mother, by thy divine maternity thou didst merit to share in thy divine Son's prerogative of universal kingship; we, thy most humble servants and devoted children, feel ourselves comforted by the thought that, as it pleased the Redeemer of mankind to have Himself announced by the Prophets and by the Angels at Bethlehem under the glorious title of King of Peace, so too it must be pleasing and acceptable to thee to hear thyself saluted and honored by us under the title of Queen of Peace, a title that is so dear to thy motherly heart; it is an invocation poured forth with great fervor from our hearts. May thy powerful intercession ward off from thy people all hatred and discord, and direct their hearts in the ways of peace and brotherhood, which Jesus Christ came to teach and enforce among men for the prosperity and safety of all, and in which paths holy Church does not cease to guide our steps. Vouchsafe, O glorious Queen, to regard with kindly eyes and to crown with success the paternal solicitude, wherewith the Sovereign Pontiff, the Vicar on earth of thy divine Son, continually seeks to call together and unite the nations about the only center of saving Faith; grant that to us also in filial submission to our common Father, it may be given to correspond wholeheartedly with his salutary designs. Enlighten the rulers of our country as to those same designs; quicken and maintain peace and concord in our families, peace in our hearts and Christian charity throughout all the world. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month for the daily recitation of this prayer, on condition of confession, Communion and a visit to some church or public oratory (S. P. Ap., July 5, 1927 and July 12, 1932).

XVI

OUR LADY MOTHER OF ORPHANS

397

An Invocation

Mother of orphans, pray for us.

Mater orphanórum, ora pro nobis.

An indulgence of 300 days (Brief, Feb. 23, 1924).

XVII

OUR LADY MOTHER OF GRACE

398

A Prayer

Most holy Mary, great Queen of heaven, the very treasure of life and ever-flowing channel of divine grace, by thine ineffable virtues thou wast so pleasing in the sight of God, that thou didst merit to conceive in thy virginal womb the very Author of life and of grace, Jesus Christ our Lord; and by becoming the Mother of the God-made man, thou didst become likewise the Mother of redeemed humanity. Mother, therefore, of grace and of life, of mercy and forgiveness, turn upon me thy motherly countenance; behold my many miseries both in body and soul; raise me up to a state of perfect friendship with Almighty God, obtain for me the grace of final perseverance. And since thy prayers, O Mary, are all-powerful with our Lord, permit me, miserable as I am, to choose thee as my special patroness. With the help of thy mighty intercession I am sure to obtain from thy divine Son all the graces necessary to serve God faithfully in all my spiritual and corporal works. In such wise thou wilt show thyself unto me a Mother of divine grace as indeed thou art, and I, thanks to the graces obtained by thee, will be enabled to live in holiness on earth and hereafter will enjoy the happy lot of praising thee eternally in heaven. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. P. Ap., May 28, 1925 and Oct. 9, 1933).

XVIII

OUR LADY OF INTERCESSION

399

A Prayer

Most holy Mary, Our Lady of intercession, whose maternal tenderness gathers in one embrace all the souls redeemed by the Precious Blood of thy Son Jesus, we come before thy royal throne with sadness in our hearts as we remember those who have gone before us, but also with unlimited confidence in thine intercession. Death, which burst asunder the bonds of earth, has not destroyed the affection which binds us to those who lived in the same faith as we do. O Mary, countless souls await with unutterable anxiety the assistance of our prayers, and the merits of our good works in that place of expiation. Urged by the charity of Jesus Christ, we raise our countenance and heart in supplication to thee, the compassionate Mother of all believers, in favor of those suffering souls. Make our prayers of good effect, O Mary; obtain for them the power to move the Heart of Jesus our Redeemer through thy motherly intercession. Let thine incomparable holiness supply the defects of our misery, thy love make good our languid affection, thy power strengthen our weakness. Grant, O Queen of heaven, that the ardent desire of the souls of the departed to be admitted to the Beatific Vision may soon be satisfied. We pray thee, O Mary, especially for the souls of our relations, of priests, of those who are zealous in honoring thee, of those who did good to the souls of others, of those who wept with them and for them and, finally, for the souls of those who are forgotten. Grant that one day, when we are all reunited in heaven, we may be able to rejoice in the possession of God, in the happiness of thy dear presence, in the fellowship of all the Saints, thanking thee forever for all the blessings thou hast obtained for us, O Mother, who art our unfailing comfort. Amen.

Hail Mary and Eternal rest grant unto them, etc., three times.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions once a month for the daily recitation of this prayer (S. P. Ap., Dec. 2, 1926 and Apr. 18, 1935).

OUR LADY OF LA SALETTE

400

An Invocation

Our Lady of la Salette, Reconciler of sinners, pray without ceasing for us who have recourse to thee.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Nov. 7, 1927 and Dec. 12, 1933).

401

A Prayer

Remember, our Lady of la Salette, true Mother of sorrows, the tears which thou didst shed for me on Calvary; be mindful also of the unceasing care which thou dost exercise to screen me from the justice of God; and consider whether thou canst now abandon thy child, for whom thou hast done so much. Inspired by this consoling thought, I come to cast myself at thy feet, in spite of my infidelity and ingratitude. Reject not my prayer, O Virgin of reconciliation, convert me, get me the grace to love Jesus Christ above all things and to console thee too by living a holy life, in order that one day I may be able to see thee in heaven. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. P. Ap., Nov. 7, 1927 and Dec. 12, 1933).

XX

OUR LADY QUEEN OF APOSTLES

402

An Invocation

Queen of the Apostles, pray for us.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap. Nov. 20, 1930).

Regina Apostolorum, ora pro nobis.

XXI

OUR LADY REFUGE OF SINNERS

403

A Prayer

Almighty and merciful God, who in blessed Mary ever Virgin hast set up a refuge and a help for sinners, grant that we, under her protection, may be absolved from all our sins and may obtain the blessed effect of Thy great mercy. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions for the daily recitation of this prayer (S. P. Ap., July 20, 1934).

Omnípotens et miséricors Deus, qui in beáta semper Vírgine María peccatórum refúgium et auxílium collocásti, concéde, ut, ipsa protegénte, a culpis ómnibus absolúti, misericórdiæ tuæ efféctum felicem consequámur. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

THE HOLY ANGELS

A) GENERAL INVOCATIONS OF THE HOLY ANGELS

404

An Invocation

Ye Angels and Archangels, ye Thrones and Dominations, ye Principalities and Powers, ye Virtues of the heavens, Cherubim and Seraphim, bless ye the Lord forever (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, when this invocation has been recited with devotion every day for a month (S. P. Ap., Nov. 20, 1934).

Angeli, Archángeli, Throni et Dominationes, Principatus et Potestates, Virtutes cælorum, Chérubim atque Séraphim, Dóminum benedicite in ætérnum (ex Missali Romano).

405

An Invocation

Bless the Lord, all ye His Angels: you that are mighty in strength, and execute His word.

Bless the Lord, all ye His hosts: ye ministers of His that do His will (Ps. 102, 20 and 21; and in the Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of these invocations throughout one month (S. P. Ap., July 8, 1935).

Benedícite Dóminum omnes Angeli eius; poténtes virtúte, qui fácitis verbum eius.

Benedícite Dómino omnes virtútes eius; ministri eius qui fácitis voluntátem eius (ex Missali Romano).

B) SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

I

INVOCATIONS

406

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in the battle, that we perish not in the fearful judgment (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, for the devout recitation of this invocation every day for a month (S. C. Ind., Aug. 19, 1893; S. P. Ap., May 6, 1933).

Sancte Míchaël Archángele, defénde nos in práelio, ut non pereámus in treméndo iudício (ex Missali Romano).

407

Saint Michael, first champion of the Kingship of Christ, pray for us.

An indulgence of 300 days (Brief, Jan. 11, 1927).

II

HYMN

Te splendor et virtus Patris

408

O Jesus! life-spring of the soul!
The Father's Power and Glory bright!

Thee with the Angels we extol;
From Thee they draw their life and light.

Thy thousand, thousand hosts are spread,
Embattled o'er the azure sky;
But Michael bears Thy standard dread,
And lifts the mighty Cross on high.

He in that sign the rebel powers
Did with their dragon prince expel:
And hurled them from the heaven's high towers,

Down like a thunderbolt to hell.

Grant us with Michael still, O Lord,
Against the Prince of pride to fight;
So may a crown be our reward,
Before the Lamb's pure throne of light.

To God the Father and the Son
And Holy Paraclete to Thee,
As evermore hath been before,
Be glory through eternity. Amen (tr. E. Cas-wall).

Antiphon. Most glorious Prince, Michael the Archangel, be ever mindful of us; here and everywhere pray always for us to the Son of God.

℣. Before the Angels will I sing praise unto Thee, O my God:

℟. I will worship toward Thy holy temple, and praise Thy name.

Let us pray.

O God, who in wondrous order dost ordain and constitute the services of men and Angels; mercifully grant that our life may be defended on earth by them that stand near Thee, evermore ministering to Thee in heaven. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Breviary).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if the devout recitation of this hymn together with its versicles and collect, performed daily, shall be continued for one month (S. C. Ind., May 6, 1817; S. P. Ap., May 18, 1935).

III

A DEVOUT EXERCISE

409

The faithful who recite devoutly some prayers in honor of St. Michael the Archangel at any season of the year, with the intention of continuing the said prayers for nine successive days, may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years once each day;

A plenary indulgence, under the usual conditions, at the end of their novena (Pius IX, Audience, Jan. 3, 1849; S. C. Bishops and Religious, Jan. 28, 1850; S. C. Ind., Nov. 26, 1876; S. P. Ap., Feb. 9, 1933).

IV

PRAYERS

410

O glorious Prince of the heavenly host, Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in the battle and in the fearful warfare that we are waging against the principalities and powers, against the rulers of this world of darkness, against the evil spirits. Come thou to the assistance of men, whom Almighty God created immortal, making them in His own image and likeness and redeeming them at a great price from the tyranny of Satan. Fight this day the battle of the Lord with thy legions of holy Angels, even as of old thou didst fight against Lucifer, the leader of the proud spirits and all his rebel angels, who were powerless to stand against thee, neither was their place found any more in heaven. And that apostate angel, transformed into an angel of darkness who still creeps about the earth to encompass our ruin, was cast headlong into the abyss together with his followers. But behold, that first enemy of mankind, and a murderer from the beginning, has regained his confidence. Changing himself into an angel of light, he goes about with the whole multitude of the wicked spirits to invade the earth and blot out the Name of God and of His Christ, to plunder, to slay and to consign to eternal damnation the souls that have been destined for a crown of everlasting life. This wicked serpent, like an unclean torrent, pours into men of depraved minds and corrupt hearts the poison of his malice, the spirit of lying, impiety and blasphemy, and the deadly breath of impurity and every form of vice and iniquity. These crafty enemies of mankind have filled to overflowing with gall and wormwood the Church, which is the Bride of the Lamb without spot; they have laid profane hands upon her most sacred treasures. Make haste, therefore, O invincible Prince, to help the people of God against the inroads of the lost spirits and grant us the victory. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (Leo XIII, Motu Proprio, Sept. 25, 1888; S. P. Ap., May 4, 1934).

411

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, if this prayer is repeated daily (S. P. Ap., Nov. 12, 1932).

Sancte Míchaël Archángele, defénde nos in prælio, contra nequítias et insídias diabóli esto præsí-dium: Imperet illi Deus, súpplices deprecámur, tuque, Princeps milítiaë cæléstis, sátanam aliósque spíritus malignos, qui ad perditionem animárum pervagántur in mundo, divína virtúte in inférnum detrúde. Amen.

C) SAINT GABRIEL THE ARCHANGEL

412

A DEVOUT EXERCISE

The faithful who devoutly recite some prayers in honor of St. Gabriel the Archangel at any season of the year, with the intention of continuing the same for nine successive days, may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years, once each day;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, at the end of the novena (Pius IX, Audience, Jan. 3, 1849; S. C. of Bishops and Religious, Jan. 28, 1850; S. C. Ind., Nov. 26, 1876; S. P. Ap., June 2, 1933).

D) SAINT RAPHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

I

A DEVOUT EXERCISE

413

The faithful who perform some devotions in honor of St. Raphael the Archangel at any season of the year, with the intention of so continuing for nine successive days, may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years, once each day;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, at the end of their novena (Pius IX, Audience, Jan. 3, 1849; S. C. of Bishops and Religious, Jan. 28, 1850; S. C. Ind., Nov. 26, 1876; S. P. Ap., May 6, 1933).

II

COLLECT

414

Vouchsafe, O Lord God, to send unto our assistance Saint Raphael the Archangel: and may he, who, we believe, evermore standeth before the throne of Thy Majesty, offer unto Thee our humble petitions to be blessed by Thee. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, when this prayer has been said every day for one month (S. P. Ap., Nov. 22, 1934).

Dirigere dignare, Dómine Deus, in adiutórium nostrum, sanctum Raphaélem Archángelum; et quem tuæ maiestáti semper assistere crédimus, tibi nostras exíguas preces benedicéndas assígnat. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

NOTE: Prayers to St. Raphael the Archangel for emigrants are found under n. 619.

E) THE GUARDIAN ANGEL

I

INVOCATION

415

Angel of God, my guardian dear,
To whom His love commits me here;
Ever this day (or night) be at my side,
To light and guard, to rule and guide. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month, on the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of this invocation.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions on the Feast of the holy Guardian Angels, if this invocation has been said frequently in the morning and evening throughout the preceding year.

A plenary indulgence at the hour of death, to be gained by the faithful who have been accustomed to say this invocation frequently during life, provided that they go to confession and Communion, or, at least, make an act of contrition, invoke the holy Name of Jesus, orally, if possible, or at least mentally, and accept death with resignation from the hand of God as the just punishment for their sins (Brief, Oct. 2, 1795; S. C. Ind., June 11, 1796 and May 15, 1821; S. P. Ap., Oct. 27, 1935).

Angele Dei, qui custos es mei, me tibi commíssum pietáte supérna hódie (vel hac nocte illúmina, custódi, rege et gubérna. Amen.

II

A DEVOUT EXERCISE

416

The faithful who devoutly recite some prayers in honor of their Guardian Angel at any season of the year, with the intention of persevering therein for nine successive days, may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years once, on any day;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions at the end of the novena (Pius IX, Audience Jan. 3, 1849; S. C. of Bishops and Religious, Jan. 28, 1850; S. C. Ind., Nov. 26, 1876; S. P. Ap., Jan. 9, 1931).

F) THE HOLY ANGEL WHO STRENGTHENED JESUS IN THE GARDEN OF OLIVES

I

INVOCATION

417

O holy Angel who didst strengthen Jesus Christ our Lord, come and strengthen us also; come and tarry not!

An indulgence of 300 days (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, July 10, 1907, exhib. Dec. 15, 1910).

II

PRAYER

418

I salute thee, holy Angel who didst comfort my Jesus in His agony, and with thee I praise the most holy Trinity for having chosen thee from among all the holy Angels to comfort and strengthen Him who is the comfort and strength of all that are in affliction. By the honor thou didst enjoy and by the obedience, humility and love wherewith thou didst assist the sacred Humanity of Jesus, my Saviour, when He was fainting for very sorrow at seeing the sins of the world and especially my sins, I beseech thee to obtain for me perfect sorrow for my sins; deign to strengthen me in the afflictions that now overwhelm me, and in all the other trials, to which I shall be exposed henceforth and, in particular, when I find myself in my final agony. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. P. Ap., Aug. 5, 1921 and Sept. 24, 1935).

CHAPTER II

THE SAINTS

A) IN HONOR OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

I

A DEVOUT EXERCISE

419

The faithful who devoutly offer some prayers in honor of St. John the Baptist, with the intention of so doing for nine continuous days, may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years once each day;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, at the end of the novena (S. P. Ap., July 8, 1925; Nov. 15, 1927 and May 6, 1934).

II

PRAYERS

420

I. O glorious Saint John the Baptist, greatest prophet among those born of woman (Luke 7, 28), although thou wast sanctified in thy mother's womb and didst lead a most innocent life, nevertheless it was thy will to retire into the wilderness, there to devote thyself to the practice of austerity and penance; obtain for us of thy Lord the grace to be wholly detached, at least in our hearts, from earthly goods, and to practice Christian mortification with interior recollection and with the spirit of holy prayer.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be, etc.

II. O most zealous Apostle, who, without working any miracle on others, but solely by the example of thy life of penance and the power of thy word, didst draw after thee the multitudes, in order to dispose them to receive the Messiah worthily and to listen to His heavenly doctrine; grant that it may be given unto us, by means of the example of a holy life and the exercise of every good work, to bring many souls to God, but above all those souls that are enveloped in the darkness of error and ignorance and are led astray by vice.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

III. O Martyr invincible, who, for the honor of God and the salvation of souls, didst with firmness and constancy withstand the impiety of Herod even at the cost of thine own life, and didst rebuke him openly for his wicked and dissolute life; by thy prayers obtain for us a heart, brave and generous, in order that we may overcome all human respect and openly profess our faith in loyal obedience to the teachings of Jesus Christ, our divine Master.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

V. Pray for us, Saint John the Baptist,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O God, who hast made this day to be honorable in our eyes by the Nativity (or commemoration) of blessed John, grant unto Thy people the grace of spiritual joy, and direct the minds of all Thy faithful into the way of everlasting salvation. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years.

An indulgence of 5 years once a day, if the prayers are said with the intention of completing a triduum.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, at the close of the triduum (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, Jan. 9, 1904, exhib. Jan. 11, 1904; S. P. Ap., Nov. 15, 1927 and Dec. 2, 1933).

B) IN HONOR OF SAINT JOSEPH,
SPOUSE OF THE B. V. M.

I

INVOCATIONS

421

Grant us, dear Joseph, to run life's pathway in innocent fashion:

May we forever be safe under thy blest patronage (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, for the devout recitation of this invocation every day throughout a month (S. C. Ind., March 18, 1882; S. P. Ap., May 13, 1933).

Fac nos innócuam, Ioseph, decúrrere vitam,
Sitque tuo semper tuta patrocínio.
(ex Missali Romano).

422

O Saint Joseph, foster-father of our Lord Jesus Christ and true spouse of Mary the Virgin, pray for us.

An indulgence of 300 days once a day (Leo XIII, Motu Proprio, May 15, 1891).

II

THE LITTLE OFFICE

423

The faithful who devoutly recite the little Office of St. Joseph, Spouse of the B. V. Mary, may obtain:

An indulgence of 7 years;

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, if the Office is recited daily (S. P. Ap., May 10, 1921 and March 18, 1932).

III

HYMNS

425

Te Ioseph celebrent agmina cœlitum

Joseph! to thee by hosts on high
 And choirs of Christians, laud be paid!—
 Saintly of life,—by purest tie
 Joined unto her, the glorious Maid.
 When thou didst doubt thy wife's repute,
 And mark her great with motherhood,
 The angel taught thee that her fruit
 Came from the Holy Ghost of God.
 To clasp the Son, thy Lord, was thine,—
 To share His flight to Egypt's shore,—
 With tears, to seek in Salem's shrine
 Him lost,—with joy, to find once more.
 Death brings to other Saints their rest;
 Through toil they win the victor's place;—
 Thou happier, like the Angels blest,
 Alive, hast seen God face to face.
 Spare us, O Trinity most High!
 Grant that, with Joseph, we may gain
 Thy starry realm, and ceaselessly
 There raise to Thee our thankful strain.
 Amen (Roman Breviary, tr. R. F. Little-dale).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of this hymn for a month (S. P. Ap., Feb. 9, 1922 and July 13, 1932).

Salve, Ioseph, custos pie

Hail, dear Spouse of Mary mild,
 Tender Guardian of her Child,
 Joseph, best of teachers, hail!
 By thy prayers obtain salvation,
 And of sin full condonation
 For the soul by guilt oppressed.
 May we all through thee be freed
 From the pain that is our meed
 For the evil we have done.
 Thou impart to us all grace,
 And in Heaven a blessed place;
 This we humbly ask of thee.
 By thy prayer, when life is o'er,
 May we reach the Heavenly shore,
 There to join angelic choirs.

May all those that are in woe,
 Freed from sorrow, joyous go,
 When thou off'rest up thy prayer.
 Make the nations leap for joy,
 Save the sick from all annoy,
 Whilst thou prayest to thy Lord.
 Joseph, hail, king David's son!
 Help the flock by Jesus won,
 In the dreadful judgment day.
 Do thou to our Saviour pray,
 That He cast us not away,
 When death's angel doth appear.
 While we live, defend us here:
 After death, grant us good cheer
 In our fatherland above. Amen.

427

The faithful on any of seven continuous Sundays of the year that they may choose, if they devoutly recite the prayers set forth under n. 432 below, or, in case of some impediment thereto, say Our Father and Hail Mary seven times, may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years;

A plenary indulgence, under the usual conditions (S. C. Ind., Feb. 1, and March 22, 1847; S. P. Ap., May 23, 1936).

428

The faithful who in the month of March or, if that is impossible, in any other month of the year, are present at public devotions in honor of St. Joseph, Spouse of the B. V. M., may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years, on any day of the month;

A plenary indulgence, if they take part in ten such exercises at least, and, moreover, go to confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the intentions of His Holiness the Pope.

Those who perform their devotions to St. Joseph privately during the month of March, may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years once, on any day of the month;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if they perform such devotions daily through the entire month; but if public devotions are held, this indulgence is available only to those who are lawfully hindered from taking part therein (S. C. Ind. April 27, 1865; S. P. Ap., Nov. 21, 1933).

NOTE: The same indulgences may be gained, even though the aforesaid devout exercise is begun so that the month ends on the Feast of St. Joseph (S. C. Ind., July 18, 1877).

429

The faithful who devoutly take part in a public novena in honor of St. Joseph, Spouse of the B. V. M., in preparation for the Feast, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years on any day;

A plenary indulgence, on condition of confession, Communion and prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff, if they take part in the exercises of the novena for at least five days.

Those who perform such a novena privately at the aforesaid time, with the intention of so continuing for nine successive days, may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years once, on any day;

A plenary indulgence, under the usual conditions, at the end of the novena; but where such devout exercises are held publicly, this indulgence can be gained only by those who are lawfully hindered from being present at the public exercises (S. C. Ind., Nov. 26, 1876; S. P. Ap., March 4, 1935).

430

The faithful who on the first Wednesday of any month, perform some devout exercise in honor of St. Joseph, may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (S. P. Ap., April 1, 1921, Nov. 27, 1928 and May 13, 1933).

431

The faithful who before an image of St. Joseph, piously recite Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be, with the invocation: Saint Joseph, pray for me! may gain:

An indulgence of 300 days;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this pious practice is continued for an entire month (S. P. Ap., Oct. 12, 1936).

VI

PRAYERS

432

I. O chaste Spouse of Mary most holy, glorious Saint Joseph, great was the trouble and anguish of thy heart when thou wast minded to put away privately thine inviolate Spouse, yet thy joy was unspeakable, when the surpassing mystery of the Incarnation was made known to thee by the Angel!

By this thy sorrow and this thy joy we beseech thee to comfort our souls, both now and in the sorrows of our final hour, with the joy of a good life and a holy death after the pattern of thine own in the arms of Jesus and Mary.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

II. O most blessed Patriarch, glorious Saint Joseph, who wast chosen to be the foster-father of the Word made flesh, thy sorrow at seeing the Child Jesus born in such poverty was suddenly changed into heavenly exultation when thou didst hear the angelic hymn, and didst behold the glories of that resplendent night.

By this thy sorrow and this thy joy, we implore thee to obtain for us the grace to pass over from life's pathway to hear the angelic songs of praise, and to rejoice in the shining splendor of celestial glory.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

III. O glorious Saint Joseph, thou who didst faithfully obey the law of God, thy heart was pierced at the sight of the Precious Blood that was shed by the Infant Saviour during His Circumcision, but the Name of Jesus gave thee new life and filled thee with quiet joy.

By this thy sorrow and this thy joy, obtain for us the grace to be freed from all sin during life, and to die rejoicing, with the holy Name of Jesus in our hearts and on our lips.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

IV. O most faithful Saint, who didst share the mysteries of our Redemption, glorious Saint Joseph, the prophecy of Simeon touching the sufferings of Jesus and Mary caused thee to shudder with mortal dread, but at the same time filled thee with a blessed joy for the salvation and glorious resurrection which, he foretold, would be attained by countless souls.

By this thy sorrow and this thy joy, obtain for us that we may be of the number of those who, through the merits of Jesus and the intercession of Mary the Virgin Mother, are predestined to a glorious resurrection.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

V. O most watchful Guardian of the Incarnate Son of God, glorious Saint Joseph, what toil was thine in supporting and waiting upon the Son of the most high God, especially in the flight into Egypt! Yet at the same time, how thou didst rejoice to have near thee always the very God Himself, and to see the idols of the Egyptians fall prostrate to the ground before Him.

By this thy sorrow and this thy joy, obtain for us the grace of keeping ourselves in safety from the infernal tyrant, especially by flight from dangerous occasions; may every idol of earthly affection fall from our hearts; may we be wholly employed in serving Jesus and Mary, and for them alone may we live and happily die.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

VI. O glorious Saint Joseph, an Angel on earth, thou didst marvel to see the King of Heaven obedient to thy commands, but thy consolation in bringing Jesus out of the land of Egypt was troubled by thy fear of Archelaus; nevertheless, being assured by the Angel, thou didst dwell in gladness at Nazareth with Jesus and Mary.

By this thy sorrow and this thy joy, obtain for us that our hearts may be delivered from harmful fears, that so we may rejoice in peace of conscience and may live in safety with Jesus and Mary, and, like unto thee, may die in their company.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

VII. O glorious Saint Joseph, pattern of all holiness, when thou didst lose, through no fault of thine, the Child Jesus, thou didst seek Him sorrowing for the space of three days, until with great joy thou didst find Him again in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors.

By this thy sorrow and this thy joy, we supplicate thee, with our hearts upon our lips, to keep us from ever having the misfortune to lose Jesus through mortal sin; but if this supreme misfortune should befall us, grant that we may seek Him with unceasing sorrow until we find Him again, ready to show us His great mercy, especially at the hour of death; that so we may pass over to enjoy His presence in heaven, and there, in company with thee, may we sing the praises of His divine mercy forever.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

Antiphon. And Jesus Himself was beginning about the age of thirty years, being (as it was supposed) the Son of Joseph.

V. Pray for us, O holy Joseph,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray

O God, Who in Thine ineffable Providence didst vouchsafe to choose blessed Joseph to be the Spouse of Thy most holy Mother: grant, we beseech Thee, that we may deserve to have him as our intercessor in heaven, whom we venerate on earth as our protector: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 5 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if these prayers are repeated with devotion daily for an entire month (Pius VII, Audience, Dec. 9, 1819; S. P. Ap., May 12, 1932).

I. In the miseries of this vale of tears, to whom shall we have recourse, if not to thee, to whom thy beloved spouse Mary entrusted all her rich treasures, that thou mightest keep them to our advantage? "Go to my spouse, Joseph," Mary seems to say to us, "and he will comfort you, he will deliver you from the misfortunes which now oppress you and will make you happy and contented." Do thou have pity on us, therefore, O Joseph, have pity on us through that love which thou didst cherish toward a spouse so worthy and so amiable.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

II. We are fully conscious that we have offended the justice of God by our sins and deserve His most severe chastisements. Now, what shall be our place of refuge? In what haven shall we find ourselves in safety? "Go to Joseph," Jesus seems to say to us, "Go to Joseph, in whom I was well pleased and whom I had for my foster-father. To him, as to a father, I have communicated all power, that he may use it for your good according to his own desire." Pity us, therefore, O blessed Joseph, pity us, for the great love thou didst bear toward a Son so admirable and so dear.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

III. Unhappily, the sins we have committed call down upon us the heaviest scourges; this we must confess. In what ark shall we take refuge in order to be saved? Where shall we find the blessed rainbow that shall give us comfort and hope in the midst of our affliction? "Go to Joseph," the eternal Father seems to say to us, "go to him, who took My place on earth with regard to My Son made man. I entrusted to his keeping My Son who is the unfailing source of grace: every grace, therefore, is in his hands." Pity us, then, dear Joseph, pity us by thy great love for Almighty God who hath been so generous to thee.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, when these prayers are devoutly recited every day for a month (S. P. Ap., Sept. 30, 1936).

VII

PRAYERS

434

Remember, O most pure Spouse of the Virgin Mary, Saint Joseph, my beloved patron, that never hath it been heard that any one invoked thy patronage and sought thine aid without being comforted. Inspired by this confidence, I come to thee and fervently commend myself to thee. Ah, despise not my petition, dear foster-father of our Redeemer, but accept it graciously. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (Brief, June 26, 1863; S. P. Ap., Jan. 20, 1933).

435

Saint Joseph, father and guardian of virgins, into whose faithful keeping were entrusted Innocency itself, Christ Jesus, and Mary, the Virgin of virgins, I pray and beseech thee through Jesus and Mary, those pledges so dear to thee, to keep me from all uncleanness, and to grant that my mind may be untainted, my heart pure and my body chaste; help me always to serve Jesus and Mary in perfect chastity. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence, on the usual conditions, if this prayer is devoutly repeated every day for an entire month (S. C. Ind., Feb. 4, 1877; S. P. Ap., May 18, 1936).

Virginum Custos et Pater, sancte Ioseph, cuius fidéli custódiæ ipsa Innocéntia, Christus Iesus, et Virgo vírginum María commíssa fuit, te per hoc utrúmque caríssimum pignus Iesum et Maríam óbsecro et obtéstor, ut me ab omni immundítia præservátum, mente incontamináta, puro corde et casto córpore Iesu et Maríæ semper fácias castíssime famulári. Amen.

436

O glorious Saint Joseph, chosen by God to be the foster-father of Jesus, the chaste spouse of Mary ever Virgin, and the head of the Holy Family and then appointed by the Vicar of Christ to be the heavenly patron and defender of the Church founded by Jesus, most confidently do I implore at this moment thy powerful aid for all the Church militant on earth. Do thou shield with thy truly paternal love especially the Supreme Pontiff and all the Bishops and priests who are in union with the Holy See of Peter. Be the defender of all who labor for souls amidst the trials and tribulations of this life, and cause all the peoples of the earth to submit themselves in a docile spirit to that Church which is the ark of salvation for all men.

Be pleased also, dear Saint Joseph, to accept this dedication of myself which I now make unto thee. I dedicate myself wholly to thee, that thou mayest ever be my father, my patron and my guide in the way of salvation. Obtain for me great purity of heart and a fervent devotion to the interior life. Grant that, following thine example, I may direct all my actions to the greater glory of God, in union with the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the immaculate heart of Mary and in union with thee. Finally pray for me that I may be a partaker in the peace and joy which were thine at the hour of thy holy death. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., July 18, 1885; S. P. Ap., Nov. 8, 1933).

437

Be mindful of us, O blessed Joseph, and intercede for us with thy foster-Son by the pleading of thy prayer: do thou, in like manner, render the blessed Virgin Mary thy Spouse, gracious unto us, for she is the Mother of Him, who with the Father and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth world without end. Amen (St. Bernardine of Siena).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence, on the usual conditions, if this prayer is recited daily for a month in a spirit of devotion (S. C. Ind., Dec. 14, 1889; S. P. Ap., June 13, 1936).

Meménto nostri, beáte Ioseph, et tuæ oratiónis suffrágio apud tuum putatívum Fílium intercéde; sed et beatíssimam Vírginem Sponsam tuam nobis própítiam redde, quæ Mater est Eius, qui cum Patre et Spíritu Sancto vivit et regnat per infinita sæcula sæculórum. Amen (S. Bernardinus Senensis).

To thee, O blessed Joseph, do we have recourse in our tribulation, and, having implored the help of thy thrice-holy Spouse, we confidently invoke thy patronage also. By that charity wherewith thou wast united to the immaculate Virgin Mother of God, and by that fatherly affection with which thou didst embrace the Child Jesus, we beseech thee and we humbly pray, that thou wouldst look graciously upon the inheritance which Jesus Christ hath purchased by His Blood, and assist us in our needs by thy power and strength. Most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, protect the chosen people of Jesus Christ; keep far from us, most loving father, all blight of error and corruption: mercifully assist us from heaven, most mighty defender, in this our conflict with the powers of darkness; and, even as of old thou didst rescue the Child Jesus from the supreme peril of His life, so now defend God's holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; keep us one and all under thy continual protection, that we may be supported by thine example and thine assistance, may be enabled to lead a holy life, die a happy death and come at last to the possession of everlasting blessedness in heaven. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years.

An indulgence of 7 years during the month of October, when said after the recitation of the Rosary.

A plenary indulgence once a month, on the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of this prayer (Leo XIII, Encyclical Aug. 15, 1889; S. C. Ind., Sept. 21, 1889; S. P. Ap., May 17, 1927 and Dec. 13, 1935).

Ad te beáte Ioseph, in tribulatióne nostra confúgi-mus, atque, imploráto Sponsæ tuæ sanctíssimæ auxílio, patrocínium quoque tuum fidénter expósci-mus. Per eam, quæsumus, quæ te cum immaculáta VírGINE Dei Genitríce coniúnxit, caritátem, perque patérnum, quo Púerum Iesum amplexus es, amórem, súplices deprecámur, ut ad hereditátem, quam Iesus Christus acquisívit Sángvine suo, benígnus respicias, ac necessitatibus nostris tua virtúte et ope succúrras.
Tuére, o Custos providentíssime divínæ Famíliæ, Iesu Christi sóbolem eléctam; próhibe a nobis, amantíssime Pater, omnem errórum ac corruptelá-rum luem; propítius nobis, sospitátor fortíssime, in hoc cum potestáte tenebrárum certámine e cælo adésto; et sicut olim Púerum Iesum e summo eripuísti vitæ discrimine, ita nunc Ecclésiám sanctam Dei ab hostílibus insídiis atque ab omni adversitaté defénde: nosque síngulos perpétuo tege patrocínio, ut ad tui exémplar et ope tua suffúlti, sancte vívere, pie émori, sempiternámque in cælis beatitúdinem ássequi possímus. Amen.

439

O Joseph, virgin-father of Jesus, most pure Spouse of the Virgin Mary, pray every day for us to the same Jesus, the Son of God, that we, being defended by the power of His grace and striving dutifully in life, may be crowned by Him at the hour of death.

An indulgence of 500 days (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, Oct. 11, 1906; exhib. Nov. 26, 1906; S. P. Ap., May 23, 1931).

O Ioseph, virgo Pater Iesu, puríssime Sponse Vírginis Maríæ, quotidie deprecáre pro nobis ipsum Iesum Fílium Dei, ut, armis suæ grátia muníti legí-time certántes in vita, ab eódem coronémur in morte.

440

Glorious Saint Joseph, pattern of all who are devoted to toil, obtain for me the grace to toil in the spirit of penance, in order thereby to atone for my many sins; to toil conscientiously, putting devotion to duty before my own inclinations; to labor with thankfulness and joy, deeming it an honor to employ and to develop, by my labor, the gifts I have received from Almighty God; to work with order, peace, moderation, and patience, without ever shrinking from weariness and difficulties; to work above all with a pure intention and with detachment from self, having always before my eyes the hour of death and the accounting which I must then render of time ill-spent, of talents unemployed, of good undone, and of my empty pride in success, which is so fatal to the work of God. All for Jesus, all through Mary, all in imitation of thee, O Patriarch Joseph! This shall be my motto in life and in death. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, Nov. 23, 1906, exhib. March 15, 1907; S. P. Ap., March 28, 1933).

441

Supported by the patronage of the Spouse of Thy most holy Mother, we pray Thee, O Lord, for Thy mercy; that Thou wouldst make our hearts despise all things earthly and love Thee, the true God, with perfect charity: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence, once a month, on the usual conditions, if this prayer is devoutly repeated every day (S. P. Ap., Nov. 12, 1936).

Sanctíssimæ Genitrícis tuæ Sponsi patrocínio suffúlti, rogámus, Dómine, cleméntiam tuam: ut corda nostra fácias terréna cuncta despícere ac te verum Deum perfecta caritate diligere: Qui vivis et regnas in secula seculorum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

NOTE: A prayer to St. Joseph, for the hallowing of holydays, is found under n. 650.

C) IN HONOR OF THE HOLY APOSTLES

I

THE HOLY APOSTLES, PETER AND PAUL

442

Invocation

Defend, O Lord, Thy people: and as they put their trust in the patronage of Thy holy Apostles, Peter and Paul, keep them ever by Thy protection. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of this prayer when continued for a month (S. P. Ap., Nov. 22, 1934).

Prótege, Dómine, pópulum tuum; et Apostolórum tuórum, Petri et Pauli patrocínio confidentem perpétua defensióne consérva. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

443

A Pious Exercise

The faithful who devoutly assist at a public novena in honor of the holy Apostles, Peter and Paul, before their Feast, are granted:

An indulgence of 5 years, on any day of the novena;

A plenary indulgence, if they take part in the exercises of the novena on at least five days, and go to confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the intentions of the Pope.

Those, moreover, who at the aforesaid time offer their prayers privately in honor of the same holy Apostles, with the intention of so doing for nine consecutive days are granted:

An indulgence of 3 years once on any day;

A plenary indulgence, under the usual conditions, at the completion of the novena; but where such a novena is held publicly, only those who are lawfully prevented from attending the public service, may avail themselves of this latter indulgence (S. P. Ap., June 12, 1932).

444

Petitions

O holy Apostles, Peter and Paul, I choose you this day and forever to be my special patrons and advocates; thee, Saint Peter, Prince of the Apostles, because thou art the Rock, upon which Almighty God hath built His Church; thee, Saint Paul, because thou wast fore-chosen by God as the Vessel of election and the Preacher of truth in the whole world. Obtain for me, I pray you, lively faith, firm hope and burning love; complete detachment from myself, contempt of the world, patience in adversity, humility in prosperity, attention in prayer, purity of heart, a right intention in all my works, diligence in fulfilling the duties of my state of life, constancy in my resolutions, resignation to the will of God and perseverance in the grace of God even unto death; that so, by means of your intercession and your glorious merits, I may be able to overcome the temptations of the world, the flesh and the devil, and may be made worthy to appear before the chief and eternal Shepherd of souls, Jesus Christ, who with the Father and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth for endless ages, to enjoy His presence and love Him forever. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

V. Thou shalt make them princes over all the earth,

R. They shall be mindful of Thy name, O Lord.

Let us pray.

O God, whose right hand raised up blessed Peter, when he walked upon the water and began to sink, and thrice delivered his fellow-Apostle Paul from the depths of the sea, when he suffered shipwreck: graciously hear us and grant, by the merits of them both, that we also may attain unto everlasting glory: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of these petitions (S. C. Ind., June 18, 1876; S. P. Ap., July 21, 1931 and May 16, 1933).

II

SAINT PETER THE APOSTLE

445

Prayers

Thou art the Shepherd of the sheep, the Prince of the Apostles, unto thee are given the keys of the kingdom of heaven.

V. Thou art Peter;

R. And upon this rock I will build my Church.

Let us pray.

Raise us up, we beseech Thee, O Lord, by the apostolic assistance of blessed Peter,

Thine Apostle: so that the weaker we are, the more mightily we may be helped by the power of his intercession: and that being perpetually defended by the same holy Apostle, we may neither yield to any iniquity, nor be overcome by any adversity. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence, once a month, under the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of this prayer (S. C. Ind., June 22, 1782; S. P. Ap., May 18, 1935).

Tu es Pastor óvium, Princeps Apostolórum, tibi tráditæ sunt claves regni cælórum.

℣. Tu es Petrus,

℞. Et super hanc petram ædificábo Ecclésiam meam.

Oremus.

Apostólicis nos, Dómine, quæsumus, beáti Petri Apóstoli tui attólle præsídiis, ut quanto fragilióres sumus, tanto eius intercessióne validióribus auxiliis foveámur; et iúgiter apostólica defensióne muniti, nec succumbámus vítiis, nec opprimámur advérsis. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen.

446

Prayers

O glorious Saint Peter, who, in return for thy lively and generous faith, thy profound and sincere humility, and thy burning love, wast honored by Jesus Christ with singular privileges, and, in particular, with the leadership of the other Apostles and the primacy of the whole Church, of which thou wast made the foundation stone, do thou obtain for us the grace of a lively faith, that shall not fear to profess itself openly, in its entirety and in all of its manifestations, even to the shedding of blood, if occasion should demand it, and to the sacrifice of life itself in preference to surrender. Obtain for us likewise, a sincere loyalty to our holy mother, the Church; grant that we may ever remain most closely and sincerely united to the Roman Pontiff, who is the heir of thy faith and of thy authority, the one, true, visible Head of the Catholic Church, that mystic ark outside which there is no salvation. Grant, moreover, that we may follow, in all humility and meekness, her teaching and her counsels, and may be obedient to all her precepts, in order to be able here on earth to enjoy a peace that is sure and undisturbed, and to attain one day in heaven to everlasting happiness. Amen.

V. Pray for us, Saint Peter the Apostle,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O God, who hast given unto Thy blessed Apostle Peter the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and the power to bind and loose: grant that we may be delivered, through the help of his intercession, from the bonds of all our sins: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, if these prayers are repeated daily with devout sentiments (Brief, April 27, 1916; S. P. Ap., Jan. 24, 1931).

NOTE: For the indulgences attached to visits to the tomb and image of St. Peter in the Vatican Basilica, see n. 710.

III

SAINT PAUL THE APOSTLE

447

Prayers

Thou art the Vessel of election, Saint Paul the Apostle, the Preacher of truth in the whole world.

V. Pray for us, Saint Paul the Apostle,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, who, of Thy divine mercy, didst instruct Thy blessed Apostle Paul what he should do that he might be filled with the Holy Ghost; by his admonitions directing us and his merits interceding for us, grant that we may serve Thee in fear and trembling and so be filled with the comfort of Thy heavenly gifts. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of these prayers with devotion (Pius VII, Audience Jan. 23, 1806; S. P. Ap., Oct. 16, 1933).

Tu es vas electi6nis, sancte Paule Ap6stole, prædicat6r veritat6is in univ6rso mundo.

V. Ora pro nobis, sancte Paule Ap6stole,

R. Ut digni efficiamur promissionibus Christi.

Oremus.

Omnipotens sempit6rne Deus, qui beato Ap6stolo tuo Paulo quid faceret, ut impleretur Spiritu Sancto, divina miseratione præcepisti; eius dirigentibus monitis et suffragantibus meritis concede, ut servientes tibi in timore et tremore, cælestium donorum consolatione repleamur. Per Christum D6minum nostrum. Amen.

Prayers

O glorious Saint Paul, who, from being a persecutor of the Christian name, didst become its most zealous Apostle, and who, to carry the knowledge of Jesus, our divine Saviour, to the uttermost parts of the earth, didst joyfully suffer prison, scourgings, stonings, shipwreck and all manner of persecutions, and who didst finish thy course by shedding the last drop of thy blood: obtain for us the grace to accept, as favors bestowed by the mercy of God, the infirmities, sufferings and misfortunes of this life, that we may not grow slack in our service of God by reason of these vicissitudes of our exile, but that we may the rather show ourselves ever more devoted. Amen.

V. Pray for us, Saint Paul the Apostle,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O God, who hast taught the multitude of the Gentiles by the preaching of blessed Paul the Apostle: grant unto us, we beseech Thee, that we who keep his memory sacred, may feel the might of his intercession before Thee. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions if these prayers are recited daily for a month (S. C. of the Prop. of the Faith, Jan. 13, 1905, document exhibited, Jan. 18, 1905; S. P. Ap., Aug. 8, 1936).

NOTE: Another prayer to St. Paul the Apostle for the publishing of good books, is found under n. 659.

IV

SAINT JOHN, APOSTLE AND EVANGELIST

449

Prayer

O glorious Apostle, Saint John, who for thy virginal purity wast so beloved by Jesus as to merit to rest thy head upon His divine bosom, and to be left, in His stead, as a son to His most holy Mother, I implore thee to set me on fire with a burning love for Jesus and Mary. Obtain for me, I pray, this grace from our Lord, that, even now, with my heart set free from earthly affections, I may be made worthy to be ever united here on earth to Jesus as His faithful disciple and to Mary as her devoted child in order to remain thus united to them both forever in heaven. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, for the daily repetition of these prayers with devotion (S. C. Ind., Dec. 8, 1897; S. P. Ap., May 10, 1933).

NOTE: A prayer to St. John the Apostle, to be said by priests, is found under n. 687.

V

SAINT JUDE THADDEUS, APOSTLE

450

Prayer

O glorious Saint Jude Thaddeus, by those sublime prerogatives, wherewith thou wast ennobled in thy lifetime, namely, thy kinship with our Lord Jesus Christ according to the flesh, and thy vocation to be an Apostle; by that glory which now is thine in heaven as the reward of thine apostolic labors and thy martyrdom: obtain for us from the Giver of every good and perfect gift all the graces whereof we stand in need in order to treasure up in our hearts the divinely inspired doctrines which thou hast transmitted to us in thy Epistle; that is to say, to build our edifice of perfection upon our most holy faith, praying by the grace of the Holy Spirit; to keep ourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of Jesus Christ unto eternal life; to strive by all means to help them that go astray; exalting thus the glory and majesty, the dominion and power of Him who is able to keep us without sin and to present us spotless with exceeding joy at the coming of our divine Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if these prayers are said with devotion every day for a month (S. C. Ind., Aug. 17, 1908, S. P. Ap., Feb. 21, 1933).

VI

SAINT JAMES THE APOSTLE

451

Prayer

O glorious Apostle, Saint James, who by reason of thy fervent and generous heart wast chosen by Jesus to be a witness of His glory on Mount Tabor, and of His agony in Gethsemane; thou, whose very name is a symbol of warfare and victory: obtain for us strength and consolation in the unending warfare of this life, that, having constantly and generously followed Jesus, we may be victors in the strife and deserve to receive the victor's crown in heaven. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month, on the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of this prayer with devotion (S. P. Ap., July 16, 1923).

D) IN HONOR OF OTHER SAINTS

I

SAINT JOACHIM, FATHER OF THE B. V. MARY

452

Invocation

O Joachim, husband of holy Anne, father of the merciful Virgin, hither bring thy servants help for their salvation.

O Ióachim, sanctæ coniux Annæ, pater almæ Vírginis, hic fámulis fertó salútis opem.

An indulgence of 300 days, once a day (Pius V, Rescript in his own hand, May 28, 1906; exhib. June 16, 1906.)

453

Prayer

O great and glorious Patriarch, Saint Joachim, what joy is mine when I consider that thou wast chosen among all God's holy ones to assist in the fulfilment of the mysteries of God, and to enrich our earth with the great Mother of God, Mary most holy! By this singular privilege, thou hast become most powerful with both the Mother and her Son, so as to be able to get us the graces that are needful to us; with great confidence I have recourse to thy mighty protection and I commend to thee all my needs and those of my family, both spiritual and temporal; and especially do I entrust to thy keeping the particular favor that I desire and look for from thy fatherly intercession. And since thou wast a perfect pattern of the interior life, obtain for me the grace of interior recollection and a spirit of detachment from the transitory goods of this life, together with a lively and enduring love for Jesus and Mary. Obtain for me in like manner a sincere devotion and obedience to holy Church and the Sovereign Pontiff who rules over her: to the end that I may live and die in faith and hope and perfect charity, ever invoking the holy Names of Jesus and Mary, and may I thus be saved. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be three times.

An indulgence of 300 days once a day.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this prayer is recited daily for an entire month (S. C. Ind., March 20, 1886; S. P. Ap., Jan. 12, 1935).

454

Prayer

O great Patriarch, Saint Joachim, deserving by thy singular virtue to be chosen of old by divine Providence to give to the world that immaculate Queen, in whom all nations were to be blessed, and who, in her virginal bosom, was to bear the Saviour of the human race: we who are thy devout clients rejoice with thee in this thy great privilege, and implore thee to extend thy special protection to ourselves and our families. Do not, dear Saint, suffer the devil and sin to find a place in our hearts, nor the false maxims of the world to lead us astray; permit us not to live unmindful of eternity, for which we have been created. Obtain for us from God a firm and unshaken faith in opposition to the impieties and errors which are ever being spread abroad by the sects hostile to holy Church and the Apostolic See; a sincere and constant devotion to the Vicar of Jesus Christ, the Roman Pontiff; and an unflinching courage in refuting calumnies against those things which are most sacred and venerable in our holy religion.

Do thou, who art powerful by reason of that love which thy holy daughter Mary bears toward thee, assist the cause of the Church, gain for her the victory for which she sighs, scatter the powers of darkness, destroy their pride and grant that the light of the true faith may shine resplendent in all minds. Grant us, above all, a tender and filial devotion to thy beloved daughter and our Mother, Mary most holy, so that we, honoring her daily with our devout homage, may be made worthy to be numbered by her amongst her children; and after the miseries of this exile may be brought to praise and bless the mercy of God forever in heaven. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be three times.

An indulgence of 300 days, once a day.

A plenary indulgence, once a month, under the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of this prayer with piety (Leo XIII, Motu propr., Aug. 16, 1890; S. P. Ap., July 8, 1936).

II

SAINT ANNE, MOTHER OF THE B. V. MARY

455

Pious Practices

a) The faithful who devoutly say some prayers in honor of St. Anne, on Tuesday of any week, are granted:

An indulgence of 7 years;

A plenary indulgence, under the usual conditions.

Those who perform such a devotional exercise on nine successive Tuesdays are granted:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (S. C. of the Holy Office Aug. 22, 1912; S. P. Ap., Nov. 15, 1927 and March 18, 1932).

b) The faithful who offer their devout supplications in honor of St. Anne with the intention of so continuing for nine successive days are granted:

An indulgence of 7 years, once a day;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, at the completion of the novena (Holy Office, Aug. 22, 1912; S. P. Ap., Nov. 15, 1927 and March 18, 1932).

456

Prayer

With my heart full of the most sincere veneration, I prostrate myself before thee, O glorious Saint Anne. Thou art that creature of privilege and predilection, who by thy extraordinary virtues and holiness didst merit from God the high favor of giving life to her who is the Treasury of all graces, blessed among women, the Mother of the Word Incarnate, the most holy Virgin Mary. By virtue of so lofty a privilege, do thou deign, O most compassionate Saint, to receive me into the number of thy true clients, for so I profess myself and so I desire to remain throughout my entire life.

Shield me with thine effectual patronage and obtain for me from God the power to imitate those virtues wherewith thou wast so plentifully adorned. Grant that I may know and weep over my sins in bitterness of heart. Get me the grace of most active love for Jesus and Mary, and resolution to fulfil the duties of my state of life with faithfulness and constancy. Save me from every danger that confronts me in life, and help me at the hour of death, that so I may come in safety to paradise, there to sing with thee, O most happy mother, the praises of the Word of God made Man in the womb of thy most pure daughter, the Virgin Mary. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be, three times.

An indulgence of 300 days, once a day.

A plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, for the daily repetition of this prayer (S. C. Ind., March 20, 1886; S. P. Ap., Oct. 10, 1934).

III

IN HONOR OF SAINT ALOYSIUS GONZAGA, CONFESSOR

457

Devout Exercises

a) The faithful who devoutly visit a church where the Feast of St. Aloysius is being kept, may gain:

A plenary indulgence, if, in addition, they make their confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the Holy Father's intentions (S. C. Ind., Nov. 22, 1729; Nov. 21, 1737 and April 12, 1742; S. P. Ap., April 15, 1937).

b) The faithful who, on any of the six Sundays immediately preceding the Feast of St. Aloysius Gonzaga, or on any of six consecutive Sundays that they may choose during the year, spend some time in devout meditation or prayers, or who perform some other exercises of devotion in honor of the same Saint, are granted:

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions (S. C. Ind., Dec. 11, 1739 and Jan. 7, 1740).

c) The faithful who, on any one of the nine days immediately preceding the Feast of St. Aloysius Gonzaga, say some prayers with piety in honor of the Saint, are granted.

An indulgence of 500 days, once a day;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, at the end of the novena (S. P. Ap., Sept. 25, 1936).

d) The faithful who devoutly recite Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be, with the invocation:

Saint Aloysius, pray for me!

are granted:

An indulgence of 300 days;

A plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, if they repeat this devout homage daily (S. P. Ap., Sept. 25, 1936).

458

Prayers

Saint Aloysius, adorned with angelic virtues, I, thy most unworthy client, commend to thee most earnestly the chastity of my mind and body. I beseech thee, for the sake of thine angelic purity, to commend me to the immaculate Lamb, Christ Jesus, and to His most holy Mother, the Virgin of virgins; and to protect me from every grievous sin. Permit me not to defile myself by any spot of impurity; nay, when thou seest me in temptation or in the danger of sin, banish far from my heart every unclean thought and desire. Awaken in me the thought of eternity and of Jesus crucified; imprint deeply in my heart a lively sense of the holy fear of God; set me on fire with the love of God; grant me the grace to imitate thee on earth that I may worthily enjoy the possession of God in heaven with thee. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

V. Pray for us, Saint Aloysius,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O God, the Giver of all heavenly gifts, who in the angelic youth, Aloysius, didst join wondrous innocence with equal penance: be entreated by his merits and his prayers, and grant unto us who have not followed him in his innocence the grace to imitate him in his penance. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days once a day.

A plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, for the daily and devout recitation of this prayer (S. C. Ind., March 6, 1802; S. P. Ap., June 19, 1933).

NOTE: Another prayer to St. Aloysius Gonzaga, to be said by young men, is found under n. 705.

IV

SAINT IGNATIUS LOYOLA, CONFESSOR

459

A Devout Exercise

The faithful who, on any of the ten Sundays preceding the Feast of St. Ignatius Loyola, or on any of ten consecutive Sundays that they may choose during the year, spend some time in devout meditations or prayers in honor of the Saint, or who perform some other acts of devotion, are granted:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (S. C. Ind., Jan. 27, 1767 and Dec. 10, 1841).

A Prayer

O glorious Patriarch, Saint Ignatius, we humbly beseech thee to obtain for us from Almighty God, above all things else, deliverance from sin, which is the greatest of evils (and next, from the deadly epidemic of cholera, which is one of the scourges wherewith the Lord chastises His people). May thine example enkindle in our hearts an effectual desire to employ ourselves continually in laboring for the greater glory of God and the good of our fellow-men; obtain for us, likewise, from the loving Heart of Jesus our Lord, that grace which is the crown of all graces, that is to say, the grace of final perseverance and everlasting happiness. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, once a month, when this prayer has been recited daily (S. C. Ind., Feb. 5, 1885; S. P. Ap., May 20, 1933).

A PRAYER TO ST. IGNATIUS LOYOLA AND ST. FRANCIS XAVIER, CONFESSORS

Ye mighty heroes of the Christian faith, most worthy of our love, not only were you intimately associated here below in the same bonds of religion to procure the greater glory of God, but you also merited to be raised on the same day to the honors of our altars: obtain for me, your humble and devoted servant, the singular grace of knowing and loving the Lord Jesus in deed and in truth, that so, being faithful and constant in imitating your example, I may desire and seek, above every thing created, the eternal salvation of my soul and of all them that have been redeemed in the Most Precious Blood of Jesus. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, for the daily repetition of this prayer with devotion (S. P. Ap., March 6, 1922).

V

SAINT FRANCIS XAVIER, CONFESSOR

462

(The Novena of Grace)

O Saint Francis Xavier, well beloved and full of charity, in union with thee, I reverently adore the Majesty of God; and since I rejoice with exceeding joy in the singular gifts of grace bestowed upon thee during thy life, and thy gifts of glory after death, I give Him hearty thanks therefor; I beseech thee with all my heart's devotion to be pleased to obtain for me, by thy effectual intercession, above all things, the grace of a holy life and a happy death. Moreover, I beg of thee to obtain for me . . . (here mention the spiritual or temporal favor to be prayed for). But if what I ask of thee so earnestly doth not tend to the glory of God and the greater good of my soul, do thou, I pray, obtain for me what is more profitable to both these ends. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

On any of nine successive days that the faithful may select for obtaining some grace through the intercession of St. Francis Xavier, if they make use of the foregoing form of prayer, or attend the exercises of a public novena, as above, held in some church or public oratory, they are granted:

An indulgence of 300 days;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions at the end of the exercises (S. C. Ind., March 23, 1904; S. P. Ap., May 20, 1933).

NOTE: If, for any reason, the above prayer cannot be said, it will suffice to say five times Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be (S. C. Ind., March 23, 1904).

(Novendialia a gratia)

O valde amábilis et caritáte plene, sancte Francísce Xavéri, tecum Maiestátem divínam reverénter adóro: et quóniam summópere gáudeo de singuláribus grátix donis, quæ ipsa tibi cóntulit in hac vita et glóriæ post mortem, ei máximas ago grátias, teque toto cordis afféctu déprecor, ut effící tua intercessióne præcípuam mihi grátiam velis obtinére sanctam vitam agéndi sanctéque moriéndi. Insuper te rogo, ut mihi ímpetres... (hic exprimatúr gratia sive spiritualis sive temporalis imploranda). Si vero id, quod a te suppliciter peto, ad Dei glóriam et ad maius bonum ánimæ meæ mínime confert, Tu, quæso, mihi ímpetres quod utrúque est útilius. Amen.

Pater, Ave, Glória.

VI

SAINT STANISLAUS KOSTKA, CONFESSOR

463

Pious Practices

a) The faithful who visit for the purpose of prayer, a church or public oratory, or even a semi-public oratory (in the case of those who may lawfully use the latter), where the Feast of St. Stanislaus Kostka is being celebrated, may gain:

A plenary indulgence, if they make their confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the intentions of His Holiness the Pope.

b) The faithful on any of the ten Sundays immediately preceding the Feast of St. Stanislaus Kostka, if they devote themselves to pious supplications in honor of the Saint, are granted:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions.

c) The faithful on any of the nine days next before the Feast of St. Stanislaus Kostka, if they devoutly offer their prayers in honor of the Saint, may gain:

An indulgence of 500 days, once a day;

A plenary indulgence, under the usual conditions, at the end of the novena.

d) The faithful who devoutly recite before an image of this saint: Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be, adding the invocation:

Saint Stanislaus, pray for me!

may obtain:

An indulgence of 300 days;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if they perform this devotion daily for a month.

e) The faithful who take part in the retreat, known as the Retreat of Saint Stanislaus, may gain:

An indulgence of 100 days (S. C. Ind., March 3, 1827; S. P. Ap., Oct. 12, 1935).

464

Prayers

Saint Stanislaus, my patron most chaste, Angel of purity, I rejoice with thee in that singular gift of virginal purity which graced thy spotless heart; and I humbly beseech thee, obtain for me the strength to overcome temptations to impurity, and inspire me to continual vigilance in keeping intact the virtue of holy purity.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

Saint Stanislaus, my patron most loving, Seraph of charity, I rejoice with thee in the glowing flame of love that kept thy pure and sinless heart always at peace and united to thy God: I humbly beseech thee to obtain for me such a flame of divine love as shall consume every affection for things of earth, and set me on fire with heavenly love alone.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

Saint Stanislaus, my patron most tender and most powerful, Angel of purity and Seraph of love, I rejoice with thee in thy happy death, a death caused by thy longing to see Mary who was taken up bodily into heaven, and consummated by a mighty impulse of love toward her. I give thanks unto Mary who was pleased to hear and answer thy prayers, and I implore thee, by the glory of that thy happy death, to be the advocate and patron of my death. Intercede with Mary for me that my death, if not so happy as thine, may at least be peaceful under the protection of Mary, my Advocate, and of thee my special patron.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

V. Pray for us, O holy Stanislaus,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O God, who amongst the other wonderful works of Thy wisdom, hast bestowed the grace of ripe holiness on them of tender years: grant, we beseech Thee, that we, following in the footsteps of blessed Stanislaus and redeeming the time by unremitting labor, may hasten to enter into our eternal rest. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days, once a day.

A plenary indulgence, under the usual conditions, if these prayers are said daily for a month with devotion (Pius IX, Rescript in his own hand, March 21, 1847; S. C. Ind., July 10, 1854; S. P. Ap., Dec. 5, 1931).

VII

SAINT JOHN OF THE CROSS, CONFESSOR

465

A Prayer

O glorious Saint John of the Cross, great Doctor of the Church, who, from very longing to be configured to Christ crucified, didst desire nothing more ardently, even to the last moment of thy holy life, than to suffer and to be despised and rejected of all men; and so great was thy thirst for suffering, that thy generous heart was filled with joy in the midst of most painful torments and afflictions; I beseech thee, dear Saint, by the glory thou didst merit by thy manifold sufferings, intercede for me with Almighty God and obtain for me love of suffering, together with grace and strength to endure all tribulations and adversities with dauntless courage; for these are the sure means of coming into the possession of that crown of glory which is prepared for me in heaven. Ah yes, dear Saint, from that high and glorious throne where thou sittest triumphant, hear, I beseech thee, my earnest entreaties, that, following thee, I may become a lover of the Cross and of suffering, and thus may merit to be thy companion in glory. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence, once a month, under the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of this prayer (S. C. Ind., Jan. 30, 1828; S. P. Ap., May 20, 1934).

SAINT PIUS V, POPE AND CONFESSOR

466

Hymn

Belli tumultus ingruit

Wars and tumults fill the earth;
Men the fear of God despise;
Retribution, vengeance, wrath,
Brood upon the angry skies.

Holy Pius, Pope sublime!
Whom, in this most evil time—
Whom, of Saints in bliss, can we Better call to aid than thee?

None more mightily than thou
Hath, by holy deed or word,
Through the spacious earth below,
Spread the glory of the Lord.

Holy Pius, etc.

Thine it was, O Pontiff brave!
Pontiff of eternal Rome!
From barbaric yoke to save Terror-stricken Christendom.

Holy Pius, etc.

When Lepanto's gulf beheld,
Strewn upon its waters fair,
Turkey's countless navy yield
To the power of thy prayer.

Holy Pius, etc.

Who meanwhile with prophet's eye,
 Didst the distant battle see,
 And announce to standers-by
 That same moment's victory.

Holy Pius, etc.

Mightier now and glorified,
 Hear the suppliant cry we pour;
 Crush rebellion's haughty pride:
 Quell the din of rising war.

Holy Pius, etc.

At thy prayers may golden peace
 Down to earth descend again;
 License, discord, trouble cease;
 Justice, truth and order reign.

Holy Pius, etc.

To the Lord of endless days,
 One Almighty Trinity,
 Sempiternal glory, praise,
 Honor, might and blessing be. Amen.

(tr. E. Caswall).

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., Oct. 2, 1830; S. P. Ap., Feb. 15, 1932).

SAINT CAMILLUS OF LELLIS, CONFESSOR

468

A Devout Exercise

The faithful who pray devoutly on any Sunday in honor of Saint Camillus of Lellis, with the intention of so continuing for seven successive Sundays, are granted:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (S. C. Ind., Aug. 8, 1853; S. P. Ap., July 20, 1933).

NOTE: A prayer to St. Camillus for the sick is found under n. 622.

SAINT MICHAEL DE' SANTI, CONFESSOR

469

Prayer

O glorious Saint Michael, Seraph inflamed with the most ardent love of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, who didst spend thy nights and days in His real Presence and didst find there thy dearest joys, so that thou didst swoon away for very love: vouchsafe, I pray thee, to obtain for me a lively faith, a firm hope and an ardent love toward this inestimable Treasure, this precious Pledge of glory everlasting. May I thereby, all my life long, be counted among the true worshipers of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, and rejoice with thee to behold Him face to face in an eternity of bliss. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

An indulgence of 300 days (Pius IX, Rescript in his own hand, May 20, 1862; S. P. Ap., May 20, 1933).

XI

SAINT PAUL OF THE CROSS, CONFESSOR

470

A Devout Exercise

The faithful who perform their devotions in honor of St. Paul of the Cross, with the intention of repeating the same for nine successive days, may gain:

An indulgence of 3 years, once each day;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, at the end of the nine-days' exercise (Pius IX, Rescript in his own hand, Oct. 17, 1867; S. P. Ap., March 2, 1935).

A Prayer

O glorious Saint Paul of the Cross, on earth thou wast a mirror of innocence and a model of penance! O hero of saintliness, chosen by God to meditate day and night on the bitter passion of His only-begotten Son, and to spread devotion thereto by word and deed as well as by means of thy religious family! O Apostle, mighty in word and work, thou didst spend thy life in bringing back to the foot of the Cross the erring souls of countless unfortunate sinners! Do thou mercifully look down once more from heaven upon my poor soul and hear my petitions. Obtain for me so great a love of Jesus suffering, that by constant meditation on His passion I may make His sufferings mine. Let me realize in the deep Wounds of my Saviour the wickedness of my transgressions, and obtain from them, as from the fountain of salvation, the grace of bitter tears and an effectual resolution to imitate thee in thy penance, if I have not followed thine example of innocence. Obtain for me, also, Saint Paul, the favor that I now especially ask of thee, as I humbly kneel before thee . . . Obtain, moreover, for our holy Mother the Church, victory over Her foes; for sinners, the gift of conversion; for heretics, the grace of returning to the unity of the Catholic faith. Finally, intercede for me that I may, by the grace of God, die a holy death, and come at last to enjoy with thee

His blessed Presence in heaven for all eternity. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, once a month, for the daily recitation of this prayer in a spirit of devotion (Pius IX, Rescript in his own hand, April 29, 1863 and April 20, 1868; S. P. Ap., Sept. 12, 1933).

472

A Prayer

O glorious Saint Paul of the Cross, who, by meditating on the passion of Jesus Christ, didst attain to so high a degree of holiness on earth and of happiness in heaven, and, by preaching the same passion, didst offer anew to the world the most certain cure for all its ills, get us the grace to keep it ever deeply engraved in our hearts, that so we may be able to reap the same fruits both in time and in eternity. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, for the daily devout repetition of this prayer for a month (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, March 26, 1904; exhib. Sept. 17, 1904; S. P. Ap., Nov. 18, 1935).

XII

SAINT GREGORY VII, POPE AND CONFESSOR

473

A Prayer

O invincible defender of holy Church's freedom, Saint Gregory of great renown, by that firmness thou didst show in maintaining the Church's rights against the mighty ones of earth and hell when they were leagued together, stretch forth from heaven thy mighty arm, we beseech thee, to comfort her and defend her in the fearful battle she must ever wage with the powers of darkness. Do thou, in an especial manner, give strength in this dread conflict to the venerable Pontiff who has fallen heir not only to thy throne, but likewise to the fearlessness of thy mighty heart; obtain for him the joy of beholding his holy endeavors crowned by the triumph of the Church and the return of the lost sheep into the right path. Grant, finally, that the whole world may be persuaded, once for all, that it rages in vain against that faith which hath always conquered and is destined always to conquer: "this is the victory which overcometh the world, our faith". This is the prayer that we raise to thee with one accord; and we are confident, that, after thou hast heard our prayers on earth, thou wilt one day call us to stand with thee in heaven, before the eternal High Priest, who with the Father and the Holy Spirit liveth and reigneth world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., Feb. 4, 1873; S. P. Ap., June 20, 1933).

XIII

SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL, CONFESSOR

474

A Devout Exercise

The faithful who devoutly offer their prayers in honor of Saint Vincent de Paul, with the purpose of so doing for nine continuous days, may gain:

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, at the end of their novena (S. C. Ind., Nov. 26, 1876; S. P. Ap., Oct. 15, 1936).

475

A Prayer

O glorious Saint Vincent, heavenly patron of all charitable associations and father of all who are in misery, whilst thou wast on earth thou didst never cast out any who came to thee; ah, consider by what evils we are oppressed and come to our assistance! Obtain from thy Lord help for the poor, relief for the infirm, consolation for the afflicted, protection for the abandoned, a spirit of generosity for the rich, the grace of conversion for sinners, zeal for priests, peace for the Church, tranquility and order for all nations, and salvation for them all. Yea, let all men prove the effects of thy merciful intercession, so that, being helped by thee in the miseries of this life, we may be united to thee in the life to come, where there shall be no more grief, nor weeping, nor sorrow, but joy and gladness and everlasting happiness. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, for the daily devout recitation of this prayer (S. C. Ind., June 23, 1885; S. P. Ap., May 20, 1933).

Prayers

O wondrous pattern of Christian perfection, Saint Benedict Joseph, from thy earliest use of reason even to thy dying day, thou didst keep unspotted the white robe of innocence, and, forsaking all things and becoming a pilgrim on the earth, thou didst gain naught therefrom save only suffering, privations and reproaches. Miserable sinner that I am, I kneel at thy feet, and return thanks to the infinite goodness of the Most High God who hath willed to imprint on thee the living likeness of His crucified Son. At the same time I am filled with confusion when I consider how different is my life from thine. Do thou, beloved Saint, have pity on me! Offer thy merits before the throne of the Eternal, and get me the grace to follow thine example and to direct my actions according to the precepts and teachings of our divine Master: thus let me learn to love His sufferings and His humiliations, and to despise the pleasures and honors of earth: so that neither the fear of the former, nor the desire of the latter may ever induce me to transgress His holy law. May I merit in this manner to be acknowledged by Him and numbered amongst the blessed of His Father. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

V. Pray for us, O holy Benedict Joseph,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O God, who didst cause Thy holy confessor, Benedict Joseph, to cleave unto Thee alone by his zeal for humility and his love for poverty: grant unto us, by the help of his merits, to despise all things earthly and to seek evermore the things that are heavenly. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., Jan. 21, 1882; S. P. Ap., July 9, 1934).

A HYMN

O divi amoris victima

O victim dear of heavenly love,
Impurpled by thy fivefold sign,
Saint Francis, father of the poor,
Of Jesus' Cross a living shrine.

Thou, burning with the glowing flames
 Of love of God and love of man,
 Dost yearn for Christ to shed thy blood
 And thrice dost try the seas to span.

Although denied thy heart's desire,
 Thou lettest not thine ardour wane;
 But kindled still with love divine
 To stir new fires thou strivest amain.

Still living in thine Orders three,
 Thou art found in many a savage clime;
 And frozen hearts, warmed at thy flame,
 Grow fervent with thy fire sublime.

So shalt thou crush the powers of hell,
 Thy conquering arms our foes dismay;
 When holy Church doth seem to fail,
 Still is thy mighty strength her stay.

Come, help us, father, while we pray,
 Thy love within our hearts inspire,
 Thy boundless love, that spreads abroad
 The glowing brightness of its fire.

Praise we the Father and the Son,
 Praise we the Holy Paraclete:
 He grant us grace to emulate
 Our father's spirit, as is meet. Amen.

(tr. C. E. Spence).

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this hymn is recited daily for a month (S. C. Ind., Sept. 13, 1893; S. P. Ap., Dec. 5, 1932).

SAINT THOMAS AQUINAS, CONFESSOR

479

A Devout Exercise

The faithful who spend some time on Sunday in devout meditations and prayers, or other works of piety in honor of St. Thomas Aquinas, with the intention of continuing the same for six successive Sundays, may gain:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (S. C. Ind., Aug. 21, 1886).

Prayer

Angelic Doctor, Saint Thomas, prince of theologians and model of philosophers, bright ornament of the Christian world, light of the Church and patron of all Catholic schools, who didst learn wisdom diligently and dost communicate it liberally, pray for us to the Son of God who is Wisdom itself, that, by the coming of the Spirit of Wisdom upon us, we may clearly understand that which thou didst teach, and, by imitating thee, may bring to completion that which thou didst do; that we may be made partakers both of thy doctrine and thy holiness, whereby thou didst shine on earth even as the sun; and finally that we may enjoy with thee in heaven for evermore the most delectable fruits of the same, praising together with thee divine Wisdom through endless ages. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days, once a day.

A plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, when this prayer is said daily with devotion (S. C. Ind., July 3, 1885; S. P. Ap., Nov. 8, 1933).

SAINT ALPHONSUS M. DE' LIGUORI, BISHOP AND CONFESSOR

481

A Prayer

O my glorious and well-beloved patron, Saint Alphonsus, thou who didst toil and suffer so abundantly to assure to men the fruits of the Redemption, behold the miseries of my poor soul and have pity on me. By thy powerful intercession with Jesus and Mary, obtain for me true repentance for my sins together with their pardon and remission, a deep hatred of sin and strength evermore to resist all temptations. Share with me, I pray, at least a spark of that fire of love wherewith thy heart did ever burn; and grant that, following thy example, I may make the will of God the only rule of my life. Obtain for me likewise a fervent and lasting love of Jesus, and a tender and childlike devotion to Mary, together with the grace to pray without ceasing and to persevere in the service of God even to the end of my life, that so I may finally be united with thee in praising God and most holy Mary through all eternity. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this prayer is said devoutly every day for a month (S. C. Ind., June 18, 1887; S. P. Ap., Feb. 12, 1933).

XVIII

SAINT VINCENT FERRER, CONFESSOR

482

A Prayer

O glorious Apostle and wonder-worker, Saint Vincent Ferrer, new Angel of the Apocalypse and our loving patron, receive our humble prayer, and send down upon us a plentiful shower of divine favors. By the fire of love in thy heart, obtain for us from the Father of mercies the pardon and remission of all our sins, steadfastness in faith, and perseverance in good works, that so we may live as good and fervent Christians and become worthy of thy powerful patronage. Extend thy protection to our bodies also, and deliver us from sickness. Keep our fields from hurtful tempests and storms of hail, and banish all misfortunes far from us. Blessed by thy favors both in body and soul, we shall ever be thy devoted clients, and one day we shall come to heaven to join with thee in praising God through all eternity. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., Sept. 17, 1887; S. P. Ap., Jan. 20, 1931).

483

A Prayer

O Saint Vincent, glorious worker of miracles, who in thy lifetime didst convert so many sinners by preaching the last judgment, grant that we too, by meditating on the four last things, may be enabled to obtain from Almighty God through thine intercession the healing of all our spiritual maladies. Let thy heart be tender toward us, O mighty Saint: stretch forth thy hand over us, and obtain for us those graces for the welfare of both soul and body, which we so earnestly ask of thee. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., June 22, 1935).

THE SEVEN HOLY FOUNDERS OF THE ORDER OF THE SERVANTS OF MARY, CONFESSORS

484

A Prayer

Ye glorious Patriarchs, heroes of the highest sanctity, whereby ye were made worthy to be chosen by the very Mother of God to spread devotion to her sorrows. Forsaking the world, in the savage caverns of Monte Senario ye did crucify your flesh with unheard-of penances, and did nourish your spirit with constant meditation on the highest truths of our holy faith. In such wise did ye prepare yourselves for the mission entrusted to you and to your Order, namely, to root out vice and wickedness from the hearts of the faithful, by inspiring them with compassion toward the sorrows of the Blessed Virgin. Thereafter, bearing deeply imprinted in your hearts the memory of the passion of the Son of God and of the sorrows of His blessed Mother, ye strove to quiet civil discord, to convert sinners to repentance, and to bring back to the obedience of the Roman Pontiff those that had gone astray. Ah, from your thrones in glory, where ye now reign with Christ, turn your eyes in pity upon us who are still miserably struggling in this valley of trial and conflict! The devil, with all his wicked suggestions; the world, with all its seductions; the flesh, with all its lusts; all these, like roaring lions, surround us to devour us. Let pity for us fill your hearts; infuse into our hearts at least a portion of your tender and constant compassion for the sorrows of Mary, so that, at the sight of our Mother overwhelmed in grief, we may be enabled to resist the fascinations of vice and may not renew, by our sins, the passion of our divine Redeemer, which was the cause of Mary's sorrows. Obtain for us, likewise, docility and promptness in answering the divine call, detachment from the seeming goods of this world, the spirit of mortification and penance, to the end that, having followed on earth your example in the way of holiness and perfection, we may deserve to be your companions in heaven and to sing with you the mercies of our crucified Redeemer and the glories of the Queen of Martyrs. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, when this prayer has been recited daily for a month in a spirit of devotion (S. C. Ind., Feb. 22, 1888; S. P. Ap., Jan. 12, 1932).

485

Prayers

I. O glorious Patriarchs, even in the midst of the licentiousness of your age, ye kept ever burning the divine fire of charity and a tender love for the Queen of Heaven, whereby ye were made worthy to be called by her to go apart from the world. We humbly entreat you to intercede for us, that we too, being enkindled with the fire of divine love, may be enabled to please the Most High, and to imitate the charity and patience of our Lady of Sorrows; and even in the midst of adversity to conform ourselves to the dispositions of divine Providence.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

II. Ye shining examples of perfection, forsaking the world and all the prizes that it held out to you, with generous hearts ye desired to withdraw from the eyes of men, so that the Blessed Virgin herself made known to you in a dream the peace and quietude of Monte Senario. Obtain for us the grace to set at naught the deceitful and vain pleasures of earth and to devote ourselves to the practice of penance for our sins after your example; and if we are not worthy, as ye were, to serve the blessed Mother of Sorrows more especially in solitude, may we at least show our sorrow at having caused her to be so afflicted by our sins and thus renewing the bitter passion of her divine and only Son.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

III. Most humble dwellers in the rocky fastnesses of Monte Senario, how admirable is your heroic humility! That ye might imitate more fully the lowly handmaid of the Lord, not only did ye forget the nobility and greatness of your ancient families, but in your generosity ye did not disdain to go begging from door to door in your own country for your scanty sustenance. Ah, obtain for us that when there is question of the service of God we may not be held back by human respect. Even as ye merited on this account in most miraculous wise to be called the Servants of Mary by the mouth of infants and sucklings, so may we too, by being a source of edification and light to our brethren on the road to heaven, show ourselves by our deeds to be the devoted servants of the august Mother of God.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

IV. Ye faithful Servants of the Queen of Heaven, who, when ye were bitterly weeping for the sorrows suffered by her in the life, passion and death of her dear Son, did make known to you by the miraculous vine laden in the dead of winter with great clusters of grapes, that it was her will that the Order of Servites be extended in order to spread abroad in the Church compassion for her sufferings; ah, obtain for us by your intercession an affectionate and tender compassion for our Lady of Sorrows, for in this manner even we shall be enabled to bring our brethren to groan with heartfelt sorrow for their sins, and thus become fruitful branches in her mystic vineyard.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

V. Most glorious Founders of the Order of the Servants of the Blessed Virgin, with what joy your hearts were flooded when ye were made worthy to behold visibly the Queen of Martyrs herself, who revealed to you the rule ye should keep and the habit ye should wear in memory of her sorrows as well as the palm of victory ye should obtain as the crown of your merits. We beseech you to obtain for us of the Mother of fair love the grace to know in what manner we may best serve her divine Son, in order to come thus most easily into the possession of that blessed immortality which the mercy of God hath prepared for us in paradise.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

VI. Most austere penitents, by your continuous and most severe mortifications, ye became every day more rich in merits and more pleasing unto the Lord.

It is, therefore, no cause for wonder that heaven, in order to show how pleasing were your merits, made of Monte Senario a place of marvels, now surrounding it with flames that made it resplendent with light, again covering it with roses and lilies never seen before, that were plucked by the Angels and offered to Mary. We beseech you to intercede for us that our hearts may catch the flames of divine love and that our spirits may be cleansed from stain and become a garden rich in the flowers of virtue, worthy to be plucked by the most kind Queen of Heaven, as a lowly tribute of our devotion.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

VII. Angels of purity, Seraphim of love and martyrs of penance, ye blessed Patriarchs, privileged with a happy passing from this place of exile to your own true native land, one breathing forth his spirit as the Child Jesus appeared, another called audibly by Mary to his eternal repose, this one rising to glory under the appearance of a flame, that one under the aspect of a lily of purest white; ah, grant, we beseech you, that when we have come to our last hour, we may be protected by your intercession with our Lady of Sorrows in that dread moment against the wiles of the ancient serpent, and may be made worthy to breathe forth our spirits into the loving hands of the august Queen of Sorrows, and be conducted by her to eternal bliss in God, the everlasting Fountain of glory and holiness.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, if these petitions are recited daily with devotion (S. C. Ind., April 21, 1888; S. P. Ap., Jan. 12, 1932).

XX

SAINT JOHN BERCHMANS, CONFESSOR

486

Devout Practices

a) The faithful on any one of the five Sundays immediately preceding the Feast of St. John Berchmans, if they say prayers in honor of this Saint, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions (S. C. Ind., May 17, 1890; S. P. Ap., Feb. 22, 1921 and March 18, 1932).

b) The faithful who visit with devotion a church where the Feast of St. John Berchmans is being kept, may gain:

A plenary indulgence, if they make their confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the intentions of the Roman Pontiff.

c) The faithful on any of the nine days immediately preceding the Feast of St. John Berchmans, if they say some devout prayers in honor of the Saint, may gain:

An indulgence of 500 days once a day;

A plenary indulgence on the completion of the novena, under the usual conditions.

d) The faithful who devoutly say Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be, together with the invocation, "Saint John, pray for me," before a likeness of the Saint, may gain:

An indulgence of 300 days;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, provided that they perform this act of devotion daily for one month (S. P. Ap., Sept. 26, 1936).

487

Prayers

Saint John, angelic youth, sweet-scented flower of innocence, stalwart soldier of the Company of Jesus, ardent defender of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin, whom the all-wise Providence of God hath set forth as a light and pattern, in order that He might reveal in thee the treasures of that holiness which consisteth in the devoted and holy fulfilment of the common duties of life, I earnestly beseech thee to make me ever constant and faithful in observing the duties of my state of life, pure in heart, fearless and strong against the enemies of my eternal salvation, and cheerfully obedient to the promptings of God's holy will. By thy singular devotion to the loving Mother of Jesus Christ, who looked upon thee also as her dear son, obtain for me the grace of a fervent love for Jesus and Mary, together with the power of drawing many others to love them in like manner. Wherefore, dear Saint John, I choose thee as my special patron, humbly beseeching thee to make me zealous in the things that pertain to the praise of God, and to assist me by thy mighty help, to lead a life filled with good works. Finally, when the hour of death cometh, do thou, of thy loving kindness, cherish in me those motions of humble confidence, which, at the moment of thy departure from this world to thy mansion in the skies, as thou didst lovingly clasp to thy breast the image of Jesus Crucified, together with Mary's rosary and thy book of rules, impelled thee to utter these sweet words: "These three things are my dearest possessions; with these I am content to die."

V. Pray for us, Saint John,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord God, unto Thy faithful servants, to copy the pattern of innocence and faithfulness in Thy service, wherewith the angelic youth, John, did consecrate to Thee the very flower of his years. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days, once a day.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this prayer is said with devotion every day for an entire month (S. P. Ap., Feb. 22, 1921 and May 20, 1935).

O angélice iúvenis Ioánnes, innocéntiæ flos suaviter fragrans, in Societáte Iesu miles strénue, immaculátæ Conceptionis beatíssimæ Vírginis propugnátor ardentíssime, quem próvidens Dei sapiéntia lumen et exémpLAR propósuit ut thesáuros eius sanctitátis reveláret quæ in commúnis vitæ rebus pie sanctéque præstándis est constitúta, te veheménter déprecor, ut me reddas in officiis vitæ meæ servándis constánter fidélem, corde purum, contra salutis ætérnæ hostes impávidum et fortem, divínæ voluntátis mónita prompto ánimo exsequéntem. SAINT LOUIS, BISHOP AND CONFESSOR

488

A Prayer

To thee do we have recourse in prayer, Saint Louis, lily of virginity, bright and shining star, and vessel of holiness. Through thine intercession pour forth the blessings of heaven upon the Catholic nations to which thou art allied, and over which thou hast been set by God as their protector. Do thou entreat Almighty God and the immaculate Virgin, that the Christian peoples may once again be quickened by the faith of their fathers, that charity may burn fervently amongst them, and that their way of life may be made conformable to the law of God. Obtain true peace and concord for both rulers and people, the victory of our holy Mother the Church over her enemies, perfect freedom for the Vicar of Christ in his sacred government of souls, and eternal happiness in heaven for all of us who implore thy mighty assistance. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., June 12, 1894; S. P. Ap., Dec. 12, 1933).

Ad te supplices confugimus, sancte Ludovice, lilium virginitatis, stella fulgens et vas sanctitatis. Supra catholicas nationes quibus affinitate coniungaris, et quarum a Deo protector es constitutus, caelestes gratias intercessione diffunde. Deum ac immaculatam Virginem deprecare, ut in christiano populo avorum fides rursus excitetur, ferveat caritas morisque componantur. Intercede veram principibus ac civibus concordiam, sanctae Matri Ecclesiae contra hostes triumphum, Christi in terris Vicario plenam in sacro animarum regimine libertatem nobisque ómnibus tuum implorántibus auxiliúm æté-nam in cælo felicitátem. Amen.

XXII

SAINT ANTHONY, ABBOT AND CONFESSOR

489

A Prayer

O glorious Saint Anthony, who, upon hearing only one word of the holy Gospel whilst assisting at the divine Liturgy, didst forsake the riches and ease of thy father's house, thy native land and the world, in order to retire into the wilderness; who, notwithstanding the heavy burden of years and the ravages of a lifetime of penance, didst not hesitate to leave thy solitude and go up to Alexandria in Egypt to reproach openly the impiety of heretics and to strengthen the wavering faith of Christians, as a true confessor of Jesus Christ, eager to receive the palm of martyrdom, had thy Lord permitted it; ah, get us the grace to be ever zealous in the cause of Jesus Christ and of His Church, and to persevere even to the end of our days in our adherence to Catholic truth, in the observance of His commandments, in the practice of His counsels and in the imitation of thy virtues; that so, having faithfully followed thine example here on earth, we may come to marvel at thy glory in heaven and to be partakers of the same, through all the ages. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be three times.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., June 3, 1896; S. P. Ap., May 9, 1934).

XXIII

SAINT ANTHONY OF PADUA, CONFESSOR

490

Devout Practices

a) The faithful who devoutly recite Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be, thirteen times in honor of St. Anthony of Padua, may gain:

An indulgence of 300 days once a day (S. C. Ind., June 9, 1896; S. P. Ap., Nov. 18, 1935).

b) The faithful who spend some time in devout meditations or prayers, or who perform some other acts of piety in honor of St. Anthony of Padua, on Tuesday or Sunday of any week, with the intention of so doing for thirteen Tuesdays or Sundays without interruption, may gain:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (Brief, March 1, 1898).

A ResponsorySi quæris miracula

If, then, thou seekest miracles,
 Death, error, all calamities,
 The leprosy and demons flee,
 The sick, by him made whole, arise.

The sea withdraws and fetters break,
 And withered limbs he doth restore,
 While treasures lost are found again,
 When young or old his help implore.

All dangers vanish from our path,
 Our direst needs do quickly flee;
 Let those who know repeat the theme:
 Let Paduans praise Saint Anthony.

492

A Prayer of Petition

Owondrous Saint Anthony, glorious by reason of the fame of thy miracles, who hadst the happiness of receiving within thine arms our blessed Lord under the guise of a little child, obtain for me of His bounty this favor that I desire from the bottom of my heart. Thou who wast so gracious unto poor sinners, regard not the lack of merit on the part of him who calls upon thee, but consider the glory of God, which will be exalted once more through thee, to the salvation of my soul and the granting of the petition that I now make with such ardent yearning.

As a pledge of my gratitude, I beg thee to accept my promise to live henceforth more agreeably to the teachings of the Gospel, and to be devoted to the service of the poor whom thou didst ever love and still dost love so greatly; bless this my resolution and get me the grace to be faithful thereto even until death. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of this prayer (Leo XIII, Audience, May 6, 1899; S. C. Ind., May 15, 1899 and Dec. 7, 1936).

A Prayer of Thanksgiving

O glorious wonder-worker, Saint Anthony, father of the poor and comforter of the afflicted, thou who hast come with such loving solicitude to my assistance, and hast comforted me so abundantly: behold me at thy feet to offer thee my heartfelt thanks. Accept, therefore, this offering and with it my earnest promise which I now renew, to live always in the love of Jesus and my neighbor. Continue to shield me graciously with thy protection, and obtain for me the final grace of being able one day to enter the kingdom of heaven, there to sing with thee the everlasting mercies of God. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence, on the usual conditions, if the prayer has been devoutly recited every day for an entire month (S. C. Ind., July 13, 1896; S. P. Ap., March 4, 1933).

XXIV

SAINT JOHN OF MATHA, CONFESSOR

494

A Prayer

Glorious Saint John of Matha, thou wast inflamed with an ardent love of God and a tender compassion toward thy neighbor, and therefore wast chosen by God Himself to found the famous Order of the Most Holy Trinity, wherein thou didst spend thy days in glorifying this venerable mystery and in rescuing unhappy Christians from bondage; do thou obtain for us the grace to pass our days in like manner, glorifying the Most Holy Trinity and doing good to our neighbor with the deeds of Christian charity, that so we may hereafter obtain the happy lot of rejoicing in heaven in the Beatific Vision of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days once a day.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, when this prayer has been devoutly recited every day for a month (S. C. Ind., March 16, 1897; S. P. Ap., Sept. 20, 1931).

XXV

SAINT PETER FOURIER, CONFESSOR

495

A Prayer

Most glorious Saint Peter Fourier, lily of purity, pattern of Christian perfection, perfect model of priestly zeal, by that glory which, as the guerdon of thy merits, has been granted thee in heaven, turn one kind glance upon us and come to our assistance before the throne of the Most High. Whilst living on earth thou didst have as thy chief characteristic that maxim which was so often on thy lips: "to harm no one and to help everyone," and armed with this, thou didst spend thine entire life in giving aid to the wretched, counsel to the doubtful, and consolation to the afflicted; thou didst draw back to the paths of virtue those who had gone astray, thus bringing to Jesus Christ the souls redeemed by His Precious Blood. Now that thou art so powerful in heaven, continue thy task of giving help to all and be our watchful defender, so that, through thine intercession, we, being delivered from all temporal misfortunes and confirmed in our faith and in our love, may be victors over the wiles of the enemies of our salvation, and may be enabled one day with thee to praise and bless our Lord through all eternity. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month, on the usual conditions, if this devout prayer is said daily (S. C. Ind., May 27, 1897; S. P. Ap., June 26, 1934).

XXVI

SAINT JOSEPH CALASANCTIUS, CONFESSOR

496

A Prayer

Saint Joseph Calasanctius, defender of children and young people, great servant of our Lord, who didst work such marvels in their behalf; thou who, having made thyself a mirror for them of burning charity, of unwearied patience, of deep humility, of angelic purity and of every other heroic virtue, by a holy example, by words full of the Spirit of God, didst inspire them to flee dangerous occasions, to hate sin, to detest vicious courses, and to love piety and devotion, and thus didst guide countless souls to heaven; thou who didst obtain for them the visible benediction of the Child Jesus and His holy Mother, obtain the like for us, thy humble and devoted servants; thou who art our mighty advocate and most loving father, obtain for us a lasting hatred for sin, victory in the midst of temptation, and help in time of danger, so that, by living in the perfect observance of the law of God, we may attain to eternal salvation. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this prayer is said with devotion every day for a month (Leo XIII, Audience, Oct. 19, 1897; S. P. Ap., April 12, 1932).

XXVII

SAINT BLASE, BISHOP AND MARTYR

497

A Prayer

O glorious Saint Blase, who by thy martyrdom didst leave to the Church a precious witness to the faith, obtain for us the grace to preserve within ourselves this divine gift, and to defend, without human respect, both by word and example, the truth of that same faith, which is so wickedly attacked and slandered in these our times. Thou who didst miraculously restore a little child when it was at the point of death by reason of an affliction of the throat, grant us thy mighty protection in like misfortunes; and, above all, obtain for us the grace of Christian mortification together with a faithful observance of the precepts of the Church, which may keep us from offending Almighty God. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. of the Propagation of the Faith, exhib. Aug. 16, 1902; S. P. Ap., March 20, 1936).

XXVIII

SAINT STEPHEN, PROTOMARTYR

498

Prayers

Ant. The Apostles chose Stephen the deacon, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, whom the Jews stoned whilst he prayed, saying: "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit, and lay not this sin to their charge."

V. By the merits and prayers of blessed Stephen,

R. Be merciful, O God, to Thy people.

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, who didst consecrate the first-fruits of Thy martyrs in the blood of blessed Stephen the deacon; grant, we beseech Thee, that he may pray for us, even as he also prayed for his persecutors, to our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who liveth and reigneth world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days once a day.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions on the two Feast-days of St. Stephen (Aug. 3 and Dec. 26), if this antiphon together with its versicle and collect is said devoutly on each of the nine days immediately preceding either of the above-mentioned days (S. C. Ind., Jan. 3, 1904 and June 8, 1904).

Ant. Elegérunt Apóstoli Stéphanum levítam, plenum fide et Spíritu Sancto, quem lapidavérunt Iudæi orántem et dicéntem: "Dómine Iesu, áccipe spíritum meum, et ne státuas illis hoc peccátum".

V. Méritis et précibus beáti Stéphani,

R. Propítius esto, Dómine, pópulo tuo.

Orémus.

Omnípotens sempitérne Deus, qui primítias Mártýrum in beáti Levítæ Stéphani sánguine dedicásti; tríbe, quæsumus, ut pro nobis intercéssor exsístat, qui pro suis étiam persecutóribus exorávit Dóminum nostrum Iesum Christum Fílium tuum, qui vivit et regnat in sæcula sæculórum. Amen.

XXIX

SAINT HOMOBONUS, CONFESSOR

499

A Prayer

Our defender, father of the poor, pattern of meekness, prayer and devotion, by the charity wherewith thou didst love God above all things, and that generous love which led thee to assist the poor, make intercession for us to our Saviour, in order that we, by imitating here on earth thy virtues and, above all, thy spirit of charity, may be enabled to attain one day to thy company and that of all the Saints in blessing and praising the Lord of glory in our heavenly homeland. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (Brief, Feb. 8, 1904; S. P. Ap., May 12, 1934).

XXX

SAINT JOHN BAPTIST DE LA SALLE, CONFESSOR

500

A Prayer

O glorious John Baptist de la Salle, Apostle of children and young folk, be thou, from the heights of heaven, our guide and our patron. Offer thy prayers for us and help us, that we may be kept free from every stain of error and corruption, and remain ever faithful to Jesus Christ and to the infallible Head of His Church. Grant that we, practising the virtues of which thou hast been so wondrous an example, may be made partakers of thy glory in heaven, our true country. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual terms, if this prayer is said with devotion daily for a month (S. C. Ind., Nov. 28, 1906; S. P. Ap., Sept. 25, 1935).

XXXI

SAINT DOMINIC, CONFESSOR

501

A Devout Exercise

The faithful who on Tuesday of each week spend some time in devout meditations or prayers in honor of St. Dominic or perform some other act of piety, with the intention of repeating this act of homage for fifteen continuous Tuesdays, may obtain:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (S. C. Holy Office, May 6, 1915 and Nov. 25, 1915; S. P. Ap., May 20, 1935).

502

Prayers

I. My Lord Jesus Christ, who didst found Thy Church with Thy Most Precious Blood and, by the preaching of the Apostles, didst establish it, propagate it and extend it throughout the whole world; and after them didst send the holy Patriarch Dominic to adorn it, enlighten it and defend it by the splendor of his merits and doctrine; vouchsafe to hear the prayers incessantly offered by that apostolic man for the increase of the spiritual goods and the temporal welfare of the same Thy Church.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

II. Most merciful Redeemer, who didst choose Saint Dominic to labor with Thee in the saving of souls, and he, by his zeal and Thy grace, won over to the Church so many heretics who were separated from her, and so many sinners who had grieved her by their evil lives; O my God, do thou send new laborers always into Thy vineyard to work for Thy glory and to gather in the fruits of everlasting life.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

III. O good Jesus, who didst delight to see Saint Dominic kneeling every night before Thine altar, adoring Thee hidden in the Blessed Sacrament with lively faith and offering in turn groans, prayers and penances in behalf of the Church, at that time persecuted by her enemies and profaned by her own children; defend this Thy Spouse through the intercession of Saint Dominic from the insults and the plots of the infernal enemy of mankind.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

V. Pray for us, Saint Dominic,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we who are weighed down by the burden of our sins, may be raised up by the patronage of blessed Dominic Thy Confessor. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, when these prayers are recited daily for a month (S. C. Ind., July 21, 1883; S. P. Ap., March 16, 1934).

XXXII

SAINT PASCHAL BAYLON, CONFESSOR

503

ResponsoryPaschalis admirabilis

Paschal, illustrious is thy name,
 But brighter glows thy virtue's fame;
 With many a sign thy works are crowned;
 Through thee God's gifts to men abound.
 From Heaven look down, we humbly pray,
 On us who seek thine aid this day;
 Remove the evil that we dread,
 And grant us what we ask instead.
 And when to Heaven's high feast we go,
 The nuptial robe on us bestow,
 That Christ our strength and food may be,
 In death and for eternity.
 From Heaven look down, etc.
 Glory be to the Father, etc.
 From Heaven look down, etc. (Anon.).
V. Pray for us, O blessed Paschal,
R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O God, who hast glorified blessed Paschal Thy Confessor by a wonderful love for the sacred mysteries of Thy Body and Blood: mercifully grant that we also, like him, may deserve to taste the spiritual sweetness of this divine Supper: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days once a day.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, for the daily and devout recitation of this responsory together with its versicles and collect through an entire month (S. P. Ap., Aug. 3, 1917) .

XXXIII

SAINT GABRIEL OF THE SORROWFUL MOTHER, CONFESSOR

504

Devout Practices

- a) The faithful who visit in the spirit of devotion a church where the Feast of St. Gabriel of the Sorrowful Mother is being kept, may gain:

A plenary indulgence, on condition of confession, Holy Communion and prayer for the intentions of the Roman Pontiff.

b) The faithful, who devoutly recite Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be, adding the invocation, "Saint Gabriel, pray for me," before a representation of St. Gabriel of the Sorrowful Mother, may gain:

An indulgence of 300 days;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if they perform this devout exercise daily for a month (S. P. Ap., Sept. 25, 1936).

505

A Prayer of Petition

Let us adore and give thanks to God the Father everlasting, who, of the great love He bore us, was pleased to send His only-begotten Son into the world to suffer and die on the gibbet of the Cross; and let us beseech Him, for the sake of His passion and death and by the intercession of Saint Gabriel, that most loving follower of our crucified Lord, to grant us the favor for which we pray

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

Let us adore and give thanks to God the eternal Son, who, becoming man and dying for us upon the Cross, left us Mary most holy to be our Mother; and let us beseech Him, by the merits of this sorrowful Virgin Mother and by the intercession of Saint Gabriel, who was her most devoted servant, to grant us the favor for which we pray

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

Let us adore and give thanks to God the eternal Spirit, who of His infinite goodness communicates Himself to our souls to make them holy; and let us beseech Him, by the merit of the same divine goodness and by the intercession of Saint Gabriel, who in a special manner shared therein and corresponded thereto, to grant us the favor for which we pray. . . .

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

℣. Pray for us, Saint Gabriel,

℟. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O God, who didst teach blessed Gabriel to have the sorrows of Thy most dear Mother in perpetual remembrance, and through her didst glorify him with the fame of holiness and miracles; grant unto us, by his intercession and example, so to share the sorrows of Thy Mother that we may be saved by her maternal protection: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days once a day.

A plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, when this devout prayer has been recited daily (S. P. Ap., Oct. 25, 1920 and July 20, 1934).

XXXIV

SAINT PHILIP NERI, CONFESSOR

506

Invocation

Lowly Saint Philip, make intercession to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God for me.

An indulgence of 100 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this invocation is devoutly repeated every day for a month (S. P. Ap., April 7, 1921).

Húmilis sancte Philíppe, deprecáre immaculátam Vírginem ac Dei Genitrícem pro me.

Prayers for Every Day of the Week

SUNDAY

A prayer to obtain the virtue of humility

O my glorious Patron, Saint Philip, who, whilst living on this earth, wast so great a lover of humility as to despise not only the praises of men but even their good opinion, obtain for me also this lovely virtue. Thou seest how proud I am in my thoughts, how disdainful in my words, how ambitious in my deeds. Ah, obtain for me a humble heart, and let my mind be freed from all that savors of pride, and be deeply impressed with that humble opinion of self so characteristic of thee; for thou didst esteem thyself the lowest of mankind, and not only didst thou rejoice at being despised, but thou didst even seek the contempt of men. Obtain for me, great Saint, true humility of heart and a clear knowledge of my own nothingness; may I too rejoice at being despised, and feel no resentment when others are preferred before me; let me not be filled with pride when I am praised; let me seek only to be great in the sight of God and to receive all my exaltation from Him only.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

MONDAY

A prayer to obtain the virtue of patience

O Philip, my holy advocate, thou whose heart was ever so constant in adversity and whose spirit was so eager for suffering that, whether persecuted by the envious or slandered by the malevolent who sought to discredit thee, or tried by thy Lord with many lasting and painful infirmities, thou didst endure all these afflictions with admirable tranquillity of heart and mind; obtain for me also the spirit of fortitude in all the adversities of this life. How much I stand in need of the virtue of patience! I am troubled at every slight difficulty, vexed in spirit at every small affliction, and am filled with indignation and resentment at the least contradiction; I do not yet realize that it is only by the thorny path of tribulation that we must journey to heaven. This is the path that our divine Master Jesus willed to tread; and thou, too, dear Saint, didst follow in His steps.

Get me courage, therefore, to embrace with joy the crosses that I receive each day from Almighty God, and let me prove myself worthy to carry them with patience and a willing spirit even as thou didst carry thine on earth. May I thereby be made worthy to enjoy the blessed fruit of suffering together with thee in heaven above.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

TUESDAY

A prayer to obtain the virtue of purity

O glorious Saint Philip, who didst keep the white lily of purity ever unsullied in such wise that the glory of this fair virtue gave light to thine eyes, beauty to thy hands and radiance to thy whole body, causing it to shed a perfume so sweet that it gave comfort, fervor and devotion to all who conversed with thee; obtain for me from the Spirit of God a sincere love for this fair virtue, so that neither the evil discourses nor the sinful examples of the vicious may be able to make any impression on my spirit. Never permit me to lose this lovely virtue in any wise; and just as flight from dangerous occasions, prayer, labor, humility, mortification of the senses and the frequent reception of the Sacraments were the means whereby thou didst overcome our formidable enemy, the flesh, so do thou obtain for me, I beseech thee, that these same means may be the weapons wherewith I shall be able to put to flight the assaults of the same enemy. Take not away thy help from me; and show that zeal toward me which thou hadst for thy penitents during life, keeping them safe from every stain of the senses. Grant this, O holy advocate, and be my patron in preserving this fair virtue.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

WEDNESDAY

A prayer to obtain the love of God

I marvel, Saint Philip, at the great wonder wrought in thee by the Holy Spirit, when He poured His love into thy heart in such fulness, that in order to contain it, two of thy ribs were broken by the violence of that love; but I am likewise filled with confusion when I compare my heart to thine. Thy heart was all on fire with the purest love of God, while mine is altogether cold and devoted to creatures; thy heart was so enkindled with fire from heaven, that its flames overflowed even into thy body and issued forth from thy face like sparks of fire, while my heart is full of the love of earth. Unhappily I love the world and its allurements, but these cannot make me happy; I love the flesh, which flatters me, but cannot give me undying life; I love riches, but I can enjoy them only for an instant. When shall I learn from thee to love nothing save God, my only and infinite Good? Grant, my blessed patron, that through thine intercession, I may begin to love Him from this day forth; obtain for me an effectual love that shall show itself in deeds; a pure love that shall stir me up to love Him perfectly; a mighty love that shall enable me to overcome every obstacle that could hinder my union with Him during this life, so that I may remain united to Him after death.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

THURSDAY

A prayer to obtain the love of one's neighbor

Most glorious Saint, who didst spend thyself in the service of thy neighbor, esteeming all, compassionating all, assisting all, and who through all thy life didst labor for the salvation of all and didst never shrink from toil or weariness, keeping neither time nor any convenience for thyself, but striving to win all to God: obtain for me, I pray, not only the forgiveness of my sins, but also a spirit of love toward my neighbors, enabling me to be compassionate toward their necessities; obtain for me, likewise, the grace to love all men as my brothers with a pure and disinterested love, assisting them all, if not with material help, at least by my prayers and good counsel. Teach me also to defend the honor of my neighbor on every occasion, and never to say a word to displease him or injure him. Let me always preserve that sweetness of spirit toward mine enemies which enabled thee to triumph over thy persecutors. Yes, dear Saint, obtain for me this fair virtue, even as thou hast obtained it for so many of thy devout clients, in order that we may all one day come to praise Almighty God in a blessed eternity.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

FRIDAY

A prayer to obtain detachment from earthly goods

O great Saint, who didst choose a life of poverty and obscurity in preference to the comforts of thy home and station, the honor and glory of which displeased thee even as a child, obtain for me the grace of keeping my heart ever detached from the transitory goods of this life. Thou whose desire it ever was to become so poor as one day to beg thy bread, and to find no one to offer thee a crumb wherewith to support life: ask of God for me such a love of poverty, that I may turn all my thoughts to the goods of eternity. Thou who didst prefer a humble station in life, rather than to be advanced to the highest honors of the Church, intercede for me that I may never seek exalted rank, but may be content with that station to which it hath pleased God to call me. My heart is too solicitous for the vain and fleeting things of this world; do thou, who didst teach an important lesson with thy words: "And then"? which brought about so many wonderful conversions, obtain for me in like manner the grace of having them always before my eyes, that, too, I may despise the nothingness of this world and may make Almighty God the only object of my thoughts and affections.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

SATURDAY

A prayer to obtain perseverance in well-doing

O my blessed advocate, Saint Philip, thou who didst persevere to the end in virtue, and full of merits didst receive from Almighty God a crown of glory as the reward of thy labors, obtain for me the grace to be unwearied in His holy service. Thou who didst reward those who loved thee by obtaining for them the grace of perseverance in well-doing, obtain the same grace for me; give me thy help in my last battle at the hour of death, and get me the grace to depart this life strengthened by the holy Sacraments. Meanwhile, make intercession for me, great Saint, that I may repent of all my sins and weep bitterly for them all the days of my life. Thou, who seest my miseries and the many fetters that still chain me to sin and to the earth, obtain for me deliverance therefrom and a firm resolution to be devoted to my God. Get me likewise a burning desire to cooperate in my own salvation and an unfailing constancy in the good work that I have begun, so that, by thy intercession, I may worthily enjoy thy fellowship in a blessed eternity.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

An indulgence of 300 days for each prayer.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if these prayers are said devoutly for four continuous weeks (S. C. Ind., May 17, 1852; S. P. Ap., Jan. 12, 1932).

XXXV

SAINT FIDELIS OF SIGMARINGEN

PROTOMARTYR OF THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH

508

Responsory

Fidelis vir tu nomine

Thy name, Fidelis, doth proclaim
 Thy living faith and doctrine's fame;
 False teachers bow before thy word,
 Thy blood bears witness to thy Lord.

Let Heaven's light, to thee we pray,
 Within our hearts and minds hold sway;
 Let faith and hope and holy love
 Shine in us brightly from above.

Through thee the halt, the lame, the blind,
 New health and strength and light do find;
 To speechless tongues, speech thou dost give;
 Thou makest dying infants live.

Let Heaven's light, to thee we pray,
 Within our hearts and minds hold sway:
 Let faith and hope and holy love
 Shine in us brightly from above.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
 And to the Holy Ghost.

Let heaven's light, to thee we pray,
 Within our hearts and minds hold sway.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
 world without end. Amen.

Let faith and hope and holy love
 Shine in us brightly from above.

(tr. C. E. Spence).

Antiphon. Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

V. Pray for us, O blessed Fidelis,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O God, who has vouchsafed to glorify blessed Fidelis, inflamed with seraphic ardor of spirit, with the palm of martyrdom and the fame of miracles in the propagation of the true faith: by his merits and intercession, we beseech Thee so to strengthen us by Thy grace in faith and charity, that we may deserve to be found faithful in Thy service unto death.
 Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days, once a day.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this responsory, together with the versicles and collect, is said with devotion every day for a month (S. P. Ap., May 1, 1923 and July 21, 1935).

XXXVII

SAINT NICHOLAS, BISHOP AND CONFESSOR

510

Invocation

Saint Nicholas, glorious Confessor of Christ, assist us in thy loving kindness.

An indulgence of 100 days (S. P. Ap., Jan. 28, 1924).

Sancte Nicolæe, Confessor Christi gloriose, adesto nobis pius ac propitius.

511

A Prayer of Impetration

Glorious Saint Nicholas, my special patron, from thy throne in glory where thou dost enjoy the presence of God, turn thine eyes in pity upon me and obtain for me from our Lord the graces and helps that I need in my spiritual and temporal necessities (and especially this favor, provided that it be profitable to my salvation). Be mindful, likewise, O glorious and saintly Bishop, of our Sovereign Pontiff, of Holy Church, and of all Christian people. Bring back to the right way of salvation all those who are living steeped in sin and blinded by the darkness of ignorance, error and heresy. Comfort the afflicted, provide for the needy, strengthen the fearful, defend the oppressed, give health to the infirm; cause all men to experience the effects of thy powerful intercession with the supreme Giver of every good and perfect gift. Amen.

ANGELS AND SAINTS

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

V. Pray for us, O blessed Nicholas,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O God, who hast glorified blessed Nicholas, Thine illustrious Confessor and Bishop, by means of countless signs and wonders, and who dost not cease daily so to glorify him; grant, we beseech Thee, that we, being assisted by his merits and prayers, may be delivered from the fires of hell and from all dangers. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Jan. 28, 1924 and May 17, 1932).

XXXVIII

SAINT FRANCIS OF PAOLA, CONFESSOR

512

A Devout Exercise

The faithful on any of thirteen consecutive Fridays which they purpose to devote to the pious exercise known as "The Thirteen Fridays in honor of St. Francis of Paola," which consists of the recitation of the Our Father and the Hail Mary thirteen times on each Friday, if they complete the aforesaid recitation, may gain:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (Brief, Dec. 8, 1928).

XXXIX

SAINT PEREGRINE LAZIOSI, CONFESSOR

513

A Prayer

O glorious wonder-worker, Saint Peregrine, thou who didst answer the divine call with a ready spirit, forsaking all the comforts of a life of ease and all the empty honors of the world, to dedicate thyself to God in the Order of His most holy Mother; thou who didst labor manfully for the salvation of souls, meriting the title of "Apostle of Emilia"; thou who, in union with Jesus crucified, didst endure the most painful sufferings with such patience as to deserve to be healed miraculously by Him with a touch of His divine hand from an incurable wound in thy leg: obtain for us, we pray, the grace to answer every call from God; enkindle in our hearts a consuming zeal for the salvation of souls; deliver us from the infirmities that so often afflict our wretched bodies; and get us the grace of perfect resignation to the sufferings which it shall please Him to send us; so may we, imitating thy virtues and tenderly loving our crucified Lord and His sorrowful Mother, be enabled to merit glory everlasting in paradise. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., April 26, 1932 and Sept. 9, 1936).

XL

SAINT LAWRENCE, MARTYR

514

Prayers

O glorious Saint Lawrence, Martyr and Deacon, who, being subjected to the most bitter torments, didst not lose thy faith nor thy constancy in confessing Jesus Christ; obtain in like manner for us such an active and solid faith, that we shall never be ashamed to be true followers of Jesus Christ, and fervent Christians in word and in deed.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

V. Pray for us, O holy Lawrence,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, the grace to quench the flames of our wicked desires, who didst give unto blessed Lawrence power to be more than conqueror in his fiery torments. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days, once a day.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if these prayers are said devoutly every day for a month (S. P. Ap., Nov. 22, 1934).

XLI

SAINT PANCRATIUS, MARTYR

515

A Prayer

O glorious Saint Panacratius, who, in the flower of youth, which for thee was especially rich in the promises of the world, didst renounce all, with true greatness of mind, to embrace the faith and to serve our Lord Jesus Christ in a spirit of burning love and profound humility; and who didst joyfully offer thy life for Him in a sublime martyrdom: now that thou art all-powerful with Him, hear our prayers. Obtain for us a lively faith that shall be a shining light upon our earthly path; an ardent love of God above all things and of our neighbor as ourselves; a spirit of detachment from the good things of earth and a contempt for the vanities of this world; the grace of true humility in the exemplary profession of the Christian life. We pray thee in especial manner for all young men. Remember that thou art the patron of youth; do thou, therefore, by thine intercession, make all young men clean of heart and fervent in piety, and bring them safe to our Lord. Do thou obtain for all of us the happiness of heaven. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., March 1, 1935; Dec. 12, 1936)

SAINT ELIZABETH, WIDOW

516

A Prayer

Dear Saint Elizabeth, chosen vessel of the highest virtues, thou didst show to the world, by thy shining example, what things can be wrought in a Christian soul by charity, faith and humility.

Thou didst make use of all the powers of thy soul in loving thy God alone; thou didst love Him with a love so pure and fervent that thou wast made worthy to enjoy upon earth a foretaste of those heavenly favors and blessings that are bestowed upon the souls invited to the marriage of the adorable Lamb of God.

Illuminated by supernatural light and resolute faith, thou didst show thyself to be a true child of the Gospel, giving refreshment to Jesus Christ in the person of thy neighbor and making Him the only object of thy love. Hence, thou didst find all thy joy in conversing with the poor and needy, serving them, wiping away all tears from their eyes, consoling them and assisting them with all manner of kindly offices in sickness and in the other miseries to which our human nature is subject.

Thou thyself becamest poor in order to relieve poverty in thy neighbor: poor, that is to say, in the goods of this world, in order to be made rich in the goods of heaven.

So great was thy humility that thou didst exchange thy royal throne for a miserable hovel, and thy queenly attire for the lowly habit of the seraphic St. Francis; thou didst, moreover, subject thyself, though sinless, to a life of privation and penance, and didst embrace with holy joy the Cross of our divine Saviour, accepting gladly, after His divine example, the insults and unjust persecutions of thy fellow-men. In such wise didst thou forget the world and thyself in order to remember God alone.

O most amiable Saint, the object of God's predilection, vouchsafe to protect our souls and help us to become ever more acceptable to Jesus. From the heights of heaven, turn thy pitying eyes upon us, thine eyes one look of which sufficed on earth to heal the most distressing maladies of thy people.

In this our age, which is so wicked and corrupt, so indifferent to the things of God, we run to thy protection with the utmost confidence that thou wilt obtain for us from our Lord light for our minds and strength for our wills, thereby enabling us to attain to true peace of soul.

While we bless our Lord for having glorified His holy Name in this world through the splendor of thy heroic virtues and the eternal reward He hath bestowed upon thee, do thou in like manner bless us also, dear Saint Elizabeth, from thy heavenly throne where thou sittest beside the Saint of saints; defend and guard us in our perilous journey through life; intercede for the pardon and remission of all our sins; and reveal to us the way whereby we may enter with thee into the possession of the kingdom of God. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (Brief, Aug. 9, 1861; S. P. Ap., Oct. 3, 1935).

XLIII

SAINT AGNES, VIRGIN AND MARTYR

517

Prayers

I. O singular example of virtue, glorious Saint Agnes, by the living faith which animated thee from thy tenderest years, and rendered thee so pleasing to God that thou didst merit the martyr's crown: obtain for us the grace to keep our holy faith inviolate within us, and to profess ourselves Christians sincerely in word and work; may our open confession of Jesus before men cause Him to bear a favorable witness to us before His eternal Father.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

II. O invincible Martyr, Saint Agnes most renowned, by thy confidence in God's help, when, being condemned by the impious Roman prefect to see the lily of thy purity stained and trampled in the mire, thou didst not despair, still trusting firmly in the God who giveth His angels charge over them that trust in Him: we beseech thee by thine intercession to get us from Almighty God the grace to preserve this virtue jealously in our hearts, lest we add to our many sins the hateful sin of distrust in the mercy of God.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

III. O courageous maiden, Saint Agnes most pure, by the burning love with which thy heart was on fire, and which preserved thee from harm in the midst of the flames of passion and of the stake, where the enemies of Jesus Christ sought to destroy thee: obtain for us from Almighty God that every unclean flame may be extinguished in us and only that fire, which Jesus Christ came to enkindle upon the earth, may burn within us; so that, after spending a blameless life in the practice of this fair virtue, we shall be worthy to have a share in the glory thou didst merit by the purity of thy heart and by thy martyrdom.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

An indulgence of 300 days, once a day.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, once a month for the daily and devout recitation of this prayer (S. C. Ind., Jan. 16, 1886; S. P. Ap., May 20, 1933).

XLIV

SAINT LUCY, VIRGIN AND MARTYR

518

Prayers

I. O glorious virgin and martyr, Saint Lucy, we behold with wonder the light of living faith which the God of mercy was pleased to infuse into thy fair soul; by the light of this faith thou wast enabled to despise the vain and fleeting things of this miserable world and to keep thine eyes fixed on heaven, for which alone we have been created; for thy spirit was not darkened nor thy heart ensnared by the honors, riches and pleasures offered thee by a deceitful world to the loss of faith and the grace of God; far from yielding to the wicked proposals of the impious prefect, thou didst show thyself brave and resolute so as to face even death itself, rather than prove unfaithful to thy heavenly Master. How greatly ought we to be ashamed who have been illuminated by the same faith and fortified by the grace of God, and are nevertheless unable to resist our guilty passions or to despise the crooked maxims of the world, or to turn a deaf ear to the cunning suggestions of our hellish foe. Do thou, dear Saint, obtain for us more light from Almighty God to enable us to see clearly the great truth that we are not made for things below but for unseen things above.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

II. In thee, O invincible martyr, Saint Lucy, the virtue of hope was most admirable: this virtue kept alive in thee an ardent desire for heaven, and nourished in thy heart a childlike confidence in the Lord our God and our most loving Father. Animated by this virtue, thou didst obtain for thy infirm mother the gift of health, when thou didst pray fervently for her at the tomb of Saint Agnes. Full of confidence in God, and in order to detach thyself still more from the things of earth, thou didst freely distribute the remainder of thy goods to feed the poor. Wherefore, if thou didst not lack courage and strength of mind to resist the cruel tyrant and to suffer frightful torments in thy fidelity to the faith, the only cause thereof was this, that thou didst put all thy trust in Him who hath promised not to forsake us in the hour of danger and who is our shield and defender, ready to work miracles in our behalf, if need be, as also happened at the moment of thy glorious martyrdom. Alas, we must make an unhappy confession: our overwhelming attachment to earthly things and our want of trust in God harden our hearts and deprive us of courage and steadfastness in the most dangerous occasions, and so we succumb to temptation. Obtain for us, Saint Lucy, a more solid hope in the Lord our God, that so we may deserve to have Him for our helper and our comforter in all the dangers that encompass us throughout life.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

III. Thy lively faith and thy firm hope, O glorious martyr of Jesus Christ, Saint Lucy, could not be separated from that fire of most ardent charity with which thy heart did glow, and which caused thee to shed thy blood and lay down thy life so willingly for the sake of Jesus, the beloved Bridegroom of thy soul. It is no wonder, then, that the flames of that material fire which was lighted round about thee by order of the wicked tyrant, were unable to touch thy body and reduce it to ashes. This outward fire was far too feeble by comparison with the inward fire that burned so brightly in thy bosom. Whereupon the impious prefect, seeing all his efforts to be in vain, commanded thy throat to be pierced by a sharp sword. Then it was that thy innocent soul hastened its flight heavenward to rest upon the bosom of thy Jesus, there to rejoice evermore in His heavenly sweetness.

Alas, how miserable we are! We lavish our love on things created and labor unceasingly to possess them, and then we find our poor souls not only unsatisfied, but even embittered and oppressed. Grant us, dear Saint, to be persuaded once for all, that our true happiness on this earth must begin with the love of God, who Himself will be the true and only object of our perfect and eternal blessedness in heaven.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

IV. Filled with confidence in thy mighty intercession, O glorious martyr, Saint Lucy, we beseech thee once again to plead for us in the presence of thy divine Bridegroom, Jesus, that He may vouchsafe to preserve in us the light of our bodily eyes and at the same time give us the grace to make a profitable use of the same; that in the day of resurrection our eyes may be radiant with that heavenly light which shall make them worthy to behold the unspeakable beauties of our true and blessed country. Amen.

V. Pray for us, O blessed Lucy,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

Mercifully hear us, O God of our salvation, that even as we rejoice in the constant faith of blessed Lucy, thy Virgin and Martyr, so we may be instructed in sentiments of loving devotion. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days, once a day.

A plenary indulgence once a month, on the usual conditions, if these prayers are said daily (S. C. Ind., Feb. 27, 1886; S. P. Ap., Dec. 10, 1935).

519

Prayer

Dear Saint Lucy, whose name doth signify the light, we come to thee filled with confidence: do thou obtain for us a holy light that shall make us careful not to walk in the ways of sin, nor to remain enshrouded in the darkness of error. We ask also, through thy intercession, for the preservation of the light of our bodily eyes and for abundant grace to use the same, according to the good pleasure of God without any hurt to our souls. Grant, O Lucy, that, after venerating thee and giving thee thanks for thy powerful protection here on earth, we may come at length to share thy joy in paradise in the everlasting light of the Lamb of God, thy beloved Bridegroom, even Jesus. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days, once a day.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if the daily recitation of this prayer is continued for a month (S. C. Ind., Dec. 29, 1907; S. P. Ap., June 7, 1936).

XLV

SAINT JULIANA FALCONIERI, VIRGIN

520

O faithful bride of Jesus Christ and most humble servant of Mary the sorrowful Virgin, glorious Saint Juliana, when thou camest to the end of a life wholly spent in the practice of heroic virtue, only one sorrow then tried thy heart, that, namely, of being unable by reason of thine infirmity, to receive thy Beloved in the holy Viaticum. But this thy sorrow was so acceptable to Jesus, thy heavenly Bridegroom, that He Himself graciously vouchsafed to reward it with an extraordinary miracle. When, at thine admonition, the Body of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament was laid upon thy virginal breast, It instantaneously sank into thy heart, leaving on thy breast the visible image of His crucifixion, whilst thy soul was breathed forth in the ineffable sweetness of His holy embrace. Ah, great Saint, my special patroness, obtain from Almighty God for me, I pray, the grace of a holy life like thine, that, like thee, I may die a holy death; and being thus prepared for my final passing, fortified by the holy Sacraments and quickened by the grace of God, I may fulfil the days of my years in holiest wise and may be preserved from everlasting death.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., July 20, 1889; S. P. Ap., May 28, 1932).

XLVI

SAINT MARGARET OF CORTONA, PENITENT

521

A Prayer

O Margaret most glorious, true pearl whom Almighty God with so great love plucked from the hand of the infernal thief who possessed thee, in order that, by means of thy wonderful conversion, holy life and most precious death, He might move all poor sinners to forsake sin, by doing good and avoiding evil as well as all sinful occasions: obtain for us, thy faithful clients, from thy exalted place in heaven, a place to which thy tears and thy penance elevated thee, the grace of a sincere repentance, a lively sorrow for our sins and, after a holy life spent, like thine, in the love of Jesus Crucified, the grace of a happy death and a crown of glory in paradise. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., Jan. 12, 1897; S. P. Ap., Jan. 26, 1932).

XLVII

SAINT TERESA, VIRGIN

522

A Prayer

O Saint Teresa, seraphic Virgin, beloved spouse of thy crucified Lord, thou who on earth didst burn with a love so intense toward thy God and my God, and now dost glow with a brighter and purer flame in paradise: obtain for me also, I beseech thee, a spark of that same holy fire which shall cause me to forget the world, all things created, and even myself; for thou didst ever greatly desire to see Him loved by all men. Grant that my every thought and desire and affection may be continually employed in doing the will of God, the supreme Good, whether I am in joy or in pain, for He is worthy to be loved and obeyed everlastingly. Obtain for me this grace, thou who art so powerful with God; may I be all on fire, like thee, with the holy love of God. Amen (St. Alphonsus M. de' Liguori).

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this prayer is said devoutly every day for a month (S. C. Ind., April 22, 1898 and S. P. Ap., Feb. 12, 1934).

IL

SAINT RITA, WIDOW

524

A Prayer

O God, who didst vouchsafe to communicate so great grace to Saint Rita that she imitated Thine example in the love of enemies and bore in her heart and on her countenance the sacred marks of Thy love and passion: grant, we beseech Thee, by her merits and intercession, that we may love our enemies and ever contemplate with deep contrition the sorrows of Thy passion: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days, once a day.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if the daily recitation of this prayer is continued for a month (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, March 8, 1905, exhib., March 28, 1905; S. P. Ap., Feb. 15, 1935).

525

A Prayer

O glorious Saint Rita, thou who didst share in a marvelous manner the sorrowful passion of our Lord Jesus Christ, get me the grace to suffer in patience the miseries of this life, and be my refuge in all my necessities.

An indulgence of 300 days, once a day.

A plenary indulgence, under the usual conditions, once a month, for the devout recitation of this prayer every day (Pius X, Audience, July 30, 1906, exhib., Aug. 11, 1906; S. P. Ap., March 2, 1936).

SAINT FRANCES OF ROME, WIDOW

527

A Prayer

Bright jewel of the Order of Saint Benedict, illustrious Saint Frances of Rome, thou who wast led by divine Providence through various stations in life, that thou mightest be a pattern of every virtue, to maidens, to matrons and to widows, pray for us to our divine Saviour that we may be detached from the vanities of the world and may be able, under the guiding hand of our Guardian Angel, to grow daily in the love of God, of His Church and of our neighbor, and finally to be made partakers in heaven of thy felicity. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if the devout repetition of this prayer is performed daily throughout an entire month (S. P. Ap., April 7, 1919 and Sept. 21, 1934).

An indulgence of 300 days;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if they perform this act of devotion daily for a month (S. P. Ap., Nov. 26, 1936).

529

Prayers

Saint Margaret Mary, thou who wast made a partaker of the divine treasures of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, obtain for us, we beseech thee, from this adorable Heart, the graces we need so sorely. We ask these favors of thee with unbounded confidence. May the divine Heart of Jesus be pleased to bestow them upon us through thy intercession, so that once again He may be loved and glorified through thee. Amen.

V. Pray for us, O blessed Margaret;

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O Lord Jesus Christ, who didst wondrously open the unsearchable riches of Thy Heart to blessed Margaret Mary, the Virgin: grant unto us, by her merits and our imitation of her, that we may love Thee in all things and above all things, and may be worthy to have our everlasting dwelling in the same Thy Sacred Heart: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days, once a day.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if these prayers are said every day for a month (S. P. Ap., June 22, 1922 and Nov. 6, 1935).

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this act of devotion is repeated daily for a month.

b) The faithful who devoutly visit a church where the Feast of St. Theresa of the Child Jesus is being kept, may gain:

A plenary indulgence, if, in addition, they make their confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the intentions of the Sovereign Pontiff (S. P. Ap., Sept. 30, 1935).

533

Prayers

O marvelous Saint Theresa of the Child Jesus, who, in thy brief mortal career, didst become a mirror of angelic purity, of daring love and of whole-hearted surrender to Almighty God, now that thou art enjoying the recompense of thy virtues, turn thine eyes of mercy upon us who trust in thee. Get us the grace to keep our hearts and minds pure and clean like unto thine, and to abhor in all sincerity whatever might tarnish ever so slightly the luster of a virtue so sublime, a virtue that endears us to thy heavenly Bridegroom. Ah, dear Saint, grant us to feel in every need the power of thy intercession; give us comfort in all the bitterness of this life and especially at its latter end, that we may be worthy to share eternal happiness with thee in paradise. Amen.

V. Pray for us, O blessed Theresa,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O Lord, who hast said: "Unless you become as little children, you shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven"; grant us, we beseech Thee, so to walk in the footsteps of thy blessed Virgin Theresa with a humble and single heart, that we may attain to everlasting rewards: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days, once a day.

An indulgence of 3 years;

A plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of the same (S. P. Ap., March 9, 1934).

541

SEQUENCE

Dies iræ, dies illa

Day of wrath and doom impending,
David's word with Sibyl's blending,
Heaven and earth in ashes ending!

O what fear man's bosom rendeth,
When from heaven the Judge descendeth,
On whose sentence all dependeth!

Wondrous sound the trumpet flingeth,
Through earth's sepulchres it ringeth,
All before the throne it bringeth.

Death is struck, and nature quaking,
All creation is awaking,
To its Judge an answer making.

Lo! the book exactly worded,
Wherein all hath been recorded;
Thence shall judgment be awarded.

When the Judge His seat attaineth,
And each hidden deed arraigneth,
Nothing unavenged remaineth.

What shall I, frail man, be pleading?
Who for me be interceding,
When the just are mercy needing?

King of majesty tremendous,
Who dost free salvation send us,
Fount of pity, then befriend us!

Think, kind Jesu!—my salvation
Caused Thy wondrous Incarnation;
Leave me not to reprobation.

Faint and weary Thou hast sought me,
On the Cross of suffering bought me;
Shall such grace be vainly brought me?

Righteous Judge! for sin's pollution
Grant Thy gift of absolution,
Ere that day of retribution.

Guilty, now I pour my moaning,
All my shame with anguish owning;
Spare, O God, thy suppliant groaning!

Through the sinful woman shriven,
 Through the dying thief forgiven,
 Thou to me a hope hast given.

Worthless are my prayers and sighing,
 Yet, good Lord, in grace complying,
 Rescue me from fires undying.

With Thy sheep a place provide me,
 From the goats afar divide me,
 To Thy right hand do thou guide me.

When the wicked are confounded,
 Doomed to shame and woe unbounded,
 Call me, with thy Saints surrounded.

Low I kneel, with heart's submission,
 See, like ashes my contrition!
 Help me in my last condition!

Ah! that day of tears and mourning!
 From the dust of earth returning,
 Man for judgment must prepare him:
 Spare, O God, in mercy spare him!
 Lord, all-pitying, Jesu blest,
 Grant them thine eternal rest. Amen

(Roman Missal). (tr. W. J. Irons).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, if this sequence is recited daily in a spirit of devotion (S. P. Ap., March 9, 1934),

Sequentia

Dies iræ, dies illa,
 Solvet sæclum in favilla:

IV

DEVOUT EXERCISES

542

The faithful who devoutly offer prayers at any season of the year in intercession for the souls of the faithful departed, with the intention of so continuing for seven or nine successive days, may obtain:

An indulgence of 3 years once each day;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions at the end of their seven or nine days of prayer (Pius IX, Audience Jan. 5, 1849; S. C. of Bishops and Religious, Jan. 28, 1850; S. C. Ind., Nov. 26, 1876; S. P. Ap., May 28, 1933).

543

The faithful who recite prayers or perform other devout exercises in supplication for the faithful departed during the month of November, may gain:

An indulgence of 3 years once on each day of the month;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if they perform these devotions daily for the entire month.

Those who, during the aforesaid month, take part in public services held in a church or public oratory in intercession for the faithful departed may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years on each day of the month;

A plenary indulgence, if they attend at least fifteen of these exercises, and, in addition, go to confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the intentions of his Holiness the Pope (S. C. Ind., Jan. 17, 1888; S. P. Ap. Oct. 30, 1932).

544

The faithful, as often as they visit a church or public oratory, or even a semi-public oratory (if they may lawfully use the same), in order to pray for the dead on the second day of November, * may gain:

A plenary indulgence applicable only to the souls detained in purgatory, on condition of confession and Communion, and the recitation six times during each visit of Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff (S. C. of the Holy Office, June 25, 1914; S. P. Ap., July 5, 1930).

* This indulgence may be gained either on the second day of November or on the Sunday next, as above (S. P. Ap., Jan. 2, 1939). see Acta Ap. Sedis, Jan. 28, 1939)

545

All Masses that are celebrated at any altar by any priest on the second day of November and during the Octave of the Commemoration of All Souls, enjoy the same privilege as if they were offered on a privileged altar, but only in favor of the soul for whom they are applied (S. C. Ind., May 19, 1761; Benedict XV, Ap. Const., "Incrumentum Altaris," Aug. 10, 1915; Can. 917, No. 1, Code of Canon Law; S. P. Ap., Oct. 31, 1934).

546

The faithful who during the Octave of the Commemoration of All Souls, visit a cemetery in a spirit of piety and devotion, and pray, even mentally, for the dead, may gain:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, on each day of the Octave, applicable only to the dead.

Those who make such a visit, and pray for the Holy Souls, on any day in the year, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years, applicable only to the departed (S. P. Ap., Oct. 31, 1934).

V

THE HEROIC ACT OF CHARITY

547

a) The faithful who make the heroic act in favor of the souls detained in purgatory, may gain:

A plenary indulgence, applicable only to the dead;

1° on any day that they receive Holy Communion, if they have made their confession and visited some church or public oratory to pray for the intention of the Supreme Pontiff;

2° on any Monday of the year, if they hear Mass in honor of the Holy Souls and fulfill the usual conditions.

If some impediment arises, whereby they are hindered from receiving Holy Communion or hearing Mass, the local Ordinary has the faculty of sub-delegating authority to approved confessors to grant a suitable commutation of these conditions into other pious practices.

b) Priests, who make the aforesaid heroic act, may enjoy the indult of a personal privileged altar every day of the year (S. C. Ind., Sept. 30, 1852 and Nov. 20, 1854; S. P. Ap., Jan. 26, 1932).

VI

PRAYERS

548

Prayers for every day of the week

SUNDAY

O Lord God omnipotent, I beseech Thee by the Precious Blood, which Thy divine Son Jesus shed in the Garden, deliver the souls in purgatory, and especially that one which is the most forsaken of all, and bring it into Thy glory, where it may praise and bless Thee for ever. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Eternal rest, etc.

MONDAY

O Lord God omnipotent, I beseech Thee by the Precious Blood which Thy divine Son Jesus shed in His cruel scourging, deliver the souls in purgatory, and among them all, especially that soul which is nearest to its entrance into Thy glory, that it may soon begin to praise Thee and bless Thee for ever. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Eternal rest, etc.

TUESDAY

O Lord God omnipotent, I beseech Thee by the Precious Blood of Thy divine Son Jesus that was shed in His bitter crowning with thorns, deliver the souls in purgatory, and among them all, particularly that soul which is in the greatest need of our prayers, in order that it may not long be delayed in praising Thee in Thy glory and blessing Thee for ever. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Eternal rest, etc.

WEDNESDAY

O Lord God omnipotent, I beseech Thee by the Precious Blood of Thy divine Son Jesus that was shed in the streets of Jerusalem whilst He carried on His sacred shoulders the heavy burden of the Cross, deliver the souls in purgatory and especially that one which is richest in merits in Thy sight, so that, having soon attained the high place in glory to which it is destined, it may praise Thee triumphantly and bless Thee for ever. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Eternal rest, etc.

THURSDAY

O Lord God omnipotent, I beseech Thee by the precious Body and Blood of Thy divine Son Jesus, which He Himself on the night before His passion gave as meat and drink to His beloved Apostles and bequeathed to His holy Church to be the perpetual Sacrifice and life-giving nourishment of His faithful people, deliver the souls in purgatory, but most of all, that soul which was most devoted to this Mystery of infinite love, in order that it may praise Thee therefor, together with Thy divine Son and the Holy Spirit in Thy glory for ever. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Eternal rest, etc.

FRIDAY

O Lord God omnipotent, I beseech Thee by the Precious Blood which Jesus Thy divine Son did shed this day upon the tree of the Cross, especially from His sacred hands and feet, deliver the souls in purgatory, and particularly that soul for whom I am most bound to pray, in order that I may not be the cause which hinders Thee from admitting it quickly to the possession of Thy glory where it may praise Thee and bless Thee for evermore. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Eternal rest, etc.

SATURDAY

O Lord God omnipotent, I beseech Thee by the Precious Blood which gushed forth from the sacred Side of Thy divine Son Jesus in the presence and to the great sorrow of His most holy Mother, deliver the souls in purgatory and among them all especially that soul which has been most devout to this noble Lady, that it may come quickly into Thy glory, there to praise Thee in her, and her in Thee through all the ages. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Eternal rest, etc.

An indulgence of 500 days for each of these prayers (S. C. Ind., Nov. 18, 1826; S. P. Ap., Jan. 26, 1932).

549

Most loving Jesu, I humbly beseech Thee, that Thou Thyself wouldst offer to Thine eternal Father in behalf of the Holy Souls in purgatory, the Most Precious Blood which poured forth from the sacred wounds of Thine adorable Body, together with Thine agony and death. And do thou likewise, O sorrowful Virgin Mary, present unto Him, together with the dolorous passion of thy dear Son, thine own sighs and tears, and all the sorrows thou didst suffer in His suffering, in order that, through the merits of the same, refreshment may be granted to the souls now suffering in the fiery torments of purgatory, so that, being delivered from that painful prison, they may be clothed with glory in heaven, there to sing the mercies of God for ever and ever. Amen.

Absolve, O Lord, the souls of all the faithful departed from every bond of sin, that with Thy gracious assistance they may deserve to escape the judgment of vengeance and enjoy the blessedness of everlasting light.

- V. Eternal rest give unto them, O Lord.
 R. And let perpetual light shine upon them.
 V. From the gates of hell,
 R. Deliver their souls, O Lord.
 V. May they rest in peace.
 R. Amen.
 V. O Lord, hear my prayer.
 R. And let my cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray.

O God, the Creator and Redeemer of all the faithful; grant unto the souls of Thy servants and handmaids the remission of all their sins: that through our devout supplications they may obtain the pardon they have always desired. Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

Rest eternal, etc.

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if these prayers are said daily for a month (S. C. Ind., Sept. 15, 1888; S. P. Ap., April 25, 1934).

550

My Jesus, by the sorrows Thou didst suffer in Thine agony in the Garden, in Thy scourging and crowning with thorns, in the way to Calvary, in Thy crucifixion and death, have mercy on the souls in purgatory, and especially on those that are most forsaken; do Thou deliver them from the dire torments they endure; call them and admit them to Thy most sweet embrace in paradise.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Eternal rest, etc.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., Dec. 14, 1889 and Nov. 28, 1903; S. P. Ap., Oct. 29; 1931).

O Lord Jesus Christ, King of glory, deliver the souls of all the faithful departed from the pains of hell and from the bottomless pit; deliver them out of the lion's mouth, lest hell should swallow them up, lest they fall into the outer darkness; but let Thy standard-bearer, Saint Michael, bring them back into Thy holy light, which Thou didst promise of old to Abraham and to his seed (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions, if this prayer is devoutly said daily (S. P. Ap., Sept. 12, 1935).

Dómine Iesu Christe, Rex glóriae, libera ánimas ómnium fidélium defunctorum de pœnis inférni et de profúndo lacu; libera eas de ore leónis, ne absórbeat eas tártarus, ne cadant in obsúrum; sed sígnifer sanctus Míchaël repræséntet eas in lucem sanctam, quam olim Abrahæ promisísti et sémini eius.
(ex Missali Romano).

O God, who hast commanded us to honor our father and our mother; in Thy mercy have pity on the souls of my father and mother, (or, the soul of my father, or, the soul of my mother,) and forgive them their trespasses (or, forgive him his trespasses, or, forgive her her trespasses); and make me to see them (or, him, or, her) again in the joy of everlasting brightness. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if the devout recitation of this prayer be continued every day for a month (S. P. Ap., Sept. 12, 1935).

Deus, qui nos patrem et matrem honorare præcepisti; miserere cleménter animábus patris et matris meæ¹ eorúmque peccáta dimítte: meque eos in ætérnæ claritátis gáudio fac vidére. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

553

O God, who in the ranks of the Apostolic Priesthood hast caused Thy servants to be invested with the pontifical or priestly dignity; grant, we beseech Thee, that they also may be joined unto the everlasting fellowship of the same Thy priests. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, if this prayer is said daily (S. P. Ap., Oct. 25, 1936).

Deus, qui inter apostólicos sacerdótes fámulos tuos pontificáli seu sacerdotáli fecisti dignitáte vigére, præsta, quæsumus, ut córum quoque perpétuo aggregéntur consórtio. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

554

(For a man deceased)

Incline Thine ear, O Lord, unto our prayers, wherein we humbly pray Thee to show Thy mercy upon the soul of Thy servant N., whom Thou hast commanded to pass out of this world, that Thou wouldst place him in the region of peace and light, and bid him be a partaker with Thy Saints. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

(For a woman deceased)

We beseech Thee, O Lord, according to Thy loving kindness, have mercy upon the soul of Thy handmaiden N., and, now that she is set free from the defilements of this mortal flesh, restore her to her heritage of everlasting salvation. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 500 days for each prayer.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions. if either of these prayers is said devoutly every day for a month (S. P. Ap., March 14, 1923 and June 24, 1936).

NOTE: A prayer to Our Blessed Lady of Intercession for the faithful departed is found under n. 399.

Pro defuncto nominatim

Inclína, Dómine, aurem tuam ad preces nostras, quibus misericórdiam tuam súpplices deprecámur, ut ánimam fámuli tui N., quam de hoc sáeculo migráre iussísti, in pacis ac lucis regióne constítuas et Sanctórum tuórum iúbeas esse consórtem. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen.

Pro defuncta nominatim

Quáesumus Dómine, pro tua pietáte miserére ánimæ fámulæ tuæ N., et a contágiis mortalitátis exútam, in ætérnæ salvatiónis partem restítue. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano)

SECTION III
FOR SPECIAL OCCASIONS

CHAPTER I

EUCCHARISTIC CONGRESSES

I

PRAYER FOR THE SUCCESS OF EUCCHARISTIC CONGRESSES

555

O Jesus, who art really, truly and substantially present in the Blessed Sacrament to be the food of our souls, deign to bless and bring to a successful issue all Eucharistic congresses and gatherings, and especially the coming congress Be Thou the inspiration of their labors, resolutions and vows; accept graciously the solemn homage there rendered to Thee; enkindle the hearts of priests and faithful, of parents and children, so that frequent and daily Communion as well as the early Communion of little children may be held in honor in all the countries of the world; and grant that the Kingship of the Sacred Heart over human society may everywhere be acknowledged. Sacred Heart of Jesus, bless the Congress. Saint Paschal Baylon, pray for us.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, when this prayer has been devoutly recited every day for a month (S. P. Ap., June 21, 1927).

NOTE: The same indulgences are attached to any other prayer for Eucharistic Congresses that is approved by the local Ordinary (S. P. Ap., June 21, 1927).

II

INDULGENCES AT THE TIME OF THE CONGRESS INTERNATIONAL, NATIONAL, REGIONAL OR DIOCESAN

556

a) In the place where the Congress is being held, as long as it continues:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, once only.

A plenary indulgence, if the faithful devoutly take part in the solemn Eucharistic procession, with which the Congress is usually closed, and in addition, go to confession and receive Holy Communion.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, for those who are present for the Papal Blessing and receive it in a spirit of true devotion.

An indulgence of 15 years, if they visit the Blessed Sacrament exposed for public adoration, according to the prescriptions of n. 121 above.

An indulgence of 7 years, if they are present at any sacred function appointed by the moderators of the Congress; likewise if they participate in any gathering or session of the Congress.

An indulgence of 100 days, if they perform any work of religion in a spirit of penance for the success of the Congress.

b) Elsewhere:

A plenary indulgence to be gained only once, from the day of the public opening of the Congress until the last full day of the same, anywhere in the world, if the Congress is international in scope; otherwise, in the whole country, region or diocese respectively, under the usual conditions, provided that a prayer is said in some church or public oratory for the happy outcome of the Congress.

An indulgence of 300 days, as often as the faithful pray for the well-being of the Congress, perform some good work or make an offering, even after the Congress is closed (Brief, March 7, 1924; S. P. Ap., June 12, 1933).

III

INDULGENCES AT THE TIME OF A CONGRESS IN A RURAL VICARIATE, DEANERY, MOTHER-CHURCH

An indulgence of 7 years.

Those moreover, who confess, communicate, and pray as above, may gain:

A plenary indulgence.

b) The faithful in places where a Missionary Day is not observed, who on the last Sunday but one in October, visit some church or public oratory and pray for the conversion of pagans, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years.

A plenary indulgence, if moreover they make their confession and receive Holy Communion (S. C. Rites, April 14, 1926; exhib. Nov. 16, 1927; S. P. Ap., Aug. 30, 1934 and March 25, 1936).

II

Prayers

566

O God, the everlasting Creator of all things, remember that the souls of unbelievers were made by Thee and formed in Thine own image and likeness. Remember that Jesus, Thy Son, endured a most bitter death for their salvation. Permit not, I beseech Thee, O Lord, that Thy Son should be any longer despised by unbelievers, but do Thou graciously accept the prayers of holy men and of the Church, the Spouse of Thy most holy Son, and be mindful of Thy mercy. Forget their idolatry and unbelief, and grant that they too may some day know Him whom Thou hast sent, even the Lord Jesus Christ, who is our Salvation, our Life and Resurrection, by whom we have been saved and delivered, to whom be glory for endless ages. Amen (St. Francis Xavier).

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual terms, if the prayer is devoutly recited daily for a month (Pius IX, Rescript in his own hand, May 24, 1847, exhib. Sept. 30, 1862; S. P. Ap., Dec. 6, 1918 and Oct. 23, 1935).

Aetérne rerum ómnium efféctor Deus, meménto abs te ánimas infidélium procreátas, eásque ad imáginem et similitúdinem tuam cónditas. Meménto Iesum, Fílium tuum, pro illórum salúte atrocíssimam subiísse necem. Noli, quæso, Dómine, ultra permíttere, ut Fílius tuus ab infidélibus contemnátur, sed précibus sanctórum virórum et Ecclésiæ, sanctíssimi Fílii tui Sponsæ, placátus, recordáre misericórdiæ tuæ et, oblítus idololatríæ et infidelitátis eórum, éffice ut ipsi quoque agnóscant aliquándo quem misísti Dóminum Iesum Christum, qui est salus, vita et resurréctio nostra, per quem salváti et liberáti sumus, cui sit glória per infínita sæcula sæculórum. Amen (S. Franciscus Xaverius).

567

O praise the Lord, all ye nations: praise Him, all ye peoples; for His mercy is confirmed upon us: and the truth of the Lord remaineth for ever (Ps. 116).

Y. Let the people praise Thee, O God.

R. Let all the people praise Thee.

Let us pray.

O God, our Protector, behold and look upon the face of Thy Christ, who gave Himself a redemption for all, and grant that from the rising of the sun even to the going down, Thy Name may be great among the Gentiles, and in every place sacrifice and a clean oblation may be offered unto Thy Name. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, when these prayers have been recited daily for a month (S. P. Ap., Nov. 9, 1920 and June 5, 1936).

Laudáte Dóminum, omnes gentes: laudáte eum, omnes pópuli; quóniam confirmáta est super nos misericórdia eius et véritas Dómini manet in ætérnum (Ps. CXVI).

Y. Confiteántur tibi pópuli, Deus.

R. Confiteántur tibi pópuli omnes.

Orémus.

Protéctor noster, áspice, Deus, et réspice in fáciem Christi tui: qui dedit redemptionem semetípsum pro ómnibus, et fac ut ab ortu solis usque ad occásum magnificétur nomen tuum in géntibus, ac in omni loco sacrificétur et offerátur nómini tuo oblátio munda. Per eúmdem Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen.

568

Have mercy on us, O God of all, and behold us; and send Thy fear upon all the nations that seek not after Thee, that they may know Thee, that there is no God but only Thou, and may tell forth Thy wondrous works. Make the time short, and remember the end, that they may declare Thy wonderful works, and let all the ends of the earth fear Thee.

V. Make a joyful noise unto God, all the earth;

R. Serve the Lord with gladness.

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, who seekest not the death of sinners, but always that they may live; graciously receive our prayer, and deliver the heathen from the worship of idols and gather them into Thy holy Church unto the praise and glory of Thy name. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, when these prayers are recited daily for a month (S. P. Ap., Nov. 9, 1920 and July 12, 1933).

Miserere nostri, Deus ómnium, et réspice nos et immítte timórem tuum super gentes, quæ non exquisiérunt te, ut cognóscant, quia non est Deus nisi Tu, et enárrent magnália tua. Festína tempus, et meménto finis, ut enárrent mirabília tua et métuant te omnes fines terræ.

V. Iubiláte, omnis terra.

R. Servíte Dómino in lætítia.

Orémus.

Omnípotens sempitérne Deus, qui non mortem peccatórum, sed vitam semper inquíris: súscipe propítius oratióem nostram, et líbera pagános ab idolórum cultúra et ággrega Ecclésiæ tuæ sanctæ, ad laudem et glóriam nóminis tui. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen.

O Mary most merciful, the refuge of sinners, hear our supplications and pray to Thy Son, that Almighty God make take away all iniquity from the hearts of the heathen; that, having forsaken their idols, they may turn to the living and true God, and His only Son, Christ our Lord and God.

V. Confounded be all they that worship graven images;

R. And that glory in their idols.

Let us pray.

God, who wilt have all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth: send forth, we beseech Thee, laborers into Thy harvest and grant them to speak Thy word with all confidence; that Thy word may run and be glorified, and that all peoples may know Thee, the only true God, and Him whom Thou has sent, Jesus Christ Thy Son, our Lord: Who liveth and reigneth with Thee world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions, if this prayer is devoutly said daily (S. P. Ap., Nov. 9, 1920 and June 5, 1932).

O clementíssima María, refúgium peccatórum, adésto supplicatió nibus nostris et ora Fílium tuum, ut Deus omnípotens áuferat iniquitátem a córdibus paganórum; ut, relíctis idólis suis, convertántur ad Deum vivum et verum, et únicum Fílium eius Christum Deum et Dóminum nostrum.

V. Confundántur omnes, qui adórant sculptília.

R. Et qui gloriántur in simulácris suis.

Orémus.

Deus, qui omnes hómines vis salvos fieri et ad agnitiónem veritátis venire: mitte, quæsumus, operários in messem tuam et da eis cum omni fidúcia loqui verbum tuum; ut sermo tuus currat et clarificétur, et omnes gentes cognóscant te, solum Deum verum, et quem misísti Iesum Christum Fílium tuum, Dóminum nostrum: Qui tecum vivit et regnat in sæcula sæculórum. Amen.

570

O God of love! In all humility and confidence I offer Thee the immaculate Heart of Mary together with the loving Heart of Jesus our Lord, who gave Himself upon the Cross of Calvary and still offers Himself upon the altar to sanctify and save the souls of men. In loving union with this sacrifice of infinite value, I offer Thee my whole being, O my God, and all my prayers and sufferings, all my sorrows and labors, my life and my death, in order to fulfil Thy divine will in my own soul, to sanctify all missionaries and their native clergy, to obtain the grace of perseverance for their converts as well as the conversion of all sinners and unbelievers in their missions.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this prayer is devoutly said daily for a month (S. P. Ap., Nov. 25, 1920 and June 5, 1933).

571

Most loving Lord Jesus Christ, who hast redeemed the world by the shedding of Thy Most Precious Blood, turn Thine eyes in mercy upon our poor humanity, which still lies, for the most part, sunk in the darkness of error and in the shadow of death, and grant that the light of Thy truth may shine gloriously upon all mankind. Multiply, O Lord, the apostles of Thy gospel, give them new fervor, and bless with Thy grace their zeal and their labors and make them fruitful; that by means of them all unbelievers may know Thee and be converted to Thee, their Creator and their Redeemer. Call back to Thy fold all who have gone astray, and restore to the bosom of Thy one, true Church all who are in rebellion against her. Hasten, dear Saviour, the happy day when Thy kingdom shall truly come upon earth; draw all men to Thy loving Heart, so that all may be partakers of the unspeakable blessings of Thy redemption in the everlasting bliss of heaven. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of this prayer throughout a month (S. P. Ap., May 18, 1926 and July 9, 1931).

572

O blessed Columbanus, who, in thy zeal for the extension of Christ's kingdom, and the salvation of souls, didst spend thy life in suffering and exile, assist and protect, we humbly implore thee, the missionaries of our day, who have devoted their lives to preaching the Gospel throughout the world. Obtain for them, we beseech thee, that prudence and fortitude, by which thou didst overcome the dangers which beset thy path, and that firm faith and ardent charity which enabled thee to endure gladly the privations of this life, for the love of Christ. Assist and protect us also, dear Saint Columbanus, so to live for God's glory, that when our pilgrimage through life is over, we may enjoy with thee the eternal rest of heaven: through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Jan. 5, 1924 and June 5, 1935).

573

Saint Theresa of the Child Jesus, thou who hast been rightly proclaimed the Patroness of Catholic missions throughout the world, remember the burning desire which thou didst manifest here on earth to plant the Cross of Christ on every shore and to preach the Gospel even to the consummation of the world; we implore thee, according to thy promise, to assist all priests and missionaries and the whole Church of God.

An indulgence of 300 days once a day.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this prayer is devoutly said every day for a month (Brief, July 9, 1928).

NOTE: An invocation to St. Theresa of the Child Jesus, Patroness of the Missions, is found under n. 531.

574

O glorious virgin St. Theresa, whom the Vicar of Jesus Christ on earth hath chosen to be the heavenly Patroness of the Missions, for which cause all missionaries confess thee to be their Patroness and call upon thy name; we fly to thee with heartfelt affection, beseeching thee that thou wouldst take under thy special protection these generous souls who are filled with the Spirit of God and whose hearts are on fire with the love of Jesus Christ and of their neighbor; they have freely forsaken their families and native land; with great courage they make light of every manner of sacrifice, painful toil, countless dangers, and even death itself which may perchance overtake them, and their only joy is the thought that they are able to suffer and die for the sake of Jesus Christ. Hence they go forth gladly into distant and barbarous places in order to declare to the peoples that dwell therein the work of redemption which was accomplished for their souls also by the Lord Jesus Christ.

In this valley of tears thou didst follow these athletes of the faith, these heroic souls, with special affection, thus opening to them thy virgin heart; thou didst offer for their salvation thy fervent prayers to God; thou didst endure bitter sorrow and cruel penance that God, the Saviour of the world, might be pleased to sustain them in their sacred and difficult ministry. Now that thou art in heaven, adorned with greater glory, and seeing Jesus, face to face, whom thou didst love so much and from whom thou didst receive assurance of mutual love, do thou pray and make intercession for them. May they be enabled, through thy singular assistance, to bring many souls to Jesus, souls who were redeemed by His Precious Blood but who still sit in the darkness and shadow of death under the domination of the evil spirit. This in truth is likewise their own earnest desire; in order that they may see it fulfilled, do thou obtain for them that increase of grace and holiness which is so necessary for the fruitful exercise of this apostolic ministry. Sustain them in their many labors, comfort them in their sorrows, help them in their grievous privations and ask of God a special blessing in their behalf, which shall raise them up and reward with abundant fruit the task which they are to accomplish in spreading the Kingdom of Christ on earth with such heartfelt love and self-sacrificing devotion.

O glorious virgin Saint Theresa, heavenly Patroness of the Missions, hear and answer us.

An indulgence of 300 days, once a day.

A plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, provided that this prayer be said daily (S. P. Ap., Nov. 25, 1936).

O gloriósa virgo Terésia, quam Iesu Christi Vicárius in terris cæléstem Missiónum Patrónam elégit, ideóque Missionáles te ipsórum Patrónam faténtur et ívocant, nos máximo cordis afféctu ad te confúgimus, ut sub tua peculiári tutelá generósas istas ánimas recípias, quæ spíritu Dei replétæ et veheménti caritáte erga Iesum Christum ac próximum deflagrántes, pátria familiáque sponte relíctis, cuiúslibet géneris sacrificia, aspérrimos labóres, perícula innúmera, persecutiónes ac ipsam mortem, ex his ómnibus forte sequutúram, viríli ánimo posthabéntes et solum gaudéntes pro Iesu Christi causa se posse pati ac étiam mori, in longínquas et bárbaras regiónes se cónferunt, ut pópulis eásdem incoléntibus opus redemptiόνis, peráctæ a Iesu Christo étiam pro ipsórum animábus, libentíssime annuntiáre nitántur.

Tu quæ in hac lacrimarum valle, virgineum cor patefaciens, hos fidei athletas et heroes peculiari amore prosecuta es, atque pro ipsorum salute fervidas Deo preces obtulisti, acerbos dolores durasque penas tolerasti, ut Deus mundi Salvator in sancto ac difficili ministerio eos sustinere dignaretur: nunc in celo gloria maiore redimita, propius contemplanus Iesum, quem valde amasti et a quo mutui amoris sensus excepisti, pro iisdem exorare atque intercedere velis. Ipsi, ope tua singulari, innumeras animas ad Iesum adducere queant, quæ tamen redemptæ eius pretioso Sanguine adhuc in tenebris et in umbra mortis sedent sub dæmonis imperio. Hoc revera validum est etiam ipsorum desiderium, pro quo explendo eisdem impetra augmentum gratiæ et sanctitatis, adeo necessarium ut reapse efficax sit huiusmodi apostolicum ministerium. Eisdem in tot laboribus sustine, in doloribus consolare, in tot gravibus privationibus adiuva atque a Deo in ipsorum favorem specialem benedictionem exposce, quæ sublevet eorumque valde fecundet opus, quod tanto cordis affectu ac sacrificio pro dilatando Christi regno in terris sunt expleturi.

O gloriosa virgo Teresia, cælestis Missionum Patrona, exaudi nos.

CHAPTER IV

FOR THE CONVERSION OF NON-CATHOLICS

I

INVOCATION

575

That Thou wouldst vouchsafe to bring back into the unity of the Church all that stray, and to lead all unbelievers to the light of the Gospel, we beseech Thee to hear us, O Lord.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., May 18, 1926 and Nov. 15, 1927).

NOTE: Another invocation is found under n. 202.

Ut omnes errantes ad unitatem Ecclesiæ revocare et infideles universos ad Evangelii lumen perducere digneris: te rogamus, Domine, audi nos.

II

576

God, who guidest that which is gone astray, and gatherest that which is scattered, and keepest that which is gathered together; we beseech Thee, mercifully pour forth upon the Christian people the grace of Thy unity; that they may reject the spirit of dissension and unite themselves to the true Shepherd of Thy Church, and may thus be enabled to serve Thee worthily. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this prayer is said with devotion every day for a month (S. P. Ap., Nov. 22, 1934).

Deus, qui errata corrigis, et dispersa congregas, et congregata conservas: quæsumus, super populum christianum tuæ unionis gratiam clementer infunde; ut divisione reiecta, vero pastori Ecclesiæ tuæ se uniens, tibi digne valeat famulari. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

577

Almighty and everlasting God, whose will it is that all men should be saved and that none should perish, look upon the souls that are deceived by the guile of Satan, in order that the hearts of them that have gone astray may put aside all the perverseness of heresy, and, being truly repentant, may return to the unity of Thy truth. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, when this prayer has been devoutly recited every day for a month (S. P. Ap., May 15, 1937).

Omnípotens sempitérne Deus, qui salvas omnes et néminem vis períre, réspice ad ánimas diabólica fraude decéptas, ut omni hærética pravitate depósita, errántium corda resipíscant et ad veritátis tuæ rédeant unitátem. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

578

Lord Jesu, merciful Saviour of the world, we humbly beseech Thee by Thy Most Sacred Heart, that all the straying sheep may turn unto Thee, the Shepherd and Bishop of their souls: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, Oct. 26, 1905, exhib. Nov. 3, 1905; S. P. Ap., June 5, 1933).

Dómine Iesu, clementíssime Salvátor mundi, te per sacratíssimum Cor tuum súpplices exorámus, ut omnes oves errántes ad te Pastórem et Episcopum animárum suárum convertántur: Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculórum. Amen.

579

O Mary, Mother of mercy and Refuge of sinners, we beseech thee, be pleased to look with pitiful eyes upon poor heretics and schismatics. Thou who art the Seat of Wisdom, enlighten the minds that are miserably enfolded in the darkness of ignorance and sin, that they may clearly know that the Holy Catholic and Apostolic Roman Church is the one true Church of Jesus Christ, outside of which neither holiness nor salvation can be found. Finish the work of their conversion by obtaining for them the grace to accept all the truths of our holy Faith, and to submit themselves to the Supreme Roman Pontiff, the Vicar of Jesus Christ on earth; that so, being united with us in the sweet chains of divine charity, there may soon be one only fold under the same one Shepherd; and may we all, O glorious Virgin, sing forever with exultation: Rejoice, O Virgin Mary, thou only hast destroyed all heresies in the whole world. Amen.

Hail Mary, three times.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Prop. of the Faith, Dec. 30, 1868; S. P. Ap., March 18, 1936).

580

O Virgin immaculate, thou who by a singular privilege of grace wast preserved from original sin, look in pity upon our separated brethren, who are nevertheless thy children, and call them back to the center of unity. Not a few of them, although separated from the Church, have kept a certain veneration for thee; and do thou, generous as thou art, reward them for it, by obtaining for them the grace of conversion.

Thou wast conqueror of the infernal serpent from the first instant of thy existence; renew even now, for it is now more necessary than ever before, thine ancient triumphs; glorify thy divine Son, bring back to Him the sheep that have strayed from the one fold and place them once more under the guidance of the universal Shepherd who holds the place of thy Son on earth; let it be thy glory, O Virgin who destroyest all heresies, to restore unity and peace once more to all the Christian people.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., Feb. 1, 1896; S. P. Ap., Feb. 15, 1935).

To Our Lady of the Rosary of Pompeii

O merciful Queen of the Rosary of Pompeii, thou, the Seat of Wisdom, hast established a throne of fresh mercy in the land that once was pagan, in order to draw all nations to salvation by means of the chaplet of thy mystic roses: remember that thy divine Son hath left us this saying: "Other sheep I have that are not of this fold; them also must I bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one Shepherd." Remember likewise that on Calvary thou didst become our Co-Redemptrix, by virtue of the crucifixion of Thy heart cooperating with Thy Crucified Son in the salvation of the world; and from that day thou didst become the Restorer of the human race, the Refuge of sinners and the Mother of all mankind. Behold, dear Mother, how many souls are lost every hour! Behold, how countless millions of those who dwell in India, in China, and in barbarous regions do not yet know our Lord Jesus Christ! See, too, how many others are indeed Christians and are nevertheless far from the bosom of Mother Church which is Catholic, Apostolic and Roman! O Mary, powerful mediator, advocate of the human race, full of love for us who are mortal, the life of our hearts, blessed Virgin of the Rosary of Pompeii, graciously hear our prayers; let not the Precious Blood and the fruits of Redemption be lost for so many souls. From thy chosen shrine in Pompeii where thou dost nothing else save dispense heaven's favors upon the afflicted, grant that a ray of thy heavenly light may shine forth to enlighten those many blinded understandings and to enkindle so many cold hearts. Intercede with thy divine Son and obtain grace for all the pagans, Jews, heretics and schismatics in the whole world to receive supernatural light and to enter with joy into the bosom of the true Church. Hear the confident prayer of the Supreme Pontiff, that all nations may be joined in the one Faith, may know and love Jesus Christ, the blessed fruit of thy womb, who liveth and reigneth with the Father and the Holy Spirit world without end. And then all men shall love thee also, thou who art the salvation of the world, arbiter and dispenser of the treasures of God, and Queen of mercy in the valley of Pompeii. And glorifying thee, the Queen of Victories, who by means of thy Rosary, dost trample upon all heresies, they shall acknowledge that thou givest life to all the nations, since there must be a fulfilment of the prophecy in the Gospel: "All generations shall call me blessed."

An indulgence of 500 days (Brief, July 20, 1925; S. P. Ap., Aug. 24, 1934).

To Saint Bridget, Queen of Sweden, Widow

With trusting hearts we turn to thee, blessed Bridget, in these hostile and unbelieving days, to implore thine intercession in behalf of those who are separated from the Church of Jesus Christ. By that clear knowledge thou didst have of the bitter sufferings of our crucified Redeemer, the price of our salvation, we offer thee our supplications to obtain the grace of faith for those who are outside the one true fold, that so the sheep who are scattered may return to the one true Shepherd, our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Saint Bridget, fearless in thy service of God, pray for us. Saint Bridget, patient in the midst of suffering and humiliation, pray for us. Saint Bridget, wonderful in thy love for Jesus and Mary, pray for us.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

An indulgence of 300 days once a day (S. C. Ind., July 5, 1905; S. P. Ap., Oct. 23, 1928).

To obtain the reunion of the Christians of the East

O Lord, who hast united the various nations in the confession of Thy name, we pray Thee for the Christian peoples of the East. Mindful of the high place they held of old in Thy Church, we beg of Thee to inspire them with an ardent desire to regain that place, in order to form, with us, one only fold under the guidance of one and the same Shepherd. Grant that their hearts may be docile to hear the voice of their holy Doctors, who are likewise our Fathers in the Faith. Let a spirit of concord and charity, which is a sign of Thy presence among the faithful, hasten the day when our prayers shall be united to theirs, so that every nation and every tongue may acknowledge and glorify our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of this prayer (Brief, April 15, 1916; S. P. Ap., May 22, 1937).

584

Invocation for the Conversion of Russia

Saviour of the world, save Russia.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Nov. 24, 1924).

585

Prayer to Saint Theresa of the Child Jesus for the Conversion of Russia

O loving and compassionate Saint, deign to comfort our Russian brethren, the victims of a long and cruel persecution of the Christian name; obtain for them perseverance in the faith, progress in the love of God and of their neighbor, and in confidence toward the most holy Mother of God; prepare for them holy priests who shall make reparation for the blasphemies and sacrileges committed against the holy Eucharist; grant that angelic purity, especially in the young, and every Christian virtue may once more flourish amongst them, to the end that this noble people, being delivered from all slavery and returning freely to the one fold entrusted by the loving Heart of the Risen Christ to Saint Peter and his successors, may at length taste the joy of glorifying the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit in the fellowship of the holy Catholic Church. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this prayer is said devoutly every day for a month (S. P. Ap., Aug. 19, 1929).

CHAPTER V

RETREATS OR MISSIONS FOR THE PEOPLE

I

A PRAYER FOR THE SUCCESS OF A MISSION OR RETREAT

586

O Jesus, most holy Redeemer, our Master and our King, it is to Thy Sacred Heart, that ocean of love and goodness, that we owe the inestimable blessing of a Mission. Touched with compassion at the sight of our miseries and the eternal unhappiness that threatens us, Thou hast resolved to save us. The missionaries who are coming to us are Thy representatives; in Thy person they will break for us the bread of God's Word and will bring to us the joy of forgiveness. Grant, O Lord, that we may be faithful to Thy grace and correspond zealously with the advances of Thy mercy. Let the preaching of Thy eternal truths enlighten and quicken our minds, and deeply move our hearts, so that we may realize our shortcomings and sincerely repent of them. To the poor souls plunged in the darkness of ignorance and error do Thou grant the light of faith. To those who have saddened Thee by a wicked life, do Thou give the grace of a sincere conversion. Bestow fresh fervor upon the lukewarm, and upon the just true progress in the way of virtue. Send forth Thy Holy Spirit upon all of us, and the face of this parish (or this place) shall be renewed. And thou, O Mary, immaculate Virgin and Mother of Perpetual Help, thou art the refuge and advocate of poor sinners; the more guilty they are, the more claim they have upon thy tenderness. It is for this reason that we make bold to implore thy powerful and motherly protection with all confidence. Our salvation is in Thy hands, plead our cause and intercede for us with thy divine Son. Saint N . . ., Patron of the parish of N . . ., pray for us during the blessed days of this Mission. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days in places, where missions or retreats have been publicly announced beforehand to the people, up to the beginning of the same (S. C. of the Holy Office, Feb. 27, 1913, S. P. Ap., May 17, 1935).

II

A PRAYER AFTER A MISSION OR RETREAT

587

Jesus Christ, who for my sake didst will to be nailed to the Cross, I give Thee thanks for all the benefits of Thy love which Thou hast bestowed upon me during this sacred Mission (or Retreat). Behold, once again I am persuaded that only one thing is needful, that is to say, the salvation of my one and only immortal soul. Wherefore I firmly resolve to avoid mortal sin above all things, as well as every voluntary and proximate occasion thereof, especially the sin of . . . , which has been the chief cause of my spiritual ruin. Further, I earnestly desire to avoid venial sin and all perverse attachment thereto; and I engage myself to fulfil faithfully and conscientiously all the duties of my state of life, and to direct my entire life according to Thy most holy will. Moreover, I promise Thee, good Jesus, to be instant in prayer every day of my life, and to have recourse to prayer, especially when temptation presses upon me. I resolve to keep holy the Lord's day, and to approach Thy holy Table frequently and devoutly. Finally I offer unto Thee my whole life and, in particular, my labors and my sufferings. Bless me and all who have taken part with me in this sacred Mission (this sacred Retreat). Give me, Lord Jesus, Thy Mother to be my special Patroness, and be Thou my consolation and my joy even to the blessed end of my life. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days, within the year that follows a mission or retreat (S. C. of the Holy Office, Jan. 29, 1914; S. P. Ap., May 17, 1935).

NOTE: For indulgences granted to those who make a retreat, see n. 642 a.

Iesu Christe, qui pro me cruci affígi voluísti, grátias tibi ago pro cunctis amoris tui beneficiis, quæ hisce sacrárum Missiónum (sacrórum Exercitiórum) diébus mihi contulísti. En íterum mihi persuásum est ante ómnia oportére, ut salvem ánimam meam, únicam et immortálem. Ideóque fírmiter propóno in primis omne peccátum lethále vitæ omnémque voluntáriam atque próximam peccáti occasiõnem, máxime vero ... quæ præ céteris mihi nocuménto fuit. Sed étiam peccáto veniáli omnique ad ipsum pravo afféctui pro víribus obsístere volo. Promitto tibi, me ómnia status vel officii mei múnera fidéliter atque religiõse adimpletúrum, totámque vitam meam iuxta sanctíssimam voluntátem tuam institutúrum. Insuper promitto tibi, o bone Iesu, me quotidiánis oratiõnibus instáre velle, præsertim vero, tentatiõne urgénte, ad oratiõnem confúgere. Diem domínicam sanctificáre volo et ad Mensam sanctam tuam fréquenter et devóte accédere. Dénique totam vitam meam tibi óffero, máxime labóres meos atque dolóres. Bénedic mihi et ómnibus qui mecum huic sacræ Missiõni (hisce sacris Exercítiis) interfuérunt. Da mihi, Dómine Iesu, Matrem tuam in patrónam singulárem et esto solátium et gáudium meum usque ad vitæ meæ beátum finem. Amen.

III

MISSION CROSSES

588

The faithful who devoutly make a visit to a cross erected in memory of a Mission may gain:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, on the day of the erection or blessing of the Mission cross, on the anniversary of the same, on the Feasts of the Finding (May 3) and of the Exaltation (September 14) of the Holy Cross, or on any of the seven days following any of the above.

The faithful who salute the aforesaid cross with some external mark of reverence and say one Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be, in honor of our Lord's passion, may gain:

An indulgence of 5 years (S. C. of the Holy Office, Aug. 13, 1913; S. P. Ap., March 18, 1932).

NOTE: The cross to be erected must be of durable and handsome material; it must be fastened in a definite place or sustained by a firm base; it must be blessed by the priest who preached the sacred Mission; further, the consent of the local Ordinary must be obtained.

CHAPTER VI

FOR A HAPPY DEATH

I

INVOCATIONS

589

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I give you my heart and soul.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, assist me in my last agony.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, let me breathe forth my spirit in peace with you.

An indulgence of 7 years for each invocation.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, for the recitation of each of the foregoing invocations every day for a month (S. C. Ind., April 28, 1807; S. P. Ap., Oct. 12, 1936).

590

From a sudden and unprovided death, deliver us, O Lord.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Nov. 12, 1935).

Asubitánea et improvísá morte líbera nos, Dómine.

NOTE: An invocation for a happy death, addressed to God the Father, is found under n. 19; to the B. V. M., under n. 283; to the Holy Family of J. M. J., under n. 255.

II

AN ACT OF ACCEPTING ONE'S OWN DEATH FROM THE HAND OF GOD

591

The faithful who at any time in their lives, from a sincere spirit of love of God and with at least a contrite heart, express their intention of accepting calmly and gladly from the hand of God whatsoever manner of death it may please Him to send them, together with all its pain, anguish and suffering, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years;

A plenary indulgence at the hour of death, if they have devoutly made such an act at least once in their lifetime, after having fulfilled the usual conditions (S. C. Ind., March 9, 1904; Holy Office, Nov. 16, 1916; S. P. Ap., March 18, 1932).

III

PIOUS EXERCISES

592

Prayers

Remember, O Virgin Mother of God, when thou shalt stand in the sight of the Lord, to speak good things for us and to turn away His indignation from us.

Holy Mother, pierce me through,
In my heart each wound renew,
Of my Saviour crucified.

Let me to my latest breath,
In my body bear the death
Of that dying Son of thine.

Be to me, O Virgin, nigh
Lest in flames I burn and die
In that awful judgment day.

Christ, when Thou shalt call me hence,
Be Thy Mother my defense,
Be Thy Cross my victory.

While my body here decays,
May my soul Thy goodness praise
Safe in Paradise with Thee. Amen.

℣. Pray for us, O most sorrowful Virgin,
℟. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

Let intercession be made for us, we beseech Thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, now and at the hour of our death, before the throne of Thy mercy, by the blessed Virgin Mary, Thy Mother, whose most holy soul was pierced by a sword of sorrow in the hour of Thy bitter passion. Through Thee, Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, who with the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

Hail Mary, three times.

Y. Our Lady of a happy death,

R. Pray for us.

Y. Saint Joseph,

R. Pray for us.

An indulgence of 3 years.

The faithful who complete a novena, reciting daily the prayers set forth above, may gain:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (Brief, March 22, 1918; S. P. Ap., June 15, 1935).

Recordáre, Virgo Mater Dei, dum stéteris in conspéctu Dómini, ut loquáris pro nobis bona et ut avértat indignatióem suam a nobis.

Sancta Mater, istud agas,
Crucifíxi fige plagas
Cordi meo válide.

Fac ut portem Christi mortem,
Passiónis fac consórtem
Et plagas recólere.

Flammis ne urar succénsus,
Per te, Virgo, sim defénsus
In die iudícii.

Christe, cum sit hinc exíre,
Da per Matrem me veníre
Ad palmam victóriæ.

Quando corpus moriétur,
Fac ut ánimæ donétur
Paradísi glória. Amen.

℣. Ora pro nobis, Virgo dolorosíssima.

℞. Quæ iuxta crucem Iesu constitísti.

Orémus.

Intervéniat pro nobis, quæsumus, Dómine Iesu Christe, nunc et in hora mortis nostræ, apud tuam cleméntiam beáta Virgo María, Mater tua, cuius sacratíssimam ánimam in hora tuæ passiónis dolóris gládius pertransívit. Per te, Iesu Christe, Salvátor mundi, qui cum Patre et Spíritu Sancto vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculórum. Amen.

Ter Ave, María.

℣. Nostra Dómina a bona morte,

℞. Ora pro nobis.

℣. Sancte Ioseph,

℞. Ora pro nobis.

593

Rhyme

Ave, Mater dolorosa

Mother, hail, immersed in woes,
Thou the Martyrs' earliest rose,
Hear my cry, to thee I pray:

Grant that in death's agony,
Putting all my trust in thee,
I may win the just soul's peace.

By that sorrow, like a sword,
At the holy Simeon's word,
Piercing through thy heart and soul:
Grant that in death's agony, etc.

By that sorrow, whelming thee,
When to Egypt thou dost flee,
 So to save thy holy Child:
Grant that in death's agony, etc.

By that sorrow, when in tears,
Seeking Jesus midst His peers,
 Thou dost find Him once again:
Grant that in death's agony, etc.

By that sorrow, racking thee,
When thy Son's Cross thou dost see
 Bowing Him beneath its weight:
Grant that in death's agony, etc.

By that sorrow, fixed in thee,
Whilst He hangs upon the tree,
 Thou thyself a victim too:
Grant that in death's agony, etc.

By that sorrow, when thy breast
Now enfolds that body blest
 Taken down from off the Cross:
Grant that in death's agony, etc.

By that sorrow, when the tomb
Takes Him from thee to its gloom,
 Loving Mother, Virgin blest:
Grant that in death's agony, etc.

Christ, when Thou shalt call me hence,
Be Thy Mother my defense,
 Be Thy Cross my victory. Amen.

(tr. C. E. Spence).

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, if this rhyme is devoutly recited every day (Brief, March 22, 1919; S. P. Ap., July 24, 1931).

NOTE: Other prayers are found under n. 174.

Rhythmus

Ave, Mater dolorósa,
Martyrúmque prima rosa,
Audi vocem súpplicis:

Fac, ut mortis in agóne,
Tua fidens protectióne,
Iusti pacem gáudeam.

Per dolórem, o María,
Tibi Senis prophetía
Velut ense, cónditum:

Fac, ut mortis in agóne, etc.

Per dolórem, quem tulísti,
In Ægýptum quum fugísti,
Ut salváres Púerum:

Fac, ut mortis in agóne, etc.

Per dolórem, quando mœrens,

Fac, ut mortis in agóne, etc.

Per dolórem, quando Christi
Corpus ulnis excepísti,
E cruce depósitum:

Fac, ut mortis in agóne, etc.

Per dolórem, dum condébas,
Pia Mater, et linqúebas,
In sepúlcro Fílium:

Fac, ut mortis in agóne, etc.

Christe, cum sit hinc exíre,
Da per Matrem me veníre
Ad palmam victóriæ.
Amen.

IV

PRAYERS

594

O most merciful Lord Jesus, by Thine agony and sweat of Blood, by Thy precious death, deliver us, we beseech Thee, from a sudden and unprovided death. O most kind Lord Jesus, by Thy most sharp and ignominious scourging and crowning with thorns, by Thy holy Cross and bitter passion, by Thy loving kindness, we humbly pray that Thou wouldst not suffer us to die unprovided with Thy holy Sacraments. O dearly beloved Lord Jesus, by all Thy labors and sorrows, by Thy Precious Blood and sacred Wounds, by those Thy last words on the Cross: "My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken me?" and those others: "Father, into Thy hands I commend my spirit," we most earnestly beseech Thee to deliver us from a sudden death. Grant us, we pray, room for repentance; grant us a happy passing in Thy grace, that so we may be able to love Thee, praise Thee and bless Thee forever. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be to the Father.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, when this prayer has been devoutly said every day for a month (S. C. Ind., March 2, 1816; S. P. Ap., May 12, 1933).

O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee; O refuge of sinners, Mother of the dying, forsake us not at the hour of our death; obtain for us the grace of perfect sorrow, sincere contrition, the pardon and remission of our sins, a worthy receiving of the holy Viaticum, and the comfort of the Sacrament of Extreme Unction, in order that we may appear with greater security before the throne of the just but merciful Judge, our God and our Redeemer. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (Secretariat of Briefs, March 11, 1856; S. P. Ap., March 7, 1932).

O María sine labe concépta, ora pro nobis, qui confúgimus ad te; o Refúgium peccatórum, Mater agonizántium, noli nos derelínquere in hora éxitus nostri, sed ímpetra nobis dolórem perféctum, sincéram contritiónem, remissiónem peccatórum nostrórum, sanctíssimi Viáticos dignam receptiónem, Extrémæ Unctiónis Sacraménti corroboratiónem, ut magis secúri præsentári valeámus ante thronum iusti sed et misericórdis Iúdicis, Dei et Redemptóris nostri. Amen.

O good Jesus, Son of the living God, who for our salvation didst vouchsafe to be born in a stable, to live in poverty, suffering and misery, and to die amidst the torments of the Cross, say to Thy divine Father, I beseech Thee, at the hour of my death: "Father, forgive him;" say to Thy beloved Mother: "Behold thy son;" say to my soul: "This day shalt thou be with Me in paradise." My God, my God, forsake me not in that hour! "I thirst!" verily, my God, my soul thirsteth after Thee, who art the fountain of living waters. My life passeth by like a shadow; yet a little while, and all things shall be accomplished. Wherefore, my adorable Saviour, from this moment to all eternity "into Thy hands I commend my spirit." Lord Jesu, receive my soul. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., June 10, 1856; S. P. Ap., Oct. 27, 1934).

O bone Iesu Fili Dei vivi, qui pro nostra salute in stábulo nasci, vitam in paupertáte, ærumnis et miséria dégere, et in Crucis dolóribus mori dignátus es, divíno tuo Patri dic, quæso, in moménto mortis meæ: Pater ignósce ei; dic Matri tuæ diléctæ: Ecce filius tuus; dic ánimæ meæ: Hódie mecum eris in paradíso. Deus meus, Deus meus, ne derelínquas me in illa hora! Sítio: útique Deus meus, ánima mea sitit ad te, qui es fons aquárum vivéntium. Vita mea præterit velut umbra; adhuc módicum et consummáta erunt ómnia. Quaprópter, o Salvátor mi adorábilis, ex hoc moménto in omnem æternitátem in manus tuas comméndo spíritum meum. Dómine Iesu, áccipe ánimam meam. Amen.

A Collect

Grant unto us, Lord Jesus, ever to follow the example of Thy holy Family, that in the hour of our death Thy glorious Virgin Mother together with blessed Joseph may come to meet us and we may be worthily received by Thee into everlasting dwellings: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, for the devout repetition of this prayer every day for a month (S. C. Ind., March 25, 1897; S. P. Ap., Nov. 22, 1934).

Fac nos, Dómine Iesu, sanctæ Famíliæ tuæ exéempla iúgiter imitári, ut in hora mortis nostræ, occurrénte gloriósa Vírgine Matre tua cum beáto Joseph, per te in ætéRNA tabernácula récipi mereámur: Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculórum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

598

O Jesu, whilst I adore Thy dying breath, I beseech Thee to receive mine. Being uncertain whether I shall have command of my senses when I depart from this world, I offer Thee even now my last agony and all the sorrows of my passing. Since Thou art my Father and my Saviour, I give back my soul into Thy hands. Grant that the last beat of my heart may be an act of pure love toward Thee. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days once a day (S. C. Ind., July 16, 1902; S. P. Ap., Jan. 8, 1931).

599

Have mercy on me, O God: and hear my prayer (Ps. 4, 2).

Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I am weak: heal me, O Lord, for my bones are troubled (Ps. 6, 3).

Have mercy upon me, O Lord: see my humiliation which I suffer from my enemies (Ps. 9, 14).

Have mercy on me, O God: for I am afflicted: my eye is troubled with wrath, my soul and my belly (Ps. 30, 10).

Have mercy on me, O God: according to Thy great mercy (Ps. 50, 3).

Be merciful unto me, O God, for man hath trodden me under foot: he afflicted me all the day long fighting against me (Ps. 55, 2).

Be merciful unto me, O God; be merciful unto me; for my soul trusteth in Thee (Ps. 56, 2).

Be merciful unto me, O Lord: for I have cried unto Thee all the day long: give joy to the soul of Thy servant, for unto Thee, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul (Ps. 85, 3-4)

Have mercy on us, O Lord, have mercy on us: for we are greatly filled with contempt (Ps. 122, 3).

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Let us pray.

Lord Jesus Christ, who willest that no man should perish, and to whom supplication is never made without the hope of mercy, for Thou saidst with Thine own holy and blessed lips: "All things whatsoever ye shall ask in My name, shall be done unto you"; I ask of Thee, O Lord, for Thy holy Name's sake, to grant me at the hour of my death full consciousness and the power of speech, sincere contrition for my sins, true faith, firm hope and perfect charity, that I may be able to say unto Thee with a clean heart: Into Thy hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit: Thou hast redeemed me, O God of truth, who art blessed for ever and ever. Amen (St. Vincent Ferrer).

An indulgence of 3 years once a day (S. C. of the Holy Office, June 5, 1913; S. P. Ap., Dec. 12, 1933).

Miserére mei, Deus: et exáudi oratióem meam (Ps. IV, v. 2).

Miserére mei, Dómine, quóniam infírmus sum: sana me, Dómine, quóniam conturbáta sunt ossa mea (Ps. VI, v. 3).

Miserére mei, Dómine: vide humilitátem meam de inimícis meis (Ps. IX, v. 14).

Miserére mei, Deus; quóniam tríbulator: conturbátus est in ira óculus meus et venter meus (Ps. XXX, v. 10).

Miserére mei, Deus: secúndum magnam misericórdiam tuam (Ps. L, v. 3).

Miserére mei, Deus, quóniam conculcávit me homo: tota die impúgnans tribulávit me (Ps. LV, v. 2).

Miserére mei, Deus, miserére mei: quóniam in te confídit ánima mea (Ps. LVI, v. 2).

Miserére mei, Dómine, quóniam ad te clamávi tota die: lætífica ánimam servi tui, quóniam ad te, Dómine ánimam meam levávi (Ps. LXXXV, v. 3-4).

Miserére nostri, Dómine, miserére nostri: quia multum repléti sumus despectiône (Ps. CXXII, v. 3).

Glória Patri, et Filio, et Spirítui Sancto. Sicut erat in princípio, et nunc, et semper, et in sæcula sæculórum. Amen.

Oremus.

Dómine Iesu Christe, qui néminem vis períre, et cui numquam sine spe misericórdiæ supplicátur, nam Tu dixísti ore sancto tuo et benedícto: Omnia quæcúmque petiérítis in nómine meo, fient vobis; peto a te, Dómine, propter nomen sanctum tuum, ut in artículo mortis meæ des mihi integritátem sensus cum loquéla, veheméntem contritióem de peccátis meis, veram fidem, spem ordinátam, caritátem perféctam, ut tibi puro corde dícere váleam: In manus tuas, Dómine, comméndo spíritum meum: redemísti me, Deus veritátis, qui es benedíctus in sæcula sæculórum. Amen (S. Vincentius Ferrerius).

O my adorable Creator, I ask of Thee the greatest of all Thy graces, that is to say, a holy death. No matter how greatly I have hitherto abused the life Thou gavest me, grant me the grace to end it in Thy holy love.

Let me die, like the holy Patriarchs, forsaking this valley of tears without sadness, to enter into the joy of eternal rest in my own true country.

Let me die, like the glorious Saint Joseph, in the arms of Jesus and Mary, repeating in turn each of these sweet Names which I hope to bless throughout eternity.

Let me die, like the immaculate and blessed Virgin, in the purest love and desire to be reunited to the only object of my love.

Let me die, like Jesus on the Cross, with the most lively sentiments of hatred for sin, of charity toward Thee, O heavenly Father, and of perfect resignation in my agony. Holy Father, into Thy hands I commend my spirit. Be merciful unto me.

Jesus, who didst die for me, grant me the grace of dying in an act of perfect love for Thee.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for me now and at the hour of my death.

My Guardian Angel, my holy Patron Saints, forsake me not at the hour of my death.

Saint Joseph, obtain for me the grace of dying the death of the just. Amen.

O my God, sovereign Lord of life and of death, who, by an immutable decree for the punishment of sin, hast determined that all men must die, behold me humbly kneeling before Thy dread Majesty, resigned and submissive to this law of Thy justice. With all my heart I detest my past sins, by which I have deserved death a thousand times; and for this cause I accept death in reparation for my sins and in obedience to Thy holy will. Yes, great God, send death upon me where Thou wilt, when Thou wilt, and in what manner Thou wilt. Meantime I shall avail myself of the days which it shall please Thee to bestow upon me, to detach myself from this world and to break every tie that holds me in bondage to this place of exile, and to prepare myself to appear with sure confidence before Thy judgment seat. Wherefore I surrender myself without reserve into the hands of Thy fatherly Providence. May Thy divine will be done now and for evermore! Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days once a day (S. P. Ap., Jan. 15, 1920 and Aug. 18, 1936).

My journey toward eternity, dear Lord, is encompassed round about by powerful enemies of my soul. I live in fear and trembling, especially at the thought of the hour of death, on which my eternity will depend, and of the fearful struggle that the devil will then have to wage against me, knowing that little time is left for him to accomplish my eternal ruin. I desire, therefore, O Lord, to prepare myself for it from this hour, by offering Thee this day, in view of my last hour, those protestations of faith and love for Thee, which are so effectual in repressing and bringing to naught all the crafty and wicked arts of the enemy and which I resolve to oppose to him at that moment of such grave consequence, even though he should dare alone to attack with his deceits the peace and tranquility of my spirit.

I N.N., in the presence of the Most Holy Trinity, the blessed Virgin Mary, my holy Guardian Angel and the entire heavenly host, protest that I wish to live and die under the standard of the holy Cross. I firmly believe all that our holy Mother, the Catholic and Apostolic Roman Church, believes and teaches. It is my steadfast intention to die in this holy faith, in which all the holy Martyrs, Confessors and Virgins of Christ have died, as well as all those who have saved their souls.

If the devil should tempt me to despair because of the multitude and grievousness of my sins, I protest that from this day forth I firmly hope in the infinite mercy of God, which will not suffer itself to be overcome by my sins, and in the Precious Blood of Jesus which has washed them all away.

If the devil should assail me with temptations to presumption by reason of the small amount of good which by the help of God I may have been able to accomplish, I confess from this day forth that I deserve hell a thousand times by my sins and I entrust myself wholly to the infinite goodness of God, through Whose grace alone I am what I am.

Finally, if the evil spirit should suggest to me that the pains inflicted upon me by our Lord in that last hour of my life are too heavy to bear, I protest now that all will be as nothing in comparison with the punishments I have deserved throughout life. I thank God that He should deign to give me by these sufferings an opportunity in this life to discharge my debt to Him, which I should have to pay hereafter in the pains of purgatory.

In the bitterness of my soul I call to remembrance all my years; I see my iniquities, I confess them and detest them. Ashamed and sorrowful I turn to Thee, my God, my Creator and my Redeemer. Forgive me, O Lord, by the multitude of Thy mercies; forgive Thy servant whom Thou hast redeemed by Thy Precious Blood.

My God, I turn to Thee, I call upon Thee, I trust in Thee; to Thine infinite goodness I commit the entire reckoning of my life. I have sinned exceedingly; enter not into judgment with Thy servant, who surrenders to Thee and confesses his guilt. Of myself I cannot make satisfaction unto Thee for my countless sins: I have not wherewith to pay Thee, and my debt is infinite. But Thy Son hath shed His Blood for me, and greater than all mine iniquity is Thy mercy.

O Jesus, be my Saviour! At the hour of my fearful crossing to eternity put to flight the enemy of my soul; grant me grace to overcome every difficulty, Thou who alone doest mighty wonders.

Lord, according to the multitude of Thy tender mercies I shall enter into Thy dwelling place. Trusting in Thy pity, I commend my spirit into Thy hands!

May the Blessed Virgin Mary and my Guardian Angel accompany my soul into the heavenly country. Amen. (From the works of St. Pompilio M. Pirotti).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of this prayer for a month (S. P. Ap., Feb. 6, 1934 and May 15, 1937).

602

Almighty and merciful God, who hast bestowed upon mankind the medicine of salvation and the gift of everlasting life: mercifully look upon us Thy servants and restore the souls which Thou hast made, that in the hour of their passing they may deserve to be cleansed from all sin and set before Thee, their Creator, by the hands of Thy holy Angels. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions, if this prayer is said devoutly every day (S. P. Ap., Sept. 9, 1935).

Omnípotens et miséricors Deus, qui humano géneri et salutis remédia et vitæ æternæ múnera contulisti: respice propítius nos fámulos tuos et ánimas réfove, quas creásti, ut in hora éxitus eárum absque peccáti mácula tibi Creatóri suo per manus sanctórum Angelórum repræsentári mereámur. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

603

Lord Jesu, pour into us the spirit of Thy love, that in the hour of our death we may be worthy to vanquish the enemy and attain unto the heavenly crown: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, provided that this prayer is devoutly said every day for a month (S. P. Ap., Apr. 21, 1936).

Dómine Iesu, spíritum nobis tuæ dilectiónis infúnde, ut in hora éxitus nostri hostem víncere et ad cælestem mereámur corónam perveníre: Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculórum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

604

Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that in the hour of our death we may be refreshed by Thy holy Sacraments and delivered from all guilt, and so deserve to be received with joy into the arms of Thy mercy. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if the daily recitation of this prayer is continued for one month (S. P. Ap., Nov. 11, 1936).

Da, quæsumus Dómine, ut in hora mortis nostræ Sacraméntis refécti et culpis ómnibus expiáti, in sinum misericórdiæ tuæ læti súscipi mereámur. Per Chrstum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

CHAPTER VII

MISCELLANEOUS DEVOTIONS

I

PRAYERS FOR THE SOVEREIGN PONTIFF

605

Invocation

Lord Jesus, shelter our Holy Father the Pope under the protection of Thy Sacred Heart. Be Thou his light, his strength and his consolation.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Jan. 18, 1924 and June 19, 1933).

606

A Day Dedicated to the Sovereign Pontiff

The faithful who devoutly assist at any of the religious services held every year, on a day dedicated to the Sovereign Pontiff, either to celebrate solemnly the praises of the Roman Pontiff and to call to mind the countless benefits which he has hitherto bestowed upon the whole world, or to give thanks to God for the preservation of the life of the supreme Ruler of the Church and at the same time to obtain from Almighty God the help he needs in ruling the Church, exposed as she is to so many dangers, may gain:

An indulgence of 10 years, if a prayer for the intentions of his Holiness is added;

A plenary indulgence, if in addition they go to confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the intentions of the Pope (S. C. Ap., Dec. 29, 1933).

607

Versicle and Response

V. Let us pray for our Pontiff N.

R. The Lord preserve him, and give him life, and make him to be blessed upon the earth, and deliver him not up to the will of his enemies (Roman Breviary)

Our Father, Hail Mary.

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, when this prayer has been devoutly said every day for a month (S. C. Ind., Nov. 26, 1876; S. P. Ap., Oct. 12, 1931).

V. Orémus pro Pontífice nostro N.

R. Dóminus consérvet eum, et vivíficet eum, et beátum fáciat eum in terra, et non tradat eum in ánimam inimicórum eius (ex Breviario Romano).

Pater, Ave.

608

Prayer

O Lord, we are the millions of believers, humbly kneeling at Thy feet and begging Thee to preserve, defend and save the Sovereign Pontiff for many years. He is the Father of the great fellowship of souls and our Father as well. On this day, as on every other day, he is praying for us also, and is offering unto Thee with holy fervor the sacred Victim of love and peace.

Wherefore, O Lord, turn Thyself toward us with eyes of pity; for we are now, as it were, forgetful of ourselves, and are praying above all for him. Do Thou unite our prayers with his and receive them into the bosom of Thine infinite mercy, as a sweet savor of active and fruitful charity, whereby the children are united in the Church to their Father. All that he asks of Thee this day, we too ask it of Thee in union with him.

Whether he weeps or rejoices, whether he hopes or offers himself as a victim of charity for his people, we desire to be united with him; nay more, we desire that the cry of our hearts should be made one with his. Of Thy great mercy grant, O Lord, that not one of us may be far from his mind and his heart in the hour that he prays and offers unto Thee the Sacrifice of Thy blessed Son. At the moment when our venerable High Priest, holding in His hands the very Body of Jesus Christ, shall say to the people over the Chalice of benediction these words: "The peace of the Lord be with you always," grant, O Lord, that Thy sweet peace may come down upon our hearts and upon all the nations with new and manifest power. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days once a day (Leo XIII, Audience May 8, 1896; S. P. Ap., Jan. 18, 1934).

Collect

O God, the Shepherd and Ruler of all Thy faithful people, mercifully look upon Thy servant N., whom Thou hast chosen as the chief Shepherd to preside over Thy Church; grant him, we beseech Thee, so to edify, both by word and example, those over whom he hath charge, that he may attain unto everlasting life, together with the flock committed unto him. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this prayer is devoutly said every day for a month (S. P. Ap., Nov. 22, 1934).

Deus ómnium fidélium pastor et rector, fámulum tuum N., quem pastórem Ecclésiæ tuæ præesse voluísti, propítius réspice: da ei, quæsumus, verbo et exémplo, quibus præest, profícere; ut ad vitam, una cum grege sibi crédito, pervéniat sempitérnâ. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

610

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, have mercy upon Thy servant N, our Supreme Pontiff, and direct him, according to Thy loving kindness, in the way of eternal salvation; that, of Thy gift, he may ever desire that which is pleasing unto Thee and may accomplish it with all his might. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Ritual).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence once a month under the usual conditions, for the daily devout recitation of this collect (S. P. Ap., March 10, 1935).

Omnípotens sempitérne Deus, miserére fámulo tuo Pontífici nostro N, et dirige eum secúndum tuam cleméntiam in viam salutis æternæ: ut, te donánte, tibi plácita cúpiat et tota virtúte perfíciat. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Rituali Romano).

II

PRAYERS TO OBTAIN FROM GOD
THE SANCTIFICATION OF THE CLERGY

611

An Invocation

Jesus, Saviour of the world, sanctify Thy priests and sacred ministers.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Dec. 15, 1936; Apr. 12, 1937).

Iesu, Salvátor mundi, sanctífica sacerdótes et levítas tuos.

612

A Day dedicated to the Sanctification of the Clergy

The faithful who on the first Thursday or Saturday of any month, on Holy Thursday, on the Feast of Our Lady, Queen of Apostles, or on the Birthdays of the Holy Apostles, in some church or public oratory, or even a semi-public oratory (in the case of those who may lawfully use the latter), publicly or privately perform the devout exercise of offering to God the holy Sacrifice of the Mass and Holy Communion, as well as all their prayers and good works done that day, in behalf of the priests and sacred ministers of the Church, that our Lord Jesus Christ, the eternal High Priest, may sanctify them and make them to be priests after His own Heart, may gain:

A plenary indulgence, if in addition, they make their confession and pray for the intentions of His Holiness, the Pope.

If, however, they devoutly perform this same pious exercise on other days of the year, they may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years (S. P. Ap., Dec. 15, 1936 and April 12, 1937).

613

An Act of Oblation

O Jesus, humbled in the Eucharist to be the source and center of charity of the Catholic Church and the strength of souls, we offer Thee our prayers, our actions, our sufferings in behalf of Thy priests, to the end that each day may behold the wider extension of the Kingdom of Thy Sacred Heart.

An indulgence of 300 days once a day (S. P. Ap., April 8, 1919).

614

A Prayer

O Jesus, eternal High Priest, divine Sacrificer, Thou who in an unspeakable burst of love for men, Thy brethren, didst cause the Christian priesthood to spring forth from Thy Sacred Heart, vouchsafe to pour forth upon Thy priests continual living streams of infinite love.

Live in them, transform them into Thee; make them, by Thy grace, fit instruments of Thy mercy; do Thou act in them and through them, and grant, that they may become wholly one with Thee by their faithful imitation of Thy virtues; and, in Thy name and by the strength of Thy spirit, may they do the works which Thou didst accomplish for the salvation of the world.

Divine Redeemer of souls, behold how great is the multitude of those who still sleep in the darkness of error; reckon up the number of those unfaithful sheep who stray to the edge of the precipice; consider the throngs of the poor, the hungry, the ignorant and the feeble who groan in their abandoned condition.

Return to us in the person of Thy priests; truly live again in them; act through them and pass once more through the world, teaching, forgiving, comforting, sacrificing and renewing the sacred bonds of love between the Heart of God and the heart of man. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days once a day.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if the daily recitation of this prayer is continued for a month (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, March 3, 1905, exhib. Feb. 13, 1911; S. P. Ap., May 17, 1927).

615

A Collect

O God, who hast appointed Thine only-begotten Son to be the eternal High Priest for the glory of Thy Majesty and the salvation of mankind; grant that they whom He hath chosen to be His ministers and the stewards of His mysteries, may be found faithful in the fulfilment of the ministry which they have received. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, for the daily and devout recitation of this prayer throughout an entire month (S. P. Ap., Dec. 15, 1936).

Deus, qui ad maiestatis tuæ glóriam et géneris húmáni salútem, Unigénitum tuum summum atque ætérnum constituísti Sacerdótem; præsta, ut quos minístros et mysteriórum suórum dispensatóres elégit, in accépto ministério adimpléndo fidéles inveniántur. Per eúndem Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

III

PRAYERS FOR MILITARY CHAPLAINS

616

The faithful who devoutly recite Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be, five times, in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, in order to obtain the preservation of military chaplains in purity and holiness of life, may gain:

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Nov. 12, 1934).

IV

A PRAYER FOR CHILDREN

617

O Jesus, friend of little children, Thou who, from Thy tenderest years, didst manifestly grow in wisdom and grace, before

God and men; Thou who, at the age of twelve years, sitting in the temple in the midst of the Doctors, didst listen to them with attention, didst ask questions of them in all humility, and didst win their admiration by the prudence and wisdom of Thy words; Thou who didst receive the little children so gladly, blessing them and saying to Thine Apostles: "Suffer the little children to come unto Me, for of such is the kingdom of heaven," inspire me, even as Thou didst inspire Saint Peter Canisius, the model and guide of the perfect catechist, with a deep respect and holy affection for little children, sincere zeal and devotion in teaching them the elements of Christian doctrine, and a special aptitude for making them understand its mysteries and love its beauty. I ask it of Thee, my Jesus, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days once a day (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, Nov. 23, 1906, exhib. March 15, 1907).

V

PRAYERS FOR EMIGRANTS

618

A Prayer to Jesus Christ

O Jesus, who in the very first days of Thine earthly life wast compelled, together with Mary, Thy loving Mother, and Saint Joseph, to leave Thy native land and to endure in Egypt the misery and discomforts of poor emigrants, turn Thine eyes upon our brethren, who, far away from their dear country and from all that is dear to them, are not infrequently constrained to struggle with the difficulties of a new life, and who are likewise often exposed to grave dangers and snares for their immortal souls.

Be Thou their guide in their uncertain journey, their help in trouble, their comfort in sorrow; keep them safe in their faith, holy in their lives, and faithful to their children, their wives, and their parents; grant, O Lord, that we may be able to embrace them affectionately once more in their native land, and hereafter to live inseparably united to them at the foot of Thy throne in our heavenly country. Amen.

An indulgence of 350 days (Pius XI, Audience Oct. 26, 1928; exhib. Nov. 19, 1928; S. P. Ap., Aug. 22, 1936)•

Prayers to St. Raphaël the Archangel

I. Saint Raphael the Archangel, thou wast a faithful companion to the young man, Tobias, on his long journey from Syria to Media, rescuing him from many dangers and, in particular, from the danger of death in the river Tigris; we beseech thee with all our hearts to be a safe guide and an Angel of consolation to our dear ones on the long journey which they must undertake in order to remove to foreign lands; do thou keep them far from all dangers of body and soul, and grant that they may come in safety to the haven of their desire.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

II. Saint Raphael the Archangel, arriving in Media thou didst bestow upon the young man, Tobias, extraordinary favors, going thyself to the city of Rages to receive the money from Gabelus, and causing him to find a worthy spouse in Sara, when she was delivered from the slavery of the demon, and enriching him with the goods of fortune; look, we humbly beseech thee, upon our dear ones who find themselves in foreign lands; do thou in like manner extend unto them thy heavenly protection, prospering their labors to the benefit of our beloved families and saving them from the many snares which will be laid for their souls, so that they may be enabled to preserve the precious gift of faith and to conform their lives to its teaching.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

III. Saint Raphael the Archangel, who faithful to thy mission didst bring back safe and sound to Syria the young man, Tobias, enriching his house with blessings and graces, and even restoring the gift of sight to his blind father; ah, fulfil thy task in behalf of our dear emigrants. Bring them back in thine own good time, safe and sound, to our dear families, and grant that their return may be a source of consolation, prosperity and every choice blessing; and we too, like the family of Tobias, will thank thee for all thy tender care and will unite ourselves to thee in praising, blessing and thanking the Giver of every good and perfect gift. Amen.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

V. Pray for us, Saint Raphael the Archangel,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O God, who didst give Thy blessed Archangel Raphael unto Thy servant Tobias to be his fellow-traveler; grant unto us, Thy servants, that the same may ever keep us and shield us, help us and defend us. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days once a day (S. C. of the Holy Office, Feb. 17, 1910; S. P. Ap., Aug. 22, 1936).

VI

A PRAYER FOR BENEFACTORS

620

May it please Thee, O Lord, to reward with eternal life all those who do good to us for Thy Name's sake. Amen (Roman Breviary).

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., Dec. 17, 1892; S. P. Ap., June 17, 1933).

Retribuere dignare, Dómine, ómnibus nobis bona faciéntibus propter nomen tuum vitam ætérnam. Amen (ex Breviario Romano).

VII

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK

621

A Devout Practice

The faithful who visit the sick in hospitals in order to perform the works of charity, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years (Pius VII, Audience, Feb. 28, 1778; S. P. Ap., Feb. 16, 1932).

622

A Prayer

O glorious Saint Camillus, special patron of the sick poor, thou who for forty years, with truly heroic charity, didst devote thyself to the relief of their temporal and spiritual necessities, be pleased to assist them now even more generously, since thou art blessed in heaven and they have been committed by holy Church to thy powerful protection. Obtain for them from Almighty God the healing of all their maladies, or, at least, the spirit of Christian patience and resignation that may sanctify them and comfort them in the hour of their passing to eternity; at the same time get us the precious grace of living and dying after thine example in the practice of divine love. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be to the Father.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this prayer is said devoutly every day for a month (S. C. Ind., Feb. 27, 1894; S. P. Ap., April 24, 1931).

VIII

PRAYERS FOR THE DYING

623

A Devout Practice

The faithful who lovingly commend to Almighty God those who are in their last agony throughout the whole world, in order to obtain for them the grace of a happy death, may gain:

An indulgence of 300 days (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, Oct. 26, 1907; S. C. Ind., Dec. 18, 1907; S. P. Ap., April 10, 1932).

624

Prayers

Eternal Father, by the love Thou bearest toward Saint Joseph, who was chosen by Thee from among all men to exercise Thy divine fatherhood over Thy Son made Man, have mercy on us and upon all poor souls who are in their agony.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be to the Father.

Eternal Son of God, by the love Thou bearest toward Saint Joseph who was Thy most faithful Guardian upon earth, have mercy on us and upon all poor souls who are in their agony.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be to the Father.

Eternal Spirit of God, by the love Thou bearest toward Saint Joseph, who guarded with such tender care most holy Mary, Thy beloved Spouse, have mercy on us and upon all poor souls who are in their agony.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be to the Father.

An indulgence of 500 days once a day (S. C. Ind., May 17, 1884; S. P. Ap., Feb. 29, 1931).

NOTE: Other prayers are found under n. 174.

625

A Prayer

O most merciful Jesus, lover of souls, I beseech Thee, by the agony of Thy Most Sacred Heart and by the sorrows of Thine immaculate Mother, wash clean in Thy Blood the sinners of the whole world who are now in their agony and who are to die this day. Amen.

V. Heart of Jesus, who didst suffer death's agony.

R. Have mercy on the dying.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence once a month on the usual conditions, if this prayer is said with devotion thrice daily at three distinct times (S. C. Ind., Feb. 2, 1850; S. P. Ap., May 15, 1933).

O clementissime Iesu, amátor animárum, óbsecro te, per agoníam Cordis tui sanctíssimi et per dolóres Matris tuæ immaculátæ, lava in Sángvine tuo peccatóres totíus mundi nunc pósito in agonía et hódie moritúros. Amen.

V. Cor Iesu in agonía factum,

R. Miserére moriéntium.

IX

THE INDULGENCES OF "THE HOLY LAND"

626

The faithful who carry upon their persons or who reverently keep at home crosses, crucifixes, chaplets, small statues, medals and other objects of piety that have been touched to places in the Holy Land or to the sacred Relics preserved there, are granted the so-called Indulgences of the "Holy Land," which are the same as the Apostolic Indulgences (Innocent XI, Const. "Unigeniti," Jan. 28, 1688; S. C. Ind., June 4, 1721, and Aug. 18, 1895; S. P. Ap., Jan. 26, 1932).

NOTE: The Apostolic Indulgences are those which the Sovereign Pontiff imparts to the faithful who possess a chaplet, rosary, cross, crucifix, small statue or medal blessed by the Sovereign Pontiff or by a priest having faculties to give such blessing. Each Pope sets forth his own list of these indulgences, which list therefore ceases at his death.

FOR THOSE WHO SERVE HOLY MASS

627

The faithful who devoutly serve a priest who is offering the Sacrifice of the Mass, may gain:

An indulgence of 3 years (S. P. Ap., May 13, 1937).

XI

PRAYERS TO BE SAID AFTER THE CELEBRATION OF LOW MASS

628

Hail Mary, thrice.

Hail, holy Queen, etc.

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O God, our Refuge and our Strength, look down in mercy upon Thy people who cry unto Thee, and by the intercession of the glorious and immaculate Virgin Mary, Mother of God, with blessed Joseph, her Spouse, and Thy blessed Apostles, Peter and Paul, and all Thy Saints, mercifully and graciously hear the prayers which we pour forth for the conversion of sinners and for the freedom and exaltation of our holy Mother the Church. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Holy Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil: may God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all wicked spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

The faithful who devoutly recite these prayers kneeling, with the priest who has just celebrated a private Mass at which they have assisted, are granted:

An indulgence of 10 years (S. Cong. of Rites, Jan. 6, 1884 and Nov. 24, 1915; S. P. Ap., May 30, 1934).

Moreover, if the invocation: Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us, be added three times:

An indulgence of 7 years (S. C. Ind., June 17, 1904; S. P. Ap., March 18, 1932).

Ter Ave, María.

Salve, Regína.

Ÿ. Ora pro nobis, sancta Dei Génitrix,

℞. Ut digni efficiámur promissionibus Christi.

Orémus.

Deus, refúgium nostrum et virtus, pópulum ad te clamántem propítius réspice, et intercedénte gloriósa et immaculáta Vírgine Dei Genitríce María cum beáto Ioseph eius Sponso, ac beátis Apóstolis tuis, Petro et Paulo, et ómnibus Sanctis, quas pro conversióne peccatórum, pro libertáte et exaltatióne sanctæ Matris Ecclésiæ preces effúndimus, miséricors et benígnus exáudi. Per eúmdem Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen.

Sancte Míchaël Archángele, defénde nos in prælio, contra nequítias et insídias diaboli esto præsídiu:m: Imperet illi Deus, súpplices deprecámur, tuque, Princeps militiæ cæléstis, Sátanam aliósque spíritus malígnos, qui ad perditionem animárum pervagántur in mundo, divína virtúte in inférnum detrúde. Amen.

XII

ASSISTING AT THE FIRST MASS OF NEWLY-ORDAINED PRIESTS AND KISSING THE PALMS OF THEIR HANDS

629

a) The faithful who assist at the first Mass of any priest, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years;

A plenary indulgence, if they are kinsmen of the newly ordained priest within the third degree (inclusive) of consanguinity, and further have obtained the remission of their sins, received the Bread of Heaven and prayed for the intentions of His Holiness the Pope (S. C. Ind., Jan. 16, 1886; S. P. Ap., March 18, 1932).

b) Those who kiss the palms of the hands of a newly ordained priest, both on the day of ordination and on the day of the first Mass are granted:

An indulgence of 100 days (S. P. Ap., Dec. 29, 1934).

NOTE: The indulgences granted to a priest celebrating his first Mass are found under n. 684.

XIII

KISSING THE RING OF THE SOVEREIGN PONTIFF, OF CARDINALS AND OF BISHOPS

630

The faithful who devoutly kiss the ring:

a) Of the Sovereign Pontiff, are granted:

An indulgence of 300 days;

b) Of a Cardinal:

An indulgence of 100 days;

c) Of a Patriarch, Archbishop or Bishop:

An indulgence of 50 days (S. C. of the Holy Office, March 18, 1909; S. P. Ap., Dec. 29, 1934).

XIV

THE SIGN OF THE CROSS

631

The faithful, as often as they sign themselves with the sign of the Cross, with the invocation of the Most Holy Trinity: "In the Name of the Father," etc., are granted:

An indulgence of 100 days.

Whenever they make the same holy sign with blessed water, they may gain:

An indulgence of 300 days (Brief, July 28, 1863 and March 23, 1866; S. P. Ap., Feb. 10, 1935).

XV

THE RENEWAL OF ONE'S BAPTISMAL VOWS

632

The faithful who, at the end of a Mission or Retreat, or at any season of the year, devoutly assist at the pious ceremony held in parochial and other churches with the permission of the Ordinary in accordance with the rules and formulas laid down by him, in which the promises made in the reception of Baptism are solemnly renewed, may gain:

A plenary indulgence, if, in addition, they make their confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff (S. C. Ind., Feb. 27, 1907; S. P. Ap., June 21, 1927).

XVI

PRAYERS TO IMPLORE GOD'S HELP
BEFORE ANY ACTION

633

Collect

Go before us, O Lord, we beseech Thee, in all our doings with Thy gracious inspiration, and further us with Thy continual help, that every prayer and work of ours may begin from Thee, and by Thee be duly ended. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Dec. 14, 1934).

Actiões nostras, quæsumus Dómine, aspirándo præveni et adiuvándo proséquere: ut cuncta nostra orátio et operátio a te semper incípiat et per te cœpta finiátur. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen.

634

A Devout Practice

The faithful who on the first day of the year join in the devout chanting of the hymn "Veni Creator" in a church, public or semi-public oratory (in the case of those who may lawfully use the latter), in order to pray for God's help throughout the course of the year, are granted:

An indulgence of 10 years;

A plenary indulgence, if they go to confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the intentions of His Holiness the Pope (S. P. Ap., Aug. 10, 1936).

635

A Prayer

before assembly to transact some public business

We are come, O God the Holy Ghost, we are come before Thee, hindered indeed by our many and grievous sins, but especially gathered together in Thy Name. Come unto us and be with us; vouchsafe to enter our hearts; teach us what we are to do and whither we ought to tend; show us what we must accomplish, in order that, with Thy help, we may be able to please Thee in all things. Be Thou alone the Author and the Finisher of our judgments, who alone with God the Father and His Son dost possess a glorious Name.

Suffer us not to disturb the order of justice, Thou who lovest equity above all things; let not ignorance draw us into devious paths, nor partiality sway our minds, neither let respect of riches or persons pervert our judgment; but unite us to Thee effectually by the gift of Thine only grace, that we may be one in Thee and may never forsake the truth; inasmuch as we are gathered together in Thy Name, so may we in all things hold fast to justice tempered by pity, that so in this life our judgment may in no wise be at variance with Thee and in the life to come we may attain to everlasting rewards for deeds well done. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years (S. P. Ap., March 8, 1934).

Adsumus, Dómine Sancte Spíritus, ádsumus peccáti quidem immanitáte deténti, sed in nómine tuo speciáliter congregáti. Veni ad nos et esto nobíscum et dignáre illábi córdibus nostris; doce nos quid agámus, quo gradiámur et osténde quid effícere debéamus, ut, te auxiliánte, tibi in ómnibus placére valeámus. Esto solus suggéstor et efféctor iudiciórum nostrórum, qui solus cum Deo Patre et eius Fílio nomen póssides gloriósum.

Non nos patiáris perturbatóres esse iustítiæ qui summam díligis æquitátem; non in sinístrum nos ignorántia trahat, non favor infléctat, non accéptio múnneris vel persónæ corrúmpat; sed iunge nos tibi effícaciter solíus tuæ grátix dono, ut simus in te unum et in nullo deviémus a vero; quátenus in nómine tuo collécti, sic in cunctis teneámus cum moderámine pietátis iustítiam, ut et hic a te in nullo disséntiat senténtia nostra et in futúrum pro bene gestis consequámur præmia sempitérna. Amen.

XVII

PRAYERS OF THANKSGIVING

636

Collect

We give Thee thanks, Almighty God, for all Thy blessings: Who livest and reignest for ever and ever. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Dec. 14, 1934).

Agimus tibi grátias, omnípotens Deus, pro univérsis beneficiis tuis: Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculórum. Amen.

637

The Ambrosian Hymn

a) The faithful who, to give thanks to God for blessings received, devoutly recite the Ambrosian hymn Te Deum laudamus are granted:

An indulgence of 5 years.

b) Those who on the last day of the year assist at the singing of this hymn in a church, public or semi-public oratory (in the case of those who lawfully use the same), in order to give thanks to God for the blessings received from Him during the whole year, are granted:

An indulgence of 10 years;

A plenary indulgence with the addition of confession and Holy Communion, and prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father (S. P. Ap., Aug. 10, 1936).

638

Devout Practices

a) The faithful who devoutly assist at the religious service, to return thanks to the Most Holy Trinity for blessings received, held publicly during the last half-hour of the old year and the first half-hour of the new year, and pray for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff, are granted:

An indulgence of 10 years;

A plenary indulgence on condition of confession and Communion.

If they perform this pious exercise privately, they may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions; but where such a public service is held, this indulgence can be gained only by those who are lawfully prevented from assisting at the public service (Brief, Dec. 5, 1876; S. P. Ap., Dec. 9, 1932).

b) The faithful who resolve to perform a pious exercise of thanksgiving for the blessings conferred by Almighty God on the human race, arranged for the various days of the week (from Sunday to Saturday) according to a form approved by ecclesiastical authority, may gain:

An indulgence of 300 days, once on each day of the week;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this devout exercise is continued for four successive weeks (S. C. of the Holy Office, May 6, 1909).

XVIII

THE GRADUAL AND PENITENTIAL PSALMS

639

The faithful who devoutly recite the Gradual Psalms or the seven Penitential Psalms, are granted:

An indulgence of 7 years (S. Pius V, Bull 'Quod a nobis', July 9, 1568 and 'Superni Omnipotentis Dei', April 15, 1571; S. P. Ap., March 18, 1932).

XIX

THE LITANY OF THE SAINTS

640

The faithful who devoutly recite the Litany of the Saints, are granted:

An indulgence of 5 years;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if they repeat the recitation of the same daily for an entire month (S. P. Ap., July 10, 1935).

XX

MENTAL PRAYER

641

The faithful who devote at least a quarter of an hour to mental prayer, are granted:

An indulgence of 5 years;

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if they do this every day for a month (Benedict XIV, Brief, Dec. 16, 1746; S. P. Ap., June 19, 1933).

XXI

SPIRITUAL EXERCISES AND THE MONTHLY RECOLLECTION

642

a) The faithful who take part in the exercises of a Retreat in common with others, are granted:

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions.

b) Those, however, who participate in a monthly Recollection held in common, may gain:

An indulgence of 10 years (S. P. Ap., June 26, 1937).

NOTE: Prayers to be said before and after Spiritual Exercises are found under nn. 586-587.

XXII

ASSISTANCE AT THE EXPLANATION OF THE GOSPEL

643

The faithful who devoutly and attentively assist at the explanation of the Gospel on Sundays and the more solemn Feasts, as given during Mass, are granted:

An indulgence of 7 years;

A plenary indulgence twice a month, if they are present at such an instruction at least twice a month, as above, and moreover go to confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the intention of the Supreme Pontiff (S. C. Ind., July 31, 1756 and Dec. 12, 1784; S. P. Ap., Nov. 8, 1931).

XXIII

CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE

644

The faithful who devote between a quarter and a half hour to teaching or studying Christian doctrine, may gain:

An indulgence of 100 days;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions twice a month, if the above practice is done at least twice a month (Brief, March 12, 1930).

XXIV

THE READING OF HOLY SCRIPTURE

645

The faithful who spend at least a quarter of an hour in reading Holy Scripture with the great reverence due to the Word of God and after the manner of spiritual reading, may gain:

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., Dec. 13, 1898; S. P. Ap., March 22, 1932).

XXV

THE DIVINE PRAISES
IN REPARATION FOR BLASPHEMIES

646

Blessed be God.

Blessed be His holy Name.

Blessed be Jesus Christ, true God and true Man.

Blessed be the Name of Jesus.

Blessed be His Most Sacred Heart.

Blessed be Jesus in the most holy Sacrament of the Altar.

Blessed be the great Mother of God, Mary most holy.

Blessed be her holy and immaculate Conception.

Blessed be the name of Mary, Virgin and Mother.

Blessed be Saint Joseph, her most chaste Spouse.

Blessed be God in His Angels and in His Saints.

An indulgence of 3 years.

An indulgence of 5 years, if these prayers are said publicly.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if these Praises are said daily for a month (Pius VII, Audience July 23, 1801; S. C. Ind., Aug. 8, 1847 and Feb. 2, 1897; S. Cong. of Rites, Feb. 23, 1921; S. P. Ap., Dec. 12, 1935).

XXVI

A CHRISTIAN GREETING

647

a) ℣. Praised be Jesus Christ. ℟. Amen, or For ever.

b) ℣. Praised be Jesus and Mary. ℟. To-day and for ever.

c) ℣. Glory be to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. ℟. Glory be to the immaculate Heart of Mary.

The faithful whenever they greet one another with one of the above salutations, or with one similar to these, may gain:

An indulgence of 300 days;

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions once a month, if they habitually observe this devout practice (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, May 30, 1908, exhib. May. 2, 1912; Holy Office, March 27, 1913 and June 26, 1913; S. P. Ap., Aug. 5, 1936).

a) ℣. Laudétur Iesus Christus. ℟. Amen, vel In sæcula.

b) ℣. Laudétur Iesus et María. ℟. Hódie et semper.

c) ℣. Vive le sacré Cœur de Jésus. ℟. Vive le Cœur immaculé de Marie.

XXVII

THE INDULGENCES OF THE PORTIUNCULA

648

In order that the veneration of the faithful for the Chapel of the Portiuncula at Assisi may suffer no diminution, but rather may be increased, this indulgence can be gained henceforth on the second day of August in no church or oratory, even if it belongs to the Franciscan Order, which is less than three kilometres from the aforesaid Chapel, although this was previously allowed, except by those who live in a house adjoining such church or oratory, and then only if they are physically or morally unable to visit the aforesaid Chapel of the Portiuncula.

If for some special reason it seems advisable to allow this indulgence to be gained in a semi-public oratory, only those belonging to the community or group of the faithful for whose convenience the oratory was erected may avail themselves of the said indulgence.

The faculty is hereby granted to local Ordinaries, to parish priests and even to rectors of churches which enjoy the privilege of the indulgence, of transferring the day for gaining the indulgence from the second day of August, if this should fall on a day not a Sunday, to the Sunday immediately following, when a reasonable cause seems to make this advisable.

Those who wish to gain this indulgence must confess their sins, and if necessary, obtain absolution, receive Holy Communion, and visit a church or oratory possessing the privilege, and there pray for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff in the usual manner: i. e., they must say at least six times Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be, at each visit, which they may repeat at will in order to gain the indulgence as often as they desire.

On the second day of August, or on the Sunday next, the aforesaid conditions must be observed also by those who enjoy an indult to gain indulgences, including the Portiuncula indulgence, on other days of the year by the recitation only of the Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be, six times, if they desire to gain the indulgence on the said days (see the decree of the S. P. Ap., July 10, 1924, concerning the regulations for granting and gaining the Indulgence of the Portiuncula.—Cf. the Acta Apostolicæ Sedis, vol. xvi, page 345.)

XXVIII

A PRAYER FOR THE PRESERVATION OF THE FAITH

649

O my Redeemer, will that terrible moment ever come, when but few Christians shall be left who are inspired by the spirit of faith, that moment when Thine indignation shall be provoked and Thy protection shall be taken from us? Have our vices and our evil lives irrevocably moved Thy justice to take vengeance, perhaps this very day, upon Thy children? O Thou, the Author and Finisher of our faith, we conjure Thee, in the bitterness of our contrite and humbled hearts, not to suffer the fair light of faith to be extinguished in us. Remember Thy mercies of old, turn Thine eyes in compassion upon the vineyard planted by Thine own right hand, and watered by the sweat of the Apostles, by the precious blood of countless Martyrs and by the tears of so many sincere penitents, and made fruitful by the prayers of so many Confessors and innocent Virgins. O divine Mediator, look upon those zealous souls who raise their hearts to Thee and pray without ceasing for the maintenance of that most precious gift of Thine, the true faith. We beseech Thee, O God of justice, to hold back the decree of our rejection, and to turn away Thine eyes from our vices and regard instead the adorable Blood shed upon the Cross, which purchased our salvation and daily intercedes for us upon our altars. Ah, keep us safe in the true Catholic and Roman faith. Let sickness afflict us, vexations waste us, misfortunes overwhelm us! But preserve in us Thy holy faith; for if we are rich with this precious gift, we shall gladly endure every sorrow, and nothing shall ever be able to change our happiness. On the other hand, without this great treasure of faith, our unhappiness would be unspeakable and without limit! O good Jesus, Author of our faith, preserve it pure within us; keep us safe in the bark of Peter, faithful and obedient to his successor and Thy Vicar here on earth, that so the unity of holy Church may be maintained, holiness fostered, the Holy See protected in freedom, and the Church universal extended to the benefit of souls. O Jesus, Author of our faith, humble and convert the enemies of Thy Church; grant true peace and concord to all Christian kings and princes and to all believers; strengthen and preserve us in Thy holy service, to the end that we may live in Thee and die in Thee. O Jesus, Author of our faith, let me live for Thee and die for Thee. Amen (St. Clement Hofbauer).

An indulgence of 500 days once a day (S. C. Ind. April 11, 1888; S. P. Ap., July 10, 1933)

XXIX

A PRAYER FOR THE SANCTIFICATION OF FESTIVAL DAYS

650

Most glorious Patriarch Saint Joseph, obtain, we beseech Thee, from our Lord Jesus Christ His most plentiful blessings upon all those who keep festival days holy; and grant that those who profane them may realize, while there is yet time, how great is the evil they commit and the punishments they draw upon themselves both in this present life and in the life to come; and grant that they may be speedily converted.

O most faithful Saint Joseph, thou who in thine earthly life wast ever faithful in keeping the law of God, grant that the day may soon come, when all Christian people shall refrain from those works that are forbidden on festival days, devote themselves earnestly to the salvation of their souls and give glory to God: Who liveth and reigneth for ever and ever. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (Pius X, Audience May 20, 1905, exhib. Dec. 1, 1905; S. P. Ap., May 17, 1935).

XXX

PRAYERS FOR PEACE

651

Prayers

Give peace in our times, O Lord, because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only Thou, O our God.

V. Peace be within thy walls,

R. And abundance within thy towers.

Let us pray.

O God, from whom all holy desires, all right counsels and all just works do proceed; give unto Thy servants that peace which the world cannot give, that both our hearts may be set to obey Thy commandments, and also that we, being delivered from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time, under Thy protection, in rest and quietness. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if these prayers are said with devotion daily for a month (S. C. Ind., May 18, 1849; S. P. Ap., April 15, 1934).

Da pacem, Dómine, in diébus nostris, quia non est álius, qui pugnet pro nobis, nisi tu, Deus noster.

V. Fiat pax in virtúte tua,

R. Et abundántia in túrribus tuis.

Orémus.

Deus, a quo sancta desidéria, recta consília et iusta sunt ópera: da servis tuis illam, quam mundus dare non potest, pacem; ut et corda nostra mandátis tuis dédita, et hóstium subláta formídine, témpora sint tua protectióne tranquílla. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

652

A Prayer

Graciously give peace, O Lord, in our days, that, being assisted by help of Thy mercy, we may ever be free from sin and safe from all disturbance. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, when the prayer has been said with devotion daily for a month (Holy Office, Aug. 5, 1915; S. P. Ap., June 10, 1927 and March 3, 1932).

Da, Dómine, propítius pacem in diébus nostris, ut, ope misericórdiæ tuæ adiúti, et a peccáto simus semper líberi et ab omni perturbatióne secúri. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

653

A Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, who didst say unto Thine Apostles: "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you, not as the world giveth, do I give unto you," regard not our sins but Thy merits, and grant unto all Thy servants, that they whom the Almighty Father hath created and governeth, and whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy Precious Blood and hast ordained unto everlasting life, may love one another with all their hearts for Thy sake, and may be made one in spirit and rejoice in Thy perpetual peace. Lord Jesus Christ, concerning whom the Prophet hath said: "And all kings of the earth shall adore Him, all nations shall serve Him," extend Thy reign over the whole human race. Send upon all men the light of Thy faith, deliver them from all the snares and bonds of passion, and direct them to heavenly things; and graciously grant, that the states and nations may be united by means of Thine immaculate Bride, holy Church, and, through the intercession of the blessed Virgin Mary, Queen of Peace, may serve Thee in all humility; and that all tongues and peoples may form one great choir, to praise Thee both day and night, to bless Thee, to exalt Thee, O King of the nations and the Ruler thereof, O Prince of Peace, immortal King of ages. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (Brief, Aug. 25, 1923; S. P. Ap., Feb. 16, 1923).

Dómine Iesu Christe, qui dixísti Apóstolis tuis: "Pacem relínquo vobis, pacem meam do vobis, non quómo do mundus dat ego do vobis", ne respicias peccáta nostra sed mérita tua, et concéde ómnibus fámulis tuis, ut quos creávit Pater omnípotens atque gubérnat, quosque Tu pretióso Sáanguine redemísti et ad vitam ætérnam destinásti, omnes altérutrum toto corde propter te diligéntes, cor unum fiant et perénni tua pace læténtur. Dómine Iesu Christe, de quo cécinit Prophéta: "Et adorábunt eum omnes reges terræ, omnes gentes sérvient ei", regnum tuum ad genus húmánum univérsum exténde. Super omnes hómines fídei tuæ lumen immítte, a passiónum illécebris vinculisque eos líbera, atque ad cæléstia dírige: et concéde propítius, ut civitátes nationésque per immaculátam Sponsam tuam Ecclésiám sanctam coniúntæ, beatíssima Vírgine María Regína Pacis intercedénte, tibi humíllime famuléntur; et ex ómnibus linguis et pópulis unus exístat chorus, qui, die ac nocte, te laudet, te benedícat, te exáltet, o Rex géntium et dominátor eárum, o Princeps pacis, o sæculórum Rex immortális. Amen.

654

A Collect

O God, who art the Author and Lover of peace, in knowledge of whom is eternal life, whose service is a kingly state; defend us Thy humble servants from all assaults of our enemies; that we, surely trusting in Thy defense, may not fear the power of any adversaries. Through Christ our Lord. Amen

(Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, provided that this collect is said with devotion daily for an entire month (S. P. Ap., Nov. 28, 1934).

Deus, auctor pacis et amátor, quem nosse, vivere, cui servíre, regnàre est: prótege ab ómnibus impugnationibus súpplices tuos; ut qui in defensione tua confídimus, nullíus hostilitátis arma timeámus. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

NOTE: An invocation to Jesus for peace is found under n. 67; to the Heart of Jesus in the Eucharist, under n. 243; to Jesus Christ the King, under n. 251.

Consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

O Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, Thou didst reveal to the blessed Margaret Mary Thy desire to rule over Christian families; behold, in order to please Thee, we stand before Thee this day, to proclaim Thy full sovereignty over our family. We desire henceforth to live Thy life, we desire that the virtues, to which Thou hast promised peace on earth, may flower in the bosom of our family; we desire to keep far from us the spirit of the world, which Thou hast condemned. Thou art King of our minds by the simplicity of our faith; Thou art King of our hearts by our love of Thee alone, with which our hearts are on fire and whose flame we shall keep alive by frequently receiving the Holy Eucharist. Be pleased, O Sacred Heart, to preside over our gathering together, to bless our spiritual and temporal affairs, to ward off all annoyance from us, to hallow our joys and comfort our sorrows. If any of us has ever been so unhappy as to fall into the misery of displeasing Thee, grant that he may remember, O Heart of Jesus, that Thou art full of goodness and mercy toward the repentant sinner. And when the hour of separation strikes and death enters our family circle, whether we go or whether we stay, we shall all bow humbly before Thine eternal decrees. This shall be our consolation, to remember that the day will come, when our entire family, once more united in heaven, shall be able to sing of Thy glory and Thy goodness forever. May the immaculate Heart of Mary and the glorious Patriarch Saint Joseph vouchsafe to offer Thee this our act of consecration, and to keep the memory thereof alive in us all the days of our lives.

Glory to the Heart of Jesus, our King and our Father!

a) The members of a family, on the day when for the first time the family is consecrated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, if they recite the above prayer before a likeness of the Sacred Heart, are granted:

An indulgence of 7 years;

A plenary indulgence, if they fulfil the usual conditions.

b) The members of a family, on the day when this consecration is renewed each year, if they make use of the same prayer before a likeness of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, are granted:

An indulgence of 3 years;

A plenary indulgence, if they fulfil the usual conditions (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, May 19, 1908, exhib. June 15, 1908; Benedict XV, Letter, April 27, 1915; S. P. Ap., Dec. 10, 1923 and March 18, 1932).

O sacratissimum Cor Iesu, Tu beátæ Margarítæ Mariæ desidérium regnándi super christiánas famílias pandidísti: ecce ut tibi placeámus ádsumus hódie, ut plenum tuum super nostram famíliam impérium proclamémus. Vólumus deinceps tuam vitam vívere, vólumus in sinu famíliæ nostræ florére virtútes, quibus Tu in terris pacem promisísti, vólumus longe arcére a nobis spíritum mundi, quem Tu damnásti. Tu regnábis in mente nostra fídei nostræ simplicitáte, in corde nostro tui solíus amóre, quo flagrábit erga te et cuius vivam servábimus flammam frequénti divínæ Eucharístiæ receptióne. Dignáre, Cor divínium, nobis præesse in unum conveniéntibus, benedícere negótiis spirituálibus et temporálibus, arcére moléstias, sanctificáre gáudia, pœnas leváre. Si quando mísere quis nostrum in tantam ærúmnam incíderit ut te afflígat, fac in memóriam illi rédigas, Cor Iesu, te cum peccatóre, quem pænitet, plenum esse bonitátis et misericórdiæ. Et quum hora separatiónis insonúerit et mors in famíliæ nostræ sinum luctum intúlerit, nos omnes, sive abeúntes sive manéntes, tuis ætérnis decretis nos subiiciémus. Hoc solátio erit nobis, ánimo recogitáre ventúrum esse diem, in quo tota família nostra, in cælo coniúcta, tuam glóriam, tua benefícia in ætérnum cantáre póterit. Dignétur Cor immaculátum Mariæ, dignétur gloriósus Patriárcha sanctus Ioseph tibi hanc consecratiónem offérre, eiúsque vivam in nobis síngulis diébus vitæ nostræ conserváre memóriam.

Vivat Cor Iesu, Regis et Patris nostri!

NOTE: The same indulgences may be gained under the usual conditions by the members of other institutes (a religious community, a parish, a college or school, etc.), both on the day when the consecration is made for the first time and each year on the day when it is renewed, provided that they make use of a form approved by the Ordinary (S. P. Ap., Dec. 30, 1923).

A Consecration to the Holy Family of J. M. J.

O Jesus, our most loving Redeemer, who having come to enlighten the world with Thy teaching and example, didst will to pass the greater part of Thy life in humility and subjection to Mary and Joseph in the poor home of Nazareth, thus sanctifying the Family that was to be an example for all Christian families, graciously receive our family as it dedicates and consecrates itself to Thee this day. Do Thou defend us, guard us and establish amongst us Thy holy fear, true peace and concord in Christian love: in order that by conforming ourselves to the divine pattern of Thy family we may be able, all of us without exception, to attain to eternal happiness.

Mary, dear Mother of Jesus and Mother of us, by thy kindly intercession make this our humble offering acceptable in the sight of Jesus, and obtain for us His graces and blessings.

O Saint Joseph, most holy Guardian of Jesus and Mary, assist us by thy prayers in all our spiritual and temporal necessities; that so we may be enabled to praise our divine Saviour Jesus, together with Mary and thee, for all eternity.

Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be three times.

An indulgence of 500 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this prayer is repeated with devotion every day for a month (S. P. Ap., June 1, 1923 and Oct. 20, 1935).

A Prayer

O God of goodness and mercy, to Thy fatherly protection we commend our family, our household and all that belongs to us. We commit all to Thy love and keeping; do Thou fill this house with Thy blessings even as Thou didst fill the holy House of Nazareth with Thy presence.

Keep far from us, above all things else, the taint of sin, and do Thou alone reign in our midst by Thy law, by Thy most holy love and by the exercise of every Christian virtue. Let each one of us obey Thee, love Thee and set himself to imitate in his own life Thine example, that of Mary, Thy Mother and our Mother most loving, and that of Thy blameless guardian, Saint Joseph.

Preserve us and our house from all evils and misfortunes, but grant that we may be ever resigned to Thy divine will even in the sorrows which it shall please Thee to send us. Finally give unto all of us the grace to live in perfect harmony and in the fulness of love toward our neighbor. Grant that every one of us may deserve by a holy life the comfort of Thy holy Sacraments at the hour of death. O Jesus, bless us and protect us.

O Mary, Mother of grace and of mercy, defend us against the wicked spirit, reconcile us with Thy Son, commit us to His keeping, that so we may be made worthy of His promises.

Saint Joseph, foster-father of our Saviour, guardian of His holy Mother, head of the Holy Family, intercede for us, bless us and defend our home at all times.

Saint Michael, defend us against all the wicked cunning of hell.

Saint Gabriel, make us to understand the holy will of God.

Saint Raphael, keep us free from all sickness and from every danger to our lives.

Our holy Guardian Angels, keep our feet safely on the path of salvation both day and night.

Our holy Patrons, pray for us before the throne of God.

Yea, bless this house, O God the Father, who hast created us; O God the Son, who hast suffered for us upon the holy Cross, and Thou, O Holy Spirit, who hast sanctified us in holy Baptism. May the one God in three divine Persons preserve our bodies, purify our minds, direct our hearts and bring us all to everlasting life.

Glory be to the Father, glory be to the Son, glory be to the Holy Ghost! Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days once a day (S. C. Ind., Jan. 19, 1889; S. P. Ap., March 2, 1933).

A Prayer

Defend, we beseech Thee, O Lord, through the intercession of blessed Mary ever Virgin, this family from all adversity; and as we humbly bow before Thee with all our hearts, graciously defend us, in Thy mercy, from all the snares of the enemy. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, when this prayer has been recited daily for a month (S. P. Ap., Nov. 27, 1934).

Defénde, quæsumus Dómine, beáta María semper Vírgine intercedénte, istam ab omni adversitaté famíliam; et toto corde tibi prostrátam, ab hóstium propítius tuére cleménter insídiis. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

XXXII

A PRAYER FOR THE PRINTING OF GOOD BOOKS

O glorious Apostle of the Gentiles, Saint Paul, who with such zeal didst busy thyself in destroying at Ephesus those books which thou knewest well would have perverted the minds of the faithful: turn upon us thy gracious eyes also at this present day. Thou seest how an unbelieving and licentious press is attempting to rob our hearts of the precious treasure of faith and spotless morals. Enlighten, we beseech Thee, O holy Apostle, the minds of so many perverted writers, that they may cease once for all to do harm to souls with their evil doctrines and lying insinuations; move their hearts to hate the evil that they have done and are doing to the chosen flock of Jesus Christ. For us, too, obtain the grace of being ever docile to the voice of the Supreme Pontiff, that so we may never allow ourselves to indulge in the reading of bad books, but may seek instead to read and, so far as it is given to us, to diffuse those books which by their salutary doctrine shall assist all of us to promote the greater glory of God, the exaltation of His Church and the salvation of souls. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days once a day (S. C. of the Holy Office, Dec. 10, 1908 and Jan. 23, 1909; S. P. Ap., March 4, 1931).

XXXIII

AN INVOCATION TO BE SAID WHEN PEOPLE ARE ENGAGED IN MAKING AND REPAIRING THE ORNAMENTS OF CHURCHES AND LITURGICAL VESTMENTS

660

Jesus, our way and our life, have mercy on us.

The faithful who devote themselves without compensation to the making and repairing of church ornaments and liturgical vestments, either privately or in institutes founded for this purpose, as often as they devoutly recite the above invocation, while engaged in this work, that they may thus sanctify their labor still more, may gain:

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., June 2, 1933).

Iesu, via et vita nostra, miserere nobis.

XXXIV

A PRAYER FOR CHOOSING A STATE OF LIFE

661

O my God, Thou who art the God of wisdom and good counsel, Thou who readest in my heart a sincere desire to please Thee alone and to direct myself in regard to my choice of a state of life, in conformity with Thy holy will in all things; by the intercession of the most holy Virgin, my Mother, and of my Patron Saints, grant me the grace to know that state of life which I ought to choose, and to embrace it when known, in order that thus I may seek Thy glory and increase it, work out my own salvation and deserve the heavenly reward which Thou hast promised to those who do Thy holy will. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days once a day (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, May 2, 1905, exhib. May 6, 1905; S. P. Ap., May 18, 1937).

XXXV

PRAYERS TO OBTAIN THE GIFT OF CONTINENCE

662

An Invocation

Let my heart, O Lord, be made immaculate, that I may not be ashamed.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Oct. 10, 1934).

Fiat, Dómine, cor meum immaculátum, ut non confúndar.

663

An Invocation

Make my heart and my body clean, holy Mary.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Dec. 15, 1935).

Munda cor et corpus meum, sancta María.

664

A Prayer

Lord, burn our reins and our hearts with the fire of Thy Holy Spirit, that we may serve Thee with chaste bodies and pure minds. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this prayer is devoutly recited every day for a month (S. P. Ap., Jan. 6, 1935).

Ure igne Sancti Spíritus renes nostros et cor nostrum, Dómine; ut tibi casto córpore serviámus et mundo corde placéamus. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

665

A Prayer

Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty and everlasting God, that we may attain to purity of mind and body through the inviolate virginity of the most pure Virgin Mary. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. P. Ap., March 27, 1936).

NOTE: Other invocations for begging the grace of continence are found under nn. 322; 326; 353.

Da, quáesumus, omnípotens ætérne Deus, ut per integérrimam virginitátem puríssimæ Vírginis Maríæ, puritátem mentis et córporis consequámur. Amen.

XXXVI

A PRAYER TO OBTAIN THE GRACE OF A DEVOUT LIFE

666

Grant me, O merciful God, to desire eagerly, to investigate prudently, to acknowledge sincerely, and to fulfil perfectly those things that are pleasing to Thee, to the praise and glory of Thy holy Name.

Do Thou, my God, order my life; and grant that I may know what Thou wilt have me to do; and give me to fulfil it as is fitting and profitable to my soul.

Grant me, O Lord my God, the grace not to faint either in prosperity or adversity, that I be not unduly lifted up by the one, nor unduly cast down by the other. Let me neither rejoice nor grieve at anything, save what either leads to Thee or leads away from Thee. Let me not desire to please anyone, nor fear to displease anyone save only Thee.

Let all things that pass away seem vile in my eyes, and let all things that are eternal be dear to me. Let me tire of that joy which is without Thee, neither permit me to desire anything that is outside Thee. Let me find joy in the labor that is for Thee; and let all repose that is without Thee be tiresome to me.

Give me, my God, the grace to direct my heart towards Thee, and to grieve continually at my failures, together with a firm purpose of amendment.

O Lord my God, make me obedient without gainsaying, poor without despondency, chaste without stain, patient without murmuring, humble without pretense, cheerful without dissipation, serious without undue heaviness, active without instability, fearful of Thee without abjectness, truthful without double-dealing, devoted to good works without presumption, ready to correct my neighbor without arrogance, and to edify him by word and example, without hypocrisy.

Give me, Lord God, a watchful heart which shall be distracted from Thee by no vain thoughts; give me a generous heart which shall not be drawn downward by any unworthy affection; give me an upright heart which shall not be led astray by any perverse intention; give me a stout heart which shall not be crushed by any hardship; give me a free heart which shall not be claimed as its own by any unregulated affection.

Bestow upon me, O Lord my God, an understanding that knows Thee, diligence in seeking Thee, wisdom in finding Thee, a way of life that is pleasing to Thee, perseverance that faithfully waits for Thee, and confidence that I shall embrace Thee at the last. Grant that I may be chastised here by penance, that I may make good use of Thy gifts in this life by Thy grace, and that I may partake of Thy joys in the glory of heaven: Who livest and reignest God, world without end. Amen (St. Thomas Aquinas).

An indulgence of 3 years once a day.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, provided that the daily recitation of this prayer be continued for a month (S. C. Ind., Jan. 17, 1888; S. P. Ap., July 31, 1936).

Concède mihi, miséricors Deus, quæ tibi sunt plácita, ardénter concupíscere, prudénter investigáre, veráciter agnóscere, et perfecté adimplére ad laudem et glóriam Nóminis tui.

Ordina, Deus meus, statum meum; et quod a me requíris, ut fáciam, tríbue ut sciam; et da éxequi sicut ópórtet et éxpedit ánimæ meæ.

Da mihi, Dómine Deus meus, inter próspera et advérsa non defícere, ut in illis non extóllar, et in istis non déprimar. De nullo gáudeam vel dóleam, nisi quod ducat ad te, vel abdícat a te. Nulli placére áppetam, vel displicére tímeam nisi tibi.

Viléscant mihi, Dómine, ómnia transitória, et cara mihi sint ómnia ætérna. Tædeat me gáudii quod est sine te, nec áliud cúpiam quod est extra te. Deléctet me, Dómine, labor, qui est pro te; et tædiósa sit mihi omnis quies, quæ est sine te.

Da mihi, Deus meus, cor meum ad te dirígere, et in defectióne mea cum emendatiónis propósito constánter dolére.

Fac me, Dómine Deus meus, obediéntem sine contradicióne, páuperem sine deiectione, castum sine corruptiόne, patiéntem sine murmuratiόne, húmilem sine fictiόne, hílarem sine dissolutiόne, matúrurum sine gravédine, ágilem sine levitáte, tíméntem te sine desperatiόne, verácem sine duplicitáte, operántem bona sine præsumptiόne, próximurum corrípere sine elatiόne, ipsum ædificáre verbo et exemplo, sine simulatiόne.

Da mihi, Dómine Deus, cor pèrvigil, quod nulla abdúcat a te curiósa cogitátio: da nóbile, quod nulla deórsum trahat indígna afféctio: da rectum, quod nulla seórsum obliqué sinístia inténtio: da firmum, quod nulla frangat tribulátio: da líberum, quod nulla sibi víndicet violénta afféctio.

Largíre mihi, Dómine Deus meus, intelléctum te cognoscéntem, diligéntiam te quæréntem, sapiéntiam te inveniéntem, conversatiónem tibi placéntem, perseverántiam fidénter te expectántem, et fidúciam te fináliter amplecténtem. Da tuis pœnis hic afflígi per pœniténtiam, tuis beneficiis in via uti per grátiam, tuis gáudiis in pátria pérfrui per glóriam: Qui vivis et regnas Deus per ómnia sáecula sáeculórum. Amen (S. Thomas Aquinas).

XXXVII

PRAYERS AGAINST THE PERSECUTORS OF THE CHURCH

667

An Invocation

That Thou wouldst vouchsafe to bring low the enemies of holy Church, we beseech Thee to hear us (Roman Ritual).

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Sept. 1, 1936).

Ut inimícos sanctæ Ecclésiæ humiliáre dignéris, te rogámus, audi nos (ex Rituali Romano).

668

A Collect

Graciously hear the prayers of Thy Church, we beseech Thee, O Lord; that her enemies and all heresies may be brought to naught, and that she may serve Thee in perfect security and freedom. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, when this collect has been said with devotion every day for a month (S. P. Ap., March 9, 1934).

Ecclésiæ tuæ, quæsumus Dómine, preces placátus admítte: ut, destrúctis adversitatibus et erróribus univérsis, secúra tibi sérviat libertáte. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

NOTE: Prayers to St. Dominic for the Church are found under n. 502; a prayer to the B. V. Mary, n. 377.

A PRAYER IN TIME OF EARTHQUAKE

669

O God, who hast established the earth upon firm foundations, graciously receive the prayers of Thy people: and, having utterly removed the dangers of the shaken earth, turn the terrors of Thy divine wrath into the means of the salvation of mankind; that they who are of the earth, and unto earth shall they return, may rejoice to find themselves citizens of heaven by means of a holy life. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 500 days (S. P. Ap., Dec. 20, 1932).

Deus, qui fundásti terram super stabilitátem suam, súscipe preces pópuli tui: ac treméntis terræ perículis pénitus amótiis, divínæ tuæ iracúndiæ terróres in humánæ salútis remédia convérte; ut qui de terra sunt, et in terram reverténtur, gáudeant se fieri sancta conversatióne cæléstes. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

Prayers

Help us, O God, our Saviour; and for the glory of Thy Name deliver us: and forgive us our sins for Thy Name's sake.

PSALM 53

Save me, O God, by Thy Name: and judge me in Thy strength.

Hear my prayer, O God: give ear to the words of my mouth.

For strangers are risen up against me, and the mighty have sought after my soul: and they have not set God before their eyes.

For, behold, God is my Helper: and the Lord is the protector of my soul.

Turn back the evils upon mine enemies: and cut them off in Thy truth.

I will freely sacrifice to Thee: and will give praise to Thy Name, O Lord, for it is good.

For Thou hast delivered me out of all trouble: and mine eye hath looked down upon mine enemies.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

℣. For the glory of Thy holy Name deliver us,

℞. And forgive us our sins for Thy Name's sake.

Let us pray.

Mercifully hear the prayers of Thy people, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that we who are justly afflicted for our sins, may be mercifully delivered from the same for the glory of Thy holy Name. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years (S. C. Ind., Nov. 8, 1849; S. P. Ap., June 14, 1935).

II

PRAYERS TO BE SAID BY ALL CLERICS AND BY OTHERS WHO ASPIRE TO THE SACRED MINISTRY

672

An Invocation

Put upon me, O Lord, the new man who is created according to God in justice and the holiness of truth. Amen.

All those who are being trained in Seminaries, Colleges, and Monasteries for the priesthood, as well as clerics of every rank and order, as often as they recite the above invocation while vesting themselves with a surplice, may gain:

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., Dec. 1, 1907).

673

An Invocation

Hearth of Jesus, Victim of love, make me a living victim for Thee, holy and pleasing unto God.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., May 13, 1937).

Recitation of the Divine Office in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament

All ecclesiastics, including those who have received the first tonsure, as well as the novices and students of Religious Communities, whether they are bound by rule to the recitation of the Divine Office or not, if they devoutly recite the entire Office, even though interrupted, in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, when it is exposed for public adoration or reserved in the Tabernacle, may gain the same indulgences as ecclesiastics in Holy Orders, as stated below in n. 678 a) and b) (S. P. Ap., March 31, 1937).

III

PRAYERS TO BE SAID
BY CLERICS IN HOLY ORDERS AND BY PRIESTS

A) FOR A HOLY LIFE

675

A Prayer

Dearest Jesus, who of Thy great goodness hast called me to be Thy follower in preference to countless others and hast raised me to the high dignity of Thy priesthood, bestow upon me abundantly, I pray, Thy divine help in fulfilling my duties in a right spirit. I beseech Thee, Lord Jesus, to stir up in me Thy grace both today and always, that grace which is in me by reason of the laying on of hands of the bishop. O mighty Physician of souls, heal me in such wise that I may never be entangled in sinful habits, but that I may renounce them all and be enabled to please Thee even to the day of my death. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days once a day (S. C. Ind., Aug. 14, 1884; S. P. Ap., June 19, 1933).

Iesu dilectissime, qui ex singulári benevoléntia me præ millénis homínibus ad tui sequélam et ad exímiam Sacerdótii dignitátem vocásti, largíre mihi, precor, opem tuam divínam ad officia mea rite obeúnda. Oro te, Dómine Iesu, ut resúscites hódie et semper in me grátiam tuam, quæ fuit in me per impositionem mánuum episcopálium. O potentíssime animárum médice, sanæ me táliter, ne revólvar in vítia; et cuncta peccáta fúgiam tibíque usque ad mortem placére possim. Amen.

676

A Prayer to obtain the grace of preserving chastity

Lord Jesus Christ, bridegroom of my soul, the beloved of my heart, nay, my very heart and soul, I throw myself upon my knees in Thy sight, and most earnestly implore Thee to give me grace to keep the faith I solemnly gave unto Thee in the reception of Subdeaconship. Wherefore, O sweetest Jesus, let me deny all ungodliness; let me ever be a stranger to carnal desires and earthly lusts which war against the soul, and, with Thy help, let me preserve my chastity unspotted.

O Mary most holy and immaculate, the Virgin of virgins, and our loving Mother, make clean my heart and my soul ever more and more; obtain for me the fear of the Lord and a great distrust of myself.

Saint Joseph, guardian of Mary's virginity, keep my soul free from every sin.

All ye holy Virgins who follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth, be ever watchful over me, a sinner, lest at any time I go astray from the most pure Heart of Jesus and transgress by thought, word or deed. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., March 16, 1889; S. P. Ap., May 4, 1932).

Dómine Iesu Christe, sponse ánimæ meæ, delíciæ cordis mei, imo cor meum et ánima mea, ante conspéctum tuum génibus me provólvo, ac máximo ánimi ardóre te oro atque obtéstor, ut mihi des serváre fidem a me tibi solémniter datam in receptióne Subdiaconátus. Ideo, o dulcíssime Iesu, ábnegem omnem impietátem, sim semper aliénus a carnálibus desidériis et terrénis concupiscéntiis, quæ militánt advérsus ánimam, et castitátem te adiuvánte intemeráte servem.

O sanctíssima et immaculáta María, Virgo vírginum et Mater nostra amantíssima, munda in dies cor meum et ánimam meam, ímpetra mihi timórem Dómini et singulárem mei diffidéntiam.

Sancte Ioseph, custos virginitátis Maríæ, custódi ánimam meam ab omni peccáto.

Omnes sanctæ Vírgines divínium Agnum quocúmque sequéntes, estóte mei peccatóris semper sollicitæ, ne cogitatióne, verbo aut ópere delínquam et a castíssimo Corde Iesu unquam discédam. Amen.

B) FOR THE DUE FULFILMENT OF THEIR SACRED DUTIES

677

A Prayer before reciting the Divine Office

O Lord, open Thou my mouth to bless Thy holy Name; cleanse my heart also from all vain, evil and wandering thoughts; enlighten my understanding, kindle my affections, that I may be able to recite this Office worthily, attentively and devoutly, and may deserve to be heard in the presence of Thy divine Majesty. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lord, in union with that divine intention, wherewith Thou Thyself didst praise God whilst Thou wast on earth, I offer these Hours (or this Hour) unto Thee (Roman Breviary).

An indulgence of 3 years (S. P. Ap., Nov. 17, 1933).

Aperi, Dómine, os meum ad benedicéndum Nomen sanctum tuum; munda quoque cor meum ab ómnibus vanis, pervérsis et aliénis cogitatióibus; intelléctum illúmina, afféctum inflámma, ut digne, atténte ac devóte hoc Offícium recitáre váleam, et exaudíri mérear ante conspéctum divínæ Maiestátis tuæ. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen.

Dómine, in unióne illíus divínæ intentiúnis, qua ipse in terris laudes Deo persolvísti, has tibi Horas (vel hanc tibi Horam) persólvo (ex Breviario Romano).

678

The Recitation of the Divine Office in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament

a) Clerics in Holy Orders, who devoutly recite the entire Divine Office, even when separated into parts, before the Blessed Sacrament whether exposed for public adoration or reserved in the Tabernacle, are granted:

A plenary indulgence, if they make their confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the intentions of the Holy Father (S. P. Ap., Oct. 23, 1930).

b) Those, however, who recite only a part of the Divine Office before the Blessed Sacrament, as above, are granted:

An indulgence of 500 days for each canonical Hour (S. P. Ap., May 18, 1933).

c) Moreover, those clerics who have duly obtained the commutation of the Divine Office into other prayers, if they recite these prayers devoutly before the Blessed Sacrament, as above, may gain:

A plenary indulgence, on condition of confession, Holy Communion and prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father (S. P. Ap., Nov. 7, 1932).

679

A Prayer

to be said after reciting the Divine Office

To the most Holy and undivided Trinity, to the Manhood of our Lord Jesus Christ crucified, to the fruitful Virginity of the most blessed and most glorious Mary ever Virgin, and to the congregation of all the Saints be ascribed everlasting praise, and to us be granted the forgiveness of all our sins, world without end. Amen.

V. Blessed be the womb of the Virgin Mary, which bore the Son of the Eternal Father.

R. And blessed be the breasts which gave suck to Christ our Lord (Roman Breviary).

Our Father and Hail Mary.

An indulgence of 3 years (S. P. Ap., Dec. 1, 1933).

Sacrosánctæ et individuæ Trinitáti, Crucifíxi Dómini nostri Iesu Christi humanitáti, beatíssimæ et gloriosíssimæ sempérque Vírginis Maríæ fecúndæ integritáti, et ómnium Sanctórum universitáti sit sempitérna laus, honor, virtus et glória ab omni creatúra, nobisque remíssio ómnium peccatórum, per infiníta sæcula sæculórum. Amen.

V. Beáta víscera Mariæ Vírginis quæ portavérunt ætérni Patris Fílium, R. Et beáta úbera quæ lactavérunt Christum Dóminum (ex Breviario Romano).

Pater et Ave.

NOTE: Clerics in Holy Orders and priests who, having completed the Divine Office, shall recite the above prayer on bended knees, unless they are hindered therefrom, have been granted by Pope Leo X the condonation of the shortcomings and faults committed by them from human frailty in saying the Office (S. C. Ind., July 26, 1855).

A Prayer for the grace of preaching holily and fruitfully

Give me, O Lord, a mild and judicious eloquence which shall keep me from being puffed up and exalted above my brethren by reason of Thy gifts. Put into my mouth, I beseech Thee, words of consolation and edification and exhortation through Thy Holy Spirit, that I may be enabled to exhort the good to better things, and, by word and example, to recall to the straight way of Thy righteousness those who walk perversely. Let the words which Thou shalt give Thy servant, be like to sharp javelins and burning arrows that shall pierce and enkindle unto Thy fear and holy love the minds of all them that hear me. Amen (St. Anselm, Bishop, Confessor and Doctor).

An indulgence of 500 days, if this prayer is said before preaching the Word of God (S. C. Ind., July 12, 1907; S. P. Ap., July 13, 1934).

Da mihi, Dómine, et mitíssimam et sapiéntem eloquéntiam, qua nésciam inflári et de tuis bonis super fratres extólli. Pone, quæso, in ore meo verbum consolatiónis et ædificatiónis et exhortatiónis per Spíritum Sanctum tuum, ut et bonos váleam ad melióra exhortári, et eos, advérse gradiúntur, ad tuæ rectitúdinis líneam revocáre verbo et exémplo. Sint verba, quæ déderis servo tuo, tamquam acutíssima iácula et ardéntes sagíttæ, quæ pénétrent et incéndant mentes audiéntium ad timórem et amórem tuum. Amen (S. Anselmus, Ep. Conf. Doct.).

PRAYERS TO BE SAID BY PRIESTS

A) TO OBTAIN HOLINESS OF LIFE

681

An Invocation

O good Jesu, grant that I may be a priest after Thine own Heart.

An indulgence of 300 days (Brief, Feb. 11, 1924).

O bone Iesu, fac ut sim sacérdos secúndum Cor tuum.

682

A Prayer

Almighty and merciful God, graciously attend to my humble prayers; and make me, Thy servant whom Thou hast appointed to dispense Thy heavenly mysteries, through no merits of mine own, but only of the infinite bounty of Thy mercy, a worthy minister at Thy sacred altar, that what is set forth by my voice may be confirmed by Thy hallowing grace. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Missal).

An indulgence of 3 years.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, when this prayer has been repeated daily for a month (S. P. Ap., Nov. 15, 1936).

Omnípotens et miséricors Deus, humilitátis meæ preces benígnus inténde, et me fámulum tuum, quem nullis suffragántibus méritis, sed imménsa cleméntiæ tuæ largitáte cæléstibus mystériis servíre tribuísti, dignum sacris altáribus fac minístrum, ut quod mea voce deprómitur, tua sanctificatióne firmétur. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen (ex Missali Romano).

683

A Prayer

O Almighty God, let Thy grace assist us, that we who have undertaken the office of Priesthood, may be able to wait upon Thee worthily and devoutly, in all purity, and with a good conscience. And if we cannot live in so great innocency of life as we ought to do, grant to us at the least worthily to lament the sins that we have committed; and in the spirit of humility, and with the full purpose of a good will, to serve Thee more earnestly for the time to come. Through Christ our Lord. Amen (The Imitation of Christ, book IV, chap. xi, n. 7).

An indulgence of 500 days (S. P. Ap., Nov. 15, 1936).

Adiuvet nos grátia tua, omnípotens Deus, ut qui officium sacerdotále suscepimus, digne ac devóte tibi in omni puritáte et consciéntia bona famulári valeámus. Et si non póssumus in tanta innocéntia vitæ conversári, ut debémus, concéde nobis tamen digne flere mala, quæ géssimus, et in spíritu humilitátis ac bonæ voluntátis propósito tibi fervéntius de cétero deservíre. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen. (De Imit. Chr., lib. IV, c. XI, n. 7).

The Celebration of a First Mass

Priests offering Holy Mass for the first time are granted:

A plenary indulgence, if, in addition, they duly atone for their sins in sacramental Confession and pray according to the mind of the Supreme Pontiff (S. C. Ind., Jan. 16, 1886).

NOTE: Indulgences for the faithful who assist at the first Mass of a priest, and who kiss the palms of his hands reverently, are to be found under n. 629.

Prayers to be said by Priests before and after making their own sacramental confession

a) Before confession

Acccept my confession, O most tender and merciful Lord Jesus Christ, my soul's only hope of salvation; and give me, Thy priest, I pray, true contrition and tears to mine eyes, that I may weep night and day for all my shortcomings in humility and cleanness of heart. My Lord and God, accept my prayers. Saviour of the world, good Jesu, who gavest Thyself to the death of the Cross to save sinners, look upon me, a miserable sinner, calling upon Thy holy Name, and regard not my wickedness in such wise as to forget Thy goodness; and if I have done that which deserves Thy condemnation, Thou hast not lost that whereby Thou art wont to save. Spare me, therefore, Thou who art my Saviour, and have pity on my sinful soul. Loose its bonds, heal its wounds. O most gracious Lord, by the merits of Thy pure and inviolate Mother Mary ever Virgin, whom Thou hast bequeathed especially unto Thy priests to be their Mother, and by the merits of all Thy Saints, send out Thy light and Thy truth into my soul, and show me all my shortcomings in truth which I am bound to confess, and assist and teach me to unfold them fully and with a contrite heart: Who livest and reignest God, for ever and ever. Amen.

b) After confession

Let this my confession, I beseech Thee, O Lord, be pleasing and acceptable in Thy sight, by the merits of Thy blessed and ever Virgin Mother Mary and of all Thy Saints; and whatsoever is wanting, now or at any other time, in sufficient contrition, or in sincerity and integrity of confession, do Thou, of Thy loving kindness and mercy, supply and deign thereby to hold me more fully and perfectly absolved in heaven: Who livest and reignest God world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., Aug. 19, 1882; S. P. Ap., Sept. 18, 1936).

a) Ante confessionem

Súscipe confessiónem meam, piíssime ac clementíssime Dómine Iesu Christe, única spes salutis ánimæ meæ; et da mihi, sacerdoti tuo, óbsecro, contritiónum cordis et lácrimas óculis meis, ut défleam diébus ac nóctibus omnes negligéncias meas cum humilitáte et puritáte cordis. Dómine Deus meus, súscipe preces meas. Salvátor mundi, Iesu bone, qui te crucis morti dedísti, ut peccatóres salvos fáceres, réspice me míserum peccatórem invocántem Nomen tuum, et noli sic atténdere malum meum, ut obliviscáris bonum tuum; et si commísi unde me damnáre potes, tu non amisísti unde salváre soles. Parce ergo mihi, qui es salvátor meus et miserére peccatrici ánimæ meæ. Solve víncula eius, sana vúlnera.

Emítte ígitur, piíssime Dómine, méritis puríssimæ et immaculátæ semper Vírginis Genitrícis tuæ Mariæ, quam tuis præsertim sacerdotibus in Matrem reliquisti, et Sanctórum tuórum, lucem tuam, veritatem tuam in ánimam meam, quæ omnes deféctus meos in veritate mihi osténdat, de quibus confitéri me opórtet, atque iuuet et dóceat ipsos plene et contríto corde explicáre: Qui vivis et regnas Deus per ómnia sæcula sæculórum. Amen.

b) Post confessionem

Sit tibi, Dómine, óbsecro, méritis beátæ semper Vírginis Genitrícis tuæ Mariæ et ómnium Sanctórum grata et accépta ista conféssio mea; et quidquid mihi defuit nunc et álias de sufficiéntia contritiónis, de puritate et integritate confessi6nis, súppleat píetas et misericórdia tua et secúndum illam dignéris me habére plénius et perféctius absolutum in cælo: Qui vivis et regnas Deus per ómnia sæcula sæculórum. Amen.

A Form of Consecrating Priests to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

Lord Jesus, who art our most loving Redeemer and a Priest forever, look mercifully on us, Thy humble suppliants, whom Thou hast been pleased to call Thy friends and partakers of Thy priesthood. We are Thine; we wish to be Thine forever: therefore to Thy Most Sacred Heart which Thou hast shown to oppressed humanity as their only safe refuge, we dedicate and devote ourselves wholly this day. Thou who hast promised plentiful fruit in the divine ministry to those priests who are devoted to Thy Sacred Heart, make us, we beseech Thee, fit workmen in Thy vineyard, truly meek and humble, filled with the spirit of devotion and patience, so fired with love of Thee that we shall never cease to enkindle and quicken the same fire of love in the hearts of the faithful. Renew our hearts, therefore, in the fire of Thy Heart, so that henceforth we shall desire nothing save to promote Thy glory and win for Thee the souls whom Thou didst redeem by Thy Precious Blood. Show Thy mercy, good Shepherd, chiefly to those priests, our brethren, if there be any such, who, walking in the vanity of sense, have saddened Thee and Thy beloved Spouse, holy Church, by their lamentable falling away from Thee. Grant us grace to bring them back to Thine embrace, or, at least, to atone for their crimes, to repair the harm they have done, and to lessen the sorrow they have caused Thee, by the consolation of our love. Allow each one of us, finally, to pray to Thee in the words of Saint Augustine: "O sweet Jesus, live Thou in me, and let the living coal of Thy love burn brightly in my spirit, and grow into a perfect conflagration; let it burn perpetually on the altar of my heart, let it glow in my marrow, let it blaze up in the most secret places of my soul; in the day of my consummation let me be found totally consumed thereby in Thy presence, who with the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest one God for ever and ever. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years.

An indulgence of 7 years on the day of the monthly Retreat.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions at the end of a course of "Spiritual Exercises" (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, Aug. 17, 1908, exhib. Nov. 14, 1908; S. P. Ap., Oct. 24, 1935).

Dómine Iesu, Redémptor noster amantíssime et Sacerdos in ætérnum, nos súpplīces tuos, quos appellāre amīcos et sacerdotīi tui partícipes fácere dignátus es, propítius réspice. Tui sumus; tui perpétuo esse vólumus: ideo sacratíssimo Cordi tuo, quod tamquam únicum salútis perfúgium laboránti húmāno géneri ostendísti, dedicámus nos hódie totos et addícimus. Tu, qui sacerdotībūs, Cordis tui cultóribus, úberes divíni ministérīi fructus promisísti, fac nos, quæsumus, idóneos in vínea tua operários, vere húmiles et mites, spírītu devotiónis et paciéntiæ plenos, ita flagrántes amóre tui, ut eúmdem caritátis ígnem in ánimis fidélium excitāre et fovére non cessémus. Nostra ígitur corda incéndio tui Cordis ínnoval, ut iam nihil áliud studeámus, quam tuam promovére glóriam et ánimas tibi lucrári, quas pretiósó Sanguine redemísti. Miserére, Pastor bone, præsertim sacerdotum, fratrum nostrórum, si qui, ambulántes in vanitatē sensus sui, te et diléctam Sponsam tuam, Ecclésiā, lacrimábili defectiōne contristárunt. Concéde nobis ad tuum compléxum eos redúcere, aut certe ipsórum expiāre delícta, resarcíre damna, et dolórem, quo te affíciunt, amoris nostri consolatiōne minúere. Sine, dénique, te quisque nostrum exóret his Augustíni verbis: O dulcis Iesu, vivas Tu in me, et concaléscat spírītu meo vivus carbo amoris tui, et excréscat in ígnem perféctum; árdeat iúgiter in ara cordis mei, férveat in medúllis meis, flagret in abscónditis ánimæ meæ; in die consummatiōnis meæ consummátus invénīar apud te, qui cum Patre et Spírītu Sancto vivis et regnas Deus in sæcula sæculórum. Amen.

A Prayer to Saint John, Apostle and Evangelist

Let us rejoice with thee, blessed John, who, by a privilege of special love, wast honored by Christ Jesus above all the other disciples: being held worthy to recline upon His bosom at the Last Supper, and to be entrusted with His holy Mother at the hour of His death. We know that thou didst deserve this on account of thy special gift of chastity; because, being chosen as a virgin by our Lord, thou didst remain a virgin forever. Accordingly, since thou didst imbibe the living streams of the Gospel from its very source, the bosom of our Lord, thou didst speak more fully and more sublimely of the divinity of Christ; and since thou didst catch thy flame of love from the fire burning in His Sacred Heart, we do not wonder that thou wast the only disciple to accompany Jesus in His passion, and thereafter didst write such burning words that thou art rightly called "the Apostle of love." Moreover, it behooves us, who are the ministers of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God, by the gift of His goodness, to lift our eyes to thee, who hast been set before us as an example for our imitation: it is likewise meet, and we ask it of thee in great humility, that thou shouldst assist us as our own special Patron before Jesus and Mary. Grant us, therefore, to walk worthy of the vocation wherewith we are called; in particular that we may perform our priestly tasks with due purity of mind and body; fired with zeal for the glory of God, may we attain to intimate fellowship with the Heart of Jesus, and console the most holy Virgin, who was given from the Cross to be a Mother to all of us after thee, by the kindly offices of our ardent affection, even as thou didst do. Finally grant, that after this mortal life we may be numbered with the elders, whom thou didst see clothed in white raiment and sitting round the throne of the spotless Lamb, who is worthy to receive honor, blessing and glory for endless ages. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions on the Feast of St. John, Ap. and Ev. (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, July 9, 1908; exhib. Oct. 22, 1908.)

Congaudémus tibi, beáte Ioánes, qui, privilégio amoris præcipui, céteris discipulis áltius honorátus es a Christo Iesu: dignus hábitus, qui supra pectus eius in cœna recúberes, et cui Matrem ipse suam moritúrus commendáret. Scimus, id te meruisse propter speciálem prærogatívam castitátis; quia virgo eléctus a Dómino, virgo in ævum permansísti. Ita, quum fluénta Evangélii de ipso domínici pectoris fonte potásses, ubérius et sublímius áliis de Christi divinitáte locútus es; quumque de ipso divíni Cordis incéndio amoris flammam concepísses, non mirámur te unum discipulum Iesu patiénti adhæsísse indivídium cómitem, ac deinceps tália scripsísse, ut mérito appellátus sis caritátis Apóstolus. Decet enímvero nos, qui, divínæ bonitátis múnere, ministri Christi sumus et dispensatóres mysteriórum Dei, intuéri te, tamquam propósitum nobis ad imitándum exémplar: decet autem te, quod súplices quæsumus, nobis apud Iesum et Mariám adesse patrónum próprium et peculiárem. Fac ígitur, ut digne ambulémus vocatióne, qua vocáti sumus; præsértim, ut ea, qua par est, mentis et córporis puritáte, sacerdotália obeámus múnia; incénsi stúdio divínæ glóriæ, íntimam familiaritátem sacratíssimi Cordis Iesu consequámur, et Vírginem sanctíssimam, datam de Cruce nobis ómnibus post te Matrem, perstudiósæ pietátis offíciis, quemádmódu Tu fecísti, recreémus. Dénique præsta, ut post mortálem vitam inter senióres numerémur, quos vidísti amíctos vestiméntis albis sedére circa thronum Agni immaculáti, qui dignus est accípere honórem, benedictiónem et glóriam in sácula sæculórum. Amen.

A Prayer to be said after celebrating Mass

Ibeseech Thee, sweetest Lord Jesus Christ, let Thy passion be my strength, whereby I may be fortified, protected and defended: let Thy wounds be my meat and drink, wherewith I may be fed and filled to overflowing with spiritual joy: let the sprinkling of Thy Blood be to me a cleansing from all my sins: let Thy death be to me life unfailing, and Thy Cross my everlasting glory. In these let me find refreshment, exultation, healing and sweetness in my heart: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years (S. C. Ind., Dec. 11, 1846).

Priests who say the above prayer after Mass, with the right dispositions and devoutly kneeling (if possible), will receive the remission of all shortcomings and faults committed by them through human frailty in offering the Holy Sacrifice (S. C. of the Holy Office, Aug. 20, 1912).

Obsacro te, dulcíssime Dómine Iesu Christe, ut pássio tua sit mihi virtus, qua múniar, prótegar atque deféndar: vúlnera tua sint mihi cibus potúsque, quibus pascar, inébrier atque delécter: aspérsio Sánguinis tui sit mihi ablútio ómnium delictórum meórum: mors tua sit mihi vita indeficiens, crux tua sit mihi glória sempitérna. In his sit mihi reféctio, exultátio, sánitas et dulcédo cordis mei: Qui vivis et regnas in sácula sæculórum. Amen.

Another Prayer after the celebration of Mass

O most illustrious Virgin and Mother of our Lord Jesus Christ, who didst worthily bear in thy sacred womb the very Creator of all things, whose most holy Body and Blood I have just received, vouchsafe to make intercession to Him in my behalf, that whatsoever I have omitted or committed in this unutterable Sacrament whether through ignorance, negligence or irreverence, may be graciously pardoned by the same Thy dear Son in answer to thy most holy prayers. Amen.

An indulgence of 3 years (Pius XI, Rescript in his own hand, Oct. 18, 1926, exhib. Nov. 6, 1926; S. P. Ap., June 15, 1937).

O sereníssima Virgo et Mater Dómini nostri Iesu Christi, quæ in tuo sacratíssimo útero portáre meruísti ipsum rerum ómnium Creatórem, cuius sacratíssimum Corpus et Sánguinem recépi, apud ipsum pro me intercédere dignéris, ut quidquid per ignorántiam, negligéntiam, irreverentiámque in hoc ineffábili Sacraménto omísi vel commísi, idem diléctus Fílius tuus, sanctíssimis tuis précibus exorátus, condonáre dignétur. Amen.

693

A Prayer to be said by Confessors before they hear the confessions of the faithful

Give me, O Lord, the wisdom that sitteth by Thy throne, that I may be enabled to judge Thy people with justice, and Thy poor and humble ones with true judgment. Grant me so to handle the keys of the Kingdom of heaven, that I may open it to none who ought to be shut out, nor shut out any to whom I ought to open. Let my intention be pure, my zeal sincere, my charity long-suffering, and my labor fruitful. Let me be kind without laxity, severe without harshness; let me not look down upon the poor man, nor flatter the rich man. Give me sweetness that I may draw sinners unto Thee; give me prudence in asking questions; give me skill in instruction. Bestow upon me, I beseech Thee, zeal in withdrawing sinners from evil courses, diligence in establishing them in goodness, and earnestness in moving them to a better life: maturity in my answers, rightness in my counsels, light in obscure matters, insight in intricate cases, and victory over all difficulties; let me not be involved in useless talk, nor corrupted by shameful avowals; may I save others, without myself becoming a castaway. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. Ind., March 27, 1854; S. P. Ap., May 12, 1933).

Da mihi, Dómine, sédium tuárum assistrícem sapiéntiam, ut sciam iudicáre pópulum tuum in iustítia, et páuperes tuos in iudício. Fac me ita tractáre claves regni cælórum, ut nulli apériam cui claudéndum sit, nulli claudam cui aperiéndum sit. Sit inténtio mea pura, zelus meus sincérus, cáritas mea pátiens, labor meus fructuósus. Sit in me lénitas non remíssa, aspéritas non sevéra; páuperem ne despícam, díviti ne áduler. Fac me ad alliciéndos peccatóres suávem, ad interrogándos prudéntem, ad instruéndos perítum. Tríbue, quæso, ad retrahéndos a malo solértiam, ad confirmándos in bono sedulitátem, ad promovéndos ad melióra indústriam: in respónsis maturitátem, in consíliis rectitúdinem, in obscúris lumen, in impléxis sagacitátem, in árduis victóriam: inútilibus collóquiis ne detínear, pravis ne contáminer: álios salvem, meípsum non perdam. Amen.

PRAYERS TO BE SAID BY RELIGIOUS

694

An Invocation

Hear of Jesus, Victim of charity, make me a living sacrifice to Thee, holy, and pleasing unto God.

Religious who say the above invocation with the intention of promoting the more exact observance of their religious vows are granted:

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., Feb. 27, 1907; S. P. Ap., Feb. 3, 1931).

The Renewal of Religious Vows

The Religious of any Order or Congregation, who privately renew their religious vows with at least a contrite heart, after celebrating Holy Mass or receiving Holy Communion, may gain:

An indulgence of 3 years (S. P. Ap., April 10, 1937).

A Prayer

Lord Jesus, by the merits and prayers of the Virgin Mary, of Saint N. (here insert the name of the Saint according to the Order) and of all the holy Founders, pour out upon me and my brethren, and upon the religious of the entire world, the spirit of faith, sacrifice, prayer, humility, docility and charity. Grant, O my Jesus, that this spirit of charity may be truly supernatural, universal, understanding, long-suffering, joyous and fruitful. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (S. C. of the Holy Office, Feb. 1, 1912; S. P. Ap., April 10, 1934).

Recitation of the Divine Office before the Most Holy Sacrament

a). Nuns and other religious women living in communities, who are bound to the daily recitation of the Divine Office by the constitutions of their Institute, if they recite the entire Office, even when this is done at intervals, before the Blessed Sacrament, whether exposed for public adoration or reserved in the Tabernacle, are granted:

A plenary indulgence, if, in addition, they go to confession, receive Holy Communion and pray for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff (S. P. Ap., Dec. 5, 1930).

b) Any of the aforesaid women who recite a part only of the Divine Office before the Blessed Sacrament, are granted:

An indulgence of 500 days for each canonical hour (S. P. Ap., May 18, 1933).

c) The same religious women, as above, if they say the prayer "Aperi Domine" before the Divine Office and the prayer "Sacrosanctæ" thereafter, are granted the same indulgences as clerics in Holy Orders and priests (cf. n. 677 and n. 679; S. P. Ap., Jan. 8, 1934).

PRAYERS TO BE SAID BY TEACHERS

698

An Invocation

Teach me goodness and discipline and knowledge, O Lord: for I have believed Thy commandments (Ps. 118, 66).

An indulgence of 300 days (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, May 14, 1908; S. C. Ind., Sept. 12, 1908).

Bonitatem et disciplinam et scientiam doce me, Dómine; quia mandátis tuis credidi (Ps. CXVIII, 66).

A Prayer

O glorious Virgin and Martyr, Saint Catherine, who, by thy wonderful knowledge, thy zeal for the faith and thy glorious martyrdom, hast gained for Jesus Christ so great a harvest of souls, we choose thee, whose patronage hath been so often implored by the most learned men, as the protector and patroness of our studies and our teaching. Obtain for us, who are thy clients, a wholehearted love for Jesus Christ our Saviour, a burning zeal to make Him known and loved, an unwavering attachment to the Catholic faith and to the teachings of Holy Church. May our Lord, through thine intercession, be pleased to bestow upon all who teach others the fulness of the gifts of the Holy Spirit; may they join to true knowledge sure and effectual methods, purity of faith, integrity of life and a humble distrust of themselves. Ask Jesus, thy Spouse, to have pity on all those who are being taught; may He preserve them from irreligious or indifferent masters, from perverse or erroneous doctrines; may He give them a right spirit, a docile heart and the grace to make progress in their studies according to the designs of His supreme wisdom. Finally, glorious Saint, implore from the Father of lights such an outpouring of grace upon the instruction of youth, that after they have studied, loved and practiced Thy divine law, they may all of them, both masters and pupils, come at last to the holy mount, which is Jesus Christ. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., April 29, 1907; S. P. Ap., Aug. 10, 1933).

700

A Prayer

O glorious Saint Catherine, wise and prudent virgin, thou who didst set the knowledge of Jesus Christ above all other knowledge, obtain for us the grace to remain inviolably attached to the Catholic faith, and to seek in our studies and in our teaching only the extension of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ our Lord and of His holy Church both in ourselves and in the souls of others. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. C. Ind., April 29, 1907; S. P. Ap., Oct. 20, 1935).

PRAYERS TO BE SAID BY STUDENTS

701

An Act of Dedication

Under thy patronage, dear Mother, and invoking the mystery of thine Immaculate Conception, I desire to pursue my studies and my literary labors: I hereby solemnly declare that I am devoting myself to these studies chiefly to the following end: that I may the better contribute to the glory of God and to the spread of thy veneration among men. I pray thee, therefore, most loving Mother, who art the Seat of Wisdom, to bless my labors in thy loving kindness. Moreover I promise with true affection and a willing spirit, as it is right that I should do, to ascribe all the good that shall accrue to me therefrom, wholly to thine intercession for me in God's holy presence. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days once a day (S. C. Ind., Nov. 18, 1882; S. P. Ap., Aug. 5, 1932).

Sub patrocínio tuo, Mater dulcíssima, et invocáto immaculátæ Conceptionis tuæ mystério, stúdia mea laborésque litterários prósequi volo: quibus me protéstor hunc máxime ob finem incúmbere, ut mélius divíno honóri tuóque cúltui propagándo insérviám. Oro te ígitur, Mater amantíssima, sedes sapiéntiæ, ut labóribus meis benígne fáveas. Ego vero, quod iustum est, pie libentérque promitto, quidquid boni mihi inde succésserit, id me tuæ apud Deum intercessióni totum accéptum relatúrum. Amen.

A Prayer of Saint Thomas Aquinas

O Creator ineffable, who of the riches of Thy wisdom didst appoint three hierarchies of Angels and didst set them in wondrous order over the highest heavens, and who didst apportion the elements of the world most wisely: do Thou, who art in truth the fountain of light and wisdom, deign to shed upon the darkness of my understanding the rays of Thine infinite brightness, and remove far from me the twofold darkness in which I was born, namely, sin and ignorance. Do Thou, who givest speech to the tongues of little children, instruct my tongue and pour into my lips the grace of Thy benediction. Give me keenness of apprehension, capacity for remembering, method and ease in learning, insight in interpretation, and copious eloquence in speech. Instruct my beginning, direct my progress, and set Thy seal upon the finished work, Thou, who art true God and true Man, who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 7 years (Pius XI, Encyclical "Studiorum Ducem", June 29, 1923; S. P. Ap., March 18, 1932).

Creator ineffábilis, qui de thesáuris sapiéntiæ tuæ tres Angelórum hierárchias designásti et eas super cælum empyreum miro órdine collocásti, atque univérsi partes elegantíssime distribuísti: Tu, inquam, qui verus fons lúminis et sapiéntiæ díceris ac superéminens princípium, infúndere dignéris super intelléctus mei ténebras tuæ rádium claritátis, dúplices, in quibus natus sum, a me rémovens ténebras, peccátum scílicet et ignorántiam. Tu, qui linguas infántium facis disertas, linguam meam erúdias atque in lábiis meis grátiam tuæ benedictiónis infúndas. Da mihi intelligéndi acúmen, retinéndi capacitátem, addiscéndi modum et facilitátem, interpretándi subtilitátem, loquéndi grátiam copiósam. Ingréssum ín-struas, progréssum dírigas, egréssum cómpleas. Tu, qui es verus Deus et Homo, qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculórum. Amen (S. Thomas Aquinas).

A Prayer

O most holy Virgin Mary, who didst bear Jesus our Saviour and didst shed the everlasting Light upon the world, O Mother of divine knowledge, whose merciful intercession hath procured the grace of increasing in knowledge and piety for countless minds that were rude and ignorant, I choose thee as the guide and patroness of my studies.

By thine intercession, O Mother of fruitful studies, may the Holy Spirit fill my spirit with light and fortitude, prudence and humility; may He give me a good will, intelligence, memory and ability in sufficient measure, and above all, a spirit of docility both in mind and heart, that I may proceed in all things according to the counsels of divine Wisdom.

Defend me, good Mother, against the spirit of pride and presumption, of vain curiosity and instability; keep me from every occasion of stumbling, from all erroneous opinion, and from all things that might corrupt my faith and disturb the clearness of my understanding, the purity of my heart, and the peace of my soul.

Grant, O Mary, that, under thy protection, I may ever be submissive to the directions and teachings of Holy Church, my mother, and may advance in the way of truth and virtue surely, courageously and without wavering; at length may I attain to the knowledge, the love and the everlasting possession of Jesus Christ, thy Son, our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, April 26, 1907, exhib. April 27, 1907; S. P. Ap., Sept. 18, 1933).

O sanctíssima Virgo María, quæ Salvatórem Iesum genuísti, Lumen ætérnum mundo effudísti, o Mater divínæ sciéntiæ, cuius pia intercéssio innúmeris méntibus incúltis et ignorántibus mirábiliter prógredi in sciéntia et pietáte obtínuit, te studiórum meórum præsidem ac patrónam éligo.

Per tuam intercessiónem; o Mater bonórum studiórum, Spíritus Sanctus ánimam meam ímpleat lúmíne et fortitúdine, prudéntia et humilitáte; det mihi voluntátem rectam, intelligéntiam, memóriam, facilitátem sufficiénter, docilitátem præsertim mentis et cordis ut in ómnibus, secúndum divínæ Sapiéntiæ consília, prógredi possim.

Defénde me, o bona Mater, advérsus spíritum supérbiæ, præsumptiónis, vanæ curiositátis et inconstántiæ; præsérvá me ab omni scándalo, ab omni erróre, ab iis ómnibus qui possent fidem meam corrumpere, luciditátem intelléctus, puritátem cordis, pacem ánimæ meæ turbáre.

Fac, o María, ut, sub tuo patrocínio, semper submíssus directiónibus et doctrínis sanctæ Ecclésiæ, Matris meæ, cum securitáte, fortitúdine et constántia incédere possim in viam veritátis et virtútis, et tandem perveníre ad cognitióem, amórem et ætérnam possessiónem Iesu Christi, Dómini nostri, Fílii tui. Amen.

A PRAYER TO BE SAID BY CHILDREN

704

Sweetest Jesus, who, being subject as a child to Mary and Joseph at Nazareth, didst leave to children an excellent pattern of affection and obedience to parents, and of wondrous reverence for all men, grant, I most earnestly beseech Thee, that I may strive to see Thee always and in all things, so that as my years increase, I too may increase in Thy grace and love: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (Brief, June 25, 1924).

Dulcissime Iesu, qui puer, Názaræ, Mariæ et Ioseph súbditus, exémplar præclárum púeris reliquisti pietátis et obediéntiæ in paréntes atque exímia in omnes reveréntiæ, fac, piíssime rogo, ut semper et in ómnibus intuéri te stúdeam, ut crescéntibus annis, grátia et amóre tui crescam: Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculórum. Amen.

IX

A PRAYER TO BE SAID BY YOUNG MEN

705

O most glorious Saint Aloysius, who hast been honored by the Church with the fair title of "angelic youth," because of the life of utmost purity thou didst lead here on earth, I come before thy presence this day with all the devotion of my mind and heart. O perfect exemplar, kind and powerful patron of young men, how great is my need of thee! The world and the devil are trying to ensnare me; I am conscious of the ardor of my passions; I know full well the weakness and inconstancy of my age. Who shall be able to keep me safe, if not thou, O Saint of angelic purity, the glory and honor, the loving protector of youth? To thee, therefore, I have recourse with all my soul, to thee I commit myself with all my heart. I hereby resolve, promise and desire to be especially devout toward thee, to glorify thee by imitating thy extraordinary virtues and in particular thy angelic purity, to copy thy example, and to promote devotion to thee among my companions. O dear Saint Aloysius, do thou guard and defend me always, in order that, under thy protection and following thy example, I may one day be able to join with thee in seeing and praising my God forever in heaven. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days once a day.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this prayer is devoutly said daily for a month (S. C. Ind., June 12, 1894; S. P. Ap., June 29, 1933).

X

A PRAYER TO THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS TO BE SAID BY MARRIED FOLK IN THEIR OWN BEHALF

706

O Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, King and center of all hearts, dwell in our hearts and be our King: grant us by Thy grace to love each other truly and chastely, even as Thou hast loved Thine immaculate Bride, the Church, and didst deliver Thyself up for her.

Bestow upon us the mutual love and Christian forbearance that are so acceptable in Thy sight, and a mutual patience in bearing each other's defects; for we are certain that no living creature is free from them. Permit not the slightest misunderstanding to mar that harmony of spirit which is the foundation of that mutual assistance in the many and varied hardships of life, to provide which woman was created and united inseparably to her husband.

Grant, O Lord God, that between us there may be a constant and holy rivalry in striving to lead a perfect Christian life, by virtue of which the divine image of Thy mystic union with Holy Church, imprinted upon us on the happy day of our marriage, may shine forth more and more clearly. Grant, we beseech Thee, that our good example of Christian living may be a source of inspiration to our children to spur them on to conform their lives also to Thy holy Law; and finally, after this exile, may we be found worthy, by the help of Thy grace, for which we earnestly pray, to ascend into heaven, there to be joined with our children forever, and to praise and bless Thee through everlasting ages. Amen.

NOTE: If they have no children, instead of the words: "Grant, O Lord God, etc. . . . Amen", let them pray as follows:

Grant, O Lord God, that between us there may be a constant and holy rivalry in our efforts to lead a truly Christian life, by virtue of which the divine image of Thy mystic union with Thy holy Church, which Thou didst deign to impress upon us on the happy day of our marriage, may shine forth more and more clearly; and so living may we, both of us, ascend into heaven and be found worthy to praise Thee and bless Thee forever. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Dec. 11, 1922 and Nov. 25, 1936).

Sacratíssimum Cor Iesu, Rex et centrum ómnium córdium, hábita et regna in córdibus nostris et fac per grátiam tuam, ut nosmetípsos ínvicem caste et vere diligámus sicut Tu immaculátam tuam Sponsam, Ecclésiam, dilexísti ac temetípsum pro ea tradidísti.

Concéde nobis mútuam illam caritátem et cristiánam indulgéntiam tibi summópere acceptíssimam, mutuámque in tolerándis deféctibus nostris patiéntiam; persuásum enim habémus nullam creatúram íisdem carére. Noli permíttere ut vel mínimum detriméntum cápiat plena ac suávis illa animórum concórdia, fundaméntum altérni illíus adiutórii in váriis plurimisque vitæ necessitátibus, quod finem constituit propter quem creáta fuit múlier et viro suo inseparabíliter iuncta.

Inter nos, Dómine Deus, fac regnet perénne ac sanctum vitæ summópere cristiánæ certámen, vi cuius magis magisque divína illa tui mýstici coniúgii cum sancta Ecclésia imágo illucéscat, quam fausto die uniónis nostræ in nobis imprímere dignátus fuísti. Præsta, quæsumus, ut bonum vitæ nostræ exémplum filiis nostris inservíre queat, tamquam potens stímulus ad suam vitam tuæ sanctæ legi conformándam; ac tandem post hoc exsílium in cælum ascendámus, ubi, favénte tua grátia quam eníxe exoptámus, simul cum ipsis perpétuo consístere, teque in ætérnum laudáre ac benedícere mereámur. Amen.

NOTA. — Si coniuges filiis destituuntur, loco verborum:

Inter nos, Dómine Deus . . . mereámur. Amen, hæc dicantur:

Inter nos, Dómine Deus, fac regnet perénne ac sanctum vitæ summópere cristiánæ certámen, vi cuius magis magisque illucéscat divína illa imágo, quam fausto die uniónis nostræ imprímere dignátus es, scílicet mýstici tui coniúgii cum sancta Ecclésia, atque ita utrúque ad cælum ascendámus teque in ætérnum laudáre ac benedícere mereámur. Amen.

XI

A PRAYER TO BE SAID BY PARENTS IN BEHALF OF THEIR CHILDREN

707

O Lord God, who hast called us to holy matrimony and hast been pleased to render our union fruitful, thus making glad the sublime state of life wherein Thou hast placed us, by a certain likeness to Thine own infinite fruitfulness; we heartily recommend to Thee our dear children; we entrust them to Thy fatherly care and all-powerful protection, that they may grow daily in Thy holy fear, may lead a perfect Christian life and may be a source of consolation, not only to us who have given them life, but also and chiefly to Thee, who art their Creator.

Behold, O Lord, in what a world they must pass their lives; consider the cunning flatteries whereby the sons of men everywhere endeavor to deprave their minds and hearts with false doctrine and wicked example. Be watchful, O Lord, to help and defend them; grant us the grace to be able to guide them aright in the paths of virtue and in the way of Thy commandments, by the righteous pattern of our own life and practice, and our perfect observance of Thy holy law and that of our holy mother the Church; and in order that we may do so faithfully, make us certain of the grave danger that awaits us at the hands of Thy divine justice. Nevertheless all our efforts will be unavailing, unless Thou, O almighty and merciful God, shalt make them fruitful by Thy heavenly blessing.

This Thy blessing, therefore, we humbly ask of Thee, from the bottom of our hearts, trusting in Thy great goodness and mercy hitherto shown unto us; we ask it for ourselves and for the children whom Thou hast been graciously pleased to give unto us. We dedicate them to Thee, O Lord, do Thou keep them as the apple of Thine eye, and protect them under the shadow of Thy wings; do Thou make us worthy to come at last to heaven, together with them, giving thanks unto Thee, our Father, for the loving care Thou hast had of our entire family and praising Thee through endless ages. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Nov. 25, 1936).

Dómine Deus, qui nos ad matrimónium ádvocans, illud effícere fecúndum dignátus es, sublimémque hunc statum, in quo a te pósiti sumus, quadam fecunditátis tuæ infinitæ imágine lætíficas; tibi dilectísimos líberos nostros ardénter commendámus. Ipsos in tua patérna tutéla atque omnipoténti patrocínio collocámus, ut semper in sancto tui timóre succréscent, vitam pénitus cristiánam tradúcant, et non solum nobis, qui eis vitam dédimus, sed præsértim tibi, eorúndem Creatóri, solátium áfferant.

Vide, Dómine, úbinam géntium ipsi versántur; vide cállida blandiménta quibus úndique hómnes eórum mentes animúmque fallácibus doctrínis pravísque exémpis corrúmpere conántur. Ad ipsórum auxiliúm ac defensiónem, Dómine, vígila; nobisque concéde, ut, de permágnio perículo quod ante tuam divínam iustítiam prorsus exstat certióres facti, recto nostræ vitæ nostrorúmque morum exémplo, perfectíssima tuæ sanctæ legis ac Matris Ecclésiæ observántia, eos per virtútis ac mandatórum tuórum sémitas perdúcere valeámus; cuncta vero ópera nostra inánis evádet nisi Tu, omnípotens et miséricors Deus, tua cælésti benedictióne eam fecúndam reddíderis.

Hanc ígitur benedictiónem, ex imo corde ac fidéntes bonitáte magna et favóre nobis concéssis, a te pétimus pro nobis atque fíliis quos nobismetípsis donáre voluísti. Tibi, Dómine, eos consecrámus; Tu eos custódi tamquam tuórum oculórum pupíllam et sub alárum tuárum eósdem prótege, et éffice ut una simul cum ipsis ad cælum pervenire valeámus, grátias agéntes pro custódia quam, amábilis Pater, totíus famíliæ nostræ habuísti, et te in ætérna sácula laudántes. - Amen.

XII

A PRAYER TO BE SAID BY CHILDREN
IN BEHALF OF THEIR PARENTS

708

Almighty and everlasting God, who, in the secret counsels of Thine ineffable Providence, hast been pleased to call us into life by means of our parents, who thus partake of Thy divine power in our regard, mercifully hear the prayer of filial affection which we offer to Thee in behalf of those to whom Thou hast given a share of Thy fatherly mercy, in order that they might lavish upon us in our journey through life the consoling gift of Thy holy and generous love.

Dear Lord, fill our parents with Thy choicest blessings; enrich their souls with Thy holy grace; grant that they may faithfully and constantly guard that likeness to Thy mystic marriage with Thy Church, which Thou didst imprint upon them on the day of their nuptials. Fill them with the spirit of holy fear, which is the beginning of wisdom, and continually move them to impart the same to their children; in such wise may they ever walk in the way of Thy commandments, and may their children be their joy in this earthly exile and their crown of glory in their home in heaven.

Finally, Lord God, grant that both our father and our mother may attain to extreme old age and enjoy perpetual health in mind and body; may they deserve to sing Thy praises forever in our heavenly country in union with us, their children, giving Thee most hearty thanks that Thou hast bestowed upon them in this valley of tears the great gift of a share in the light of Thy infinite fruitfulness and of Thy divine fatherhood. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days (S. P. Ap., Nov. 25, 1936).

Omnípotens sempitérne Deus, qui per arcána tuæ ineffábilis providéntiæ consília, ad vitam nos vocáre dignátus es ópera paréntum nostrórum pro nobis tuam potestátem referéntium, exáudi filiális pietátis oratióem quam tibi offérimus pro iis, quibus paternórum tuórum víscerum misericórdiam comunicásti, ut super nostrum vitæ currículum tuæ sanctæ ac generósæ dilectiόνis levámen effúnderent.

Imple, Dómine, singuláribus tuis benedictiόνibus paréntes nostros; ipsórum ánimum tua sancta grátia adáuge; præsta ut ipsi fidéliter ac semper mýstici tui cum Ecclesiá connúbii imáginem custódiant, quam die suárum nuptiárum in eis sculpsísti. Tui sancti timóris spírítu, qui est sapiéntiæ princípium, eósdem reple, et quovis moménto ipsis suáde ut eúmdem in filiis suis infúndant atque ita semper in via mandatórum tuórum incédant, utque et in hoc terréno exsílio gáudium ipsórum, et in cælésti pátria corónam efformáre váleant. Tandem, Dómine Deus, éffice ut utríque ad extrémam senectútem, perpétua mentis et córporis sanitáte gaudéntes, perveníre queant, ut simul nobíscum, suis filiis, tuas laudes in cælésti pátria cantáre perénniter mereántur et úberes grátias agant ob magnum donum eísdem oblátum, ipsis concedéndo, in hac lacrimárum valle, lumen tuæ infinitæ fecunditátis tuæque divínæ paternitátis. Amen.

NOTE: A prayer for deceased parents is found under n. 552.

APPENDIX INDULGENCES
ATTACHED TO VISITING
CERTAIN HOLY PLACES IN ROME

I

A ROMAN PILGRIMAGE

709

The faithful who visit the more important sanctuaries of the Holy City, may gain:

A plenary indulgence, to be gained on the day of their departure, if they confess their sins, approach the holy Table and pray for the intentions of his Holiness, the Pope (S. P. Ap., April 4, 1932).

II

A VISIT TO THE TOMB AND STATUE OF SAINT PETER, APOSTLE, IN THE VATICAN BASILICA

710

a) The faithful who recite the Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be, three times before the tomb of St. Peter, the Apostle, in the Vatican Basilica, in gratitude to Almighty God for the privileges granted by Him to the same holy Apostle, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years.

b) Those who devoutly kiss the foot of the bronze statue of St. Peter, which stands in the aforesaid Basilica and pray for the intentions of the Holy Father, may gain:

An indulgence of 50 days (Brief, May 15, 1857; S. P. Ap., March 18, 1932).

III

THE VISIT TO THE SO-CALLED "SEVEN ALTARS" IN THE VATICAN BASILICA

711

The faithful who visit the following Seven Altars in the Vatican Basilica: 1° the Gregorian altar of the Blessed Virgin; 2° that of Ss. Processus and Martinian; 3° that of St. Michael the Archangel; 4° that of St. Petronilla, Virgin; 5° that of Our Lady of the Pillar; 6° that of the holy Apostles Simon and Jude; 7° that of St. Gregory the Great, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years for the visit to each of the seven altars, if they recite any prayer they may choose in honor of the Titular Saint of the altar;

A plenary indulgence on the Feast Day of the Titular Saint of a given altar, if they visit that altar as above, and confess their sins, receive Holy Communion and pray for the intentions of the Sovereign Pontiff;

A plenary indulgence, if they visit the seven altars in the aforesaid manner on the same day, according to the rule laid down in canon 923 of the Code of Canon Law, with the addition of confession, Communion and prayers for the intentions of the Pope (S. P. Ap., Oct. 2, 1935).

IV

A VISIT TO THE SACRED CRIB OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST IN THE BASILICA OF SAINT MARY MAJOR

712

Prayer

I adore Thee, O incarnate Word, the true Son of God from all eternity, and the true Son of Mary in the fulness of time. As I adore Thy divine Person and the sacred Humanity thereto united, I feel myself drawn to venerate likewise the poor Crib that welcomed Thee, when Thou wast a little Child, and which was, in very truth, the first throne of Thy love. Would that I could fall prostrate before it with the simplicity of the shepherds, with the faith of Joseph, and the love of Mary! Would that I too could bend low to venerate this precious memorial of our salvation with the spirit of mortification, poverty and humility, with which Thou, the Lord of heaven and earth, didst choose a manger to be the resting place of Thy dear limbs! And do Thou, O Lord, who didst deign in Thine infancy to be laid in this manger, pour into my heart a drop of that joy which must have been experienced at the sight of Thy lovely infancy and of the wonders that accompanied Thy birth; by virtue of this Thy holy birth, I implore Thee to give peace and goodwill to all the world, and, in the name of all mankind, to render perfect thanksgiving and infinite glory to Thine eternal Father, with whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, Thou livest and reignest one God, world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 500 days (Brief, Oct. 1, 1861; S. P. Ap., Feb. 21, 1933).

V

A VISIT TO THE SCALA SANTA

713

The faithful who ascend the Scala Santa (or Holy Stairs) in the city of Rome, whilst devoutly meditating on the Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ, are granted:

An indulgence of 9 years for each step, even if the ascent be interrupted;

A plenary indulgence, whenever they make the entire ascent, and confess their sins, partake of the Eucharistic Table and offer their prayers for the intentions of the Holy Father.

The same indulgence of 9 years is granted to the faithful, who make the ascent of one or the other of the two stairs to the right and left of the Scala Santa, from All Saints' Day to the end of the Octave of All Souls' Day, from Christmas Day to the Epiphany inclusive, as well as during the whole of Lent (S. C. Ind., Sept. 2, 1817 and July 23, 1898; Pius X, Rescript in his own hand, Feb. 26, 1908; S. P. Ap., Feb. 6, 1925).

VI

THE VISIT TO THE SO-CALLED "SEVEN CHURCHES"

714

The faithful who in one day, according to the rule of canon 923 of the Code of Canon Law, complete the devout visitation of the Seven Basilicas of the city of Rome, to wit, St. Peter's in the Vatican, St. Paul's outside the Walls, St. John Lateran, St. Mary Major, St. Sebastian's, St. Lawrence outside the Walls, and Holy Cross in Jerusalem; reciting in each Basilica Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be, five times before the altar of the Blessed Sacrament and the same prayers once more for the intentions of His Holiness the Pope; adding some prayer, according to their liking, to the Blessed Virgin Mary and to the Titular Saint of the respective Basilicas; and substituting, in memory of the Passion of our Lord in the Basilica of the Holy Cross in Jerusalem, the Apostles' Creed and the versicle "We Adore Thee, O Christ," etc., for the prayer to the Titular Saint, may gain:

A plenary indulgence for the visit to each of the Basilicas, on condition of confession and Holy Communion; in such a way, however, that if they are accidentally hindered from completing the entire pilgrimage through no fault of their own, they are not deprived by this interruption of the indulgences which they have gained by the visits already completed (S. P. Ap., Jan. 15, 1935).

VII

VISITS TO THE CHURCHES OF THE STATIONS

715

The faithful who on the days appointed in the Roman Missal, a) devoutly visit the churches of the Stations in Rome and attend the sacred functions which are held there, either in the morning or afternoon, according to custom or the express command of the Ordinary, may gain:

A plenary indulgence, on condition of confession, Communion and prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff;

b) in a Stational church, where no public service is held, if they recite the Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be, five times in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, and at least once for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff, they may gain:

A plenary indulgence, if they duly confess their sins and receive the Bread of Heaven;

c) If they merely visit the church of the Station and recite the prayers mentioned in b) above, they may gain:

An indulgence of 10 years (S. P. Ap., April 12, 1932).

ADDENDA

to

THE RACCOLTA

INDULGENCED PRAYERS AND DEVOTIONS APPROVED BY THE SACRED PENITENTIARY APOSTOLIC SINCE 1938

I

The plenary indulgence granted for each visit to a church, public or semi-public oratory (in the case of those who may lawfully use the latter) on the second day of November may be gained also on the Sunday following by those who did not obtain this indulgence on All Souls' Day. The usual conditions for gaining a plenary indulgence are to be observed; further, this indulgence is applicable only to the souls in purgatory (S. P. Ap., Jan. 2, 1939). Cf. num. 544 in the body of the Raccolta.

II

The faithful who with sentiments of piety and devotion receive the Papal Blessing when transmitted by radio, may gain:

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (S. P. Ap., June 15, 1939).

III

A Prayer to Christ Crucified

O Jesus, who, through Thy burning love for us, didst will to be nailed to the Cross and to shed Thy Precious Blood for the redemption and salvation of our souls, look upon us who, fully trusting in Thy mercy, are here gathered together in the remembrance of Thy most sorrowful passion and death: purify us, by Thy grace, from sin, hallow our labor, give unto us and all our dear ones our daily bread, sweeten our sorrows, bless our families, and grant unto the nations that are so sorely afflicted Thy peace, which is the only true peace, in order that we, being obedient to Thy commandments, may attain unto heavenly glory. Amen.

The faithful who, being at least contrite, devoutly recite this prayer at three o'clock on the afternoon of Good Friday, the hour at which our Lord Jesus Christ expired on the Cross, may gain:

An indulgence of 500 days (S. P. Ap., Jan. 15, 1940).

IV

When it seems advisable to conclude religious exercises that have been publicly conducted for a month in a church, a public or semi-public oratory (in the case of those who may lawfully use the latter), on a Feast day which is not the last day of the month, it is allowed, in order that the faithful may thereby more easily go to confession and receive Holy Communion at the end of the religious exercise or for any other just reason, to begin the aforesaid exercises on any day of the usually observed month or of the preceding month, provided that the exercises are continued for the space of thirty days (S. P. Ap., March 10, 1941). Cf. n. 428 (Note) in the body of the Raccolta.

V

The personal privilege granted to priests by the Motu Proprio Summa Solacio (May 12, 1942) is to be understood in such a way that priests may gain a plenary indulgence every time that they celebrate Mass, and apply it to a soul in purgatory as determined by them, independently of the application of the Mass (S. P. Ap., June 10, 1942).

VI

An Invocation to be said during Air-raids

My Jesus, mercy!

A plenary indulgence to be gained by the faithful who, being at least contrite, make an act of true love of God, and of sorrow for their sins (S. P. Ap., Dec. 23, 1942).

NOTE: This indulgence is valid only for the duration of the present war.

VII

A Prayer to the Most Holy Trinity

Most Holy Trinity, we adore Thee, and through Mary we entreat Thee: make all men one in the faith, and give them courage to profess it faithfully.

An indulgence of 300 days, if this prayer is said with at least a contrite heart.

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, once a month, provided that this prayer has been said daily throughout the month (S. P. Ap., Feb. 9, 1943).

Sanctíssima Trínitas, adorámus te, et per Mariám rogámus te. Da ómnibus unitátem in fide eámque fidéliter confiténdi animum.

VIII

An Invocation

Lord, save us: we perish (Matth., VIII, 25).

An indulgence of 500 days,

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions, if this invocation is piously recited every day for an entire month (S.P. Ap., Aug. 18, 1943).
